CHAPTER II

CHILDREN AND FAMILY COURT ADVISORY AND SUPPORT SERVICE

11 Establishment of the Service.

- (1) There shall be a body corporate to be known as the Children and Family Court Advisory and Support Service (referred to in this Part as the Service) which is to exercise the functions conferred on it by virtue of this Act and any other enactment.
- (2) Schedule 2 (which makes provision about the constitution of the Service, its powers and other matters relating to it) is to have effect.
- (3) References in this Act or any other enactment to an officer of the Service are references to—
 - (a) any member of the staff of the Service appointed under paragraph 5(1)(a) of that Schedule, and
 - (b) any other individual exercising functions of an officer of the Service by virtue of section 13(2) or (4).

12 Principal functions of the Service.

- (1) In respect of family proceedings in which the welfare of children [^{F9}other than children ordinarily resident in Wales] is or may be in question, it is a function of the Service to—
 - (a) safeguard and promote the welfare of the children,
 - (b) give advice to any court about any application made to it in such proceedings,
 - (c) make provision for the children to be represented in such proceedings,
 - (d) provide information, advice and other support for the children and their families.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000, Part I is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 April 2024. - (2) The Service must also make provision for the performance of any functions conferred on officers of the Service by virtue of this Act or any other enactment (whether or not they are exercisable for the purposes of the functions conferred on the Service by subsection (1)).
- (3) Regulations may provide for grants to be paid by the Service to any person for the purpose of furthering the performance of any of the Service’s functions.
- (4) The regulations may provide for the grants to be paid on conditions, including conditions—
 - (a) regulating the purposes for which the grant or any part of it may be used,
 - (b) requiring repayment to the Service in specified circumstances.
- (5) In this section, “family proceedings” has the same meaning as in the ^{M2}Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984 and also includes any other proceedings which are family proceedings for the purposes of the ^{M3}Children Act 1989, but—
 - (a) references to family proceedings include (where the context allows) family proceedings which are proposed or have been concluded, [^{F10}and]
 - ^{F10}(b)

C6 S. 20: transfer of functions (12.1.2004) by The Transfer of Functions \(Children, Young People and Families\) Order 2003 \(S.I. 2003/3191\), arts. 1(2), 3, 4

21 Effect of transfer of eligible employees.

(1) The contract of employment of an employee transferred under a scheme—

- (a) is not terminated by the transfer,
- (b) has effect from the date of transfer as if originally made between the employee and the transferee.

(2) Where an employee is transferred under a scheme—

- (a) all the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of the old employer under or in connection with the contract of employment are by virtue of this subsection transferred to the transferee on the date of transfer, and
- (b) anything done before that date by or in relation to the old employer in respect of that contract or the employee is to be treated from that date as having been done by or in relation to the transferee.

This subsection does not prejudice the generality of subsection (1).

(3) But if the employee informs the old employer or the transferee that he objects to the transfer—

- (a) subsections (1) and (2) do not transfer his contract of employment, or the rights, powers, duties and liabilities under or in connection with it, and
 - (b) the contract of employment is terminated immediately before the date of transfer.
- (4) An employee is not to be treated, for the purposes of the ^{M6}Employment Rights Act 1996, as having been dismissed by the old employer by reason of—
- (a) the transfer of his contract of employment under a scheme, or
 - (b) the termination of his contract of employment by virtue of subsection (3).

^{F21}(5)

- (6) This section does not prejudice any right of an employee to terminate his contract of employment if a substantial change is made to his detriment in his working conditions.

But no such right arises by reason only that, by virtue of this section, the identity of his employer changes unless the employee shows that, in all the circumstances, the change is a significant change and is to his detriment.

- (7) In this section—
 - “date of transfer” means the date of transfer determined under the scheme in relation to the employee,
 - “scheme” means a scheme made by virtue of section 20,
 - “transferee” means the new employer to whom the employee is or would be transferred under the scheme.

- (2) The [^{F23}Secretary of State] may by order make a scheme for the transfer to the other person (the “transferee”) of any person (an “eligible employee”) employed under a contract of employment with the transferor on work which would have continued but for the implementation or termination of the arrangements.
- (3) A scheme may apply—
 - (a) to all, or any description of, eligible employees, or
 - (b) to any individual eligible employee.
- (4) A scheme may be made only if any directions about consultation given by the [^{F23}Secretary of State] have been complied with in relation to each of the eligible employees to be transferred in pursuance of the scheme.
- (5) Section 21 (except subsection (5) and the definitions of “scheme” and “transferee”) applies to a scheme made by virtue of this section as it applies to a scheme made by virtue of section 20, and as if “old employer” and “transferee” had the same meanings as in this section.
