

Gambling Act 2005

2005 CHAPTER 19

^{F1}PART 8

PREMISES LICENCES

Review

200 Initiation of review by licensing authority

- (1) A licensing authority may review in relation to premises licences of a particular class—
 - (a) the use made of premises, and
 - (b) in particular, arrangements made by licensees to ensure compliance with conditions attached under section 167, 168 or 169 or by a provision of this Part.
- (2) A licensing authority may review any matter connected with the use of premises in reliance on a premises licence if the authority—
 - (a) have reason to suspect that the premises may have been used in purported reliance on a licence but not in accordance with a condition of the licence, or
 - (b) for any reason (which may relate to the receipt of a complaint about the use of the premises) think that a review would be appropriate.
- (3) Before reviewing a premises licence under subsection (2) the licensing authority shall—
 - (a) give notice of their intention to hold the review to the licensee, and
 - (b) publish notice of their intention to hold the review.
- (4) The Secretary of State may make regulations about—
 - (a) the manner and form in which notice under subsection (3) is to be given or published, and
 - (b) the period of time within which notice is to be given or published.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Gambling Act 2005, Section 200. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Regulations by virtue of subsection (4)(a) shall, in particular, require a notice to specify a period of time during which representations about the review may be made to the licensing authority by—
- (a) the licensee,
 - (b) a responsible authority, or
 - (c) an interested party.
- (6) In relation to notice given by a licensing authority in Scotland, subsection (4) shall have effect as if the reference to the Secretary of State were a reference to the Scottish Ministers.
