- (3) No objection may be taken to the legal consequences of a document's being accepted (or registered) by the registrar under this section on the ground that the requirements for proper delivery were not met.
- (4) The acceptance of a document by the registrar under this section does not affect—
- (a) the continuing obligation to comply with the requirements for proper delivery, or
 - (b) subject as follows, any liability for failure to comply with those requirements.
- (5) For the purposes of—
- (a) section 453 (civil penalty for failure to file accounts and reports), and
 - (b) any enactment imposing a daily default fine for failure to deliver the document,
- the period after the document is accepted does not count as a period during which there is default in complying with the requirements for proper delivery.
- (6) But if, subsequently—
- (a) the registrar issues a notice under [^{F51}regulations under section 1094A(1)] [^{F52}or any corresponding provision of any other enactment] in respect of the document (notice of administrative removal from the register), and
 - (b) the requirements for proper delivery are not complied with before the end of the period of 14 days after the issue of that notice,
- any subsequent period of default does count for the purposes of those provisions.

1074 Documents containing unnecessary material

- (1) This section applies where a document delivered to the registrar contains unnecessary material.
- (2) “Unnecessary material” means material that—
 - (a) is not necessary in order to comply with an obligation under any enactment, and
 - (b) is not specifically authorised to be delivered to the registrar.
- (3) For this purpose an obligation to deliver a document of a particular description, or conforming to certain requirements, is regarded as not extending to anything that is not needed for a document of that description or, as the case may be, conforming to those requirements.
- (4) If the unnecessary material cannot readily be separated from the rest of the document, the document is treated as not meeting the requirements for proper delivery.
- (5) If the unnecessary material can readily be separated from the rest of the document, the registrar may register the document either—
 - (a) with the omission of the unnecessary material, or
 - (b) as delivered.

1076 Replacement of document not meeting requirements for proper delivery

- (1) The registrar may accept a replacement for a document previously delivered that—
 - (a) did not comply with the requirements for proper delivery, or
 - (b) contained unnecessary material (within the meaning of section 1074).
- (2) A replacement document must not be accepted unless the registrar is satisfied that it is delivered by—
 - (a) the person by whom the original document was delivered, or
 - (b) the company [^{F55}(or other body)] to which the original document relates, and that it complies with the requirements for proper delivery.
- (3) The power of the registrar to impose requirements as to the form and manner of delivery includes power to impose requirements as to the identification of the original document and the delivery of the replacement in a form and manner enabling it to be associated with the original.

1079 Effect of failure to give public notice

- (1) A company is not entitled to rely against other persons on the happening of any event to which this section applies unless—
 - (a) the event has been officially notified at the material time, or
 - (b) the company shows that the person concerned knew of the event at the material time.
- (2) The events to which this section applies are—
 - (a) an amendment of the company's articles,
 - (b) a change among the company's directors,
 - (c) (as regards service of any document on the company) a change of the company's registered office,
 - (d) the making of a winding-up order in respect of the company, or
 - (e) the appointment of a liquidator in a voluntary winding up of the company.
- (3) If the material time falls—
 - (a) on or before the 15th day after the date of official notification, or
 - (b) where the 15th day was not a working day, on or before the next day that was, the company is not entitled to rely on the happening of the event as against a person who shows that he was unavoidably prevented from knowing of the event at that time.
- (4) “Official notification” means—
 - (a) in relation to an amendment of the company's articles, notification in accordance with section 1077 (public notice of receipt by registrar of certain documents) of the amendment and the amended text of the articles;

1079B Duty to notify directors

- (1) This section applies whenever the registrar registers either of the following documents—
 - (a) the statement of proposed officers required on formation of a company, or
 - (b) notice under ^{F72}section 167 or 167D^{F72}[^{F72}section 167G] of a person having become a director of a company.
- (2) As soon as reasonably practicable after registering the document, the registrar must notify—
 - (a) in the case of a statement of proposed officers, the person or each person named in the statement as a director of the company, or
 - (b) in the case of a notice under ^{F73}section 167 or 167D^{F73}[^{F73}section 167G], the person named in the document as having become a director of the company.
- (3) The notice must—
 - (a) state that the person is named in the document as a director of the company, and
 - (b) include such information relating to the office and duties of a director (or such details of where information of that sort can be found) as the Secretary of State may from time to time direct the registrar to include.
- (4) The notice may be sent in hard copy or electronic form to any address for the person that the registrar has received from either the subscribers or the company.]

