[F15200ARehabilitation activity requirement

- (1) In this Part "rehabilitation activity requirement", in relation to a relevant order, means a requirement that, during the relevant period, the offender must comply with any instructions given by the responsible officer to attend appointments or participate in activities or both.
- (2) A relevant order imposing a rehabilitation activity requirement must specify the maximum number of days for which the offender may be instructed to participate in activities.
- (3) Any instructions given by the responsible officer must be given with a view to promoting the offender's rehabilitation; but this does not prevent the responsible officer giving instructions with a view to other purposes in addition to rehabilitation.
- (4) The responsible officer may instruct the offender to attend appointments with the responsible officer or with someone else.
- (5) The responsible officer, when instructing the offender to participate in activities, may require the offender to—
  - (a) participate in specified activities and, while doing so, comply with instructions given by the person in charge of the activities, or
  - (b) go to a specified place and, while there, comply with any instructions given by the person in charge of the place.
- (6) The references in subsection (5)(a) and (b) to instructions given by a person include instructions given by anyone acting under the person's authority.
- (7) The activities that responsible officers may instruct offenders to participate in include—
  - (a) activities forming an accredited programme (see section 202(2));
  - (b) activities whose purpose is reparative, such as restorative justice activities.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7)(b) an activity is a restorative justice activity if
  - (a) the participants consist of, or include, the offender and one or more of the victims.
  - (b) the aim of the activity is to maximise the offender's awareness of the impact of the offending concerned on the victims, and
  - (c) the activity gives a victim or victims an opportunity to talk about, or by other means express experience of, the offending and its impact.
- (9) In subsection (8) "victim" means a victim of, or other person affected by, the offending concerned.
- (10) Where compliance with an instruction would require the co-operation of a person other than the offender, the responsible officer may give the instruction only if that person agrees.
- (11) In this section "the relevant period" means—

207 Mental health treatment requirement

- (1) In this Part, "mental health treatment requirement", in relation to a community order or suspended sentence order, means a requirement that the offender must submit, during a period or periods specified in the order, to treatment by or under the direction of a registered medical practitioner or a [F31 registered psychologist] (or both, for different periods) with a view to the improvement of the offender's mental condition.
- (2) The treatment required must be such one of the following kinds of treatment as may be specified in the relevant order—
  - (a) treatment as a resident patient in [F32a] care home F33... [F34, an independent hospital] or a hospital within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 (c. 20), but not in hospital premises where high security psychiatric services within the meaning of that Act are provided;
  - (b) treatment as a non-resident patient at such institution or place as may be specified in the order;
  - (c) treatment by or under the direction of such registered medical practitioner or [F31 registered psychologist] (or both) as may be so specified;

but the nature of the treatment is not to be specified in the order except as mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

- (3) A court may not by virtue of this section include a mental health treatment requirement in a relevant order unless—
  - (a) the court is satisfied <sup>F35</sup>... that the mental condition of the offender—
    - (i) is such as requires and may be susceptible to treatment, but
    - (ii) is not such as to warrant the making of a hospital order or guardianship order within the meaning of [F36the Mental Health Act 1983];
  - (b) the court is also satisfied that arrangements have been or can be made for the treatment intended to be specified in the order (including arrangements for the reception of the offender where he is to be required to submit to treatment as a resident patient); and
  - (c) the offender has expressed his willingness to comply with such a requirement.
- (4) While the offender is under treatment as a resident patient in pursuance of a mental health requirement of a relevant order, his responsible officer shall carry out the supervision of the offender to such extent only as may be necessary for the purpose of the revocation or amendment of the order.

  - (a) revoke the community order, or the suspended sentence order and the suspended sentence to which it relates, and
  - (b) deal with him, for the offence in respect of which the order was made, in any way in which he could have been dealt with for that offence by the court which made the order if the order had not been made.
- (4) In dealing with the offender under subsection (3)(b), the court—
  - (a) shall take into account the extent to which the offender has complied with the requirements of the order, and
  - (b) may impose a custodial sentence (where the order was made in respect of an offence punishable with such a sentence) notwithstanding anything in section 152(2).

- (6) If at a review hearing (as defined by section 210(1)(b)) the court, after considering the [F51 review] officer's report, is of the opinion that the offender's progress under the requirement is satisfactory, the court may so amend the order as to provide for each subsequent review to be made by the court without a hearing.
- (7) If at a review without a hearing the court, after considering the [F52 review] officer's report, is of the opinion that the offender's progress under the requirement is no longer satisfactory, the court may require the offender to attend a hearing of the court at a specified time and place.

- (8) At that hearing the court, after considering that report, may—
  - (a) exercise the powers conferred by this section as if the hearing were a review hearing, and
  - (b) so amend the order as to provide for each subsequent review to be made at a review hearing.
- (9) In this section any reference to the court, in relation to a review without a hearing, is to be read—
  - (a) in the case of the Crown Court, as a reference to a judge of the court;
  - (b) in the case of a magistrates' court, as a reference to a justice of the peace F53....

- (2) A court may not impose an alcohol treatment requirement in respect of an offender unless it is satisfied—
  - (a) that he is dependent on alcohol,
  - (b) that his dependency is such as requires and may be susceptible to treatment, and
  - (c) that arrangements have been or can be made for the treatment intended to be specified in the order (including arrangements for the reception of the offender where he is to be required to submit to treatment as a resident).
- (3) A court may not impose an alcohol treatment requirement unless the offender expresses his willingness to comply with its requirements.

F54(	4)	١.

