

Enterprise Act 2002

2002 CHAPTER 40

PART 6

CARTEL OFFENCE

188 Cartel offence

- (1) An individual is guilty of an offence if he ^{F1}... agrees with one or more other persons to make or implement, or to cause to be made or implemented, arrangements of the following kind relating to at least two undertakings (A and B).
- (2) The arrangements must be ones which, if operating as the parties to the agreement intend, would—
 - (a) directly or indirectly fix a price for the supply by A in the United Kingdom (otherwise than to B) of a product or service,
 - (b) limit or prevent supply by A in the United Kingdom of a product or service,
 - (c) limit or prevent production by A in the United Kingdom of a product,
 - (d) divide between A and B the supply in the United Kingdom of a product or service to a customer or customers,
 - (e) divide between A and B customers for the supply in the United Kingdom of a product or service, or
 - (f) be bid-rigging arrangements.
- (3) Unless subsection (2)(d), (e) or (f) applies, the arrangements must also be ones which, if operating as the parties to the agreement intend, would—
 - (a) directly or indirectly fix a price for the supply by B in the United Kingdom (otherwise than to A) of a product or service,
 - (b) limit or prevent supply by B in the United Kingdom of a product or service, or
 - (c) limit or prevent production by B in the United Kingdom of a product.

Status: This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Part 6. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In subsections (2)(a) to (d) and (3), references to supply or production are to supply or production in the appropriate circumstances (for which see section 189).
- (5) “Bid-rigging arrangements” are arrangements under which, in response to a request for bids for the supply of a product or service in the United Kingdom, or for the production of a product in the United Kingdom—
- (a) A but not B may make a bid, or
 - (b) A and B may each make a bid but, in one case or both, only a bid arrived at in accordance with the arrangements.

^{F2}(6)

(7) “Undertaking” has the same meaning as in Part 1 of the 1998 Act.

[^{F3}(8) This section is subject to section 188A.]

[^{F4}188A Circumstances in which cartel offence not committed

- (1) An individual does not commit an offence under section 188(1) if, under the arrangements—
- (a) in a case where the arrangements would (operating as the parties intend) affect the supply in the United Kingdom of a product or service, customers would be given relevant information about the arrangements before they enter into agreements for the supply to them of the product or service so affected,
 - (b) in the case of bid-rigging arrangements, the person requesting bids would be given relevant information about them at or before the time when a bid is made, or
 - (c) in any case, relevant information about the arrangements would be published, before the arrangements are implemented, in the manner specified at the time of the making of the agreement in an order made by the Secretary of State.
- (2) In subsection (1), “relevant information” means—
- (a) the names of the undertakings to which the arrangements relate,
 - (b) a description of the nature of the arrangements which is sufficient to show why they are or might be arrangements of the kind to which section 188(1) applies,
 - (c) the products or services to which they relate, and
 - (d) such other information as may be specified in an order made by the Secretary of State.
- (3) An individual does not commit an offence under section 188(1) if the agreement is made in order to comply with a legal requirement.

Status: This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Part 6. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) In subsection (3), “legal requirement” has the same meaning as in paragraph 5 of Schedule 3 to the Competition Act 1998.
- (5) A power to make an order under this section—
 - (a) is exercisable by statutory instrument,
 - (b) may be exercised so as to make different provision for different cases or different purposes, and
 - (c) includes power to make such incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitory, transitional or saving provision as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing an order under this section is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

 - (b) at which supply by B in the United Kingdom of the product or service would be limited or prevented by the arrangements.
- (3) For section 188(2)(c), the appropriate circumstances are that A's production of the product would be at a level in the production chain—
 - (a) at which the product would at the same time be produced by B in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) at which production by B in the United Kingdom of the product would be limited or prevented by the arrangements.
- (4) For section 188(2)(d), the appropriate circumstances are that A's supply of the product or service would be at the same level in the supply chain as B's.
- (5) For section 188(3)(a), the appropriate circumstances are that B's supply of the product or service would be at a level in the supply chain at which the product or service would at the same time be supplied by A in the United Kingdom.
- (6) For section 188(3)(b), the appropriate circumstances are that B's supply of the product or service would be at a level in the supply chain—
 - (a) at which the product or service would at the same time be supplied by A in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) at which supply by A in the United Kingdom of the product or service would be limited or prevented by the arrangements.
- (7) For section 188(3)(c), the appropriate circumstances are that B's production of the product would be at a level in the production chain—
 - (a) at which the product would at the same time be produced by A in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) at which production by A in the United Kingdom of the product would be limited or prevented by the arrangements.

190 Cartel offence: penalty and prosecution

- (1) A person guilty of an offence under section 188 is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine, or to both;
 - (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or to both.
- (2) In England and Wales and Northern Ireland, proceedings for an offence under section 188 may be instituted only—
 - (a) by the Director of the Serious Fraud Office, or
 - (b) by or with the consent of the [F6CMA].
- (3) No proceedings may be brought for an offence under section 188 in respect of an agreement outside the United Kingdom, unless it has been implemented in whole or in part in the United Kingdom.

*Status: This version of this part contains provisions that are prospective.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Enterprise Act 2002, Part 6. (See end of Document for details)*

- (4) Where, for the purpose of the investigation or prosecution of offences under section 188, the [F7CMA] gives a person written notice under this subsection, no proceedings for an offence under section 188 that falls within a description specified in the notice may be brought against that person in England and Wales or Northern Ireland except in circumstances specified in the notice.

193 Powers when conducting an investigation

- (1) The [F11CMA] may by notice in writing require the person under investigation, or any other person who it has reason to believe has relevant information, to answer questions, or otherwise provide information, with respect to any matter relevant to the investigation at a specified place and either at a specified time or forthwith.
- (2) The [F11CMA] may by notice in writing require the person under investigation, or any other person, to produce, at a specified place and either at a specified time or forthwith, specified documents, or documents of a specified description, which appear to the [F11CMA] to relate to any matter relevant to the investigation.
- (3) If any such documents are produced, the [F11CMA] may—
 - (a) take copies or extracts from them;
 - (b) require the person producing them to provide an explanation of any of them.
- (4) If any such documents are not produced, the [F11CMA] may require the person who was required to produce them to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where they are.
- (5) A notice under subsection (1) or (2) must indicate—
 - (a) the subject matter and purpose of the investigation; and
 - (b) the nature of the offences created by section 201.