The register

1080 The register

- (1) The registrar shall continue to keep records of—
 - (a) the information contained in documents delivered to the registrar under any enactment,^{F74} and
 - (b) certificates issued by the registrar under any enactment.]
- (2) The records relating to companies are referred to collectively in the Companies Acts as “the register”.
- (3) Information deriving from ^{F75}an enhanced disclosure document (see section 1078) delivered to the registrar,] must be kept by the registrar in electronic form.
- (4) Subject to that, information contained in documents delivered to the registrar may be recorded and kept in any form the registrar thinks fit, provided it is possible to inspect it and produce a copy of it.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Companies Act 2006. ^{F132}1087B Protection of date of birth information

- (1) The registrar must not make available for public inspection—
 - (a) so much of any document delivered to the registrar as is required to contain relevant date of birth information;
 - (b) any record of the information contained in part of a document that is unavailable because of paragraph (a).
- (2) This section has limited application in relation to documents delivered before it comes fully into force: see section 1087B.
- (3) “Relevant date of birth information” means—
 - (a) information as to the day of the month (but not the month or year) on which a director (or proposed director) was born;
 - (b) information as to the day of the month (but not the month or year) on which a registrable person in relation to the company was born.
- (4) Information about a director (or proposed director) or registrable person does not cease to be relevant date of birth information when they cease to be a director (or proposed director) or registrable person.
- (5) Subsection (1)(b) does not affect the availability for public inspection of the same information contained in material derived from a part of a document that was not required to contain the information.
- (6) In this section “registrable person”, in relation to a company, has the meaning given by section 790C(4).]

[^{F132}1087Protection of date of birth information in old documents]

- (1) This section limits the extent to which section 1087A applies in relation to documents delivered to the registrar before that section comes fully into force (“old documents”).
- (2) Section 1087A does not apply in relation to any old documents registered before 10 October 2015.
- (3) Section 1087A does not apply in relation to any old document that is—
 - (a) a statement of a company’s proposed officers delivered under section 9 in circumstances where the subscribers gave notice of election under section 167A (election to keep information on central register) in respect of the company’s register of directors when the statement was delivered;
 - (b) a document delivered by the company under section 167D (duty to notify registrar of changes while election in force);
 - (c) a statement of initial significant control delivered under section 9 in circumstances where the subscribers gave notice of election under section 790X in respect of the company when the statement was delivered;
 - (d) a document containing a statement or updated statement delivered by the company under section 790X(6)(b) or (7) (statement accompanying notice of election made after incorporation);
 - (e) a document delivered by the company under section 790ZA (duty to notify registrar of changes while election in force).
- (4) Section 1087A does not apply in relation to any old document if—
 - (a) the document is—
 - (i) a statement of proposed officers delivered under section 9, or
 - (ii) notice given under section 167 of a person having become a director of the company,
 - (b) after the delivery of the document an election was made under section 167A in respect of the company’s register of directors, and
 - (c) the relevant date of birth information relates to a person who was a director of the company when that election took effect.
- (5) References in subsections (3)(a) to (e) and (4)(a) to (c) to a provision of this Act are to the provision as it had effect at the time at which the document was delivered (the provisions in question were repealed by the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023).]

[^{F133}1088] Power to make regulations protecting material

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring the registrar, on application—
 - (a) not to make available for public inspection any information on the register relating to an individual;
 - (b) to refrain from disclosing information on the register relating to an individual except in specified circumstances;
 - (c) not to make available for public inspection any address on the register that is not information to which paragraph (a) applies;
 - (d) to refrain from disclosing any such address except in specified circumstances.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring the registrar—
 - (a) not to make available for public inspection any information on the register relating to an individual;
 - (b) to refrain from disclosing information on the register relating to an individual except in specified circumstances.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may make provision as to—
 - (a) who may make an application;
 - (b) the grounds on which an application may be made;
 - (c) the information to be included in and documents to accompany an application;
 - (d) the notice to be given of an application and of its outcome;
 - (e) how an application is to be determined;
 - (f) the duration of, and procedures for revoking, any restrictions on the making of information available for public inspection or its disclosure.
- (4) Provision under subsection (3)(e) or (f) may in particular provide for a question to be referred to a person other than the registrar for the purposes of determining the application or revoking the restrictions.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1)(a) or (c) may provide that information is not to be made unavailable for public inspection unless the person to whom it relates provides such alternative information as may be specified.

