

Pensions Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER 35

PART 1

THE PENSIONS REGULATOR

New powers in respect of occupational and personal pension schemes

13 Improvement notices

- (1) If the Regulator is of the opinion that a person—
 - (a) is contravening one or more provisions of the pensions legislation, or
 - (b) has contravened one or more of those provisions in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated,it may issue a notice (an “improvement notice”) to that person directing him to take, or refrain from taking, such steps as are specified in the notice in order to remedy or prevent a recurrence of the contravention.
- (2) An improvement notice must—
 - (a) state that the Regulator is of that opinion and specify the provision or provisions of the pensions legislation in question,
 - (b) contain a statement of the matters which it is asserted constitute the contravention and of the evidence on which that opinion is based, and
 - (c) in respect of each step specified in the notice, state the period (being a period of not less than 21 days beginning with the date of the notice) within which it must be complied with.
- (3) Directions in an improvement notice—
 - (a) may be framed to any extent by reference to a code of practice issued by the Regulator under section 90 [F1 or 90A], and
 - (b) may be framed so as to afford the person to whom the notice is issued a choice between different ways of remedying or preventing the recurrence of the contravention.

Changes to legislation: Pensions Act 2004, Cross Heading: New powers in respect of occupational and personal pension schemes is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (4) Directions in an improvement notice may be expressed to be conditional on compliance by a third party with a specified direction, or specified directions, contained in a notice under section 14 (third party notices).
- (5) An improvement notice may direct the person to whom it is issued to inform the Regulator, within such period as may be specified in the notice, of how he has complied, or is complying, with the notice.
- (6) Where a contravention of a provision of the pensions legislation consists of a failure to take action within a time limit, for the purposes of this section the contravention continues until such time as the action is taken.
- (7) In this section “pensions legislation” means any enactment contained in or made by virtue of [^{F2}any of the following]—
- (a) the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (c. 48),
 - (b) Part 1 of the Pensions Act 1995 (c. 26), other than sections 62 to 66A of that Act (equal treatment),
 - (c) Part 1 or section 33 of the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 (c. 30), ^{F3}...
 - (d) this Act ^{F4}...
 - [^{F5}(e) section 5(4) (pension board: conflicts of interest and representation), 6 (pension board: information), 14 (information about benefits) or 16 (records) of the Public Service Pensions Act 2013], ^{F6}...
 - [^{F7}(f) paragraph 2 of Schedule 18 to the Pensions Act 2014 (c.19)], ^{F8}...
 - [^{F9}(g) the Pension Schemes Act 2015],
 - [^{F10}(h) Part 1 of the Pension Schemes Act 2017],
 - [^{F11}(i) Part 1 of the Pension Schemes Act 2021.]
- (8) If the trustees or managers of an occupational or personal pension scheme fail to comply with an improvement notice issued to them, section 10 of the Pensions Act 1995 (civil penalties) applies to any trustee or manager who has failed to take all reasonable steps to secure compliance.
- (9) That section also applies to any other person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with an improvement notice issued to him.

14 Third party notices

- (1) Where the Regulator is of the opinion that—
- a person—
 - is contravening one or more provisions of the pensions legislation, or
 - has contravened one or more of those provisions in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated,
 - the contravention is or was, wholly or partly, a result of a failure of another person (“the third party”) to do any thing, and
 - that failure is not itself a contravention of the pensions legislation,
- the Regulator may issue a notice (a “third party notice”) directing the third party to take, or refrain from taking, such steps as are specified in the notice in order to remedy or prevent a recurrence of his failure.
- (2) A third party notice must—
- state that the Regulator is of that opinion and specify the provision or provisions of the pensions legislation in question,
 - contain a statement of—
 - the matters which it is asserted constitute the contravention of the provision or provisions, and
 - the matters which it is asserted constitute the failure by the third party, and the evidence on which that opinion is based, and
 - in respect of each step specified in the notice, state the period (being a period of not less than 21 days beginning with the date of the notice) within which it must be complied with.
- (3) Directions in a third party notice may be framed so as to afford the third party a choice between different ways of remedying or preventing the recurrence of his failure.
- (4) A third party notice may direct the third party to inform the Regulator, within such period as may be specified in the notice, of how he has complied, or is complying, with the notice.

- (5) Where a contravention of a provision of the pensions legislation consists of a failure to take action within a time limit, for the purposes of this section the contravention continues until such time as the action is taken.
- (6) Section 10 of the Pensions Act 1995 (c. 26) (civil penalties) applies to a person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a third party notice issued to him.
- (7) No duty to which a person is subject is to be regarded as contravened merely because of anything required to be done in compliance with a third party notice.

