

Licensing Act 2003

2003 CHAPTER 17

PART 2

LICENSING AUTHORITIES

Functions of licensing authorities etc.

4 General duties of licensing authorities

- (1) A licensing authority must carry out its functions under this Act (“licensing functions”) with a view to promoting the licensing objectives.
- (2) The licensing objectives are—
  - (a) the prevention of crime and disorder;
  - (b) public safety;
  - (c) the prevention of public nuisance; and
  - (d) the protection of children from harm.
- (3) In carrying out its licensing functions, a licensing authority must also have regard to—
  - (a) its licensing statement published under section 5, and
  - (b) any guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 182.

5 Statement of licensing policy

- (1) Each licensing authority must in respect of each three year period—
  - (a) determine its policy with respect to the exercise of its licensing functions, and
  - (b) publish a statement of that policy (a “licensing statement”) before the beginning of the period.
- (2) In this section “three year period” means—
  - (a) the period of three years beginning with such day as the Secretary of State may by order appoint, and
  - (b) each subsequent period of three years.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2003. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Licensing Act 2003, Cross Heading: Functions of licensing authorities etc. is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Before determining its policy for a three year period, a licensing authority must consult—
- (a) the chief officer of police for the licensing authority’s area,
  - (b) the fire authority for that area,
  - (c) such persons as the licensing authority considers to be representative of holders of premises licences issued by that authority,
  - (d) such persons as the licensing authority considers to be representative of holders of club premises certificates issued by that authority,
  - (e) such persons as the licensing authority considers to be representative of holders of personal licences issued by that authority, and
  - (f) such other persons as the licensing authority considers to be representative of businesses and residents in its area.
- (4) During each three year period, a licensing authority must keep its policy under review and make such revisions to it, at such times, as it considers appropriate.
- (5) Subsection (3) applies in relation to any revision of an authority’s policy as it applies in relation to the original determination of that policy.
- (6) Where revisions are made, the licensing authority must publish a statement of the revisions or the revised licensing statement.
- (7) Regulations may make provision about the determination and revision of policies, and the preparation and publication of licensing statements, under this section.

VALID FROM 10/09/2004

6 Licensing committees

- (1) Each licensing authority must establish a licensing committee consisting of at least ten, but not more than fifteen, members of the authority.
- (2) This section does not apply in relation to the Sub-Treasurer of the Inner Temple or the Under-Treasurer of the Middle Temple.

VALID FROM 07/02/2005

7 Exercise and delegation of functions

- (1) All matters relating to the discharge by a licensing authority of its licensing functions are, by virtue of this subsection, referred to its licensing committee and, accordingly, that committee must discharge those functions on behalf of the authority.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
  - (a) any function conferred on the licensing authority by section 5 (statement of licensing policy), or
  - (b) any function discharged under subsection (5)(a) below by a committee (other than a licensing committee), or any matter relating to the discharge of any such function.

Status: Point in time view as at 16/12/2003. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Licensing Act 2003, Cross Heading: Functions of licensing authorities etc. is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A licensing authority may arrange for the discharge by its licensing committee of any function of the authority which—
  - (a) relates to a matter referred to that committee by virtue of subsection (1), but
  - (b) is not a licensing function.
- (4) Where the licensing authority does not make arrangements under subsection (3) in respect of any such function, it must (unless the matter is urgent) consider a report of its licensing committee with respect to the matter before discharging the function.
- (5) Where a matter relates to a licensing function of a licensing authority and to a function of the authority which is not a licensing function (“the other function”), the authority may—
  - (a) refer the matter to another of its committees and arrange for the discharge of the licensing function by that committee, or
  - (b) refer the matter to its licensing committee (to the extent it is not already so referred under subsection (1)) and arrange for the discharge of the other function by the licensing committee.
- (6) In a case where an authority exercises its power under subsection (5)(a), the committee to which the matter is referred must (unless the matter is urgent) consider a report of the authority’s licensing committee with respect to the matter before discharging the function concerned.
- (7) Before exercising its power under subsection (5)(b), an authority must consult its licensing committee.
- (8) In a case where an authority exercises its power under subsection (5)(b), its licensing committee must (unless the matter is urgent) consider any report of any of the authority’s other committees with respect to the matter before discharging the function concerned.
- (9) Where a licensing committee is unable to discharge any function delegated to it in accordance with this section because of the number of its members who are unable to take part in the consideration or discussion of any matter or vote on any question with respect to it, the committee must refer the matter back to the licensing authority and the authority must discharge that function.
- (10) This section does not apply in relation to the Sub-Treasurer of the Inner Temple or the Under-Treasurer of the Middle Temple.
