

These notes refer to the House Of Commons (Removal of Clergy Disqualification) Act 2001 (c.13) which received Royal Assent on 11 May 2001

HOUSE OF COMMONS (REMOVAL OF CLERGY DISQUALIFICATION) ACT 2001

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SUMMARY

3. The Act removes any disqualification from membership of the House of Commons that arises by reason of a person having been ordained or being a Minister of a religious denomination, but continues the disqualification of Lords Spiritual from such membership.