

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 4

TRIBUNAL: PROCEDURE

PART 2

TRIBUNAL RULES

Institution of proceedings

- 11 (1) Tribunal rules may make provision as to the period within which and the manner in which proceedings are to be brought.
- (2) That provision may, in particular—
- (a) provide for time limits for making claims to which section 47A of the 1998 Act applies in proceedings under section 47A or 47B;
 - (b) provide for the Tribunal to extend the period in which any particular proceedings may be brought; and
 - (c) provide for the form, contents, amendment and acknowledgement of the documents by which proceedings are to be instituted.