1097 Powers of court on ordering removal of material from the register

- (1) Where the court makes an order for the removal of anything from the register under section 1096 (rectification of the register), it may give directions under this section.
- (2) It may direct that any note on the register that is related to the material that is the subject of the court's order shall be removed from the register.
- (3) It may direct that its order shall not be available for public inspection as part of the register.
- (4) It may direct—
 - (a) that no note shall be made on the register as a result of its order, or
 - (b) that any such note shall be restricted to such matters as may be specified by the court.
- (5) The court shall not give any direction under this section unless it is satisfied—
 - (a) that—
 - (i) the presence on the register of the note or, as the case may be, of an unrestricted note, or
 - (ii) the availability for public inspection of the court's order, may cause damage to the company, and
 - (b) that the company's interest in non-disclosure outweighs any interest of other persons in disclosure.

^{F151}(2)

(3) The regulations may make provision as to—

- (a) who may make an application,
- (b) the information to be included in and documents to accompany an application,
 - [the registrar requiring the company or an applicant to provide information for
- ^{F152}(ba) the purposes of determining anything under the regulations,]
- (c) the notice to be given of an application [^{F153}or that the registrar is considering the exercise of powers under the regulations],
 - [the notice to be given of any decision under the regulations,]
- ^{F154}(ca) (d) the period in which objections to an application may be made,
 - [how the registrar is to determine whether a company's registered office is at
- ^{F155}(e) an appropriate address within the meaning given by section 86(2), including in particular the evidence, or descriptions of evidence, which the registrar may without further enquiry rely on to be satisfied that an address is an appropriate address,]
- ^{F156}(f) [the referral by the registrar of any question for determination by the court,]
- (g) the registrar requiring a company to provide an address to be the company's registered office,
- (h) the nomination by the registrar of an address (a “default address”) to be the company's registered office [^{F157}(which need not be an appropriate address within the meaning given by section 86(2))],
 - [the period for which a company is permitted to have the default address as
- ^{F158}(ha) its registered office,]
- ^{F159}(i) [when the change of address takes effect and the consequences of registration of the change (including provision similar or corresponding to section 87(2)).]

^{F160}(4)

[Provision made by virtue of subsection (3)(ha) may in particular include—

- ^{F161}(4A) (a) provision creating summary offences punishable with a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale;
- (b) provision—
 - (i) for the registrar to strike a company's name off the register if the company does not change the address of its registered office from the default address, and
 - (ii) for the restoration of a company to the register, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, on an application made to the registrar or in pursuance of a court order.

(4B) The provision that may be made by virtue of subsection (4A) includes provision applying or writing out, in either case with or without modifications, any provision made by section 1000 or Chapter 3 of Part 31.

(4C) Regulations under this section may in particular confer a discretion on the registrar.]

(5) Provision made by virtue of subsection (3)(i) may in particular include provision, in relation to the registration of a default address—

- (a) for the suspension, for up to 28 days beginning with the date on which it is registered, of duties of the company under this Act relating to the inspection of company records or to the provision, disclosure or display of information,
- (b) that the default address may not be used for the purpose of keeping the company's registers, indexes or other documents,
- (c) for there to be no requirement that documents delivered to the default address for the company must be opened,
- (d) for the collection of such documents by the company, or the forwarding of such documents to the company,
- (e) for the circumstances in which, and the period of time after which, such documents may be destroyed,
- (f) about evidence, or descriptions of evidence, that the registrar may require a company to provide if giving notice to the registrar to change the address of its registered office from a default address.

[The regulations must confer a right on a company to appeal to the court against any ^{F162}(6) decision to change the address of its registered office under the regulations.

(6A) If the regulations enable a person to apply for a company's registered office to be changed, they must also confer a right on the applicant to appeal to the court against a refusal of the application.]

(7) On an appeal, the court must direct the registrar to register such address as the registered office of the company as the court considers appropriate in all the circumstances of the case.

(8) The regulations may make further provision about an appeal and in particular—

- (a) provision about the time within which an appeal must be brought and the grounds on which an appeal may be brought,
- (b) provision for the suspension, pending the outcome of an appeal, of duties of the company under this Act relating to the inspection of company records or to the provision, disclosure or display of information,
- (c) further provision about directions by virtue of subsection (7).

