

Gambling (Licensing and Advertising) Act 2014

2014 CHAPTER 17

An Act to make provision about the licensing and advertising of gambling. [14th May 2014]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Licensing

1 Licensing of remote gambling

(1) In section 33 of the Gambling Act 2005 (provision of facilities for gambling), after subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) Section 36(3A) limits the application of this section in cases involving the use in Great Britain of certain facilities for remote gambling.”

(2) In section 36 of that Act (territorial application: provision of facilities for gambling), for subsection (3) substitute—

“(3) Section 33 applies to the provision of facilities for remote gambling only if—

- (a) at least one piece of remote gambling equipment used in the provision of the facilities is situated in Great Britain, or
- (b) no such equipment is situated in Great Britain but the facilities are used there.

(3A) In a case within subsection (3)(b), the person providing the facilities commits an offence under section 33 only if the person knows or should know that the facilities are being used, or are likely to be used, in Great Britain.”

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Gambling (Licensing and Advertising) Act 2014. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (3) In section 26B of the Betting and Gaming Duties Act 1981 (remote gaming duty), omit paragraph (a) (and the “or” at the end).
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument make provision about the making, consideration and determination of advance applications.
- (5) “Advance application” means an application for, or for the variation of, a remote operating licence (within the meaning given by the Gambling Act 2005) that is made in anticipation of the coming into force of subsections (1) and (2).
- (6) An order under subsection (4) may—
  - (a) confer a discretion on the Gambling Commission;
  - (b) include provision modifying, applying or replicating any provision made by or under the Gambling Act 2005;
  - (c) make different provision for different purposes;
  - (d) include incidental, consequential, transitory or transitional provision.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (4) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
