Intervention in further education institutions

17 Intervention: England

Before section 57 of FHEA 1992, insert—

“56A Intervention: England

- (1) This section applies if the Learning and Skills Council for England is satisfied as to one or more of the matters listed in subsection (2) in the case of an institution in England within the further education sector; and it is immaterial whether or not a complaint is made by any person.
- (2) The matters are—
 - (a) that the institution's affairs have been or are being mismanaged by the institution's governing body;
 - (b) that the institution's governing body have failed to discharge any duty imposed on them by or for the purposes of any Act;
 - (c) that the institution's governing body have acted or are proposing to act unreasonably with respect to the exercise of any power conferred or the performance of any duty imposed by or under any Act;
 - (d) that the institution is performing significantly less well than it might in all the circumstances reasonably be expected to perform, or is failing or likely to fail to give an acceptable standard of education or training.
- (3) If this section applies the council may do one or more of the things listed in subsection (6).
- (4) Before doing one or more of those things, the council must give the Secretary of State a notice stating—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further Education and Training Act 2007. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the matter or matters listed in subsection (2) as to which the council is satisfied;
 - (b) the reasons why the council is so satisfied;
 - (c) the thing or things that the council proposes to do;
 - (d) the reasons why the council proposes to do that thing or those things.
- (5) If the council does one or more of those things, it must at the same time give the institution's governing body a notice stating—
- (a) the matter or matters listed in subsection (2) as to which the council is satisfied;
 - (b) the reasons why the council is so satisfied;
 - (c) the reasons why the council has decided to do that thing or those things.
- (6) The council may—
- (a) remove all or any of the members of the institution's governing body;
 - (b) appoint new members of that body if there are vacancies (however arising);
 - (c) give to that body such directions as it thinks expedient as to the exercise of their powers and performance of their duties.
- (7) The directions that may be given to a governing body under this section include a direction requiring a governing body to make collaboration arrangements (within the meaning of section 166 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006) with such bodies and on such terms as may be specified in the direction.
- (8) Directions may be given to a governing body under this section despite any enactment making the exercise of a power or performance of a duty contingent on the body's opinion.
- (9) The council may not direct a governing body under subsection (6)(c) to dismiss a member of staff.
- (10) But subsection (9) does not prevent the council, where it considers that it may be appropriate to dismiss a member of staff whom the governing body have power under their institution's articles of government to dismiss, from giving the governing body such directions under this section as are necessary to secure that the procedures applicable to the consideration of the case for dismissal of that member of staff are given effect to in relation to that member of staff.
- (11) A governing body must comply with any directions given to them under this section.
- (12) An appointment of a member of a governing body under this section shall have effect as if made in accordance with the instrument of government and articles of government of the institution concerned.

56B Intervention policy: England

- (1) The Learning and Skills Council for England must—
- (a) prepare a statement of its policy with respect to the exercise of its powers under section 56A,
 - (b) keep it under review, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further Education and Training Act 2007. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) if it considers it appropriate in consequence of a review, prepare a revised statement of its policy.
- (2) When preparing a statement or revised statement of its policy, the council must—
 - (a) undertake such consultation as it thinks appropriate;
 - (b) consider any representations made to it about the policy to be set out in the statement.
- (3) The Secretary of State may give the council guidance in relation to the exercise of its functions under subsections (1) and (2), and in particular in relation to the form and content of the policy.
- (4) It is the duty of the council to have regard to any guidance given to it under subsection (3).
- (5) The council must send a copy of the statement or revised statement prepared by it to the Secretary of State.
- (6) If the Secretary of State approves it he shall lay a copy of it before each House of Parliament.
- (7) The council must publish—
 - (a) the statement of its policy approved by the Secretary of State;
 - (b) where the Secretary of State approves a revised statement of its policy, the revised statement.
- (8) The council must have regard to the statement most recently published under subsection (7) in exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, any of its powers under section 56A in relation to an institution.

