 - (a) both the companies are UK resident,
 - (b) neither of them is a 51% subsidiary of a non-UK resident company, and

 - (b) the conditions in section 1021(1)(a) and (b) are met, and
 - (c) if those conditions were not met, an amount would be a distribution under section 1020(2) (transfers of assets or liabilities treated as distributions).
- (3) The amount mentioned in subsection (2)(c) is not a distribution by virtue of paragraph B in section 1000(1).
- (4) In this section—

“under common control” means under the control of the same person or persons, and “control” has the same meaning as in Part 10 (see sections 450 and 451).

Redeemable share capital

1003 Redeemable share capital

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
 - (a) a company issues redeemable share capital, and
 - (b) the issue is partly (but not wholly) for new consideration.
- (2) The part (if any) of the share capital that is properly referable to the new consideration does not fall within paragraph C in section 1000(1).
- (3) In determining, for the purposes of paragraph C in section 1000(1), the amount of the distribution constituted by the issue of any redeemable share capital, the value of the share capital is taken to be the sum of—
 - (a) the amount of the share capital, and
 - (b) the amount of any premium payable on redemption, in a winding up, or in any other circumstances.

Securities issued otherwise than for new consideration

1004 Securities issued otherwise than for new consideration

 - (b) in a winding up, or
 - (c) in any other circumstances.

Distributions in respect of non-commercial securities

1005 Meaning of “non-commercial securities”

For the purposes of paragraph E in section 1000(1) securities of a company are non-commercial securities if the consideration given by the company under the securities for the use of the principal secured by them represents more than a reasonable commercial return for the use of that principal.

1006 Distributions exceeding consideration received for issue of security

No amount is to be regarded for the purposes of paragraph E in section 1000(1) as representing the principal secured by a security so far as it exceeds any new consideration which has been received by the company for the issue of the security.

1007 Securities issued at premium representing new consideration

- (1) This section applies if any security of a company is issued at a premium representing new consideration (but see also section 1008).
- (2) In relation to a distribution in respect of the security, the reference in paragraph E in section 1000(1) to however much of the distribution represents the principal secured by the security is to be read as a reference to the sum of—

 - (b) however much of it represents the premium.
- (3) In relation to a distribution in respect of the security, the reference in paragraph E in section 1000(1) to however much of the distribution represents a reasonable commercial return for the use of the principal secured by the security is to be read as a reference to the sum of—
- (a) however much of the distribution represents a reasonable commercial return for the use of the principal, and
 - (b) however much of it represents (when regard is had to the extent to which distributions represent the premium) a reasonable commercial return for the use of the premium.

- (3) Section 1007 does not have effect in relation to the security.
- (4) This section is subject to sections 1009 and 1012.

Exceptions to section 1008

1009 Securities reflecting dividends on certain shares etc: exclusion of section 1008

- (1) Section 1008 does not apply in relation to a security issued by a company (“the issuing company”) if—
 - (a) the security reflects to a significant extent dividends or other distributions in respect of, or fluctuations in the value of, shares, and
 - (b) those shares are in one or more companies each of which is the issuing company or an associated company of the issuing company.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent section 1008 from applying in relation to a security if—
 - (a) the issuing company is a bank or securities house,
 - (b) the issuing company issues the security in the ordinary course of its business, and
 - (c) the security reflects dividends or other distributions in respect of the shares mentioned in subsection (1), or fluctuations in the value of those shares, only because it reflects fluctuations in a qualifying index.
- (3) In this section—

 - (b) at any earlier time after 16 April 2002,
 there are or have been any hedging arrangements that relate to some or all of the company's liabilities under the security.

This is subject to section 1013.

- (2) If, as a result of this section, section 1008 stops applying at any time in relation to a security, paragraph E in paragraph 1000(1) has effect in relation to the security from that time as it would have had effect if section 1008 had never applied in relation to the security.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In subsection (2) “tax” includes stamp duty and stamp duty land tax.
- (4) Condition B is that the hedging arrangements are such that any amounts intended under the arrangements to offset some or all of a corporation tax deduction in respect of the security—
 - (a) arise at the time when the deduction falls to be made, or within a reasonable time before or after that time, and
 - (b) arise—
 - (i) to the issuing company, or

- (5) It does not matter whether the purpose mentioned in subsection (2) is to secure that the offsetting amount accrues, or is received or receivable, directly or indirectly.

