

Superannuation Act 2010

2010 CHAPTER 37

4 Final provisions

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act 2010.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), this Act comes into force on the day it is passed.
- (3) Section 2 comes into force at the end of the period of 2 months beginning with that day.
- (4) Except so far as otherwise provided under this section, section 3 expires at the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which that section comes into force.
- (5) The Minister may by order—
 - (a) repeal section 3;
 - (b) provide that that section—
 - (i) is not to expire at the time when it would otherwise expire under subsection (4) or in accordance with the most recent order under this subsection, but
 - (ii) is to continue in force after that time for a period not exceeding 6 months;
 - (c) (subject to subsection (6)) at any time revive that section (following its expiry or repeal) for a period not exceeding 6 months.
- (6) An order under subsection (5)(c) may not be made after the end of the period of 3 years beginning with the day on which this Act is passed.
- (7) The expiry or repeal of section 3 does not affect the application of that section in relation to compensation benefits provided to or in respect of a person in connection with a loss of office or employment occurring before its expiry or repeal.
- (8) An order made by the Minister under this Act—
 - (a) is to be made by statutory instrument;
 - (b) may include supplementary, incidental, transitional or saving provision.
- (9) A statutory instrument containing an order under section 3(11) or subsection (5)(b) or (c) of this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of the House of Commons.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (10) Any other statutory instrument containing an order under this Act is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of the House of Commons.
- (11) In this Act “the Minister” means the Minister for the Civil Service.
