Injunctions

380 Injunctions.

- (1) If, on the application of the [<sup>F1</sup>appropriate regulator] or the Secretary of State, the court is satisfied—
- (a) that there is a reasonable likelihood that any person will contravene a relevant requirement, or
  - (b) that any person has contravened a relevant requirement and that there is a reasonable likelihood that the contravention will continue or be repeated,
- the court may make an order restraining (or in Scotland an interdict prohibiting) the contravention.

Status: Point in time view as at 29/06/2017.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part XXV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If on the application of the [F1appropriate regulator] or the Secretary of State the court is satisfied—
- (a) that any person has contravened a relevant requirement, and
  - (b) that there are steps which could be taken for remedying the contravention,
- the court may make an order requiring that person, and any other person who appears to have been knowingly concerned in the contravention, to take such steps as the court may direct to remedy it.
- (3) If, on the application of the [F1appropriate regulator] or the Secretary of State, the court is satisfied that any person may have—
- (a) contravened a relevant requirement, or
  - (b) been knowingly concerned in the contravention of such a requirement,
- it may make an order restraining (or in Scotland an interdict prohibiting) him from disposing of, or otherwise dealing with, any assets of his which it is satisfied he is reasonably likely to dispose of or otherwise deal with.
- (4) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is exercisable by the High Court and the Court of Session.
- (5) In subsection (2), references to remedying a contravention include references to mitigating its effect.
- (6) “Relevant requirement”—
- (a) in relation to an application by the [F2appropriate regulator], means a requirement—
    - (i) [F3which is imposed by or under this Act or by a qualifying EU provision specified, or of a description specified, for the purposes of this subsection by the Treasury by order]<sup>F4</sup>...
    - (ii) which is imposed by or under any other Act and whose contravention constitutes an offence [F5mentioned in section 402(1)];<sup>F6</sup>[F7]...
    - (iii) which is imposed by the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013;<sup>F8</sup>[F9]...
    - (iv) which is imposed by Part 7 of the Financial Services Act 2012 (offences relating to financial services) and whose contravention constitutes an offence under that Part;<sup>F10</sup>or
    - F11 which is imposed by a provision made in accordance with the transparency obligations directive (within the meaning of section 103(1));<sup>F12</sup>, or
    - (vi) which is imposed by the Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities Regulations 2011.]
  - (b) in relation to an application by the Secretary of State, means a requirement which is imposed by or under this Act and whose contravention constitutes an offence which the Secretary of State has power to prosecute under this Act.
- (7) In the application of subsection (6) to Scotland—
- <sup>F13</sup>(a) .....
  - (b) in paragraph (b) omit “which the Secretary of State has power to prosecute under this Act”.
- F14 The PRA is the “appropriate regulator” in the case of a contravention of—
- (a) a requirement that is imposed by the PRA under any provision of this Act,

Status: Point in time view as at 29/06/2017.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part XXV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a requirement under section 56(6) where the authorised person concerned is a PRA-authorised person and the prohibition order concerned is made by the PRA, or
  - (c) a requirement under section 59(1) or (2) where the authorised person concerned is a PRA-authorised person and the approval concerned falls to be given by the PRA.
- (9) In the case of a contravention of a requirement that is imposed by a qualifying EU provision, “the appropriate regulator” is whichever of the PRA or the FCA (or both) is specified by the Treasury by order in relation to the qualifying EU provision for the purposes of this section.
- (10) In the case of a contravention of a requirement where the contravention constitutes an offence under this Act, the “appropriate regulator” is whichever of the PRA or the FCA has power to prosecute the offence (see section 401).
- (11) The FCA is the “appropriate regulator” in the case of a contravention of any other requirement.
- (12) The Treasury may by order amend the definition of “appropriate regulator”.]

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)*

- (2) The court may order the person concerned to pay to the [<sup>F27</sup>regulator concerned] such sum as appears to the court to be just having regard—
- (a) in a case within paragraph (a) of subsection (1), to the profits appearing to the court to have accrued;
  - (b) in a case within paragraph (b) of that subsection, to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect;
  - (c) in a case within both of those paragraphs, to the profits appearing to the court to have accrued and to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect.
- (3) Any amount paid to the [<sup>F28</sup>regulator concerned] in pursuance of an order under subsection (2) must be paid by it to such qualifying person or distributed by it among such qualifying persons as the court may direct.
- (4) On an application under subsection (1) the court may require the person concerned to supply it with such accounts or other information as it may require for any one or more of the following purposes—
- (a) establishing whether any and, if so, what profits have accrued to him as mentioned in paragraph (a) of that subsection;
  - (b) establishing whether any person or persons have suffered any loss or adverse effect as mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection and, if so, the extent of that loss or adverse effect; and
  - (c) determining how any amounts are to be paid or distributed under subsection (3).
- (5) The court may require any accounts or other information supplied under subsection (4) to be verified in such manner as it may direct.
- (6) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is exercisable by the High Court and the Court of Session.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects the right of any person other than the [<sup>F29</sup>appropriate regulator] or the Secretary of State to bring proceedings in respect of the matters to which this section applies.
- (8) “Qualifying person” means a person appearing to the court to be someone—
- (a) to whom the profits mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are attributable; or
  - (b) who has suffered the loss or adverse effect mentioned in subsection (1)(b).
- (9) “Relevant requirement”—
- (a) in relation to an application by the [<sup>F30</sup>appropriate regulator], means a requirement—