- (2) For the purposes of section 1015(5) securities are connected with shares in the company if—

- (4) The reference in subsection (3) to the adjusted amount of the repaid share capital is to—
- (a) the amount, or total amount, of share capital repaid as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), minus
 - (b) any amounts previously paid up as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) and treated as distributions by virtue of subsection (3).

1023 Exceptions to section 1022(3)

- (1) Section 1022(3) does not apply if the issue of share capital mentioned in section 1022(1)(b)—
- (a) takes place more than 10 years after the repayment of share capital mentioned in subsection 1022(1)(a), and
 - (b) is not of redeemable share capital.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) But subsection (1) does not prevent section 1022(3) from applying in the case of a company which is a relevant company for the purposes mentioned in section 739 (certain companies not included in the official UK list etc).
- (3) Section 1022(3) does not apply if the repaid share capital consists of fully paid preference shares and—
- (a) those shares were issued as fully paid preference shares,
 - (b) they were issued wholly for new consideration not derived from ordinary shares, and
 - (c) throughout the period from their issue until the repayment those shares continued to be fully paid preference shares.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) consideration is derived from ordinary shares if (and only if)—
- (a) it consists of the surrender, transfer or cancellation of ordinary shares,
 - (b) it consists of the variation of rights in ordinary shares, or
 - (c) it is derived from a repayment of share capital paid in respect of ordinary shares,
- and for the purposes of this subsection it does not matter whether the ordinary shares are of the company or another company.
- (5) In this section—
- “ordinary shares” means shares other than preference shares, and
- “preference shares” means shares which—
- (a) do not carry any right to dividends other than dividends at a fixed rate per cent of the nominal value of the shares, and
 - (b) carry rights in respect of dividends and capital which are comparable with those general for fixed-dividend shares included in the official UK list.

Interpretation of references to repayment of share capital

1024 Premiums paid on redemption of share capital

Premiums paid on redemption of share capital are not treated as repayments of share capital for the purposes of this Chapter.

1025 Share capital issued at a premium representing new consideration

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) share capital is issued at a premium representing new consideration, and
 - (b) a distribution is made in respect of shares representing the share capital.
- (2) The amount of the premium is treated as forming part of the share capital for the purpose of determining under this Chapter whether the distribution is a repayment of share capital.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not have effect in relation to any part of the premium after that part has been applied to paying up share capital.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

1026 Distributions following a bonus issue

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a company issues, or has issued, any share capital (“the bonus share capital”) as paid up otherwise than by the receipt of new consideration, and
 - (b) an amount paid up as mentioned in paragraph (a) does not fall to be treated as a qualifying distribution.
- (2) Distributions made afterwards by the company in respect of shares representing the bonus share capital are not treated as repayments of share capital for the purposes of this Chapter.

But this is subject to section 1027 and any other contrary provision in the Corporation Tax Acts.
- (3) Except where the company is a relevant company for the purposes mentioned in section 739 (certain companies not included in the official UK list etc), subsection (2) does not prevent a distribution being treated as a repayment of share capital if it is made—
 - (a) more than 10 years after the issue of the share capital mentioned in subsection (1)(a), and
 - (b) in respect of share capital other than redeemable share capital.
- (4) For the purposes of this section and section 1027—
 - (a) all shares of the same class are treated as representing the same share capital, and
 - (b) if shares are issued in respect of other shares, or are (directly or indirectly) converted into or exchanged for other shares, all such shares are treated as representing the same share capital.
- (5) This section is to be read with section 1049(3)(b) (stock dividends).

1027 Cap on amount of distributions affected by section 1026

- (1) Section 1026(2) does not apply to the distributions in question so far as they, together with any affected distributions made previously but after the issue of the bonus share capital, exceed the cap.
- (2) In subsection (1) “the cap” means the total of the amounts—
 - (a) paid up, otherwise than by the receipt of new consideration, on shares representing the bonus share capital, and
 - (b) not falling to be treated as qualifying distributions.
- (3) In subsection (1) “affected distribution” means however much of a distribution made in respect of shares representing the bonus share capital—
 - (a) would, but for section 1026, be treated as a repayment of share capital, but
 - (b) cannot be so treated because of that section.
- (4) In subsection (2)(a) the reference to amounts paid up is to amounts paid up at the time of the distributions in question or previously.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

1028 Certain payments connected with exempt distributions

- (1) A chargeable payment made within 5 years after an exempt distribution is not to be (if it otherwise would be) treated as a repayment of share capital for the purposes of sections 1022 and 1023 (bonus issue following repayment of share capital).
- (2) The purpose of the provisions about demergers (which include this section) is set out in section 1074.
- (3) In this section—
 - (a) “chargeable payment” has the meaning given by section 1088, and
 - (b) “exempt distribution” has the meaning given by section 1075(2).

