 - (a) “landlord” means any one of them;
 - (b) CRAR may be exercised to recover rent due to all of them.
- (5) If the immediate reversion is mortgaged, “landlord” means—

- (a) the mortgagee, if he has given notice of his intention to take possession or enter into receipt of rents and profits;
 - (b) otherwise, the mortgagor.
- (6) Subsection (5) applies whether the lease is made before or after the mortgage is created, but CRAR is not exercisable by a mortgagee in relation to a lease that does not bind him.
- (7) Where a receiver is appointed by a court in relation to the immediate reversion, CRAR is exercisable by the receiver in the name of the landlord.
- (8) Any authorisation of a person to exercise CRAR on another's behalf must be in writing and must comply with any prescribed requirements.
- (9) This Chapter applies to any other person entitled to exercise CRAR as it applies to a landlord.

74 Lease

- (1) "Lease" means a tenancy in law or in equity, including a tenancy at will, but not including a tenancy at sufferance.
- (2) A lease must be evidenced in writing.
- (3) References to a lease are to a lease as varied from time to time (whether or not the variation is in writing).
- (4) This section applies for the purposes of this Chapter.

75 Commercial premises

- (1) A lease (A) is of commercial premises if none of the demised premises is—
 - (a) let under lease A as a dwelling,
 - (b) let under an inferior lease (B) as a dwelling, or
 - (c) occupied as a dwelling.
- (2) The "demised premises" in this section include anything on them.
- (3) "Let as a dwelling" means let on terms permitting only occupation as a dwelling or other use combined with occupation as a dwelling.
- (4) Premises are not within subsection (1)(b) if letting them as a dwelling is a breach of a lease superior to lease B.
- (5) Premises are not within subsection (1)(c) if occupying them as a dwelling is a breach of lease A or a lease superior to lease A.
- (6) This section applies for the purposes of this Chapter.

76 Rent

- (1) "Rent" means the amount payable under a lease (in advance or in arrear) for possession and use of the demised premises, together with—
 - (a) any interest payable on that amount under the lease, and
 - (b) any value added tax chargeable on that amount or interest.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) “Rent” does not include any sum in respect of rates, council tax, services, repairs, maintenance, insurance or other ancillary matters (whether or not called “rent” in the lease).
- (3) The amount payable for possession and use of the demised premises, where it is not otherwise identifiable, is to be taken to be so much of the total amount payable under the lease as is reasonably attributable to possession and use.
- (4) Where a rent is payable under or by virtue of Part 2 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (c. 56), the amount payable under the lease for possession and use of those premises is to be taken to be that rent.
- (5) This section applies for the purposes of this Chapter except sections 71 and 85.

77 The rent recoverable

- (1) CRAR is not exercisable except to recover rent that meets each of these conditions—
 - (a) it has become due and payable before notice of enforcement is given;
 - (b) it is certain, or capable of being calculated with certainty.
- (2) The amount of any rent recoverable by CRAR is reduced by any permitted deduction.
- (3) CRAR is exercisable only if the net unpaid rent is at least the minimum amount immediately before each of these—
 - (a) the time when notice of enforcement is given;
 - (b) the first time that goods are taken control of after that notice.
- (4) The minimum amount is to be calculated in accordance with regulations.
- (5) The net unpaid rent is the amount of rent that meets the conditions in subsection (1), less—
 - (a) any interest or value added tax included in that amount under section 76(1)(a) or (b), and
 - (b) any permitted deductions.
- (6) Regulations may provide for subsection (5)(a) not to apply in specified cases.
- (7) Permitted deductions, against any rent, are any deduction, recoupment or set-off that the tenant would be entitled to claim (in law or equity) in an action by the landlord for that rent.

78 Intervention of the court

- (1) If notice of enforcement is given in exercise (or purported exercise) of CRAR the court may make either or both of these orders on the application of the tenant—
 - (a) an order setting aside the notice;
 - (b) an order that no further step may be taken under CRAR, without further order, in relation to the rent claimed.
- (2) Regulations may make provision about—
 - (a) the further orders that may be made for the purposes of subsection (1)(b);
 - (b) grounds of which the court must be satisfied before making an order or further order.

- (3) In this section “the court” means the High Court or a county court, as rules of court may provide.

