EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 1 – The Health Service in England

Arrangements for provision of health services

Section 23 - The NHS Commissioning Board: further provision

Exercise of functions of Board

235. Exercise of functions. New section 13Z confers a power on the NHS Commissioning Board to exercise any of its functions by or jointly with a Special Health Authority, a CCG or any other body specified in regulations. Regulations may specify which functions of the NHS Commissioning Board may not be exercised by or jointly with such bodies. Where functions are exercised jointly, this may be through a joint committee of the NHS Commissioning Board and the other body under arrangements agreed between them.