This is subject to section 311 (protected items).
- (8) In this section “pensions legislation” has the same meaning as in section 13.

17 Power of the Regulator to recover unpaid contributions

- (1) Where any employer contribution payable towards an occupational or personal pension scheme is not paid on or before its due date, the Regulator may, on behalf of the trustees or managers of the scheme, exercise such powers as the trustees or managers have to recover that contribution.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), any employer contribution payable towards a personal pension scheme which is not paid on or before its due date is, if not a debt due from the employer to the trustees or managers apart from this subsection, to be treated as if it were such a debt.
- (3) In this section—
- “due date”—
- (a) in relation to employer contributions payable towards an occupational pension scheme in accordance with a schedule of contributions under section 227, has the same meaning as in section 228,
- (b) in relation to employer contributions payable in accordance with a payment schedule under section 87 of the Pensions Act 1995 (c. 26) (schedules of payments to money purchase schemes), has the meaning given by subsection (2)(c) of that section,^{F13} ...

18 Pension liberation: interpretation

- (1) In this section and sections 19 to 21—
- (a) “pension scheme” means an occupational pension scheme or a personal pension scheme,
- (b) “deposit-taker” has the meaning given by subsections (8A) and (8B) of section 49 of the Pensions Act 1995, except that, for the purposes of this definition, subsection (8A)(c) of that section has effect with the omission of the words from “or” to the end,
- (c) references to money liberated from a pension scheme are to be read in accordance with subsection (2),

Changes to legislation: Pensions Act 2004, Cross Heading: New powers in respect of occupational and personal pension schemes is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 April 2024. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (d) “liberated member”, in relation to money liberated from a pension scheme, means the member of the pension scheme who is referred to in subsection (2) (a), and
 - (e) “restraining order” means a restraining order under section 20.
- (2) Money is to be taken to have been liberated from a pension scheme if—
- (a) the money directly or indirectly represents an amount that, in respect of accrued rights [^{F18}or an entitlement] of a member of a pension scheme, has been transferred out of the scheme in pursuance of—
 - (i) a relevant statutory provision, or
 - (ii) a provision of [^{F19}the scheme rules], other than a relevant statutory provision,
 - (b) the trustees or managers of the scheme transferred the amount out of the scheme on the basis that a third party (“the liberator”) would secure that the amount was used in an authorised way,
 - (c) the amount has not been used in an authorised way, and
 - (d) the liberator has not secured, and is not likely to secure, that the amount will be used in an authorised way.
- (3) The following are “relevant statutory provisions” for the purposes of subsection (2)—
- [^{F20}(a) section 94 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (right to cash equivalent under Chapter 1 of Part 4ZA of that Act);]
 - (b) section 101AB(1)(a) of that Act (right to cash transfer sum under [^{F21}Chapter 2 of Part 4ZA] of that Act);
 - (c) section 101F(1) of that Act (right to cash equivalent of pension credit benefit).
- (4) In subsection (2) “authorised way” means—
- (a) where the amount concerned is transferred out of the scheme in pursuance of a provision mentioned in subsection (3)(a), a way specified in ^{F22}... section 95 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993;
 - (b) where that amount is transferred out in pursuance of the provision mentioned in subsection (3)(b), a way specified in section 101AE(2) of that Act;
 - (c) where that amount is transferred out in pursuance of the provision mentioned in subsection (3)(c), a way specified in subsection (2) or, as the case may be, subsection (3) of section 101F of that Act;
 - (d) where that amount is transferred out in pursuance of a provision of the kind mentioned in subsection (2)(a)(ii), a way that is authorised by [^{F23}the scheme rules] for amounts transferred out in pursuance of that provision.

