- (a) a person who claims to be the person in relation to whom the conduct took place;
 - (b) a person not falling within paragraph (a) who claims to have been adversely affected by the conduct; or

(3) The complaints that are complaints for the purposes of this Part by virtue of [^{F110}subsection (1B)(b)] do not, except in a case falling within subsection (4), include any [^{F111}where the person in question] claims to have been adversely affected as a consequence only of having seen or heard the conduct, or any of the alleged effects of the conduct.

(4) A case falls within this subsection if—

- (a) it was only because the person in question was physically present, or sufficiently nearby, when the conduct took place or the effects occurred that he was able to see or hear the conduct or its effects; or
- (b) the adverse effect is attributable to, or was aggravated by, the fact that the person in relation to whom the conduct took place was already known to the person claiming to have suffered the adverse effect.

[^{F112}(4A) In this section, “the person in question” means the person expressing dissatisfaction or the person on whose behalf dissatisfaction is being expressed.]

PART 3

INVESTIGATIONS AND SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS

Power of the [F624 Director General] to determine the form of an investigation

- 15 (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) a complaint [F721, recordable conduct matter or DSI matter] is referred to the [F624 Director General]; and
 - (b) the [F624 Director General] determines [F722 under paragraph 5(1), 14(1) or 14D(1)] that it is necessary for the complaint or matter to be investigated.

[F723(1A) This paragraph also applies where the [F624 Director General] determines under paragraph 6A(5)(a) that it is necessary for a complaint to be investigated.]

- (2) It shall be the duty of the [F624 Director General] to determine the form which the investigation should take.

^{F724}(3)

- (4) The only forms which the investigation may take in accordance with a determination made under this paragraph are—

- (a) an investigation by the appropriate authority on its own behalf;
- ^{F725}(b)
- (c) an investigation by that authority under the [F726 direction] of the [F624 Director General];
- (d) an investigation by the [F624 Director General].

[F727(4A) In making a determination under sub-paragraph (2) the [F624 Director General] must first determine whether, having regard to the seriousness of the case and the public interest, it is appropriate for the investigation to take the form of an investigation by the appropriate authority on its own behalf and if it is the [F624 Director General] must determine that the investigation is to take that form.

- (4B) Where, in accordance with sub-paragraph (4A), the [F624 Director General] determines that it is not appropriate for the investigation to take the form of an investigation by

(4C) This sub-paragraph applies where the [F624Director General] determines that it would be more appropriate for the investigation to take the form of an investigation by the appropriate authority under the direction of the [F624Director General], in which case the [F624Director General] must determine that the investigation is to take that form.]

[F728(5) Where the [F624Director General] determines under sub-paragraph (4C) or (5B) that an investigation is to take the form of an investigation by the appropriate authority under the direction of the [F624Director General], the [F624Director General] must keep under review whether that form of investigation continues to be the most appropriate form of investigation.

(5A) If, on such a review, the [F624Director General] determines that—

- (a) it would be more appropriate for the investigation to take the form of an investigation by the [F624Director General], the [F624Director General] must make a further determination under this paragraph (to replace the earlier one) that the investigation is instead to take that form;
- (b) having regard to the seriousness of the case and the public interest, it would be more appropriate for the investigation to take the form of an investigation by the appropriate authority on its own behalf, the [F624Director General] may make a further determination under this paragraph (to replace the earlier one) that the investigation is instead to take that form.

(5B) Subject to sub-paragraph (5A), if at any time the [F624Director General] determines that, were [F630the Director General] to apply sub-paragraphs (4A) to (4C) again, the form of the investigation would be different, the [F624Director General] may make a further determination under this paragraph (to replace the earlier one) such that the investigation takes that different form.]

(6) Where a determination under this paragraph replaces an earlier determination under this paragraph, or relates to a complaint or matter in relation to which the appropriate authority has already begun an investigation on its own behalf, the [F624Director General] may give—
