10 Assumptions to be made in case of criminal lifestyle

- (1) If the court decides under section 6 that the defendant has a criminal lifestyle it must make the following four assumptions for the purpose of—
  - (a) deciding whether he has benefited from his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) deciding his benefit from the conduct.
- (2) The first assumption is that any property transferred to the defendant at any time after the relevant day was obtained by him—
  - (a) as a result of his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) at the earliest time he appears to have held it.
- (3) The second assumption is that any property held by the defendant at any time after the date of conviction was obtained by him—
  - (a) as a result of his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) at the earliest time he appears to have held it.
- (4) The third assumption is that any expenditure incurred by the defendant at any time after the relevant day was met from property obtained by him as a result of his general criminal conduct.
- (5) The fourth assumption is that, for the purpose of valuing any property obtained (or assumed to have been obtained) by the defendant, he obtained it free of any other interests in it.
- (6) But the court must not make a required assumption in relation to particular property or expenditure if—
  - (a) the assumption is shown to be incorrect, or
  - (b) there would be a serious risk of injustice if the assumption were made.
- (7) If the court does not make one or more of the required assumptions it must state its reasons.
- (8) The relevant day is the first day of the period of six years ending with—
  - (a) the day when proceedings for the offence concerned were started against the defendant, or
  - (b) if there are two or more offences and proceedings for them were started on different days, the earliest of those days.

- (9) But if a confiscation order mentioned in section 8(3)(c) has been made against the defendant at any time during the period mentioned in subsection (8)—
- (a) the relevant day is the day when the defendant's benefit was calculated for the purposes of the last such confiscation order;
  - (b) the second assumption does not apply to any property which was held by him on or before the relevant day.
- (10) The date of conviction is—
- (a) the date on which the defendant was convicted of the offence concerned, or
  - (b) if there are two or more offences and the convictions were on different dates, the date of the latest.

- (a) there is property held by the defendant that is likely to be realised or otherwise used to satisfy the order, and
  - (b) a person other than the defendant holds, or may hold, an interest in the property,
- the court may, if it thinks it appropriate to do so, determine the extent (at the time the confiscation order is made) of the defendant's interest in the property.
- (2) The court must not exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) unless it gives to anyone who the court thinks is or may be a person holding an interest in the property a reasonable opportunity to make representations to it.
- (3) A determination under this section is conclusive in relation to any question as to the extent of the defendant's interest in the property that arises in connection with—
- (a) the realisation of the property, or the transfer of an interest in the property, with a view to satisfying the confiscation order, or
  - (b) any action or proceedings taken for the purposes of any such realisation or transfer.
- (4) Subsection (3)—
- (a) is subject to section 51(8B), and
  - (b) does not apply in relation to a question that arises in proceedings before the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court.

21 Order made: reconsideration of benefit

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a court has made a confiscation order,
  - (b) there is evidence which was not available to the prosecutor<sup>F83</sup>... at the relevant time,
  - (c) the prosecutor<sup>F84</sup>... believes that if the court were to find the amount of the defendant's benefit in pursuance of this section it would exceed the relevant amount,
  - (d) before the end of the period of six years starting with the date of conviction the prosecutor<sup>F85</sup>... applies to the Crown Court to consider the evidence, and
  - (e) after considering the evidence the court believes it is appropriate for it to proceed under this section.
- (2) The court must make a new calculation of the defendant's benefit from the conduct concerned, and when it does so subsections (3) to (6) below apply.
- (3) If a court has already sentenced the defendant for the offence (or any of the offences) concerned section 6 has effect as if his particular criminal conduct included conduct which constitutes offences which the court has taken into consideration in deciding his sentence for the offence or offences concerned.
- (4) Section 8(2) does not apply, and the rules applying instead are that the court must—
- (a) take account of conduct occurring up to the time it decided the defendant's benefit for the purposes of the confiscation order;
  - (b) take account of property obtained up to that time;
  - (c) take account of property obtained after that time if it was obtained as a result of or in connection with conduct occurring before that time.
- (5) In applying section 8(5) the confiscation order must be ignored.
- (6) In section 10—
- (a) the first and second assumptions do not apply with regard to property first held by the defendant after the time the court decided his benefit for the purposes of the confiscation order;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/03/2016.

*Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 20 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (b) the third assumption does not apply with regard to expenditure incurred by him after that time;
  - (c) the fourth assumption does not apply with regard to property obtained (or assumed to have been obtained) by him after that time.
- (7) If the amount found under the new calculation of the defendant's benefit exceeds the relevant amount the court—
- (a) must make a new calculation of the recoverable amount for the purposes of section 6, and
  - (b) if it exceeds the amount required to be paid under the confiscation order, may vary the order by substituting for the amount required to be paid such amount as it believes is just.
- (8) In applying subsection (7)(a) the court must—
- (a) take the new calculation of the defendant's benefit;
  - (b) apply section 9 as if references to the time the confiscation order is made were to the time of the new calculation of the recoverable amount and as if references to the date of the confiscation order were to the date of that new calculation.
- (9) In applying subsection (7)(b) the court must have regard in particular to—
- (a) any fine imposed on the defendant for the offence (or any of the offences) concerned;
  - (b) any order which falls within section 13(3) and has been made against him in respect of the offence (or any of the offences) concerned and has not already been taken into account by the court in deciding what is the free property held by him for the purposes of section 9;

- (10) But in applying subsection (7)(b) the court must not have regard to an order falling within subsection (9)(c) <sup>F88</sup>, (ca) <sup>F89</sup> or (d)] if a court has made a direction under section 13(6).
- (11) In deciding under this section whether one amount exceeds another the court must take account of any change in the value of money.
- (12) The relevant time is—
- (a) when the court calculated the defendant's benefit for the purposes of the confiscation order, if this section has not applied previously;
  - (b) when the court last calculated the defendant's benefit in pursuance of this section, if this section has applied previously.
- (13) The relevant amount is—

- (6) If the court decides under subsection (5)(b) or (c) that the accused has benefited from the conduct referred to—
- (a) it must decide the recoverable amount, and
  - (b) it must make an order (a confiscation order) requiring him to pay that amount.
- [<sup>F255</sup>Paragraph (b) applies only if, or to the extent that, it would not be disproportionate to require the accused to pay the recoverable amount.]
- (7) But the court must treat the duty in subsection (6) as a power if it believes that any victim of the conduct has at any time started or intends to start proceedings against the accused in respect of loss, injury or damage sustained in connection with the conduct.
- (8) Before making an order under this section the court must take into account any representations made to it by any person whom the court thinks is likely to be affected by the order.

  - (b) the total of the values (at that time) of all tainted gifts.

96 Assumptions to be made in case of criminal lifestyle

- (1) Where the court decides under section 92 that the accused has a criminal lifestyle it must make the following four assumptions for the purpose of—
  - (a) deciding whether he has benefited from his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) deciding his benefit from the conduct.
- (2) The first assumption is that any property transferred to the accused at any time after the relevant day was obtained by him—
  - (a) as a result of his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) at the earliest time he appears to have held it.
- (3) The second assumption is that any property held by the accused at any time after the date of conviction was obtained by him—
  - (a) as a result of his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) at the earliest time he appears to have held it.
- (4) The third assumption is that any expenditure incurred by the accused at any time after the relevant day was met from property obtained by him as a result of his general criminal conduct.
- (5) The fourth assumption is that, for the purpose of valuing any property obtained (or assumed to have been obtained) by the accused, he obtained it free of any other interests in it.
- (6) But the court must not make any of those assumptions in relation to particular property or expenditure if—
  - (a) the assumption is shown to be incorrect, or
  - (b) there would be a serious risk of injustice if the assumption were made.
- (7) If the court does not make one or more of those assumptions it must state its reasons.
- (8) The relevant day is the first day of the period of six years ending with—
  - (a) the day when proceedings for the offence concerned were instituted against the accused, or
  - (b) if there are two or more offences and proceedings for them were instituted on different days, the earliest of those days.
- (9) But if a confiscation order mentioned in section 94(3)(c) has been made against the accused at any time during the period mentioned in subsection (8)—
  - (a) the relevant day is the day when the accused's benefit was calculated for the purposes of the last such confiscation order;
  - (b) the second assumption does not apply to any property which was held by him on or before the relevant day.
- (10) The date of conviction is—
  - (a) the date on which the accused was convicted of the offence concerned, or
  - (b) if there are two or more offences and the convictions are on different dates, the date of the latest.