 - (b) paragraph 6 of Schedule 12 to FA 1988 (transfer of building society's business to a company: qualifying benefits).

Distributions in a winding up

1030 Distribution in respect of share capital in a winding up

A distribution made in respect of share capital in a winding up is not a distribution of a company for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

Distribution as part of a cross-border merger

1031 Distribution as part of a cross-border merger

If—

- (a) a company making a distribution as part of a merger ceases to exist (without being wound up), and
- (b) section 140E or 140F of TCGA 1992 (cross-border mergers) applies in relation to the merger, the distribution is not a distribution of a company for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts.

Payments of interest

1032 Interest etc paid in respect of certain securities

(1) Any interest or other distribution which—

- (a) is paid out of the assets of a company (“the borrower”) to another company which is within the charge to corporation tax,
- (b) is paid in respect of securities of the borrower which are special securities (as defined in section 1015), and
- (c) does not fall within paragraph E in section 1000(1) (distributions in respect of non-commercial securities), is not a distribution for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts.

(2) But subsection (1) does not apply if the company to which the interest or other distribution is paid is entitled under any enactment to an exemption from tax in respect of that interest or distribution.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 S. 1032(2) modified (with effect in accordance with art. 1 of the amending S.I.) by Corporation Tax Act 2010 \(Transitional Provision\) Order 2010 \(S.I. 2010/665\), arts. 1, 2

Purchase of own shares

1033 Purchase by unquoted trading company of own shares

(1) A payment made by a company on the redemption, repayment or purchase of its own shares is not a distribution for the purposes of the Corporation Tax Acts if—

- (a) the company is an unquoted trading company, or the unquoted holding company of a trading group, and
- (b) either Condition A or Condition B is met.

(2) Condition A is that—

- (a) the redemption, repayment or purchase is made wholly or mainly for the purpose of benefiting a trade carried on by the company or any of its 75% subsidiaries,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the redemption, repayment or purchase does not form part of a scheme or arrangement the main purpose or one of the main purposes of which is—
 - (i) to enable the owner of the shares to participate in the profits of the company without receiving a dividend, or
 - (ii) the avoidance of tax, and
 - (c) the requirements set out in sections 1034 to 1043 (so far as applicable) are met.
- (3) Condition B is that the whole or substantially the whole of the payment (apart from any sum applied in paying capital gains tax charged on the redemption, repayment or purchase)—
- (a) is applied by the person to whom it is made in discharging a liability of that person for inheritance tax charged on a death, and
 - (b) is applied in that way within two years after the death.
- (4) But if condition B is met, subsection (1) does not apply so far as the liability in question could without undue hardship have been discharged otherwise than through the redemption, repayment or purchase of—
- (a) shares in the company, or
 - (b) shares in another unquoted company which is a trading company or the holding company of a trading group.
- (5) In sections 1034 to 1043—
- “the purchase” means the redemption, repayment or purchase referred to in subsection (1), and
 - “the seller” means the owner of the shares at the time the redemption, repayment or purchase is made.
- (6) In this section and sections 1034 to 1047 references to a payment made by a company include anything else that—
- (a) is a distribution, or
 - (b) would be a distribution but for this section.

1034 Requirements as to residence

- (1) The seller must be resident and ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom in the tax year in which the purchase is made.
- (2) If the shares are held through a nominee, the nominee must also be resident and ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom in the tax year in which the purchase is made.
- (3) The residence and ordinary residence of personal representatives are taken for the purposes of this section to be the same as the deceased person's residence and ordinary residence immediately before that person's death.
- (4) The references in this section to a person's ordinary residence are to be ignored in the case of a company.