(9) The regulations may include such provision applying (including applying with modifications), amending or repealing an enactment contained in this Act as the Secretary of State considers necessary or expedient in consequence of any provision made by the regulations.

(10) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.]

[^{F166} Authorised corporate service providers

Textual Amendments

F166 Ss. 1098A-1098H and cross-heading inserted (26.10.2023 but only so far as it confers a power to make regulations or relates to the exercise of the power, otherwise prosp.) by Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023 \(c. 56\), ss. 66(4), 219(1)(2)(b)

1098A Meaning of “authorised corporate service provider”

In this Act “authorised corporate service provider” means a person—

- (a) whose application to the registrar to become an authorised corporate service provider for the purposes of this Act has been granted (see section 1098B),
- (b) who has not since ceased to be an authorised corporate service provider by virtue of section 1098F, and
- (c) whose status as an authorised corporate service provider is not for the time being suspended by virtue of section 1098F.

1098B Application to become authorised corporate service provider

- (1) A person may apply to the registrar to become an authorised corporate service provider for the purposes of this Act if—
 - (a) the person is a relevant person as defined by regulation 8(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations,
 - (b) in the case of an individual, their identity is verified (see section 1110A), and
 - (c) the person meets any other requirements imposed by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (2) An application under this section must contain—
 - (a) the name of the applicant’s supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations,
 - (b) the required information about the applicant (see section 1098C), and
 - (c) in the case of an application by an individual, a statement that the individual’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).

(See also section 1098D, which imposes restrictions on who may deliver an application under this section on behalf of a firm.)
- (3) Where an application is made under this section, the registrar must check with the supervisory authority, or at least one of the supervisory authorities, specified in the application, to find out whether the applicant is known to and supervised by that authority.
- (4) Having carried out that check, the registrar must grant the application if—
 - (a) the supervisory authority, or at least one of the supervisory authorities, specified in the application has confirmed that the applicant is known to and supervised by that authority,
 - (b) where the applicant is an individual, the registrar is satisfied that their identity is verified (see section 1110A),
 - (c) any other conditions that may be specified by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph are met, and

Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (d) the registrar is not required by subsection (5) to refuse the application.
- (5) The registrar must refuse the application if it appears to the registrar that the applicant is not a fit and proper person to carry out the functions of an authorised corporate service provider.
- (6) The provision that can be made in regulations under subsection (4)(c) includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (1)(c) or (4)(c) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (8) For the purposes of this section—
 - “Money Laundering Regulations” means the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/692);
 - “supervised”: a person is supervised by a supervisory authority if regulation 7(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations provides that it is a supervisory authority for that person;
 - “supervisory authority” means an authority that is a supervisory authority under the Money Laundering Regulations (see regulation 7 of those Regulations).

1098C The required information about an applicant

- (1) The “required information” about the applicant, in the case of a firm that is applying to become an authorised corporate service provider, means—
 - (a) firm name,
 - (b) principal office,
 - (c) a service address,
 - (d) an email address,
 - (e) the legal form of the firm and the law by which it is governed, and
 - (f) if applicable, the register in which it is entered (including details of the state) and its registration number in that register.
- (2) The “required information” about the applicant, in the case of an individual who is applying to become an authorised corporate service provider, means—
 - (a) name, nationality and date of birth,
 - (b) a service address,
 - (c) an email address, and
 - (d) the part of the United Kingdom in which the person is usually resident or, if the person is usually resident in a country or state outside the United Kingdom, that country or state.
- (3) In subsection (2)(a) “name” means forename and surname.
- (4) Where the applicant is a peer or an individual usually known by a title, the requirement for the application to contain their name may be satisfied by providing that title instead of the individual’s forename and surname.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations—

- (a) amend this section so as to change the required information about the applicant in the case of a firm or individual applying to become an authorised corporate service provider;
 - (b) repeal subsection (4).
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

1098D Delivery of applications under section 1098B on behalf of a firm

An application under section 1098B by a firm mentioned in the first column of the table—

- (a) must be delivered to the registrar on its behalf by a relevant officer mentioned in the second column who is an individual (see also section 1067A(2)), and
- (b) must be accompanied by a statement by the individual confirming their status as a relevant officer of the firm.

Firm	Relevant officer

unincorporated body other than a partnership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) where the body's affairs are managed by its members, a member of the body; (b) in any other case, a member of the governing body.

