113 Register of members U.K.

(1) Every company must keep a register of its members.

[^{F7}(2) There must be entered in the register, in respect of each person who is a member—
(a) the required information (see sections 113A and 113B), and
(b) the date on which the person was registered as a member.

(2A) Where a person ceases to be a member there must be entered in the register the date at which the person's membership ceased.]

(3) In the case of a company having a share capital, there must be entered in the register [^{F8}, with the names and addresses of the members,] a statement of—
(a) the shares held by each member, distinguishing each share—
(i) by its number (so long as the share has a number), and
(ii) where the company has more than one class of issued shares, by its class, and
(b) the amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid on the shares of each member.

(4) If the company has converted any of its shares into stock, and given notice of the conversion to the registrar, the register of members must show the amount and class of stock held by each member instead of the amount of shares and the particulars relating to shares specified above.

(5) In the case of joint holders of shares or stock in a company, the company's register of members must state the names of each joint holder.

In other respects joint holders are regarded for the purposes of this Chapter as a single member (so that the register must show a single [^{F9}service] address).

(6) In the case of a company that does not have a share capital but has more than one class of members, there must be entered in the register [^{F10}, with the names and addresses of the members,] a statement of the class to which each member belongs.

[^{F11}(6A) Where any of the information required to be entered in a company's register of members changes and, at the time of the change, it is a non-traded company—

(a) the fact that the information has changed does not relieve the company from the obligation to include the old information in the register if it has not already done so,

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Companies Act 2006. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (b) the old information must be retained in the register until its removal is authorised by section 121 or by court order under section 125, and
 - (c) a note must be included in the register recording the date on which the information changed and the date on which the change was entered in the register.
- (6B) Where any of the information required to be entered in a company's register of members changes and, at the time of the change, it is a traded company, the company is not required to include or retain the old information in the register.
- (6C) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) amend subsection (6A) so as to provide for it to apply in relation to traded companies, and
 - (b) repeal subsection (6B) in consequence.
- (6D) Regulations under subsection (6C) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.]
- (7) If [^{F12}, without reasonable excuse,] a company makes default in complying with this section an offence is committed by—
- (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- (8) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.
- [^{F13}(9) In this section—
- “non-traded company” means a company that is not a traded company;
 - “relevant market” has the meaning given by section 853E(6);
 - “traded company” means a company any of whose shares are admitted to trading on a relevant market or on any other market which is outside the United Kingdom.]

128B Right to make an election U.K.

- (1) An election may be made under this section—
 - (a) by the subscribers wishing to form a private company under this Act, or
 - (b) by the private company itself once it is formed and registered.
- (2) In the latter case, the election is of no effect unless, before it is made—
 - (a) all the members of the company have assented to the making of the election, and
 - (b) any overseas branch registers that the company was keeping under Chapter 3 have been discontinued and all the entries in those registers transferred to the company's register of members in accordance with section 135.
- (3) An election under this section is made by giving notice of election to the registrar.
- (4) If the notice is given by subscribers wishing to form a private company—
 - (a) it must be given when the documents required to be delivered under section 9 are delivered to the registrar, and
 - (b) it must be accompanied by a statement containing all the information that—
 - (i) would be required (in the absence of the notice) to be entered in the company's register of members on incorporation of the company, and
 - (ii) is not otherwise included in the documents delivered under section 9.
- (5) If the notice is given by the company, it must be accompanied by—
 - (a) a statement by the company—
 - (i) that all the members of the company have assented to the making of the election, and
 - (ii) if the company was keeping any overseas branch registers, that all such registers have been discontinued and all the entries in them transferred to the company's register of members in accordance with section 135, and
 - (b) a statement containing all the information that is required to be contained in the company's register of members as at the date of the notice in respect of matters that are current as at that date.
- (6) The company must where necessary update the statement sent under subsection (5)(b) to ensure that the final version delivered to the registrar contains all the information that is required to be contained in the company's register of members as at the time immediately before the election takes effect (see section 128C) in respect of matters that are current as at that time.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Companies Act 2006. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (7) The obligation in subsection (6) to update the statement includes an obligation to rectify it (where necessary) in consequence of the company's register of members being rectified (whether before or after the election takes effect).
- (8) If default is made in complying with subsection (6), an offence is committed by—
- (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- For this purpose a shadow director is treated as an officer of the company.
- (9) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.
- (10) A reference in this Chapter to matters that are current as at a given date or time is a reference to—
- (a) persons who are members of the company as at that date or time, and
 - (b) any other matters that are current as at that date or time.

