Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (7) Condition 5 is that (apart from this section) as a result, directly or indirectly, of the relevant arrangements—
- (a) the grantor of the option, or

“91A Shares subject to outstanding third party obligations

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of corporation tax in relation to a company if at any time in an accounting period—
 - (a) that company (“the investing company”) holds a share in another company (“the issuing company”),
 - (b) the share is subject to outstanding third party obligations (see subsection (5)), and
 - (c) the share is an interest-like investment (see subsections (7) and (8)).
- (2) This Chapter shall have effect for the accounting period of the investing company in accordance with subsection (3) below as if—
 - (a) the share were rights under a creditor relationship of that company, and
 - (b) any distribution in respect of the share were not a distribution falling within section 209(2)(a) or (b) of the Taxes Act 1988.
- (3) The debits and credits to be brought into account by the investing company for the purposes of this Chapter as respects the share must be determined on the basis of fair value accounting.
- (4) No debits are to be brought into account in respect of any transaction (or series of transactions) which (apart from the assumption in subsection (8)(b) below) would have the effect of causing the condition in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (7) below not to be satisfied.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, the cases where a share is subject to outstanding third party obligations are those cases where—
 - (a) the share is subject to obligations of any description in subsection (6) below,
 - (b) the obligations are obligations of a person other than the investing company, and
 - (c) the obligations are yet to be discharged, and where a share is subject to any such obligations, they are for the purposes of this section the “third party obligations” in the case of that share.
- (6) The descriptions of obligation are—
 - (a) an obligation to meet unpaid calls on the share;
 - (b) an obligation (not falling within paragraph (a) above) to make a contribution to the capital of the issuing company that could affect the value of the share.
- (7) In this section “interest-like investment” means a share whose nature is such that the fair value of the share—
 - (a) is likely to increase at a rate which represents a return on an investment of money at a commercial rate of interest (see section 103(3A)), and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

(b) is unlikely to deviate to a substantial extent from that rate of increase.

Fluctuations in value resulting from changes in exchange rates are to be left out of account for the purposes of paragraph (b) above.

- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7) above, it shall be assumed—
- (a) that any third party obligations will be met in the amounts, and at the time, at which they are due, and
 - (b) that no transaction (or series of transactions) intended to cause the condition in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection not to be satisfied will be entered into.
- (9) For the purposes of this section, the fair value of a share that is subject to outstanding third party obligations must include the fair value of the obligations.
- (10) For the purposes of this section a company shall be treated as continuing to hold a share notwithstanding that the share has been transferred to another person—
- (a) under a repo or stock lending arrangement, or
 - (b) under a transaction which is treated by section 26 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992 as not involving any disposal.”.

(3) After section 91A insert—

“91B Non-qualifying shares

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of corporation tax in relation to a company if at any time in an accounting period—
- (a) the company (“the investing company”) holds a share in another company (“the issuing company”),
 - (b) the share is not one which, by virtue of paragraph 4 of Schedule 10 to this Act (holdings in unit trusts and offshore funds), falls to be treated for that accounting period as if it were rights under a creditor relationship of the investing company, and
 - (c) the share is a non-qualifying share (see subsection (6)),
- and at no time in the accounting period does section 91A above apply in relation to the investing company in the case of that share.
- (2) This Chapter shall have effect for that accounting period in accordance with subsection (3) below as if—
- (a) the share were rights under a creditor relationship of the investing company, and
 - (b) any distribution in respect of the share were not a distribution falling within section 209(2)(a) or (b) of the Taxes Act 1988.
- (3) The debits and credits to be brought into account by the investing company for the purposes of this Chapter as respects the share must be determined on the basis of fair value accounting.
- (4) In any case where Condition 1 in section 91C below is satisfied, no debits are to be brought into account in respect of any transaction (or series of transactions) which (apart from the assumption in subsection (6) of section 91C below) would have the effect of causing the condition in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of that section not to be satisfied.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) In any case where Condition 3 in section 91E below is satisfied—
- (a) debits and credits shall be brought into account for the purposes of Schedule 26 to the Finance Act 2002 (derivative contracts) by the investing company in respect of any associated transaction falling within section 91E below as if it were, or were a transaction in respect of, a derivative contract (if that is not in fact the case), and
 - (b) those debits and credits shall be determined on the basis of fair value accounting.
- (6) A share is a non-qualifying share for the purposes of this section if—
- (a) it is not one where section 95 of the Taxes Act 1988 (dealers etc) applies in relation to distributions in respect of the share, and
 - (b) one or more of the Conditions in sections 91C to 91E below is satisfied.
- (7) Subsection (10) of section 91A above (company treated as holding a share) also applies for the purposes of this section.”.

(4) After section 91B insert—

“91C Condition 1 for section 91B(6)(b)

- (1) Condition 1 is that the assets of the issuing company are of such a nature that the fair value of the share—
- (a) is likely to increase at a rate which represents a return on an investment of money at a commercial rate of interest, and
 - (b) is unlikely to deviate to a substantial extent from that rate of increase.

Fluctuations in value resulting from changes in exchange rates are to be left out of account for the purposes of paragraph (b) above.

- (2) But Condition 1 is not satisfied if the whole or substantially the whole by fair value of the assets of the issuing company are income producing.
- (3) The assets which, for the purposes of this section, are “income producing” are—
- (a) any share as respects which the conditions in section 91A(1) above are satisfied;
 - (b) any share as respects which Condition 1 above is satisfied or would, apart from subsection (2) above, be satisfied;
 - (c) any share as respects which Condition 2 in section 91D below is satisfied or would, apart from subsection (1)(c) of that section (excepted shares), be satisfied;
 - (d) any share as respects which Condition 3 in section 91E below is satisfied;
 - (e) any asset of a description specified in any paragraph of paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 10 to this Act (qualifying investments in relation to a unit trust scheme or an offshore fund);
 - (f) rights under a repo in relation to which section 730A of the Taxes Act 1988 applies;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) The Treasury may by regulations amend this section for the purpose of adding to the assets which are income producing.
- (5) The provision that may be made by regulations under this section includes provision for the regulations to have effect in relation to accounting periods (whenever beginning) which end on or after the day on which the regulations come into force.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (1) above, it shall be assumed that no transaction (or series of transactions) intended to cause the condition in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection not to be satisfied will be entered into by the investing company.
- (7) This section shall be construed as one with section 91B above.

91D Condition 2 for section 91B(6)(b)

- (1) Condition 2 is that the share—
 - (a) is redeemable (see subsection (2)),
 - (b) is designed to produce a return which equates, in substance, to the return on an investment of money at a commercial rate of interest, and
 - (c) is not an excepted share (see subsection (3)).
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a share is to be regarded as redeemable only if it is redeemable as a result of its terms of issue (or any collateral agreements, arrangements or understandings)—
 - (a) requiring redemption,
 - (b) entitling the holder to require redemption, or
 - (c) entitling the issuer to redeem.
- (3) A share is an “excepted share” for the purposes of this section if—
 - (a) it is a qualifying publicly issued share (see subsections (4) and (5)),
 - (b) it is a share that mirrors a public issue (see subsections (6) to (8)), or
 - (c) the investing company’s purpose in acquiring the share is not an unallowable purpose (see subsection (9)).
- (4) A share is a “qualifying publicly issued share” for the purposes of this section if—
