

Public Order Act 2023

2023 CHAPTER 15

An Act to make provision for new offences relating to public order; to make provision about stop and search powers; to make provision about the exercise of police functions relating to public order; to make provision about proceedings by the Secretary of State relating to protest-related activities; to make provision about serious disruption prevention orders; and for connected purposes. [2nd May 2023]

BE IT ENACTED by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

PUBLIC ORDER

Offences relating to locking on

1 Offence of locking on

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) they—
 - (i) attach themselves to another person, to an object or to land,
 - (ii) attach a person to another person, to an object or to land, or
 - (iii) attach an object to another object or to land,
 - (b) that act causes, or is capable of causing, serious disruption to—
 - (i) two or more individuals, or
 - (ii) an organisation,in a place other than a dwelling, and
 - (c) they intend that act to have a consequence mentioned in paragraph (b) or are reckless as to whether it will have such a consequence.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that they had a reasonable excuse for the act mentioned in paragraph (a) of that subsection.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum term for summary offences, to a fine or to both.
- (4) In subsection (3), “the maximum term for summary offences” means—
- (a) if the offence is committed before the time when section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (alteration of penalties for certain summary offences: England and Wales) comes into force, six months;
 - (b) if the offence is committed after that time, 51 weeks.
- (5) In this section “dwelling” means—
- (a) a building or structure which is used as a dwelling, or
 - (b) a part of a building or structure, if the part is used as a dwelling,
- and includes any yard, garden, grounds, garage or outhouse belonging to and used with a dwelling.

Offences relating to tunnelling

3 Offence of causing serious disruption by tunnelling

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) they create, or participate in the creation of, a tunnel,
 - (b) the creation or existence of the tunnel causes, or is capable of causing, serious disruption to—
 - (i) two or more individuals, or
 - (ii) an organisation,

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- in a place other than a dwelling, and
- (c) they intend the creation or existence of the tunnel to have a consequence mentioned in paragraph (b) or are reckless as to whether its creation or existence will have such a consequence.
- (2) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that they had a reasonable excuse for creating, or participating in the creation of, the tunnel.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), a person is to be treated as having a reasonable excuse for the purposes of that subsection if the creation of the tunnel was authorised by a person with an interest in land which entitled them to authorise its creation.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court, to a fine or to both;
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, to a fine or to both.
- (5) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “tunnel” means an excavation that extends beneath land, whether or not—
- (i) it is big enough to permit the entry or passage of an individual, or
- (ii) it leads to a particular destination;
- (b) an excavation which is created with the intention that it will become or connect with a tunnel is to be treated as a tunnel, whether or not—
- (i) any tunnel with which it is intended to connect has already been created, or
- (ii) it is big enough to permit the entry or passage of an individual.
- (6) References in this section to the creation of an excavation include—
- (a) the extension or enlargement of an excavation, and
- (b) the alteration of a natural or artificial underground feature.
- (7) This section does not apply in relation to a tunnel if or to the extent that it is in or under a dwelling.
- (8) In this section “dwelling” has the same meaning as in section 1 (offence of locking on).

4 Offence of causing serious disruption by being present in a tunnel

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) they are present in a relevant tunnel having entered it after the coming into force of this section,
- (b) their presence in the tunnel causes, or is capable of causing, serious disruption to—
- (i) two or more individuals, or
- (ii) an organisation,

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- in a place other than a dwelling, and
- (c) they intend their presence in the tunnel to have a consequence mentioned in paragraph (b) or are reckless as to whether their presence there will have such a consequence.
- (2) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that they had a reasonable excuse for their presence in the tunnel.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), a person (“P”) is to be treated as having a reasonable excuse for the purposes of that subsection if P’s presence in the tunnel was authorised by a person with an interest in land which entitled them to authorise P’s presence there.
- (4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court, to a fine or to both;
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, to a fine or to both.
- (5) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “tunnel” means an excavation that extends beneath land, whether or not it leads to a particular destination;
- (b) an excavation which is created with the intention that it will become or connect with a tunnel is to be treated as a tunnel, whether or not any tunnel with which it is intended to connect has already been created.
- (6) In this section “relevant tunnel” means a tunnel that was created for the purposes of, or in connection with, a protest (and it does not matter whether an offence has been committed under section 3 in relation to the creation of the tunnel).
- (7) References in this section to the creation of an excavation include—
- (a) the extension or enlargement of an excavation, and
- (b) the alteration of a natural or artificial underground feature.
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to a tunnel if or to the extent that it is in or under a dwelling.
- (9) In this section “dwelling” has the same meaning as in section 1 (offence of locking on).