128C Effective date of election U.K.

- (1) An election made under section 128B takes effect when the notice of election is registered by the registrar.
- (2) The election remains in force until either—
- (a) the company ceases to be a private company, or
 - (b) a notice of withdrawal sent by the company under section 128J is registered by the registrar,
- whichever occurs first.

128D Effect of election on obligations under Chapter 2 U.K.

- (1) The effect of an election under section 128B on a company's obligations under Chapter 2 is as follows.
- (2) The company's obligation to maintain a register of members does not apply with respect to the period when the election is in force.
- (3) This means that, during that period—
- (a) the company must continue to keep a register of members in accordance with Chapter 2 (a “historic” register) containing all the information that was required to be stated in that register as at the time immediately before the election took effect, but
 - (b) the company does not have to update that register to reflect any changes that occur after that time.
- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) apply to the index of members (if the company is obliged to keep an index of members) as they apply to the register of members.
- (5) The provisions of Chapter 2 (including the rights to inspect or require copies of the register and to inspect the index) continue to apply to the historic register and, if applicable, the historic index during the period when the election is in force.
- (6) The company must place a note in its historic register—

- (a) stating that an election under section 128B is in force,
 - (b) recording when that election took effect, and
 - (c) indicating that up-to-date information about its members is available for public inspection on the central register.
- (7) Subsections (7) and (8) of section 113 apply if a company makes default in complying with subsection (6) as they apply if a company makes default in complying with that section.
- (8) The obligations under this section with respect to a historic register and historic index do not apply in a case where the election was made by subscribers wishing to form a private company.

128E Duty to notify registrar of changes U.K.

- (1) The duty under subsection (2) applies during the period when an election under section 128B is in force.
- (2) The company must deliver to the registrar any relevant information that the company would during that period have been obliged under this Act to enter in its register of members, had the election not been in force.
- (3) “Relevant information” means information other than—
- (a) the date mentioned in section 113(2)(b) (date when person registered as member),
 - (b) the date mentioned in section 123(3)(b) (date when membership of limited company increases from one to two or more members), and
 - (c) the dates mentioned in the following provisions, but only in cases where the date to be recorded in the central register is to be the date on which the document containing information of the relevant change is registered by the registrar—
 - (i) section 113(2)(c) (date when person ceases to be member),
 - (ii) section 123(2)(b) (date when company becomes single member company).
- (4) The relevant information must be delivered as soon as reasonably practicable after the company becomes aware of it and, in any event, no later than the time by which the company would have been required to enter the information in its register of members.
- (5) In a case of the kind described in subsection (3)(c), the company must, when it delivers information under subsection (2) of the relevant change, indicate to the registrar that, in accordance with section 1081(1A), the date to be recorded in the central register is to be the date on which the document containing that information is registered by the registrar.
- (6) If default is made in complying with this section, an offence is committed by—
- (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

For this purpose a shadow director is treated as an officer of the company.

- (7) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Companies Act 2006. 128F Information as to state of central register U.K.

- (1) When a person inspects or requests a copy of material on the central register relating to a company in respect of which an election under section 128B is in force, the person may ask the company to confirm that all information that the company is required to deliver to the registrar under this Chapter has been delivered.
- (2) If a company fails to respond to a request under subsection (1), an offence is committed by—
 - (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

128G Power of court to order company to remedy default or delay U.K.