1035 Requirement as to period of ownership

- (1) The shares must have been owned by the seller throughout the 5 years ending with the date of the purchase.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In determining whether the requirement in subsection (1) is met in a case where the seller acquired shares of the same class at different times—
 - (a) shares acquired earlier are taken into account before shares acquired later, and
 - (b) any previous disposal by the seller of shares of that class is assumed to be a disposal of shares acquired later rather than of shares acquired earlier.
- (3) If the time when any shares were acquired would be determined for the purposes of capital gains tax under any provision of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of TCGA 1992 (reorganisation of share capital, conversion of securities etc) then, unless the shares—
 - (a) were allotted for payment, or
 - (b) were comprised in share capital to which section 1049 (stock dividends) applies,the time when the shares were acquired is determined in the same way for the purposes of this section.

1036 Determining the period of ownership

- (1) If at any time during the period mentioned in section 1035(1) the shares were transferred to the seller by a person (“the transferor”) who—
 - (a) was then the seller's spouse or civil partner, and
 - (b) was then living with the seller (see section 1116),any period during which the shares were owned by the transferor is treated for the purposes of section 1035(1) as a period of ownership by the seller.
- (2) But subsection (1) does not apply if at the date of the purchase the transferor is alive but is no longer the seller's spouse or civil partner living with the seller.
- (3) If the seller became entitled to the shares under the will or on the intestacy of a previous owner, or is the personal representative of a previous owner—
 - (a) any period during which the shares were owned by the previous owner, or the personal representatives of the previous owner, is treated for the purposes of section 1035(1) as a period of ownership by the seller, and
 - (b) section 1035(1) has effect as if it referred to three years instead of five.

1037 Requirement as to reduction of seller's interest as shareholder

- (1) If, immediately after the purchase, the seller owns shares in the company, the seller's interest as a shareholder must be substantially reduced.

This is subject to section 1043.
- (2) If, immediately after the purchase, any associate of the seller owns shares in the company, the combined interests as shareholders of the seller and the seller's associates must be substantially reduced.

This is subject to section 1043.
- (3) The seller's interest as a shareholder is substantially reduced if (and only if) the seller's subsequent interest is not more than 75% of the seller's prior interest.

This is subject to section 1038.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) “The seller's prior interest” means the total nominal value of the shares owned by the seller immediately before the purchase, expressed as a fraction of the issued share capital of the company at that time.
- (5) “The seller's subsequent interest” means the total nominal value of the shares owned by the seller immediately after the purchase, expressed as a fraction of the issued share capital of the company at that time.
- (6) The question whether the combined interests as shareholders of the seller and the seller's associates are substantially reduced is determined in the same way as the question whether a seller's interest as shareholder is substantially reduced, except that the seller is assumed to have the interests of the seller's associates as well as the seller's own.

1038 Section 1037: effect of entitlement to profits

- (1) The seller's interest as a shareholder is not taken to be substantially reduced for the purposes of section 1037(1) if—
 - (a) the seller would, if the company distributed all its profits available for distribution immediately after the purchase, be entitled to a share of those profits, and
 - (b) that share expressed as a fraction of the total of those profits is more than 75% of the corresponding fraction immediately before the purchase.
- (2) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1) the division of profits among the persons entitled to them, a person entitled to periodic distributions calculated by reference to fixed rates or amounts is regarded as entitled to a distribution of the amount, or maximum amount, to which the person would be entitled for a year.
- (3) In subsection (1) “profits available for distribution” has the meaning given by section 830(2) of the Companies Act 2006, but with the differences mentioned in subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1) the amount of the profits available for distribution (whether immediately before or immediately after the purchase) is treated as increased—
 - (a) in the case of every company, by £100, and
 - (b) in the case of a company from which any person is entitled to periodic distributions calculated by reference to fixed rates or amounts, by a further amount equal to that required to make the distribution to which the person is entitled in accordance with subsection (2).
- (5) If the total of the sums payable by the company—
 - (a) on the purchase, and
 - (b) on any redemption, repayment or purchase of other shares of the company taking place at the same time, exceeds the amount of the profits available for distribution immediately before the purchase, that amount is treated as further increased by an amount equal to the excess.
- (6) References in this section to entitlement are, except in the case of trustees and personal representatives, references to beneficial entitlement.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