  - (c) the prosecutor believes that if the court were to find the amount of the accused's benefit in pursuance of this section it would exceed the relevant amount,
  - (d) before the end of the period of six years starting with the date of conviction the prosecutor applies to the court to consider the evidence, and
  - (e) after considering the evidence the court thinks it is appropriate for it to proceed under this section.
- (2) The court must make a new calculation of the accused's benefit from the conduct concerned, and when it does so subsections (3) to (5) below apply.
- (3) Section 94(2) does not apply, and the rules applying instead are that the court must take account of—
  - (a) conduct occurring up to the time it decided the accused's benefit for the purposes of the confiscation order;
  - (b) property obtained up to that time;
  - (c) property obtained after that time if it was obtained as a result of or in connection with conduct occurring before that time.
- (4) In applying section 94(3) the confiscation order must be ignored.

  - (b) the third assumption does not apply with regard to expenditure incurred by him after that time;
  - (c) the fourth assumption does not apply with regard to property obtained (or assumed to have been obtained) by him after that time.
- (6) If the amount found under the new calculation of the accused's benefit exceeds the relevant amount the court—
  - (a) must make a new calculation of the recoverable amount for the purposes of section 92, and
  - (b) if it exceeds the amount required to be paid under the confiscation order, may vary the order by substituting for the amount required to be paid such amount as it believes just.
- (7) In applying subsection (6)(a) the court must—
  - (a) take the new calculation of the accused's benefit;
  - (b) apply section 95 as if references to the time the confiscation order is made were to the time of the new calculation of the recoverable amount and as if

Vesting and realisation of recoverable property

266 Recovery orders

- (1) If in proceedings under this Chapter the court is satisfied that any property is recoverable, the court must make a recovery order.
- (2) The recovery order must vest the recoverable property in the trustee for civil recovery.
- (3) But the court may not make in a recovery order—
  - (a) any provision in respect of any recoverable property if each of the conditions in subsection (4) or (as the case may be) (5) is met and it would not be just and equitable to do so, or
  - (b) any provision which is incompatible with any of the Convention rights (within the meaning of the Human Rights Act 1998 (c. 42)).
- (4) In relation to a court in England and Wales or Northern Ireland, the conditions referred to in subsection (3)(a) are that—
  - (a) the respondent obtained the recoverable property in good faith,
  - (b) he took steps after obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not obtained it or he took steps before obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not believed he was going to obtain it,
  - (c) when he took the steps, he had no notice that the property was recoverable,
  - (d) if a recovery order were made in respect of the property, it would, by reason of the steps, be detrimental to him.
- (5) In relation to a court in Scotland, the conditions referred to in subsection (3)(a) are that—
  - (a) the respondent obtained the recoverable property in good faith,
  - (b) he took steps after obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not obtained it or he took steps before obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not believed he was going to obtain it,
  - (c) when he took the steps, he had no reasonable grounds for believing that the property was recoverable,
  - (d) if a recovery order were made in respect of the property, it would, by reason of the steps, be detrimental to him.
- (6) In deciding whether it would be just and equitable to make the provision in the recovery order where the conditions in subsection (4) or (as the case may be) (5) are met, the court must have regard to—
  - (a) the degree of detriment that would be suffered by the respondent if the provision were made,
  - (b) the enforcement authority's interest in receiving the realised proceeds of the recoverable property.
- (7) A recovery order may sever any property.

- (8) A recovery order may impose conditions as to the manner in which the trustee for civil recovery may deal with any property vested by the order for the purpose of realising it.
- [<sup>F526</sup>(8A) A recovery order made by a court in England and Wales or Northern Ireland may provide for payment under section 280 of reasonable legal expenses that a person has reasonably incurred, or may reasonably incur, in respect of—
- (a) the proceedings under this Part in which the order is made, or
  - (b) any related proceedings under this Part.
- (8B) If regulations under section 286B apply to an item of expenditure, a sum in respect of the item is not payable under section 280 in pursuance of provision under subsection (8A) unless—
- (a) the enforcement authority agrees to its payment, or
  - (b) the court has assessed the amount allowed by the regulations in respect of that item and the sum is paid in respect of the assessed amount.]
