

Driving Instructors (Registration) Act 2016

2016 CHAPTER 16

Amendments to existing regime

PROSPECTIVE

1 Re-entry in the register following expiry of registration

- (1) Part 5 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (driving instruction) is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 126 (duration of registration), omit subsection (3).
- (3) After that section insert—

“126A Re-entry in the register following expiry of registration

- (1) This section applies where a person whose name has been removed from the register under section 126(1) applies under section 125(2) for the person's name to be entered again in the register.
- (2) The Registrar is not to regard the condition specified in section 125(3)(a) as fulfilled unless the Registrar is satisfied that—
  - (a) the person has again passed the examination mentioned in section 125(3)(a) since the removal of the person's name, or
  - (b) the person falls within subsection (3) or (4).
- (3) A person falls within this subsection if—
  - (a) the person's application is made within the period of one year beginning with the removal of the person's name (“the one year period”), and
  - (b) the relevant conditions are fulfilled.
- (4) A person falls within this subsection if—

- (a) the person's application is made after the end of the one year period but within the period of four years beginning with the removal of the person's name,
  - (b) the relevant conditions are fulfilled,
  - (c) the person has passed a continued ability and fitness test since the removal of the person's name, and
  - (d) the number of times (if any) that the person has failed to pass such a test since that removal is less than three.
- (5) For the purposes of subsections (3)(b) and (4)(b), “the relevant conditions” are—
- (a) that the person did not refuse to undergo—
    - (i) a continued ability and fitness test, or
    - (ii) an emergency control assessment,which the person was required to undergo during the period of four years ending with the removal of the person's name from the register, and
  - (b) that, where the person did undergo one or more continued ability and fitness tests during that period, the person passed the last such test.
- (6) In this section “continued ability and fitness test” means a test of continued ability and fitness to give instruction in the driving of motor cars which is prescribed for the purposes of section 125(5)(a)(i).”
