

Offender Management Act 2007

2007 CHAPTER 21

PART 4

SUPPLEMENTAL

41 Commencement

- (1) The preceding provisions of this Act come into force on such day as the Secretary of State may appoint by order made by statutory instrument.
- (2) Different provision may be made under this section for different purposes and for different areas.
- (3) An order under this section may contain transitional provisions or savings relating to the provisions being brought into force by the order.
- (4) An order under this section bringing anything in sections 28 and 29 into force, other than an order which makes the provision permitted by subsection (5)(a) or (6), may not be made unless a draft of the statutory instrument containing the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (5) An order which brings those sections into force only in relation to a specified area may—
 - (a) provide that they are to be in force in relation to that area only for a specified period; and
 - (b) make transitional provisions or savings relating to those sections' ceasing to be in force at the end of the specified period.
- (6) An order containing the provision permitted by subsection (5)(a) may be amended by a subsequent order under this section so as to continue those sections in force in relation to the area concerned for a further specified period.

Changes to legislation:

Offender Management Act 2007, Section 41 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 07 November 2023. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations.