79 Use of CRAR after end of lease

- (1) When the lease ends, CRAR ceases to be exercisable, with these exceptions.
- (2) CRAR continues to be exercisable in relation to goods taken control of under it—
- (a) before the lease ended, or
 - (b) under subsection (3).
- (3) CRAR continues to be exercisable in relation to rent due and payable before the lease ended, if the conditions in subsection (4) are met.
- (4) These are the conditions—
- (a) the lease did not end by forfeiture;
 - (b) not more than 6 months has passed since the day when it ended;
 - (c) the rent was due from the person who was the tenant at the end of the lease;
 - (d) that person remains in possession of any part of the demised premises;
 - (e) any new lease under which that person remains in possession is a lease of commercial premises;
 - (f) the person who was the landlord at the end of the lease remains entitled to the immediate reversion.
- (5) In deciding whether a person remains in possession under a new lease, section 74(2) (lease to be evidenced in writing) does not apply.
- (6) In the case of a tenancy by estoppel, the person who was the landlord remains “entitled to the immediate reversion” if the estoppel with regard to the tenancy continues.
- (7) A lease ends when the tenant ceases to be entitled to possession of the demised premises under the lease together with any continuation of it by operation of an enactment or of a rule of law.

80 Agricultural holdings

- (1) This section applies to the exercise of CRAR where the premises concerned are an agricultural holding.
- (2) CRAR is not exercisable to recover rent that became due more than a year before notice of enforcement is given.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), deferred rent becomes due at the time to which payment is deferred.
- (4) “Deferred rent” means rent the payment of which has been deferred, according to the ordinary course of dealing between the landlord and the tenant, to the end of a quarter or half-year after it legally became due.
- (5) The permitted deductions under section 77(7) at any time include any compensation due to the tenant in respect of the holding, under the 1986 Act or under custom or agreement, that has been ascertained at that time.
- (6) In this section—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

the “1986 Act” means the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986 (c. 5);
 “agricultural holding” has the meaning given by section 1 of the 1986 Act.

Right to rent from sub-tenant

81 Right to rent from sub-tenant

- (1) This section applies where CRAR is exercisable by a landlord to recover rent due and payable from a tenant (the immediate tenant).
- (2) The landlord may serve a notice on any sub-tenant.
- (3) The notice must state the amount of rent that the landlord has the right to recover from the immediate tenant by CRAR (the “notified amount”).
- (4) When it takes effect the notice transfers to the landlord the right to recover, receive and give a discharge for any rent payable by the sub-tenant under the sub-lease, until—
 - (a) the notified amount has been paid (by payments under the notice or otherwise), or
 - (b) the notice is replaced or withdrawn.
- (5) A notice under this section takes effect at the end of a period to be determined by regulations.
- (6) Regulations may state—
 - (a) the form of a notice under this section;
 - (b) what it must contain;
 - (c) how it must be served;
 - (d) what must be done to withdraw it.
- (7) In determining for the purposes of this section whether CRAR is exercisable, section 77 applies with these modifications—
 - (a) if notice of enforcement has not been given, references to that notice are to be read as references to the notice under this section;
 - (b) if goods have not been taken control of, section 77(3)(b) does not apply.
- (8) In this section and sections 82 to 84—
 - (a) “sub-tenant” means a tenant (below the immediate tenant) of any of the premises comprised in the headlease (and “sub-lease” is to be read accordingly);
 - (b) “headlease” means the lease between the landlord and the immediate tenant.

82 Off-setting payments under a notice

- (1) For any amount that a sub-tenant pays under a notice under section 81, he may deduct an equal amount from the rent that would be due to his immediate landlord under the sub-lease.
- (2) If an amount is deducted under subsection (1) or this subsection from rent due to a superior sub-tenant, that sub-tenant may deduct an equal amount from any rent due from him under his sub-lease.

