

Antarctic Act 2013

CHAPTER 15

ANTARCTIC ACT 2013

PART 1

ENVIRONMENTAL EMERGENCIES

Duty to take response action

- 1 Duty to take response action

Civil liability for failure to respond to environmental emergency

- 2 Liability to Parties to Annex VI
- 3 Liability to Antarctic Environmental Liability Fund
- 4 Civil liability: supplementary

Preparatory measures

- 5 Duty to take preventative measures and make contingency plan
- 6 Insurance relating to environmental emergencies

Information

- 7 Duty to inform Secretary of State
- 8 Secretary of State's power to require information

Application of this Part

- 9 General exclusions
- 10 The Crown

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Antarctic Act 2013. (See end of Document for details)

General

- 11 Offences
- 12 Orders
- 13 Interpretation

PART 2

MISCELLANEOUS AND FINAL

Miscellaneous

- 14 Application of offences to non-nationals
- 15 Historic Sites and Monuments: permits
- 16 Conservation of animals and plants

Final

- 17 Northern Ireland
- 18 Extent, commencement and short title

SCHEDULE — Civil liability: supplementary

Financial limits

- 1 (1) Sections 2 and 3 do not require payment, in...
- 2 (1) Sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) have effect in any case...

Joint and several liability

- 3 In a case where an environmental emergency arises from activities...

Double recovery

- 4 A person is not liable under section 2 or 3...

Interaction with Part 9 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1995

- 5 (1) A person is not liable to make a payment...

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Antarctic Act 2013.