 - (ii) A's share of that profit determined under section 850 or 850A (“A's profit share”) is a profit or is neither a profit nor a loss,
 - (b) a non-individual partner (“B”) (see subsection (6)) has a share of the profit for the firm mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) (“B's profit share”) which is a profit (see subsection (7)), and
 - (c) condition X or Y is met.
- (2) Condition X is that it is reasonable to suppose that—
 - (a) amounts representing A's deferred profit (see subsection (8)) are included in B's profit share, and
 - (b) in consequence, both A's profit share and the relevant tax amount (see subsection (9)) are lower than they would otherwise have been.
- (3) Condition Y is that—
 - (a) B's profit share exceeds the appropriate notional profit (see subsections (10) to (17)),

- (i) the whole or any part of B's profit share is attributable to A's power to enjoy, and
 - (ii) both A's profit share and the relevant tax amount (see subsection (9)) are lower than they would have been in the absence of A's power to enjoy.
- (4) A's profit share is increased by so much of the amount of B's profit share as, it is reasonable to suppose, is attributable to—
 - (a) A's deferred profit, or
 - (b) A's power to enjoy,as determined on a just and reasonable basis.

But any increase by virtue of paragraph (b) is not to exceed the amount of the excess mentioned in subsection (3)(a) after deducting from that amount any increase by virtue of paragraph (a).

- (5) If B is chargeable to income tax, in applying sections 850 to 850B in relation to B for the relevant period of account, such adjustments are to be made as are just and reasonable to take account of the increase in A's profit share under subsection (4).

(This subsection does not apply for the purposes of subsection (7) or section 850D(7).)

- (6) A partner in a firm is an “individual partner” if the partner is an individual and “non-individual partner” is to be read accordingly; but “non-individual partner” does not include the firm itself where it is treated as a partner under section 863I (allocation of profit to AIFM firm).
- (7) B's profit share is to be determined by applying section 850 and, if relevant, section 850A in relation to B for the relevant period of account (whether or not B is chargeable to income tax) on the assumption that the calculation under section 849 in relation to B produces the profit for the firm mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(i).
- (8) “A's deferred profit”—
 - (a) is any remuneration or other benefits or returns the provision of which to A has been deferred (whether pending the meeting of any conditions (including conditions which may never be met) or otherwise), and
 - (b) includes A's share (as determined on a just and reasonable basis) of any remuneration or other benefits or returns the provision of which to A and one or more other persons, taken together, has been deferred (whether pending the meeting of any conditions (including conditions which may never be met) or otherwise).
- (9) “The relevant tax amount” is the total amount of tax which, apart from this section, would be chargeable in respect of A and B's income as partners in the firm.

- (11) “The appropriate notional return on capital” is—
 - (a) the return which B would receive for the relevant period of account in respect of B's contribution to the firm were the return to be calculated on the basis mentioned in subsection (12), less

- (13) For the purposes of subsections (11) and (12) B's contribution to the firm is amount A determined under section 108 of ITA 2007 (meaning of “contribution to the LLP”).

 - (i) subsections (5)(b) and (9), and
 - (ii) in subsection (6) the words from “but” to the end.
- (15) “The appropriate notional consideration for services” is—
- (a) the amount which B would receive in consideration for any services provided to the firm by B during the relevant period of account were the consideration to be calculated on the basis mentioned in subsection (16), less
 - (b) any amount actually received in consideration for any such services which is not included in B's profit share.
- (16) The consideration mentioned in subsection (15)(a) is to be calculated on the basis that B is not a partner in the firm and is acting at arm's length from the firm.
- (17) Any services, the provision of which involves any partner in the firm in addition to B, are to be ignored for the purposes of subsection (15).
- (18) A has the power to enjoy B's profit share if—
- (a) A is connected with B by virtue of a provision of section 993 of ITA 2007 (meaning of “connected” persons) other than subsection (4) of that section,
 - (b) A is a party to arrangements the main purpose, or one of the main purposes, of which is to secure that an amount included in B's profit share—
 - (i) is charged to corporation tax rather than income tax, or