- (3) Subsection (1) applies even if the sub-tenant's payment or part of it is not due under the notice, if it is not due because—
 - (a) the notified amount has already been paid (wholly or partly otherwise than under the notice), or
 - (b) the notice has been replaced by a notice served on another sub-tenant.
- (4) That is subject to the following.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply if the landlord withdraws the notice before the payment is made.
- (6) Where the notified amount has already been paid (or will be exceeded by the payment), subsection (1) does not apply (or does not apply to the excess) if the sub-tenant has notice of that when making the payment.
- (7) Subsection (1) does not apply if, before the payment is made, payments under the notice at least equal the notified amount.
- (8) Subsection (1) does not apply to a part of the payment if, with the rest of the payment, payments under the notice at least equal the notified amount.
- (9) Where the notice has been replaced by one served on another sub-tenant, subsection (1) does not apply if the sub-tenant has notice of that when making the payment.

83 Withdrawal and replacement of notices

- (1) A notice under section 81 is replaced if the landlord serves another notice on the same sub-tenant for a notified amount covering the same rent or part of that rent.
- (2) A notice under section 81 served on one sub-tenant is also replaced if—
 - (a) the landlord serves a notice on another sub-tenant for a notified amount covering the same rent or part of that rent, and
 - (b) in relation to any of the premises comprised in the first sub-tenant's sub-lease, the second sub-tenant is an inferior or superior sub-tenant.
- (3) The landlord must withdraw a notice under section 81 if any of these happens—
 - (a) the notice is replaced;
 - (b) the notified amount is paid, unless it is paid wholly by the sub-tenant.

84 Recovery of sums due and overpayments

- (1) For the purposes of the recovery of sums payable by a sub-tenant under a notice under section 81 (including recovery by CRAR), the sub-tenant is to be treated as the immediate tenant of the landlord, and the sums are to be treated as rent accordingly.
- (2) But those sums (as opposed to rent due from the immediate tenant) are not recoverable by notice under section 81 served on an inferior sub-tenant.
- (3) Any payment received by the landlord that the sub-tenant purports to make under a notice under section 81, and that is not due under the notice for any reason, is to be treated as a payment of rent by the immediate tenant, for the purposes of the retention of the payment by the landlord and (if no rent is due) for the purposes of any claim by the immediate tenant to recover the payment.

- (4) But subsection (3) does not affect any claim by the sub-tenant against the immediate tenant.

Supplementary

85 Contracts for similar rights to be void

- (1) A provision of a contract is void to the extent that it would do any of these—
- (a) confer a right to seize or otherwise take control of goods to recover amounts within subsection (2);

- (2) Those amendments are about the basis on which periodical deductions are to be made under an attachment of earnings order.
- (3) In particular, they provide that deductions under certain orders are to be made in accordance with a fixed deductions scheme made by the Lord Chancellor (rather than in accordance with Part I of Schedule 3 to the 1971 Act).

 - “(6) Subsections (7) and (8) apply where, under a judgment or order of the High Court or a county court, a debtor is required to pay a sum of money by instalments.
 - (7) The fact that there has been no default in payment of the instalments does not prevent a charging order from being made in respect of that sum.
 - (8) But if there has been no default, the court must take that into account when considering the circumstances of the case under subsection (5).”

- (3) In section 3 (provisions supplementing sections 1 and 2), after subsection (4) insert—
- “(4A) Subsections (4C) to (4E) apply where—

- (4D) Rules of court may—
- (a) provide that, if there has been default in payment of an instalment, the charge may be enforced only in prescribed cases, and

- (4E) Except so far as otherwise provided by rules of court under subsection (4D)—
- (a) the charge may be enforced, if there has been default in payment of an instalment, for the whole of the sum of money secured by the charge and the costs then remaining unpaid, or for such part as the court may order, but
 - (b) the charge may not be enforced unless, at the time of enforcement, the whole or part of an instalment which has become due under the instalments order remains unpaid.”
- (4) In section 6(2) (meaning of references to judgment or order of High Court or county court), for “section 1” substitute “sections 1 and 3”.
- (5) In section 313(4) of the Insolvency Act 1986 (c. 45) (charge on bankrupt’s home: certain provisions of section 3 of Charging Orders Act 1979 to apply), for the words before “section 3” substitute “Subsection (1), (2), (4), (5) and (6) of”.
- (6) This section does not apply in a case where a judgment or order of the High Court or a county court under which a debtor is required to pay a sum of money by instalments was made, or applied for, before the coming into force of this section.

