

Legal Deposit Libraries Act 2003

2003 CHAPTER 28

Regulations

12 Regulations: Scotland and Wales

- (1) Regulations under this Act may not be made without the consent of the Scottish Ministers if they would—
 - (a) remove an entitlement conferred by or under this Act on [^{F1}the authority controlling] the National Library of Scotland, or
 - (b) confer an entitlement that is not conferred on [^{F2}the National Library of Scotland] on any other deposit library.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the entitlement is to delivery of copies of electronic publications and—
 - (a) in the case of legal publications, the Faculty of Advocates, or
 - (b) in any other case, [^{F3}the authority controlling] the National Library of Scotland,is provided with a means of accessing those publications electronically.
- (3) Where subsection (1) does not apply, regulations under this Act that would affect [^{F4}the authority controlling] the National Library of Scotland may not be made unless the Secretary of State has consulted the Scottish Ministers.
- (4) Regulations under this Act may not be made without the consent of the National Assembly for Wales if they would—
 - (a) remove an entitlement conferred by or under this Act on the authority controlling the National Library of Wales, or
 - (b) confer an entitlement that is not conferred on that authority on any other deposit library;but this does not apply where the entitlement is to delivery of copies of electronic publications and that authority is provided with a means of accessing those publications electronically.
