2000 CHAPTER 8

PART XVIII

RECOGNISED INVESTMENT EXCHANGES AND CLEARING HOUSES

CHAPTER I

EXEMPTION

Supervision

293 Notification requirements.

- (1) The [<sup>F1</sup>appropriate regulator] may make rules requiring a recognised body to give it—
  - (a) notice of such events relating to the body as may be specified; and
  - (b) such information in respect of those events as may be specified.
- (2) The rules may also require a recognised body to give the [<sup>F1</sup>appropriate regulator], at such times or in respect of such periods as may be specified, such information relating to the body as may be specified.
- (3) An obligation imposed by the rules extends only to a notice or information which the [<sup>F1</sup>appropriate regulator] may reasonably require for the exercise of its functions under this Act.
- (4) The rules may require information to be given in a specified form and to be verified in a specified manner.
- (5) If a recognised body—
  - (a) alters or revokes any of its rules or guidance, or
  - (b) makes new rules or issues new guidance,it must give written notice to the [<sup>F2</sup>appropriate regulator] without delay.

Status: Point in time view as at 24/01/2013.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Cross Heading: Supervision is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) If a recognised investment exchange makes a change—
- (a) in the arrangements it makes for the provision [<sup>F3</sup>by another person] of clearing services in respect of transactions effected on the exchange, or
  - (b) in the criteria which it applies when determining to whom it will provide [<sup>F4</sup>services falling within section 285(2)(b)],
- it must give written notice to [<sup>F5</sup>the FCA and the Bank of England] without delay.
- (7) If a recognised clearing house makes a change—
- (a) in the recognised investment exchanges for whom it provides clearing services [<sup>F6</sup>or services falling within section 285(3)(b)], or
  - (b) in the criteria which it applies when determining to whom (other than recognised investment exchanges) it will provide clearing services [<sup>F7</sup>or services falling within section 285(3)(b)],
- it must give written notice to [<sup>F8</sup>the Bank of England and the FCA] without delay.
- (8) Subsections (5) to (7) do not apply to an overseas investment exchange or an overseas clearing house.
- (9) “Specified” means specified in [<sup>F9</sup>the appropriate regulator's] rules.

294 Modification or waiver of rules.

- (1) The [<sup>F11</sup>appropriate regulator] may, on the application or with the consent of a recognised body, direct that rules made under section 293 or 295—
  - (a) are not to apply to the body; or
  - (b) are to apply to the body with such modifications as may be specified in the direction.
- (2) An application must be made in such manner as the [<sup>F12</sup>appropriate regulator] may direct.
- (3) Subsections (4) to (6) apply to a direction given under subsection (1).
- (4) The [<sup>F13</sup>appropriate regulator] may not give a direction unless it is satisfied that—
  - (a) compliance by the recognised body with the rules, or with the rules as unmodified, would be unduly burdensome or would not achieve the purpose for which the rules were made; and
  - (b) the direction would not result in undue risk to persons whose interests the rules are intended to protect.
- (5) A direction may be given subject to conditions.
- (6) The [<sup>F14</sup>appropriate regulator] may—
  - (a) revoke a direction; or
  - (b) vary it on the application, or with the consent, of the recognised body to which it relates.

296 [F<sup>19</sup>Appropriate regulator's] power to give directions.

- (1) This section applies if it appears to [F<sup>20</sup>the appropriate regulator] that a recognised body—
- (a) has failed, or is likely to fail, to satisfy the recognition requirements; or
  - (b) has failed to comply with any other obligation imposed on it by or under this Act.

[F<sup>21</sup>(1A) This section also applies [F<sup>22</sup>if it appears to the appropriate regulator that a recognised body] has failed, or is likely to fail, to comply with any obligation imposed on it by any [F<sup>23</sup>directly applicable EU regulation specified (or of a description specified) in an order made by the Treasury].]

- (2) [F<sup>24</sup>The regulator concerned] may direct the body to take specified steps for the purpose of securing the body's compliance with—
- (a) the recognition requirements; or
  - (b) any obligation of the kind in question.