383 Restitution orders in cases of market abuse.

[<sup>F39</sup>(1) The court may, on the application of the FCA, make an order under subsection (4) if it is satisfied that—

- (a) a person (“the person concerned”) has contravened Article 14 (prohibition of insider dealing and of unlawful disclosure of inside information) or Article 15 (prohibition of market manipulation) of the market abuse regulation; and
- (b) the condition mentioned in subsection (2) is fulfilled.]

(2) The condition is—

- (a) that profits have accrued to the person concerned as a result; or
- (b) that one or more persons have suffered loss or been otherwise adversely affected as a result.

Status: Point in time view as at 29/06/2017.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, Part XXV is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 15 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The court may order the person concerned to pay to the [<sup>F41</sup>FCA] such sum as appears to the court to be just having regard—
  - (a) in a case within paragraph (a) of subsection (2), to the profits appearing to the court to have accrued;
  - (b) in a case within paragraph (b) of that subsection, to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect;
  - (c) in a case within both of those paragraphs, to the profits appearing to the court to have accrued and to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect.
- (5) Any amount paid to the [<sup>F42</sup>FCA] in pursuance of an order under subsection (4) must be paid by it to such qualifying person or distributed by it among such qualifying persons as the court may direct.
- (6) On an application under subsection (1) the court may require the person concerned to supply it with such accounts or other information as it may require for any one or more of the following purposes—
  - (a) establishing whether any and, if so, what profits have accrued to him as mentioned in subsection (2)(a);
  - (b) establishing whether any person or persons have suffered any loss or adverse effect as mentioned in subsection (2)(b) and, if so, the extent of that loss or adverse effect; and
  - (c) determining how any amounts are to be paid or distributed under subsection (5).
- (7) The court may require any accounts or other information supplied under subsection (6) to be verified in such manner as it may direct.
- (8) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is exercisable by the High Court and the Court of Session.
- (9) Nothing in this section affects the right of any person other than the [<sup>F43</sup>FCA] to bring proceedings in respect of the matters to which this section applies.
- (10) “Qualifying person” means a person appearing to the court to be someone—
  - (a) to whom the profits mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) are attributable; or
  - (b) who has suffered the loss or adverse effect mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection.

384 Power of [F45 FCA or PRA] to require restitution.

- (1) [F46 The appropriate regulator] may exercise the power in subsection (5) if it is satisfied that an authorised person [F47 or recognised investment exchange] (“the person concerned”) has contravened a relevant requirement, or been knowingly concerned in the contravention of such a requirement, and—
- (a) that profits have accrued to him as a result of the contravention; or
  - (b) that one or more persons have suffered loss or been otherwise adversely affected as a result of the contravention.
- [F48 (2) The FCA may exercise the power in subsection (5) if it is satisfied that—
- (a) a person (“the person concerned”) has contravened Article 14 (prohibition of insider dealing and of unlawful disclosure of inside information) or Article 15 (prohibition of market manipulation) of the market abuse regulation; and
  - (b) the condition mentioned in subsection (3) is fulfilled.]
- (3) The condition is—
- (a) that profits have accrued to the person concerned as a result of the [F49 contravention of Article 14 or 15 of the market abuse regulation]; or
  - (b) that one or more persons have suffered loss or been otherwise adversely affected as a result of the [F49 contravention of Article 14 or 15 of the market abuse regulation].
- [F50 (4) . . . . .
- (5) The power referred to in subsections (1) and (2) is a power to require the person concerned, in accordance with such arrangements as the [F51 regulator exercising the power (“the regulator concerned”)] considers appropriate, to pay to the appropriate person or distribute among the appropriate persons such amount as appears to the [F52 regulator concerned] to be just having regard—
- (a) in a case within paragraph (a) of subsection (1) or (3), to the profits appearing to the [F52 regulator concerned] to have accrued;
  - (b) in a case within paragraph (b) of subsection (1) or (3), to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect;
  - (c) in a case within paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) or (3), to the profits appearing to the [F52 regulator concerned] to have accrued and to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect.
- (6) “Appropriate person” means a person appearing to the [F53 regulator concerned] to be someone—
- (a) to whom the profits mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) or (3) are attributable; or
  - (b) who has suffered the loss or adverse effect mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) or (3).