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the name of a person is without sufficient cause included in, or omitted from, information that a company delivers to the registrar under this Chapter concerning its members, or
 - (b) default is made or unnecessary delay takes place in informing the registrar under this Chapter of—
 - (i) the name of a person who is to be a member of the company, or
 - (ii) the fact that a person has ceased or is to cease to be a member of the company.
- (2) The person aggrieved, or any member of the company, or the company, may apply to the court for an order—
 - (a) requiring the company to deliver to the registrar the information (or statements) necessary to rectify the position, and
 - (b) where applicable, requiring the registrar to record under section 1081(1A) the date determined by the court.
- (3) The court may either refuse the application or may make the order and order the company to pay any damages sustained by any party aggrieved.
- (4) On such an application the court may decide—
 - (a) any question relating to the title of a person who is a party to the application to have the person's name included in or omitted from information delivered to the registrar under this Chapter about the company's members, whether the question arises between members or alleged members, or between members or alleged members on the one hand and the company on the other hand, and
 - (b) any question necessary or expedient to be decided for rectifying the position.
- (5) Nothing in this section affects a person's rights under section 1095 or 1096 (rectification of register on application to registrar or under court order).

128H Central register to be evidence U.K.

- (1) The central register is prima facie evidence of any matters about which a company is required to deliver information to the registrar under this Chapter.

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Companies Act 2006. Any changes that have already been made by the team appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to information to be included in a statement under section 128B(5)(b) or in any updated statement under section 128B(6).

128I Time limits for claims arising from delivery to registrar U.K.

- (1) Liability incurred by a company—
- (a) from the delivery to the registrar of information under this Chapter, or
 - (b) from a failure to deliver any such information,
- is not enforceable more than 10 years after the date on which the information was delivered or, as the case may be, the failure first occurred.
- (2) This is without prejudice to any lesser period of limitation (and, in Scotland, to any rule that the obligation giving rise to the liability prescribes before the expiry of that period).

128J Withdrawing the election U.K.

- (1) A company may withdraw an election made by or in respect of it under section 128B.
- (2) Withdrawal is achieved by giving notice of withdrawal to the registrar.
- (3) The withdrawal takes effect when the notice is registered by the registrar.
- (4) The effect of withdrawal is that the company's obligation under Chapter 2 to maintain a register of members applies from then on with respect to the period going forward.
- (5) This means that, when the withdrawal takes effect—
 - (a) the company must enter in its register of members all the information that is required to be contained in that register in respect of matters that are current as at that time,
 - (b) the company must also retain in its register all the information that it was required under section 128D(3)(a) to keep in a historic register while the election was in force, but
 - (c) the company is not required to enter in its register information relating to the period when the election was in force that is no longer current.
- (6) The company must place a note in its register of members—
 - (a) stating that the election under section 128B has been withdrawn,
 - (b) recording when that withdrawal took effect, and
 - (c) indicating that information about its members relating to the period when the election was in force that is no longer current is available for public inspection on the central register.
- (7) Subsections (7) and (8) of section 113 apply if a company makes default in complying with subsection (6) as they apply if a company makes default in complying with that section.

128K Power to extend option to public companies U.K.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend this Act—
- (a) to extend sections 128A to 128J (with or without modification) to public companies or public companies of a class specified in the regulations, and

- (b) to make such other amendments as the Secretary of State thinks fit in consequence of that extension.
- (2) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.]]

CHAPTER 3 U.K.

OVERSEAS BRANCH REGISTERS

129 Overseas branch registers U.K.

- (1) A company having a share capital may, if it transacts business in a country or territory to which this Chapter applies, cause to be kept there a branch register of members resident there (an “overseas branch register”).
- (2) This Chapter applies to—
- any part of Her Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, and
 - the countries or territories listed below.