1039 Requirements where purchasing company is a member of a group

- (1) This section applies if the company making the purchase is immediately before the purchase a member of a group.
- (2) In this section and sections 1040 to 1041 that group is referred to as “the purchaser's group”.
- (3) If—
 - (a) immediately after the purchase the seller owns shares in one or more other members of the purchaser's group (whether or not the seller then owns shares in the company making the purchase), or
 - (b) immediately after the purchase the seller owns shares in the company making the purchase, and immediately before the purchase the seller owns shares in one or more other members of the group,the seller's interest as a shareholder in the group must be substantially reduced (see section 1040(1)).
- (4) If immediately before the purchase an associate of the seller owns shares in any member of the purchaser's group, the combined interests as shareholders in the group of the seller and the seller's associates must be substantially reduced (see section 1040(4)).
- (5) This section is subject to section 1043 (relaxation of requirements in certain cases).

1040 Determining whether interests as shareholders in a group are substantially reduced

- (1) The seller's interest as a shareholder in the purchaser's group is taken to be substantially reduced if (and only if) it is not more than 75% of the corresponding interest immediately before the purchase.
This is subject to section 1041(1).
- (2) The seller's interest as a shareholder in the group is calculated by—
 - (a) expressing the total nominal value of the shares owned by the seller in each relevant company as a fraction of the issued share capital of the company,
 - (b) adding together the fractions obtained under paragraph (a), and
 - (c) dividing the result by the number of relevant companies (including any in which the seller owns no shares).
- (3) In this section and section 1041 “relevant company” means—
 - (a) the company making the purchase, and
 - (b) any other member of the purchaser's group in which the seller owns shares immediately before or immediately after the purchase.This is subject to subsection (4).
- (4) The question whether the combined interests as shareholders in the purchaser's group of the seller and the seller's associates are substantially reduced is determined in the same way as the question whether a seller's interest as a shareholder in a group is substantially reduced, except that—
 - (a) the seller is assumed to have the interests of the seller's associates as well as the seller's own, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) references in subsection (2) and section 1041(2) to a relevant company are read accordingly.

1041 Section 1040: effect of entitlement to profits

- (1) The seller's interest as a shareholder in the purchaser's group is not taken to be substantially reduced if—
- (a) the seller would, if every member of the group distributed all its profits available for distribution immediately after the purchase (including any profits received by it on a distribution by another member), be entitled to a share of the profits of one or more of them, and
 - (b) the new entitlement exceeds 75% of the old entitlement.
- (2) In subsection (1)—
- “the new entitlement” means the share, or the aggregate of the shares, mentioned in subsection (1)(a), expressed as a fraction of the aggregate of the profits available for distribution of every member of the group which is—
- (a) a relevant company, or
 - (b) a 51% subsidiary of a relevant company, and
- “the old entitlement” means the corresponding fraction immediately before the purchase.
- (3) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 1038 apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of section 1038(1).

1042 Other requirements

- (1) The seller must not, immediately after the purchase, be connected with—
- (a) the company making the purchase, or
 - (b) any other company which is a member of the same group as that company.
- (2) The purchase must not be part of a scheme or arrangement which is designed, or likely, to result in—
- (a) the seller, or
 - (b) an associate of the seller,
- having disqualifying interests in the company.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), interests in the company are disqualifying interests if any of the requirements in subsection (1) and sections 1037 and 1039 could not be met if the person in question had those interests immediately after the purchase.
- (4) A transaction occurring within one year after the purchase is treated for the purposes of subsection (2) as part of a scheme or arrangement of which the purchase is also part.
- (5) Subsections (1) and (2) are subject to section 1043.

1043 Relaxation of requirements in certain cases

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
- (a) any requirement under any of sections 1037 to 1042 which is applicable is not met in relation to the seller, but

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the seller proposed or agreed to the purchase in order that the requirement in section 1037(2) or 1039(4) could be met in respect of the redemption, repayment or purchase of shares owned by a person of whom the seller is an associate.
- (2) So far as that result is achieved through the purchase, section 1033(2) has effect as if the requirements in sections 1037 to 1042 were met in relation to the seller.

- (1) In this section and sections 1033 to 1046 “group” (except in the expression “trading group”) means a company which has one or more 51% subsidiaries but is not itself a 51% subsidiary of any other company, together with those subsidiaries.