19 Pension liberation: court's power to order restitution

- (1) This section applies where money has been liberated from a pension scheme.
- (2) In this section “recoverable property” means (subject to subsection (3))—
 - (a) the money or any of it, or
 - (b) property (of any kind and wherever situated) that, directly or indirectly, represents any of the money.
- (3) Where a person acquires the beneficial interest in recoverable property in good faith, for value and without notice that the property is, or (as the case may be) represents, money liberated from a pension scheme—
 - (a) the property ceases to be recoverable property, and
 - (b) no property that subsequently represents it is recoverable property.
- (4) The court, on the application of the Regulator, may make such order as the court thinks just and convenient for the purpose of securing that recoverable property, or money representing its value or proceeds of its sale, is transferred—
 - (a) towards a pension scheme,
 - (b) towards an annuity or insurance policy, or
 - (c) to the liberated member.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) may (in particular) direct a person who holds recoverable property, or has any degree of control over recoverable property, to take steps for the purpose mentioned in that subsection.
- (6) Where the court makes an order under paragraph (a) of subsection (4), it may by order direct the trustees or managers of the scheme referred to in that paragraph—
 - (a) to take steps for the purpose mentioned in that subsection;
 - (b) to apply the property or money transferred, in such manner as the court may direct, for the purpose of providing benefits under that scheme to or in respect of the liberated member.
- (7) Regulations may modify any of the provisions of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (c. 48) as it applies in relation to cases where an order is made under subsection (6).
- (8) The jurisdiction conferred by this section is exercisable by the High Court or the Court of Session.
- (9) The generality of the jurisdiction conferred by section 16 is not to be taken to be prejudiced by this section.

20 Pension liberation: restraining orders

- (1) The Regulator may make a restraining order in relation to an account with a deposit-taker if—
- (a) it is satisfied that the account contains money which has been liberated from a pension scheme,
 - (b) it is satisfied that the account is held by or on behalf of—
 - (i) the liberator, or
 - (ii) a person who has to, or in practice is likely to, ensure that the account is operated in accordance with the liberator’s directions, and
 - (c) the order is made pending consideration being given to the making of one or more repatriation orders in relation to the account under section 21.
- (2) A restraining order is an order directing that no credit or debit of any amount may be made to the account concerned (“the restrained account”) during the period for which the order has effect.
- (3) A restraining order must—
- (a) specify the name of the deposit-taker in respect of which it is made,
 - (b) identify the account in respect of which it is made, and
 - (c) contain such other information as may be prescribed.
- (4) A restraining order—
- (a) takes effect when the deposit-taker concerned is notified by the Regulator of the making of the order, and
 - (b) (subject to subsection (7)) ceases to have effect through expiry of time at the end of the six months beginning with the day when it is made.
- (5) The Regulator may, at a time when a restraining order has effect, make an order extending (or further extending) the restraining order.
- (6) An order under subsection (5) (an “extension order”) takes effect—
- (a) when the deposit-taker concerned is notified by the Regulator of the making of the order, but
 - (b) only if notification under paragraph (a) occurs at a time when the restraining order concerned has effect.
- (7) Where an extension order takes effect—
- (a) the restraining order concerned does not cease to have effect through expiry of time until the end of the six months beginning with the time when it would have ceased to have effect through expiry of time had it not been extended, but

- (b) for so long as the extension order has effect, no further extension order can take effect before that time in relation to the restraining order.
- (8) A restraining order does not prevent the crediting to the restrained account of an amount representing interest payable by the deposit-taker on any amount which is, or has been, in the account.
- (9) Where a restraining order has effect, the deposit-taker must return to the payer any money credited to the restrained account in breach of the order.
- (10) Where a restraining order has effect, the Regulator may, on an application made by or with the consent of the person by whom the restrained account is held, by order permit a payment specified in the order to be made out of the account if the Regulator is satisfied—
 - (a) that the payment will be made for the purpose of enabling—
 - (i) any individual to meet his reasonable living expenses, or
 - (ii) any person to carry on a trade, business, profession or occupation,
 - (b) that the beneficial interest in the money out of which the payment will be made belongs—
 - (i) to the individual, or person, concerned, or
 - (ii) to a person who consents to the making of the payment, and
 - (c) that the money out of which the payment will be made is not money liberated from a pension scheme.
- (11) Section 10 of the Pensions Act 1995 (c. 26) (civil penalties) applies to a deposit-taker who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any obligation imposed by a restraining order or by this section.

21 Pension liberation: repatriation orders

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply where—
 - (a) a restraining order has effect, and
 - (b) the Regulator is satisfied that the restrained account contains an amount of money liberated from a pension scheme.
- (2) The Regulator may by order—
 - (a) direct the deposit-taker concerned to pay from the account a sum not exceeding that amount—
 - (i) towards a pension scheme,
 - (ii) towards an annuity or insurance policy, or
 - (iii) to the liberated member, and
 - (b) where it makes an order under paragraph (a)(i), direct the trustees or managers of the scheme to apply the sum, in such manner as the Regulator may direct, for the purpose of providing benefits under the scheme to or in respect of the liberated member.