- (5) The treatment required by an alcohol treatment requirement for any particular period must be—
  - (a) treatment as a resident in such institution or place as may be specified in the order,
  - (b) treatment as a non-resident in or at such institution or place, and at such intervals, as may be so specified, or
  - (c) treatment by or under the direction of such person having the necessary qualification or experience as may be so specified;

but the nature of the treatment shall not be specified in the order except as mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) above.

[F55212AAlcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement

- (1) In this Part "alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement", in relation to a relevant order, means a requirement—
  - (a) that, subject to such exceptions (if any) as are specified—
    - (i) the offender must abstain from consuming alcohol throughout a specified period, or
    - (ii) the offender must not consume alcohol so that at any time during a specified period there is more than a specified level of alcohol in the offender's body, and
  - (b) that the offender must, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the offender is complying with provision under paragraph (a), submit during the specified period to monitoring in accordance with specified arrangements.
- (2) A period specified under subsection (1)(a) must not exceed 120 days.

Changes to legislation: Criminal Justice Act 2003, Chapter 4 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 05 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If the Secretary of State by order prescribes a minimum period for the purposes of subsection (1)(a), a period specified under that provision must be at least as long as the period prescribed.
- (4) The level of alcohol specified under subsection (1)(a)(ii) must be that prescribed by the Secretary of State by order for the purposes of that provision (and a requirement under that provision may not be imposed unless such an order is in force).
- (5) An order under subsection (4) may prescribe a level—
  - (a) by reference to the proportion of alcohol in any one or more of an offender's breath, blood, urine or sweat, or
  - (b) by some other means.
- (6) The arrangements for monitoring specified under subsection (1)(b) must be consistent with those prescribed by the Secretary of State by order (and an alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement may not be imposed unless such an order is in force).
- (7) An order under subsection (6) may in particular prescribe—
  - (a) arrangements for monitoring by electronic means;
  - (b) arrangements for monitoring by other means of testing.
- (8) A court may not include an alcohol abstinence and monitoring requirement in a relevant order unless the following conditions are met.
- (9) The first condition is that—
  - (a) the consumption of alcohol by the offender is an element of the offence for which the order is to be imposed or an associated offence, or
  - (b) the court is satisfied that the consumption of alcohol by the offender was a factor that contributed to the commission of that offence or an associated offence.
- (10) The second condition is that the court is satisfied that the offender is not dependent on alcohol.
- (11) The third condition is that the court does not include an alcohol treatment requirement in the order.
- (12) The fourth condition is that the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that arrangements for monitoring of the kind to be specified are available in the local justice area to be specified.
- (13) In this section—
  - "alcohol" includes anything containing alcohol;
  - "specified", in relation to a relevant order, means specified in the order.

214 Attendance centre requirement

- (1) In this Part "attendance centre requirement", in relation to a relevant order, means a requirement that the offender must attend at an attendance centre F57... for such number of hours as may be [F58 specified in the relevant order].
- (2) The aggregate number of hours for which the offender may be required to attend at an attendance centre must not be less than 12 or more than 36.
- (3) The court may not impose an attendance centre requirement unless the court is satisfied that [F59] an attendance centre which is available for persons of the offender's description] is reasonably accessible to the offender concerned, having regard to the means of access available to him and any other circumstances.
- [F60(3A) The attendance centre at which the offender is required to attend is to be notified to the offender by the responsible officer from time to time.
  - (3B) When choosing an attendance centre, the responsible officer must consider—
    - (a) the accessibility of the attendance centre to the offender, having regard to the means of access available to the offender and any other circumstances, and
    - (b) the description of persons for whom it is available.]
    - (4) The first time at which the offender is required to attend at the attendance centre is a time notified to the offender by the responsible officer.
    - (5) The subsequent hours are to be fixed by the officer in charge of the centre, having regard to the offender's circumstances.
    - (6) An offender may not be required under this section to attend at an attendance centre on more than one occasion on any day, or for more than three hours on any occasion.
  - [<sup>F61</sup>(7) A requirement to attend at an attendance centre for any period on any occasion operates as a requirement, during that period, to engage in occupation, or receive instruction, under the supervision of and in accordance with instructions given by, or under the authority of, the officer in charge of the centre, whether at the centre or elsewhere.]

Electronic monitoring

215 Electronic monitoring requirement

- (1) In this Part "electronic monitoring requirement", in relation to a relevant order, means a requirement [<sup>F62</sup>to submit to either or both of the following—
  - (a)] electronic monitoring of the offender's compliance with other requirements imposed by the order during a period specified in the order, or determined by the responsible officer in accordance with the relevant order [F63], and
  - (b) electronic monitoring of the offender's whereabouts (otherwise than for the purpose of monitoring the offender's compliance with any other requirements included in the order) during a period specified in the order.

(2) Where—

- (a) it is proposed to include in a relevant order a requirement for securing electronic monitoring in accordance with this section, but
- (b) there is a person (other than the offender) without whose co-operation it will not be practicable to secure the monitoring, the requirement may not be included in the order without that person's consent.

- (3) A relevant order which includes an electronic monitoring requirement must include provision for making a person responsible for the monitoring; and a person who is made so responsible must be of a description specified in an order made by the Secretary of State.
- (4) Where an electronic monitoring requirement is required to take effect during a period determined by the responsible officer in accordance with the relevant order, the responsible officer must, before the beginning of that period, notify—
  - (a) the offender,
  - (b) the person responsible for the monitoring, and
  - (c) any person falling within subsection (2)(b),

of the time when the period is to begin.