- (1) This section applies if a police officer of or above the rank of inspector reasonably believes—
 - (a) that any of the following offences may be committed in any locality within the officer’s police area—
 - (i) an offence under section 137 of the Highways Act 1980 (wilful obstruction) involving activity which causes or is capable of causing serious disruption to two or more individuals or to an organisation;
 - (ii) an offence under section 78 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 (intentionally or recklessly causing public nuisance);
 - (iii) an offence under section 1 (offence of locking on);

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (iv) an offence under section 3 (offence of causing serious disruption by tunnelling);
 - (v) an offence under section 4 (offence of causing serious disruption by being present in a tunnel);
 - (vi) an offence under section 6 (obstruction etc of major transport works);
 - (vii) an offence under section 7 (interference with use or operation of key national infrastructure), or
 - (b) that persons are carrying prohibited objects in any locality within the officer's police area.
- (2) In this section “prohibited object” means an object which—
- (a) is made or adapted for use in the course of or in connection with an offence within subsection (1)(a), or
 - (b) is intended by the person having it with them for such use by them or by some other person,
- and for the purposes of this section a person carries a prohibited object if they have it in their possession.
- (3) If the further condition in subsection (4) is met, the police officer may give an authorisation that the powers conferred by this section are to be exercisable—
- (a) anywhere within a specified locality within the officer's police area, and
 - (b) for a specified period not exceeding 24 hours.
- (4) The further condition is that the police officer reasonably believes that—
- (a) the authorisation is necessary to prevent the commission of offences within subsection (1)(a) or the carrying of prohibited objects (as the case may be),
 - (b) the specified locality is no greater than is necessary to prevent such activity, and
 - (c) the specified period is no longer than is necessary to prevent such activity.
- (5) If it appears to a police officer of or above the rank of superintendent that it is necessary to do so to prevent the commission of offences within subsection (1)(a) or the carrying of prohibited objects, the officer may direct that the authorisation is to continue in force for a further period not exceeding 24 hours.
- (6) This section confers on any constable in uniform power—
- (a) to stop any person and search them or anything carried by them for a prohibited object;
 - (b) to stop any vehicle and search the vehicle, its driver and any passenger for a prohibited object.
- (7) A constable may, in the exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (6), stop any person or vehicle and make any search the constable thinks fit whether or not the constable has any grounds for suspecting that the person or vehicle is carrying a prohibited object.
- (8) If in the course of a search under this section a constable discovers an object which the constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting to be a prohibited object, the constable may seize it.
- (9) This section and sections 12 (further provisions about authorisations and directions under this section), 13 (further provisions about searches under this section) and 14

PROSPECTIVE

Proceedings by the Secretary of State

18 Power of Secretary of State to bring proceedings

- (1) Subsection (4) applies where—
- (a) the Secretary of State reasonably believes that one or more persons are carrying out, or are likely to carry out, activities related to a protest, and
 - (b) the condition in subsection (2) or (3) is met.
- (2) The condition in this subsection is that the Secretary of State reasonably believes that the activities are causing, or are likely to cause, serious disruption to—
- (a) the use or operation of any key national infrastructure in England and Wales, or
 - (b) access to any essential goods, or to any essential service, in England and Wales.
- (3) The condition in this subsection is that the Secretary of State reasonably believes that the activities are having, or are likely to have, a serious adverse effect on public safety in England and Wales.
- (4) Where this subsection applies and the Secretary of State considers that it is expedient in the public interest to do so, the Secretary of State may bring civil proceedings relating to the activities in the name of the Secretary of State.
- (5) Before bringing proceedings under subsection (4) in relation to any activities the Secretary of State must consult such persons (if any) as the Secretary of State considers appropriate, having regard to any persons who may also bring civil proceedings in relation to those activities.

