

Gambling Act 2005

2005 CHAPTER 19

PART 4

PROTECTION OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS

General

63 Reasonable belief about person's age

- (1) Where a person is charged with an offence under this Part of doing anything in relation to an individual who is a child it is a defence for the person charged to prove that—
 - (a) he took all reasonable steps to determine the individual's age, and
 - (b) he reasonably believed that the individual was not a child.
- (2) Where a person is charged with an offence under this Part of doing anything in relation to an individual who is a young person it is a defence for the person charged to prove that—
 - (a) he took all reasonable steps to determine the individual's age, and
 - (b) he reasonably believed that the individual was not a young person.