- (4) For the purposes of this section and sections 1033 to 1046, a company which has ceased to be a 51% subsidiary of another company before the time of the purchase is treated as continuing to be a 51% subsidiary of that company if at the time of the purchase there exist arrangements under which it could again become such a subsidiary.

1106 Meaning of “tax certificate” etc

- (1) This section gives the meaning of “bank”, “send” and “tax certificate” in sections 1104 and 1105.
- (2) “Bank” has the meaning given by section 1120.
- (3) “Send” means send by post.

CHAPTER 7

TAX CREDITS

1109 Tax credits for certain recipients of exempt qualifying distributions

- (1) This section applies if a company makes a qualifying distribution which is exempt for the purposes of Part 9A of CTA 2009 (company distributions).
- (2) If the person receiving the distribution is a UK resident company, that company is entitled to a tax credit equal to one-ninth of the amount or value of the distribution (but see subsection (5)).
- (3) If the distribution is, or is treated under any provision of the Tax Acts as, the income of a person (“P”) other than the recipient (“R”), P (not R) is treated as receiving it for the purposes of subsection (2) (and so P (not R) is entitled to a tax credit if P falls within subsection (2)).
- (4) Section 1102(2) to (6) (power to obtain certain information from close companies and others) applies for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of section 1101.
- (5) This section is subject to the following provisions—
 - (a) section 808 (no tax credits for borrower under stock lending arrangement),
 - (b) section 809 (no tax credits for lender under creditor repo or creditor quasi-repo),
 - (c) section 810 (no tax credits for borrower under debtor repo or debtor quasi-repo), and
 - (d) section 219(4B) of FA 1994 (no tax credit for distributions in respect of assets in Lloyd's member's premium trust fund).

1110 Recovery of overpaid tax credit etc

- (1) If an officer of Revenue and Customs discovers that a payment or set-off of tax credit should not have been made or is excessive, the officer may act in accordance with subsection (3) or (4).
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) it does not matter whether the payment or set-off was excessive when made or became so later.
- (3) The officer may make any assessment that in the officer's judgement is needed to recover—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) any corporation tax that should have been paid, or
 - (b) any payment of tax credit that should not have been made.
- (4) More generally, the officer may make any assessment that in the officer's judgement is needed to secure that the liabilities to corporation tax (and any liabilities to interest on corporation tax) of the persons concerned are what they would have been if only the correct set-offs and payments had been made.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if—
- (a) interest on a payment of tax credit comprised in any franked investment income has been paid under section 826 of ICTA, and
 - (b) interest should not have been paid on the payment, or should only have been paid on part of it.
- (6) An officer of Revenue and Customs may make an assessment for recovering the interest, so far as it should not have been paid.

1111 Section 1110: supplementary

- (1) If—
- (a) an assessment is made under section 1110 to recover tax credit paid to a company in respect of franked investment income received in an accounting period, and
 - (b) more than one payment of tax credit was made in respect of that period,
- then as far as possible a sum recovered is treated as relating to a payment of tax credit made later rather than to one made earlier.
- (2) TMA 1970 applies to an assessment under section 1110 for recovering a payment of tax credit, or of interest on a tax credit—
- (a) as if it were an assessment to corporation tax for the accounting period in respect of which the payment was claimed, and
 - (b) as if the payment represented a loss of tax to the Crown.
- (3) Any sum charged by an assessment such as is mentioned in subsection (2) is due within 14 days after the notice of assessment is issued.
- (4) The duty to comply with subsection (3) is subject to any appeal against the assessment.

CHAPTER 8

INTERPRETATION OF PART

1112 Arrangements between companies

- (1) This section applies if two or more companies enter into arrangements to make distributions to each other's members.
- (2) For the purposes mentioned in subsection (3) all parties concerned (however many) may be treated as if anything done by any one of those companies had been done by any one of the others.
- (3) The purposes are those of this Part except sections 1054 to 1058 and 1064 to 1071.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

 - (a) that company, or
 - (b) any other company in the group.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) requires a company to be treated as making a distribution to any company which is in the same group and is UK resident.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part a thing is regarded as done in respect of a share if it is done to a person—
 - (a) as the holder of the share, or
 - (b) as the person who held the share at a particular time.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part a thing is also regarded as done in respect of a share if it is done in pursuance of a right granted, or an offer made, in respect of a share.
- (5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not affect the meaning of “in respect of shares” in section 1054 (building society payments).
- (6) In this section “90% group” means a company and all its 90% subsidiaries.