1098E Updating duties of authorised corporate service providers

- (1) A person who is an authorised corporate service provider must notify the registrar of any change in its supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations within the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the change occurs.
- (2) Where the change is the result of an agreement under regulation 7(2) of the Money Laundering Regulations, for the purposes of this section the change is not to be treated as having occurred until the authority that has agreed to act notifies the person or publishes the agreement under regulation 7(3).
- (3) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with this section commits an offence.
- (4) Where the offence is committed by a firm, every officer of the firm who is in default also commits the offence.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Companies Act 2006. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) In this section “Money Laundering Regulations” and “supervisory authority” have the meanings given by section 1098B(8).

1098F Ceasing to be an authorised corporate service provider

- (1) A person ceases to be an authorised corporate service provider if the person ceases to be a relevant person as defined by regulation 8(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) provide for other circumstances in which a person ceases to be an authorised corporate service provider, whether automatically or as a result of a decision taken by the registrar;
 - (b) provide for circumstances in which the registrar may suspend a person’s status as an authorised corporate service provider pending a decision by the registrar under regulations made by virtue of paragraph (a).
- (3) The provision that can be made under subsection (2) includes provision as to—
 - (a) procedure;
 - (b) the period of a suspension;
 - (c) the revocation of a suspension.
- (4) The provision that can be made in regulations under subsection (2) includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (2) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (6) In this section “Money Laundering Regulations” has the meaning given by section 1098B(8).

1098G Power to impose duties to provide information

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations require a person who is or has been an authorised corporate service provider to provide information to the registrar in accordance with the regulations (including information for the purpose of monitoring compliance with the requirements of this Act).
- (2) The provision that may be made by regulations under subsection (1) includes provision requiring information to be provided on request, on the occurrence of an event or at regular intervals.
- (3) The circumstances that may be specified under section 1098F(2) include failure to comply with a requirement under subsection (1).
- (4) Regulations under this section may create offences in relation to failures to comply with requirements imposed by the regulations.

- (5) The regulations must provide for any such offence to be punishable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales with a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, with a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) The provision that can be made in regulations under this section includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar.
- (7) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

1098H Power to enable authorisation of foreign corporate service providers

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the purposes of enabling a person who is subject to a relevant regulatory regime under the law of a territory outside the United Kingdom to become an authorised corporate service provider, even if the person is not a relevant person as defined by regulation 8(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations.
- (2) In subsection (1) “relevant regulatory regime” means a regulatory regime that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, has similar objectives to the regulatory regime under the Money Laundering Regulations for relevant persons and is likely to be no less effective in achieving those objectives.
- (3) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) may amend any of sections 1098B to 1098G or insert new sections into this Act;
 - (b) may make consequential amendments or repeals in other provisions of this Act.
- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (5) In this section “Money Laundering Regulations” has the meaning given by section 1098B(8).]

- (b) a verification statement in respect of the individual has been delivered to the registrar, and the individual has not, since then, ceased to be an individual whose identity is verified by virtue of regulations under subsection (6).
- (2) A verification statement is a statement by an authorised corporate service provider confirming that it has verified an individual's identity in accordance with regulations under section 1110B.
- (3) A verification statement must also specify the authorised corporate service provider's supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the contents of verification statements (including provision amending this section).
- (5) Where a person is required or authorised by any other provision to deliver a statement to the registrar that an individual's identity is verified, that statement may be delivered at the same time as the verification statement by virtue of which the individual becomes someone whose identity is verified under subsection (1)(b).
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for circumstances in which someone ceases to be an individual whose identity is verified.
- (7) The provision that can be made under subsection (6) includes—
 - (a) provision to confer a discretion on the registrar;
 - (b) provision that someone ceases to be an individual whose identity is verified unless, within a specified period of time—
 - (i) their identity is reverified by the registrar in accordance with regulations under section 1110B, or
 - (ii) an authorised corporate service provider delivers to the registrar a statement: (A) confirming that it has reverified the individual's identity in accordance with regulations under section 1110B, (B) specifying the authorised corporate service provider's supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations, and (C) containing anything else required by the regulations.
- (8) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (9) In this section—
 - “Money Laundering Regulations” means the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/692);
 - “supervisory authority” means an authority that is a supervisory authority under the Money Laundering Regulations (see regulation 7 of those Regulations).

