Schedule 1: Amendments connected to section 4

Part 1

18C: Definitions for purposes of sections 19 and 20A

291. Section 18C to the Jobseekers Act 1995 defines the circumstances in which claimants may be sanctioned for failing to satisfy specified conditionality requirements. Subsection (2) provides that a claimant is in breach of a jobseeker's direction if he or she has without good cause, refused or failed to carry out a direction. Subsection (3) explains when a claimant will have failed to cooperate with a requirement to attend a training scheme and subsection (4) explains when a claimant will be in breach of an employment programme requirement. Subsection (5) deals with those who have failed to fulfil an employment requirement, and subsection (6) explains when a claimant will have failed to comply with a work-related activity requirement.
292. The circumstances in which people who are required to satisfy jobseeking conditions may be sanctioned are the same as they are now. People who are not required to satisfy jobseeking conditions will only be liable to sanctions if they are in breach of a jobseeker's direction, a training scheme requirement, or a work-related activity requirement.