1114 “In respect of securities”

- (1) In this Part “in respect of securities of the company”, in relation to a company which is a member of a 90% group, means in respect of securities of—
 - (a) that company, or
 - (b) any other company in the group.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) requires a company to be treated as making a distribution to any company which is in the same group and is UK resident.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part, except where the context otherwise requires—
 - (a) interest paid by a company on money advanced without the issue of a security for the advance, or
 - (b) other consideration given by a company for the use of money so advanced, is treated as if paid, or given, in respect of a security issued for the advance by the company.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part a thing is regarded as done in respect of a security if it is done to a person—
 - (a) as the holder of the security, or
 - (b) as the person who held the security at a particular time.

(6) In this section “90% group” means a company and all its 90% subsidiaries.

1115 “New consideration”

(1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (a) “new consideration” means consideration not provided (directly or indirectly) out of assets of the company, and
- (b) in particular, “new consideration” does not include amounts retained by the company by way of capitalising a distribution.

But paragraph (a) is subject to the other subsections of this section.

(2) Subsection (3) applies if—

- (a) share capital has been issued at a premium representing new consideration, and
- (b) any part (“the applied part”) of that premium is afterwards applied in paying up share capital.

(3) The applied part of the premium is also treated as new consideration for that share capital.

But the premium is not so treated so far as it has been taken into account under section 1025(2) so as to enable a distribution to be treated as a repayment of share capital.

(4) The general rule is that no consideration derived from the value of any share capital or security of a company, or from voting or other rights in a company, is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as new consideration.

(5) The general rule in subsection (4) applies unless the consideration consists of—

- (a) money or value received from the company as a qualifying distribution,
- (b) money received from the company as a payment which for the purposes of this Part constitutes a repayment of the share capital in question, or of the principal secured by the security in question, or
- (c) the giving up of the right to the share capital or security on its cancellation, extinguishment or acquisition by the company.

This is subject to subsection (6).

(6) No amount is regarded as new consideration by virtue of subsection (5)(b) or (c) so far as it exceeds—

- (a) any new consideration received by the company for the issue of the share capital or security in question, or
- (b) in the case of share capital which constituted a qualifying distribution on issue, the nominal value of that share capital.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Corporation Tax Act 2010, Part 23. (See end of Document for details)

- C4 S. 1115 applied by Income Tax (Trading and Other Income) Act 2005 (c. 5), s. 414A(7)(b) (as inserted (with effect in accordance with s. 1184(1) of the amending Act) by 2010 c. 4, s. 1184(1), Sch. 1 para. 461 (with Sch. 2))

1116 References to married persons, or civil partners, living together

Individuals who are married to, or are civil partners of, each other are treated for the purposes of this Part as living together unless—

- (a) they are separated under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction,
- (b) they are separated by a deed of separation, or
- (c) they are in fact separated in circumstances in which the separation is likely to be permanent.

1117 Other interpretation

- (1) In this Part, except where the context otherwise requires—
 - “security” includes securities not creating or evidencing a charge on assets, and
 - “share” includes stock, and any other interest of a member in a company.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the meaning of “share” in section 1054 (building society payments).
- (3) For the purposes of this Part a distribution is treated as made out of assets of a company if the cost falls on the company.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part consideration is treated as provided out of assets of a company if the cost falls on the company.
- (5) References in this Part to issuing share capital as paid up also apply to the paying up of any issued share capital.
- (6) If securities—
 - (a) are issued at a price less than the amount repayable on them, and
 - (b) are not listed on a recognised stock exchange,
 then, for the purposes of this Part the principal secured is not taken to exceed the issue price, unless the securities are issued on terms reasonably comparable with the terms of issue of securities listed on a recognised stock exchange.
- (7) For the purposes of this Part, if something done in respect of shares is done by reference to share holdings at a particular time, it is regarded as done—
 - (a) to the then holders of the shares, or
 - (b) to the personal representatives of any holder then dead.
- (8) For the purposes of this Part, if something done in respect of securities is done by reference to holdings of securities at a particular time, it is regarded as done—
 - (a) to the then holders of the securities, or
 - (b) to the personal representatives of any holder then dead.