56C Directions

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the Secretary of State is satisfied as to one or more of the matters listed in section 56A(2) in the case of an institution in England within the further education sector, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State is satisfied that the circumstances are such that it would be appropriate for the Learning and Skills Council for England to do one or more of the things listed in section 56A(6) in relation to the institution.
- (2) In such a case the Secretary of State may give to the council such directions as he thinks fit as to the exercise of the council's powers under section 56A.
- (3) Where the Secretary of State gives the council a direction under this section, he must at the same time give the council a notice stating the matter or matters listed in section 56A(2) as to which he is satisfied.
- (4) The council must comply with any directions given to it under this section.
- (5) Where the council does a thing listed in section 56A(6) in relation to an institution in compliance with a direction under this section—
 - (a) the council must give the institution's governing body a copy of the relevant notice under subsection (3), and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further Education and Training Act 2007. (See end of Document for details)

(b) the requirement to give a notice under section 56A(5) does not apply.”

(1) Section 57 of FHEA 1992 (intervention) is amended as set out in subsections (2) to (4).

(2) In subsection (2) (conditions for intervention), for paragraph (d) substitute—

“(d) they are satisfied that the institution is performing significantly less well than it might in all the circumstances reasonably be expected to perform, or is failing or likely to fail to give an acceptable standard of education or training.”

(3) After subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) The directions that may be given to a governing body under this section include a direction requiring a governing body to make collaboration arrangements (within the meaning of section 166 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006) with such bodies and on such terms as may be specified in the direction.”

(4) After subsection (6) insert—

“(6A) The Welsh Ministers may not direct a governing body under subsection (5) (c) to dismiss a member of staff.

(6B) But subsection (6A) does not prevent the Welsh Ministers, where they consider that it may be appropriate to dismiss a member of staff whom the governing body have power under their institution's articles of government to dismiss, from giving the governing body such directions under this section as are necessary to secure that the procedures applicable to the consideration of the case for dismissal of that member of staff are given effect to in relation to that member of staff.”

(5) After section 57 of FHEA 1992 insert—

“57A Intervention policy: Wales

(1) The Welsh Ministers must—

- (a) prepare a statement of their policy with respect to the exercise of their powers under section 57,
- (b) keep it under review, and
- (c) if they consider it appropriate in consequence of a review, prepare a revised statement of their policy.

(2) When preparing a statement or revised statement of their policy, the Welsh Ministers must—

- (a) undertake such consultation as they think appropriate;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

INDUSTRIAL TRAINING LEVIES

24 Conditions relating to levy proposals

(1) Section 11 of the Industrial Training Act 1982 (c. 10) (levies imposed for industrial training board expenses) is amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (6) (conditions relating to certain levy proposals), for paragraph (a) substitute—

“(a) that the Secretary of State is satisfied that—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further Education and Training Act 2007. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) the board has taken reasonable steps to ascertain the views of persons who the Secretary of State considers are likely to be liable to make payments by way of levy in consequence of the levy proposals, and
- (ii) a class of persons, who together satisfy the requirements in subsection (6A) below, considers that the proposals are necessary to encourage adequate training in the industry;”.

(3) After subsection (6) insert—

“(6A) The requirements referred to in subsection (6)(a) above are that—

- (a) the class must consist of more than half of those persons who the Secretary of State considers are likely to be liable to make payments by way of levy in consequence of the levy proposals; and
- (b) the class must include such persons as the Secretary of State considers are together likely to be liable to make payments by way of levy in consequence of the levy proposals which amount to more than half the aggregate amount of those payments.”

(4) After subsection (6A) (as inserted by subsection (3)) insert—

“(6B) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to what constitutes “reasonable steps” for the purposes of subsection (6)(a) above.

(6C) Regulations under subsection (6B) above may include—

- (a) provision for ascertaining the views of persons with respect to levy proposals by means of a sample of those persons;
- (b) provision for treating a person who is represented by an organisation of such description as may be prescribed by the regulations as having the same view as the organisation with respect to levy proposals.

