Registration as proprietor

58 Conclusiveness

- (1) If, on the entry of a person in the register as the proprietor of a legal estate, the legal estate would not otherwise be vested in him, it shall be deemed to be vested in him as a result of the registration.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the entry is made in pursuance of a registrable disposition in relation to which some other registration requirement remains to be met.

59 Dependent estates

- (1) The entry of a person in the register as the proprietor of a legal estate which subsists for the benefit of a registered estate must be made in relation to the registered estate.
- (2) The entry of a person in the register as the proprietor of a charge on a registered estate must be made in relation to that estate.
- (3) The entry of a person in the register as the proprietor of a sub-charge on a registered charge must be made in relation to that charge.

Boundaries

60 Boundaries

- (1) The boundary of a registered estate as shown for the purposes of the register is a general boundary, unless shown as determined under this section.

- (2) A general boundary does not determine the exact line of the boundary.
- (3) Rules may make provision enabling or requiring the exact line of the boundary of a registered estate to be determined and may, in particular, make provision about—
 - (a) the circumstances in which the exact line of a boundary may or must be determined,
 - (b) how the exact line of a boundary may be determined,
 - (c) procedure in relation to applications for determination, and
 - (d) the recording of the fact of determination in the register or the index maintained under section 68.
- (4) Rules under this section must provide for applications for determination to be made to the registrar.

61 Accretion and diluvion

- (1) The fact that a registered estate in land is shown in the register as having a particular boundary does not affect the operation of accretion or diluvion.
- (2) An agreement about the operation of accretion or diluvion in relation to a registered estate in land has effect only if registered in accordance with rules.

Quality of title

62 Power to upgrade title

- (1) Where the title to a freehold estate is entered in the register as possessory or qualified, the registrar may enter it as absolute if he is satisfied as to the title to the estate.
- (2) Where the title to a leasehold estate is entered in the register as good leasehold, the registrar may enter it as absolute if he is satisfied as to the superior title.
- (3) Where the title to a leasehold estate is entered in the register as possessory or qualified the registrar may—
 - (a) enter it as good leasehold if he is satisfied as to the title to the estate, and
 - (b) enter it as absolute if he is satisfied both as to the title to the estate and as to the superior title.
- (4) Where the title to a freehold estate in land has been entered in the register as possessory for at least twelve years, the registrar may enter it as absolute if he is satisfied that the proprietor is in possession of the land.
- (5) Where the title to a leasehold estate in land has been entered in the register as possessory for at least twelve years, the registrar may enter it as good leasehold if he is satisfied that the proprietor is in possession of the land.
- (6) None of the powers under subsections (1) to (5) is exercisable if there is outstanding any claim adverse to the title of the registered proprietor which is made by virtue of an estate, right or interest whose enforceability is preserved by virtue of the existing entry about the class of title.
- (7) The only persons who may apply to the registrar for the exercise of any of the powers under subsections (1) to (5) are—

 - (b) a person entitled to be registered as the proprietor of that estate,
 - (c) the proprietor of a registered charge affecting that estate, and
 - (d) a person interested in a registered estate which derives from that estate.

- (9) The Lord Chancellor may by order amend subsection (4) or (5) by substituting for the number of years for the time being specified in that subsection such number of years as the order may provide.

63 Effect of upgrading title

- (1) On the title to a registered freehold or leasehold estate being entered under section 62 as absolute, the proprietor ceases to hold the estate subject to any estate, right or interest whose enforceability was preserved by virtue of the previous entry about the class of title.
- (2) Subsection (1) also applies on the title to a registered leasehold estate being entered under section 62 as good leasehold, except that the entry does not affect or prejudice the enforcement of any estate, right or interest affecting, or in derogation of, the title of the lessor to grant the lease.

64 Use of register to record defects in title

- (1) If it appears to the registrar that a right to determine a registered estate in land is exercisable, he may enter the fact in the register.
