8 Defendant's benefit

- (1) If the court is proceeding under section 6 this section applies for the purpose of—
  - (a) deciding whether the defendant has benefited from conduct, and
  - (b) deciding his benefit from the conduct.
- (2) The court must—
  - (a) take account of conduct occurring up to the time it makes its decision;
  - (b) take account of property obtained up to that time.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
  - (a) the conduct concerned is general criminal conduct,
  - (b) a confiscation order mentioned in subsection (5) has at an earlier time been made against the defendant, and
  - (c) his benefit for the purposes of that order was benefit from his general criminal conduct.
- (4) His benefit found at the time the last confiscation order mentioned in subsection (3)(c) was made against him must be taken for the purposes of this section to be his benefit from his general criminal conduct at that time.
- (5) If the conduct concerned is general criminal conduct the court must deduct the aggregate of the following amounts—
  - (a) the amount ordered to be paid under each confiscation order previously made against the defendant;
  - (b) the amount ordered to be paid under each confiscation order previously made against him under any of the provisions listed in subsection (7).
- (6) But subsection (5) does not apply to an amount which has been taken into account for the purposes of a deduction under that subsection on any earlier occasion.
- (7) These are the provisions—
  - (a) the Drug Trafficking Offences Act 1986 (c. 32);
  - (b) Part 1 of the Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 1987 (c. 41);
  - (c) Part 6 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (c. 33);
  - (d) the Criminal Justice (Confiscation) (Northern Ireland) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990/2588 (N.I. 17));
  - (e) Part 1 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994 (c. 37);
  - (f) Part 1 of the Proceeds of Crime (Scotland) Act 1995 (c. 43);
  - (g) the Proceeds of Crime (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 (S.I. 1996/1299 (N.I. 9));
  - (h) Part 3 or 4 of this Act.
- (8) The reference to general criminal conduct in the case of a confiscation order made under any of the provisions listed in subsection (7) is a reference to conduct in respect of which a court is required or entitled to make one or more assumptions for the purpose of assessing a person's benefit from the conduct.

9 Available amount

- (1) For the purposes of deciding the recoverable amount, the available amount is the aggregate of—
  - (a) the total of the values (at the time the confiscation order is made) of all the free property then held by the defendant minus the total amount payable in pursuance of obligations which then have priority, and
  - (b) the total of the values (at that time) of all tainted gifts.
- (2) An obligation has priority if it is an obligation of the defendant—
  - (a) to pay an amount due in respect of a fine or other order of a court which was imposed or made on conviction of an offence and at any time before the time the confiscation order is made, or
  - (b) to pay a sum which would be included among the preferential debts if the defendant's bankruptcy had commenced on the date of the confiscation order or his winding up had been ordered on that date.
- (3) "Preferential debts" has the meaning given by section 386 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (c. 45).

10 Assumptions to be made in case of criminal lifestyle

- (1) If the court decides under section 6 that the defendant has a criminal lifestyle it must make the following four assumptions for the purpose of—
  - (a) deciding whether he has benefited from his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) deciding his benefit from the conduct.
- (2) The first assumption is that any property transferred to the defendant at any time after the relevant day was obtained by him—
  - (a) as a result of his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) at the earliest time he appears to have held it.
- (3) The second assumption is that any property held by the defendant at any time after the date of conviction was obtained by him—
  - (a) as a result of his general criminal conduct, and
  - (b) at the earliest time he appears to have held it.
- (4) The third assumption is that any expenditure incurred by the defendant at any time after the relevant day was met from property obtained by him as a result of his general criminal conduct.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/06/2015.

Changes to legislation: Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, Part 2 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 24 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The fourth assumption is that, for the purpose of valuing any property obtained (or assumed to have been obtained) by the defendant, he obtained it free of any other interests in it.
- (6) But the court must not make a required assumption in relation to particular property or expenditure if—
  - (a) the assumption is shown to be incorrect, or
  - (b) there would be a serious risk of injustice if the assumption were made.
- (7) If the court does not make one or more of the required assumptions it must state its reasons.
- (8) The relevant day is the first day of the period of six years ending with—
  - (a) the day when proceedings for the offence concerned were started against the defendant, or
  - (b) if there are two or more offences and proceedings for them were started on different days, the earliest of those days.
- (9) But if a confiscation order mentioned in section 8(3)(c) has been made against the defendant at any time during the period mentioned in subsection (8)—
  - (a) the relevant day is the day when the defendant's benefit was calculated for the purposes of the last such confiscation order;
  - (b) the second assumption does not apply to any property which was held by him on or before the relevant day.
- (10) The date of conviction is—
  - (a) the date on which the defendant was convicted of the offence concerned, or
  - (b) if there are two or more offences and the convictions were on different dates, the date of the latest.

[<sup>F7</sup>10A Determination of extent of defendant's interest in property

- (1) Where it appears to a court making a confiscation order that—
  - (a) there is property held by the defendant that is likely to be realised or otherwise used to satisfy the order, and
  - (b) a person other than the defendant holds, or may hold, an interest in the property, the court may, if it thinks it appropriate to do so, determine the extent (at the time the confiscation order is made) of the defendant's interest in the property.
- (2) The court must not exercise the power conferred by subsection (1) unless it gives to anyone who the court thinks is or may be a person holding an interest in the property a reasonable opportunity to make representations to it.
- (3) A determination under this section is conclusive in relation to any question as to the extent of the defendant's interest in the property that arises in connection with—

- (a) the realisation of the property, or the transfer of an interest in the property, with a view to satisfying the confiscation order, or
  - (b) any action or proceedings taken for the purposes of any such realisation or transfer.
- (4) Subsection (3)—
- (a) is subject to section 51(8B), and
  - (b) does not apply in relation to a question that arises in proceedings before the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court.
- (5) In this Part, the “extent” of the defendant's interest in property means the proportion that the value of the defendant's interest in it bears to the value of the property itself.]

- (1) Unless subsection (2) applies, the full amount ordered to be paid under a confiscation order must be paid on the day on which the order is made.

- (3) A specified period—

- (4) If—

13 Effect of order on court's other powers

(1) If the court makes a confiscation order it must proceed as mentioned in subsections (2) and (4) in respect of the offence or offences concerned.

(2) The court must take account of the confiscation order before—

- (a) it imposes a fine on the defendant, or
- (b) it makes an order falling within subsection (3).

(3) These orders fall within this subsection—