Bangladesh	Malaysia
Cyprus	Malta
Dominica	Nigeria
The Gambia	Pakistan
Ghana	Seychelles
Guyana	Sierra Leone
The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China	Singapore
India	South Africa
Ireland	Sri Lanka
Kenya	Swaziland
Kiribati	Trinidad and Tobago
Lesotho	Uganda
Malawi	Zimbabwe

- (3) The Secretary of State may make provision by regulations as to the circumstances in which a company is to be regarded as keeping a register in a particular country or territory.
- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to negative resolution procedure.
- (5) References—
- in any Act or instrument (including, in particular, a company's articles) to a dominion register, or
 - in articles registered before 1st November 1929 to a colonial register,

132 Register or duplicate to be kept available for inspection in UK U.K.

- (1) A company that keeps an overseas branch register must keep available for inspection—
 - (a) the register, or
 - (b) a duplicate of the register duly entered up from time to time, at the place in the United Kingdom where the company's main register is kept available for inspection.
- (2) Any such duplicate is treated for all purposes of this Act as part of the main register.
- (3) If default is made in complying with subsection (1), an offence is committed by—
 - (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (3) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

133 Transactions in shares registered in overseas branch register U.K.

- (1) Shares registered in an overseas branch register must be distinguished from those registered in the main register.
- (2) No transaction with respect to shares registered in an overseas branch register may be registered in any other register.
- (3) An instrument of transfer of a share registered in an overseas branch register—
 - (a) is regarded as a transfer of property situated outside the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) unless executed in a part of the United Kingdom, is exempt from stamp duty.

134 Jurisdiction of local courts U.K.

- (1) A competent court in a country or territory where an overseas branch register is kept may exercise the same jurisdiction as is exercisable by a court in the United Kingdom—
 - (a) to rectify the register (see section 125), or
 - (b) in relation to a request for inspection or a copy of the register (see section 117).
- (2) The offences—
 - (a) of refusing inspection or failing to provide a copy of the register (see section 118), and
 - (b) of making a false, misleading or deceptive statement in a request for inspection or a copy (see section 119),may be prosecuted summarily before any tribunal having summary criminal jurisdiction in the country or territory where the register is kept.

135 Discontinuance of overseas branch register U.K.

- (1) A company may discontinue an overseas branch register.
- (2) If it does so all the entries in that register must be transferred—
 - (a) to some other overseas branch register kept in the same country or territory, or
 - (b) to the main register.
- (3) The company must give notice to the registrar within 14 days of the discontinuance.
- (4) If default is made in complying with subsection (3), an offence is committed by—
 - (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (4) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

CHAPTER 4 U.K.

PROHIBITION ON SUBSIDIARY BEING MEMBER OF ITS HOLDING COMPANY

General prohibition

136 Prohibition on subsidiary being a member of its holding company U.K.

- (1) Except as provided by this Chapter—
 - (a) a body corporate cannot be a member of a company that is its holding company, and
 - (b) any allotment or transfer of shares in a company to its subsidiary is void.
- (2) The exceptions are provided for in—
 - section 138 (subsidiary acting as personal representative or trustee), and
 - section 141 (subsidiary acting as authorised dealer in securities).

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- (b) on or after that date and before the commencement of this Chapter in circumstances in which the prohibition in section 23(1) of the Companies Act 1985 or Article 33(1) of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (S.I. 1986/1032 (N.I. 6)) (or any corresponding earlier enactment), as it then had effect, did not apply, or
 - (c) on or after the commencement of this Chapter in circumstances in which the prohibition in section 136 did not apply,
- it may continue to be a member of the company.
- (2) The relevant date for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) is—
- (a) 1st July 1948 in the case of a company registered in Great Britain, and
 - (b) 1st April 1961 in the case of a company registered in Northern Ireland.
- (3) So long as it is permitted to continue as a member of a company by virtue of this section, an allotment to it of fully paid shares in the company may be validly made by way of capitalisation of reserves of the company.
- (4) But, so long as the prohibition in section 136 would (apart from this section) apply, it has no right to vote in respect of the shares mentioned in subsection (1) above, or any shares allotted as mentioned in subsection (3) above, on a written resolution or at meetings of the company or of any class of its members.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