(6D) Regulations under subsection (6B) above shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

(5) In subsection (8) (interpretation) omit the definition of “the relevant organisations”.

25 Duration of levy orders

(1) Section 11 of the Industrial Training Act 1982 (c. 10) is amended as set out in subsections (2) to (5).

(2) After subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) Levy proposals must provide for one or more periods (in this Act referred to as “levy periods”) by reference to which a person's liability to levy is to be established and the levy period or periods must fall within the period of three years beginning with the day on which the levy order giving effect to the proposals is made.

Levy proposals may not provide for more than three levy periods.

(2B) Subsection (2A) above is subject to subsections (2C) and (2D) below.

(2C) If the levy order giving effect to levy proposals submitted by an industrial training board would be the first or second levy order giving effect to

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further Education and Training Act 2007. (See end of Document for details) proposals submitted by the board, the proposals may instead provide for a single levy period that falls within the period of one year starting with the day on which the levy order giving effect to the proposals is made.

(2D) No levy order may be made in reliance upon subsection (6)(b) below unless the proposals in pursuance of which the order would be made provide for a single levy period that falls within the period of one year starting with the day on which the levy order giving effect to the proposals is made.

(2E) Levy proposals must specify, for each levy period, a period (in this Act referred to as a “base period”) by reference to which the relevant emoluments are to be calculated.”

(3) In subsection (6), for paragraph (b) substitute—

“(b) that the order will be made—

(i) after the making of a levy order (“the earlier levy order”) in respect of which the Secretary of State was satisfied that the condition in paragraph (a) above applied, and

(ii) within the period described in subsection (6E) below, and the condition in subsection (6F) or (6G) below is satisfied;”.

(4) After subsection (6D) (as inserted by section 24) insert—

“(6E) The period mentioned in subsection (6)(b)(ii) above is—

(a) if the earlier levy order provides for such levy periods as are referred to in subsection (2A) above, the period beginning with the third anniversary and ending with the fourth anniversary of the making of the earlier levy order;

(b) if the earlier levy order provides for such levy period as is referred to in subsection (2C) above, the period beginning with the first anniversary and ending with the second anniversary of the making of the earlier levy order.

(6F) The condition in this subsection is that the proposals relating to the earlier levy order included proposals for securing—

(a) that no exemption certificates should be issued; or

(b) that the exemption certificates to be issued should not exempt employers from any of the levy payable in respect of any levy period.

(6G) The condition in this subsection is that—

(a) the proposals in pursuance of which the earlier levy order was made included proposals for securing that exemption certificates should not exempt employers from a portion of the levy payable in respect of a levy period; and

(b) the percentage of the relevant emoluments from which under the current proposals the exemption certificates will not exempt any person will not exceed the percentage of the relevant emoluments in respect of any of the base periods specified in the earlier levy order from which that person was not exempted under that order.”

(5) In subsection (8), in the definition of “the relevant emoluments”, for the words from “the period specified” to the end substitute “ a period specified in levy proposals as a base period. ”

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Further Education and Training Act 2007. (See end of Document for details)

(6) In section 12 of that Act, after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) Subsection (1B) below applies where a levy order (“the new levy order”) giving effect to levy proposals submitted by an industrial training board will be made—

- (a) after the making of a levy order (“the earlier levy order”) that gives effect to earlier proposals submitted by the board, and
- (b) within three years or, where the earlier levy order provides for a single levy period in accordance with section 11(2C) or (2D) above, within one year after the making of the earlier levy order.

(1B) The proposals for the new levy order must include proposals for securing that no liability to levy is imposed under the earlier levy order by reference to such part of a levy period provided for in the earlier levy order as falls on or after the day on which the new levy order is made.”

PART 4

MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL

26 Powers of a higher education corporation to form or be involved in certain bodies corporate

(1) In the Education Reform Act 1988 (c. 40) (“the 1988 Act”), section 124 (powers of a higher education corporation) is amended as set out in subsections (2) and (3).
