COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 8 – Time Off Work: Ante-Natal Care Etc

Section 129: Right not to be subjected to detriment: agency workers

- 688. Subsection (1) amends section 47C of the ERA to give agency workers a right not to be subjected to a detriment by the temporary work agency or hirer on certain grounds. The grounds are that the agency worker:
  - Took or sought to take time off for an ante-natal appointment under section 57ZA or 57ZG of the ERA;
  - Received or sought to receive remuneration under section 57ZB of the ERA for time off to attend an ante-natal appointment (only available to pregnant women);
  - Took or sought to take time off for an adoption appointment under section 57ZN or 57ZP of the ERA; or
  - Received or sought to receive remuneration under section 57ZO of the ERA for time off to attend an adoption appointment (only available to the primary adopter).
- 689. Subsection (2) amends section 48 of the ERA to allow an agency worker who has been subjected to such a detriment to present a complaint to an employment tribunal. It is for the temporary work agency or the hirer to show the ground on which any act or deliberate failure to act was done.
- 690. Subsection (3) amends section 49 of the ERA to provide that if such a complaint is well-founded, the tribunal shall make a declaration to that effect and may award compensation to be paid to the agency worker by the temporary work agency, the hirer, or both.