Subsidiary acting as personal representative or trustee

138 Subsidiary acting as personal representative or trustee U.K.

- (1) The prohibition in section 136 (prohibition on subsidiary being a member of its holding company) does not apply where the subsidiary is concerned only—
- (a) as personal representative, or
 - (b) as trustee,
- unless, in the latter case, the holding company or a subsidiary of it is beneficially interested under the trust.
- (2) For the purpose of ascertaining whether the holding company or a subsidiary is so interested, there shall be disregarded—
- (a) any interest held only by way of security for the purposes of a transaction entered into by the holding company or subsidiary in the ordinary course of a business that includes the lending of money;
 - (b) any interest within—
 - section 139 (interests to be disregarded: residual interest under pension scheme or employees' share scheme), or
 - section 140 (interests to be disregarded: employer's rights of recovery under pension scheme or employees' share scheme);

Changes to legislation: There are outstanding changes not yet made by the legislation.gov.uk editorial team to Companies Act 2006. - (c) any rights that the company or subsidiary has in its capacity as trustee, including in particular—
 - (i) any right to recover its expenses or be remunerated out of the trust property, and
 - (ii) any right to be indemnified out of the trust property for any liability incurred by reason of any act or omission in the performance of its duties as trustee.

139 Interests to be disregarded: residual interest under pension scheme or employees' share scheme U.K.

- (1) Where shares in a company are held on trust for the purposes of a pension scheme or employees' share scheme, there shall be disregarded for the purposes of section 138 any residual interest that has not vested in possession.
- (2) A “residual interest” means a right of the company or subsidiary (“the residual beneficiary”) to receive any of the trust property in the event of—
 - (a) all the liabilities arising under the scheme having been satisfied or provided for, or
 - (b) the residual beneficiary ceasing to participate in the scheme, or
 - (c) the trust property at any time exceeding what is necessary for satisfying the liabilities arising or expected to arise under the scheme.
- (3) In subsection (2)—
 - (a) the reference to a right includes a right dependent on the exercise of a discretion vested by the scheme in the trustee or another person, and
 - (b) the reference to liabilities arising under a scheme includes liabilities that have resulted, or may result, from the exercise of any such discretion.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a residual interest vests in possession—
 - (a) in a case within subsection (2)(a), on the occurrence of the event mentioned there (whether or not the amount of the property receivable pursuant to the right is ascertained);
 - (b) in a case within subsection (2)(b) or (c), when the residual beneficiary becomes entitled to require the trustee to transfer to him any of the property receivable pursuant to the right.
- (5) In this section “pension scheme” means a scheme for the provision of benefits consisting of or including relevant benefits for or in respect of employees or former employees.
- (6) In subsection (5)—
 - (a) “relevant benefits” means any pension, lump sum, gratuity or other like benefit given or to be given on retirement or on death or in anticipation of retirement or, in connection with past service, after retirement or death; and
 - (b) “employee” shall be read as if a director of a company were employed by it.

140 Interests to be disregarded: employer's rights of recovery under pension scheme or employees' share scheme U.K.

- (1) Where shares in a company are held on trust for the purposes of a pension scheme or employees' share scheme, there shall be disregarded for the purposes of section 138

any charge or lien on, or set-off against, any benefit or other right or interest under the scheme for the purpose of enabling the employer or former employer of a member of the scheme to obtain the discharge of a monetary obligation due to him from the member.

- (2) ^{F44}In the case of a trust for the purposes of a pension scheme there shall also be disregarded any right to receive from the trustee of the scheme, or as trustee of the scheme to retain, an amount that can be recovered or retained, under ^{F45}... section 57 of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993 (c. 49) (deduction of contributions equivalent premium from refund of scheme contributions) or otherwise, as reimbursement or partial reimbursement for any contributions equivalent premium paid in connection with the scheme under Part 3 of that Act.]
- (3) In this section “pension scheme” means a scheme for the provision of benefits consisting of or including relevant benefits for or in respect of employees or former employees.

“Relevant benefits” here means any pension, lump sum, gratuity or other like benefit given or to be given on retirement or on death or in anticipation of retirement or, in connection with past service, after retirement or death.
