PART 1

MASTER TRUSTS

Definition of a Master Trust scheme

1 Master Trust schemes: definition

- (1) In this Act, “Master Trust scheme” means an occupational pension scheme which—
 - (a) provides money purchase benefits (whether alone or in conjunction with other benefits),
 - (b) is used, or intended to be used, by two or more employers,
 - (c) is not used, or intended to be used, only by employers which are connected with each other, and
 - (d) is not a relevant public service pension scheme.
- (2) Where a Master Trust scheme provides money purchase benefits in conjunction with other benefits, references in the following provisions of this Act to a Master Trust scheme are to a Master Trust scheme only to the extent that it provides money purchase benefits, except as provided in section 39(2) to (4).
- (3) For the purposes of this section, an employer (“A”) is connected with another employer (“B”)—
 - (a) where A is, or has been, a group undertaking in relation to B within the meaning of section 1161(5) of the Companies Act 2006, or

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

(b) in circumstances specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

(4) In this section—

“employer”, in relation to an occupational pension scheme, means a person who employs or engages persons who are, or are entitled to become, members of the scheme;

“money purchase benefits” has the same meaning as in the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (see section 181 of that Act);

“occupational pension scheme” has the same meaning as in the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (see section 1(1) of that Act);

“relevant public service pension scheme” has the meaning given in section 2.

(5) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

2 Relevant public service pension schemes

(1) For the purposes of section 1, a pension scheme is a relevant public service pension scheme if it falls within subsection (2) or (3).

(2) A scheme falls within this subsection if it is a public service pension scheme within the meaning of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (see section 1(1) of that Act).

(3) A scheme falls within this subsection if it is—

- (a) a scheme under section 1 of the Public Service Pensions Act 2013 (new public service schemes),
- (b) a new public body pension scheme (as defined in section 30 of that Act), or
- (c) a statutory pension scheme which is connected with a scheme referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) (and for this purpose “statutory pension scheme” and “connected” have the meanings given in that Act; see sections 37 and 4(6) of that Act).

(4) But a scheme does not fall within subsection (3) if it is a scheme specified in an order made under section 318(6)(b) of the Pensions Act 2004 (schemes excluded from definition of “public service pension scheme”).

Authorisation: applications etc

3 Prohibition on operating a scheme unless authorised

(1) A person may not operate a Master Trust scheme unless the scheme is authorised.

(2) Section 10 of the Pensions Act 1995 (civil penalties) applies to a person who breaches subsection (1).

(5) For the purposes of this Part, a person “operates” a Master Trust scheme if the person—

- (a) accepts money from members or employers (or prospective members or employers), in respect of fees, charges, contributions or otherwise, in relation to the scheme, or
 - (b) enters into an agreement with an employer that relates to the provision of pension savings for employees or other workers,

- (3) The authorisation criteria are—

 - (b) any other person who appears to the Tribunal to be directly affected by the decision.
- (2) In this section “the Tribunal”, in relation to a referral under subsection (1), means—
 - (a) the First-tier Tribunal, in any case where it is determined by or under Tribunal Procedure Rules that the First-tier Tribunal is to hear the reference;
 - (b) the Upper Tribunal, in any other case.

- (2) A pause order in relation to a Master Trust scheme does not prevent the scheme being wound up in pursuance of an order under section 11 of the Pensions Act 1995 (power to wind up occupational pension schemes).
- (3) If a pause order contains a direction under section 31(5)(b) that no further contributions (or no further specified contributions) are to be paid towards a scheme during the period for which the order has effect—
 - (a) any contributions which are the subject of the direction and which would otherwise be due to be paid towards the scheme during that period are to be treated as if they do not fall due, and
 - (b) any obligation to pay those contributions (including any obligation under section 49(8) of the Pensions Act 1995 to pay amounts deducted corresponding to such contributions) is to be treated as if it does not arise.
- (4) If a pause order contains a direction under section 31(5)(e) (no transfers etc of members' rights) it does not prevent—

- (7) Regulations under sub-paragraph (6) override any provision of the Master Trust scheme, to the extent that there is a conflict.

- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not have effect to authorise the Pensions Regulator to make an order as mentioned in that sub-paragraph if its doing so would be unlawful as a result of section 6(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998 (unlawful for public authority to act in contravention of a Convention right).