[F<sup>25</sup>(2A) In the case of [F<sup>26</sup>a recognised body other than an overseas investment exchange or overseas clearing house], those steps may include—

- (a) the granting to [F<sup>27</sup>the regulator concerned] of access to the premises of [F<sup>28</sup>the body] for the purpose of inspecting—
  - (i) those premises; or
  - (ii) any documents on the premises which appear to [F<sup>27</sup>the regulator concerned] to be relevant for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2);
- (b) the suspension of the carrying on of any regulated activity by [F<sup>29</sup>the body] for the period specified in the direction.]

- (3) A direction under this section is enforceable, on the application of [F<sup>30</sup>the regulator concerned], by an injunction or, in Scotland, by an order for specific performance under section 45 of the <sup>M1</sup>Court of Session Act 1988.

- (4) The fact that a rule made by a recognised body has been altered in response to a direction given by [F<sup>31</sup>an appropriate regulator] does not prevent it from being subsequently altered or revoked by the recognised body.

it may make an order revoking the recognition order for that body even though the body does not wish the order to be made.
- (2B) The “relevant day”, for the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2A), is the day on which the power to make an order under that subsection is exercised.
- (2C) Subsection (2A) does not apply to an overseas investment exchange [<sup>F40</sup>or overseas clearing house].]
- (3) An order under this section (“a revocation order”) must specify the date on which it is to take effect.
- (4) In the case of a revocation order made under subsection (2) [<sup>F41</sup>or (2A)], the specified date must not be earlier than the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which the order is made.
- (5) A revocation order may contain such transitional provisions as [<sup>F42</sup>the appropriate regulator] thinks necessary or expedient.
- [<sup>F43</sup>(6) Where [<sup>F44</sup>the appropriate regulator] makes an order revoking the recognition order for a body that is a recognised investment exchange, it must notify ESMA.]

298 Directions and revocation: procedure.

- (1) Before giving a direction under section 296 [<sup>F45</sup>or 296A], or making a revocation order under section 297(2) [<sup>F46</sup>or (2A)], [<sup>F47</sup>the appropriate regulator] must—
- (a) give written notice of its intention to do so to the recognised body concerned;
  - (b) take such steps as it considers reasonably practicable to bring the notice to the attention of members (if any) of that body; and
  - (c) publish the notice in such manner as it thinks appropriate for bringing it to the attention of other persons who are, in its opinion, likely to be affected.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must—
- (a) state why [<sup>F48</sup>the appropriate regulator] intends to give the direction or make the order; and
  - (b) draw attention to the right to make representations conferred by subsection (3).
- (3) Before the end of the period for making representations—
- (a) the recognised body,
  - (b) any member of that body, and
  - (c) any other person who is likely to be affected by the proposed direction or revocation order,
- may make representations to [<sup>F49</sup>the appropriate regulator].
- (4) The period for making representations is—
- (a) two months beginning—
    - (i) with the date on which the notice is served on the recognised body; or
    - (ii) if later, with the date on which the notice is published; or
  - (b) such longer period as the Authority may allow in the particular case.
- (5) In deciding whether to—
- (a) give a direction, or
  - (b) make a revocation order,
- [<sup>F50</sup>the appropriate regulator] must have regard to any representations made in accordance with subsection (3).

- (6) When [<sup>F51</sup>the appropriate regulator] has decided whether to give a direction under section 296 [<sup>F52</sup>or 296A] or to make the proposed revocation order, it must—
- (a) give the recognised body written notice of its decision; and
  - (b) if it has decided to give a direction or make an order, take such steps as it considers reasonably practicable for bringing its decision to the attention of members of the body or of other persons who are, in the Authority’s opinion, likely to be affected.
- (7) If [<sup>F53</sup>the appropriate regulator] considers it essential to do so, it may give a direction under section 296 [<sup>F54</sup>or 296A]—
- (a) without following the procedure set out in this section; or
  - (b) if [<sup>F53</sup>the appropriate regulator] has begun to follow that procedure, regardless of whether the period for making representations has expired.
- (8) If [<sup>F55</sup>the appropriate regulator] has, in relation to a particular matter, followed the procedure set out in subsections (1) to (5), it need not follow it again if, in relation to that matter, it decides to take action other than that specified in its notice under subsection (1).