- (c) which imposes the requirements specified in sections 112F to 112I on certain creditors.

112B Power to make order

- (1) A county court may make an administration order if the conditions in subsections (2) to (7) are met.
- (2) The order must be made in respect of an individual who is a debtor under two or more qualifying debts.
- (3) That individual (“the debtor”) must not be a debtor under any business debts.

- (4) The debtor must not be excluded under any of the following—
 - (a) the AO exclusion;
 - (b) the voluntary arrangement exclusion;
 - (c) the bankruptcy exclusion.
- (5) The debtor must be unable to pay one or more of his qualifying debts.
- (6) The total amount of the debtor's qualifying debts must be less than, or the same as, the prescribed maximum.
- (7) The debtor's surplus income must be more than the prescribed minimum.
- (8) Before making an administration order, the county court must have regard to any representations made—
 - (a) by any person about why the order should not be made, or
 - (b) by a creditor under a debt about why the debt should not be taken into account in calculating the total amount of the debtor's qualifying debts.

Scheduling debts

112C Scheduling declared debts

- (1) This section applies to a qualifying debt ("the declared debt") if—
 - (a) an administration order is made, and
 - (b) when the order is made, the debt is taken into account in calculating the total amount of the debtor's qualifying debts for the purposes of section 112B(6).
- (2) If the declared debt is already due at the time the administration order is made, the proper county court must schedule the debt to the order when the order is made.
- (3) If the declared debt becomes due after the administration order is made, the proper county court must schedule the debt to the order if the debtor, or the creditor under the debt, applies to the court for the debt to be scheduled.
- (4) This section is subject to section 112AG(5).

112D Scheduling new debts

- (1) This section applies to a qualifying debt ("the new debt") if the debt—
 - (a) arises after an administration order is made, and
 - (b) becomes due during the currency of the order.
- (2) The proper county court may schedule the new debt to the administration order if these conditions are met—
 - (a) the debtor, or the creditor under the new debt, applies to the court for the debt to be scheduled;
 - (b) the total amount of the debtor's qualifying debts (including the new debt) is less than, or the same as, the prescribed maximum.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Requirements imposed by order

112E Repayment requirement

- (1) An administration order must, during the currency of the order, impose a repayment requirement on the debtor.
- (2) A repayment requirement is a requirement for the debtor to repay the scheduled debts.
- (3) The repayment requirement may provide for the debtor to repay a particular scheduled debt in full or to some other extent.
- (4) The repayment requirement may provide for the debtor to repay different scheduled debts to different extents.
- (5) In the case of a new debt scheduled to the order in accordance with section 112D, the repayment requirement may provide that no due repayment in respect of the new debt is to be made until the debtor has made all due repayments in respect of declared debts.
- (6) The repayment requirement must provide that the due repayments are to be made by instalments.
- (7) It is for the proper county court to decide when the instalments are to be made.
- (8) But the proper county court is to determine the amount of the instalments in accordance with repayment regulations.
- (9) Repayment regulations are regulations which make provision for instalments to be determined by reference to the debtor's surplus income.

- (11) The repayment requirement may include provision in addition to any that is required or permitted by this section.

“due repayments” means repayments which the repayment requirement requires the debtor to make;

“new debt” has the same meaning as in section 112D.

112F Presentation of bankruptcy petition

- (1) An administration order must, during the currency of the order, impose the following requirement.

- (3) The requirement is that no domestic utility creditor is to stop the supply of gas or electricity, or the supply of any associated services, except in the cases in subsections (4) to (6).
- (4) The first case is where the reason for stopping a supply relates to the non-payment by the debtor of charges incurred in connection with that supply after the making of the administration order.
- (5) The second case is where the reason for stopping a supply is unconnected with the non-payment by the debtor of any charges incurred in connection with—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The court may not specify a day which falls after the last day of the maximum permitted period.
- (3) If the court specifies a day under this section, the order ceases to have effect on that day.
- (4) If the court does not specify a day under this section, the order ceases to have effect at the end of the maximum permitted period.
- (5) The maximum permitted period is the period of five years beginning with the day on which the order is made.

- (5) In a case where the proper county court becomes aware of those arrangements after it makes the order, it must give the notice as soon as practicable after becoming aware of them.