- (6) The bringing of proceedings by the Secretary of State under subsection (4) in relation to any activities does not affect the ability of any other person to bring civil proceedings in relation to those activities.
- (7) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to “activities” does not include a reference to activities carried out or likely to be carried out wholly or mainly in contemplation or furtherance of a trade dispute.
- (8) In this section—
 - “key national infrastructure” has the same meaning as in section 7 (key national infrastructure);
 - “trade dispute” has the same meaning as in Part 4 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992, except that section 218 of that Act is to be read as if—
 - (a) it made provision corresponding to section 244(4) of that Act, and
 - (b) in subsection (5), the definition of worker included any person falling within paragraph (b) of the definition of worker in section 244(5) of that Act.

19 Injunctions in Secretary of State proceedings: power of arrest and remand

- (1) This section applies to proceedings brought by the Secretary of State under section 18 (power of Secretary of State to bring proceedings).
- (2) If the court grants an injunction which prohibits conduct which—
 - (a) is capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to a person, or
 - (b) is capable of having a serious adverse effect on public safety,it may, if subsection (3) applies, attach a power of arrest to any provision of the injunction.
- (3) This subsection applies if the Secretary of State applies to the court to attach the power of arrest and the court thinks that—
 - (a) the conduct mentioned in subsection (2) consists of or includes the use or threatened use of violence, or
 - (b) there is a significant risk of harm to—
 - (i) in the case of conduct mentioned in subsection (2)(a), the person mentioned in that provision, and
 - (ii) in the case of conduct mentioned in subsection (2)(b), the public or a section of the public.
- (4) Where a power of arrest is attached to any provision of an injunction under subsection (2), a constable may arrest without warrant a person whom the constable has reasonable cause for suspecting to be in breach of that provision.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) After making an arrest under subsection (4) the constable must as soon as is reasonably practicable inform the Secretary of State.
- (6) Where a person is arrested under subsection (4)—
- (a) the person must appear before the court within the period of 24 hours beginning at the time of arrest, and
 - (b) if the matter is not then disposed of forthwith, the court may remand the person.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), when calculating the period of 24 hours referred to in paragraph (a) of that subsection, no account is to be taken of Christmas Day, Good Friday or any Sunday.
- (8) The Schedule applies in relation to the power to remand under subsection (6).
- (9) If the court has reason to consider that a medical report will be required, the power to remand a person under subsection (6) may be exercised for the purpose of enabling a medical examination and report to be made.
- (10) If such a power is so exercised the adjournment is not to be in force—
- (a) for more than three weeks at a time in a case where the court remands the accused person in custody, or
 - (b) for more than four weeks at a time in any other case.
- (11) If there is reason to suspect that a person who has been arrested under subsection (4) is suffering from mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 the court is to have the same power to make an order under section 35 of that Act (remand for report on accused's mental condition) as the Crown Court has under that section in the case of an accused person within the meaning of that section.
- (12) In this section—
- “harm” includes serious ill-treatment or abuse (whether physical or not);
- “the court” means the High Court or the county court and includes—
- (a) in relation to the High Court, a judge of that court, and
 - (b) in relation to the county court, a judge of that court.