1110B Verification requirements

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for and in connection with verification or reverification of an individual's identity for the purposes of this Act by the registrar or by an authorised corporate service provider.

- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision about—
 - (a) the procedure for verifying or reverifying an individual's identity, including the evidence required;
 - (b) the records that a person who is or has been an authorised corporate service provider is required to keep in connection with the verification or reverification of an individual's identity.
- (3) The regulations may create offences in relation to failures to comply with requirements imposed by virtue of subsection (2)(b).
- (4) The regulations must provide for any such offence to be punishable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both);
 - (ii) in Scotland, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both) and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-fifth of the statutory maximum;
 - (iii) in Northern Ireland, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both) and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-fifth of the statutory maximum.
- (5) The provision that can be made in regulations under this section includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar, including provision conferring power to impose requirements by registrar's rules.
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.]

[^{F175} 1110 Identity verification: exemption on national security grounds etc

- (1) The Secretary of State may, by written notice given to a person, provide for one or more of the effects listed in subsection (2) to apply in relation to the person, if satisfied that to do so is necessary—
 - (a) in the interests of national security, or
 - (b) for the purposes of preventing or detecting serious crime.
- (2) The effects for which the notice may provide are that—
 - (a) where a statement of proposed officers names the person as a director, section 12(2A) does not require a statement under that subsection to be made in relation to the person;
 - (b) section 167G(3)(c) does not apply in relation to a notice of the person having become a director;
 - (c) section 167M(1) does not apply in relation to the person and section 167M(2) does not impose any obligation on a company in relation to the person;
 - (d) section 167N(1) does not apply in relation to the person;
 - (e) section 1067A does not apply in relation to the delivery of documents to the registrar by the person on their own behalf or on behalf of another;
 - (f) section 1098B(2)(c) does not apply in relation to the person.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b)—
- (a) “crime” means conduct which—
 - (i) constitutes a criminal offence, or
 - (ii) is, or corresponds to, any conduct which, if it all took place in any one part of the United Kingdom, would constitute a criminal offence, and
 - (b) crime is “serious” if—
 - (i) the offence which is or would be constituted by the conduct is an offence for which the maximum sentence (in any part of the United Kingdom) is imprisonment for 3 years or more, or
 - (ii) the conduct involves the use of violence, results in substantial financial gain or is conduct by a large number of persons in pursuit of a common purpose.]

1110G Disclosure: supplementary

- (1) Except as provided by subsection (2), the disclosure of information under section 1110E or 1110F does not breach—
 - (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (2) Sections 1110E and 1110F do not authorise a disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the powers conferred by those sections).
- (3) HMRC information may not be disclosed by the registrar under section 1110F without authorisation from HMRC.
- (4) If the registrar discloses HMRC information under section 1110F, the information must not be disclosed by the recipient, or by any person obtaining the information directly or indirectly from them, without authorisation from HMRC.
- (5) It is an offence for a person to disclose, in contravention of subsection (3) or (4), any revenue and customs information relating to a person whose identity—
 - (a) is specified in the disclosure, or
 - (b) can be deduced from it.
- (6) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (5) to prove that the person reasonably believed—
 - (a) that the disclosure was lawful, or
 - (b) that the information had already lawfully been made available to the public.
- (7) Subsections (4) to (7) of section 19 of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 apply to an offence under subsection (5) as they apply to an offence under that section.
- (8) In this section—

“the data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3 of that Act);

“HMRC” means the Commissioners for His Majesty’s Revenue and Customs;

“HMRC information” means information disclosed to the registrar under section 1110E by HMRC or a person acting on behalf of HMRC;

“revenue and customs information relating to a person” has the meaning given by section 19(2) of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005.]

Supplementary provisions

1111 Registrar's requirements as to certification or verification

- (1) Where a document required or authorised to be delivered to the registrar under any enactment is required—
 - (a) to be certified as an accurate translation or transliteration, or
 - (b) to be certified as a correct copy or verified, the registrar may impose requirements as to the person, or description of person, by whom the certificate or verification is to be given.
- (2) The power conferred by section 1068 (registrar's requirements as to form, authentication and manner of delivery) is exercisable in relation to the certificate or verification as if it were a separate document.
- (3) Requirements imposed under this section must not be inconsistent with requirements imposed by any enactment with respect to the certification or verification of the document concerned.