112AC Inability to pay debts

- (3) Regulations must make further provision about how the total amount of a debtor's qualifying debts is to be calculated.
- (4) Regulations may make provision about how the amount of any particular qualifying debt is to be calculated.
- (5) That includes the calculation of the amount of a debt for these purposes—

- (6) But subsection (5) does not apply to any representations which are made by the debtor in relation to the scheduling of a debt under section 112Y.
- (7) The proper county court must not de-schedule a debt unless the court has had regard to any representations made by any person about why the debt should not be de-scheduled.

- (9) A court must not schedule a debt to an administration order, or de-schedule a debt, except in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

- (3) The proper county court may give permission for the purposes of subsection (2) subject to such conditions as it thinks fit.

117D Remedies other than bankruptcy

- (3) The requirement is that no domestic utility creditor is to stop the supply of gas or electricity, or the supply of any associated services, except in the cases in subsections (4) to (6).
- (4) The first case is where the reason for stopping a supply relates to the non-payment by the debtor of charges incurred in connection with that supply after the making of the enforcement restriction order.
- (5) The second case is where the reason for stopping a supply is unconnected with the non-payment by the debtor of any charges incurred in connection with—
 - (a) that supply, or
 - (b) any other supply of mains gas or mains electricity, or of associated services, that is provided by the domestic utility creditor.
- (6) The third case is where the proper county court gives permission to stop a supply.

- (5) A repayment requirement is a requirement that the debtor make payments, in respect of one or more of his qualifying debts, to the person or persons to whom he owes the debt or debts.

- (8) Regulations under subsection (7) must make the following provision—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) The court may not specify a day which falls after the last day of the maximum permitted period.
- (3) If the court specifies a day under this section, the order ceases to have effect on that day.
- (4) If the court does not specify a day under this section, the order ceases to have effect at the end of the maximum permitted period.

Effects of order

117I Effect on other debt management arrangements

- (1) This section applies if—

 - (b) immediately before the order is made, other debt management arrangements are in force in respect of the debtor.
- (2) The other debt management arrangements cease to be in force when the enforcement restriction order is made.
- (3) If the proper county court is aware of the other debt management arrangements, the court must give the relevant authority notice that the order has been made.
- (4) In a case where the proper county court is aware of those arrangements at the time it makes the order, it must give the notice as soon as practicable after making the order.
- (5) In a case where the proper county court only becomes aware of those arrangements after it makes the order, it must give the notice as soon as practicable after becoming aware of them.

117J Duty to provide information

- (1) This section applies if, and for as long as, an enforcement restriction order has effect in respect of a debtor.

 - (b) goods that are protected under any other enactment from being taken control of under that Schedule, or
 - (c) prescribed property.

 - (b) if the person is already in custody, order his discharge.
- (4) Section 129 of this Act (enforcement of fines) applies to payment of a fine imposed under subsection (2).
- (5) For the purposes of section 13 of the Administration of Justice Act 1960 (appeal in cases of contempt of court), subsection (2) is to be treated as an enactment enabling a county court to deal with an offence under subsection (1) as if it were a contempt of court.

Revocation of order

117O Duty to revoke order

- (1) The proper county court must revoke an enforcement restriction order in either of these cases—

 - (b) where the debtor is no longer suffering from the deterioration in financial circumstances which was taken into account for the purposes of section 117B(6) (even if he is suffering from some other sudden and unforeseen deterioration in his financial circumstances).
- (7) The proper county court must revoke an enforcement restriction order in either of these cases—
 - (a) where it becomes apparent that, at the time the order was made, the condition in section 117B(7) was not met (in fact no realistic prospect of improvement in debtor's financial circumstances);
 - (b) where there is no longer a realistic prospect that the debtor's financial circumstances will improve during the period within which the order would continue to have effect (if not revoked).
- (8) The proper county court must revoke an enforcement restriction order in either of these cases—
 - (a) where it becomes apparent that, at the time the order was made, the condition in section 117B(8) was not met (not in fact fair and equitable to make order);
 - (b) where it is not fair and equitable for the order to continue to have effect.

117P Power to revoke order

- (1) The proper county court may revoke an enforcement restriction order in any case where there is no duty under this Part to revoke it.