PART 2

SERIOUS DISRUPTION PREVENTION ORDERS

Serious disruption prevention orders made on conviction

20 Serious disruption prevention order made on conviction

- (1) This section applies where—

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a person aged 18 or over (“P”) is convicted of an offence (“the current offence”) which was committed on or after the day on which this section comes into force, and
 - (b) the prosecution applies for a serious disruption prevention order to be made in respect of P.
 - (2) The court dealing with P in respect of the current offence may make a serious disruption prevention order in respect of P if—
 - (a) the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the current offence is a protest-related offence (see section 32 (interpretation)),
 - (b) the condition in subsection (3) is met, and
 - (c) the court considers it necessary to make the order for a purpose mentioned in subsection (5).
 - (3) The condition in this subsection is that the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that—
 - (a) within the relevant period, P has—
 - (i) committed another protest-related offence for which P was convicted, or
 - (ii) committed a protest-related breach of an injunction (see section 32 (interpretation)) for which P was found in contempt of court,
 - (b) the current offence and P’s conduct mentioned in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) relate to different protests, or
 - (ii) took place on different days, and
 - (c) P’s conduct mentioned in paragraph (a) has not been taken into account when making any previous serious disruption prevention order in respect of P.
 - (4) In subsection (3) “the relevant period” means the period of 5 years ending with the day on which P is convicted of the current offence; but P’s conduct may be taken into account for the purposes of this section only if it took place—
 - (a) on or after the day on which this section comes into force, and
 - (b) when P was aged 16 or over.
 - (5) The purposes are—
 - (a) to prevent P from committing a protest-related offence or a protest-related breach of an injunction;
 - (b) to prevent P from carrying out activities related to a protest that result in, or are likely to result in, serious disruption to two or more individuals, or to an organisation, in England and Wales;
 - (c) to prevent P from causing or contributing to—
 - (i) the commission by any other person of a protest-related offence or a protest-related breach of an injunction, or
 - (ii) the carrying out by any other person of activities related to a protest that result in, or are likely to result in, serious disruption to two or more individuals, or to an organisation, in England and Wales;
 - (d) to protect two or more individuals, or an organisation, in England and Wales from the risk of serious disruption arising from—
 - (i) a protest-related offence,
 - (ii) a protest-related breach of an injunction, or
 - (iii) activities related to a protest.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) A serious disruption prevention order under this section is an order which, for a purpose mentioned in subsection (5)—
- (a) requires P to do anything described in the order;
 - (b) prohibits P from doing anything described in the order.
- (7) The court may make a serious disruption prevention order in respect of P only if it is made in addition to—
- (a) a sentence imposed in respect of the current offence, or
 - (b) an order discharging P conditionally.
- (8) For the purpose of deciding whether to make a serious disruption prevention order the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution or P.
- (9) It does not matter whether the evidence would have been admissible in the proceedings for the current offence.
- (10) The court may adjourn any proceedings on an application for a serious disruption prevention order even after sentencing P.
- (11) If P does not appear for any adjourned proceedings the court may—
- (a) further adjourn the proceedings,
 - (b) issue a warrant for P’s arrest, or
 - (c) hear the proceedings in P’s absence.
- (12) The court may not act under subsection (11)(b) unless it is satisfied that P has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings.
- (13) The court may not act under subsection (11)(c) unless it is satisfied that P—
- (a) has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings, and
 - (b) has been informed that if P does not appear for those proceedings the court may hear the proceedings in P’s absence.
- (14) On making a serious disruption prevention order the court must in ordinary language explain to P the effects of the order.
- (15) Where an offence is found to have been committed over a period of 2 or more days, or at some time during a period of 2 or more days, it must be taken for the purposes of this section to have been committed on the last of those days.

Serious disruption prevention orders made on application

21 Serious disruption prevention order made on application

- (1) A magistrates’ court may make a serious disruption prevention order in respect of a person (“P”) where—

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) a person within subsection (7) applies by complaint to the court for a serious disruption prevention order to be made in respect of P,
 - (b) P is aged 18 or over when the application is made,
 - (c) the condition in subsection (2) is met, and
 - (d) the court considers it necessary to make the order for a purpose mentioned in subsection (4).
- (2) The condition in this subsection is that the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that—
- (a) on at least two occasions in the relevant period, P has—
 - (i) committed a protest-related offence for which P was convicted, or
 - (ii) committed a protest-related breach of an injunction for which P was found in contempt of court,
 - (b) P’s conduct in relation to each occasion mentioned in paragraph (a)—
 - (i) related to a different protest, or
 - (ii) took place on a different day, and
 - (c) P’s conduct in relation to each occasion mentioned in paragraph (a) has not been taken into account when making any previous serious disruption prevention order in respect of P.
- (3) In subsection (2) “the relevant period” means the period of 5 years ending with the day on which the order is made; but P’s conduct may be taken into account for the purposes of this section only if it took place—
- (a) on or after the day on which this section comes into force, and
 - (b) when P was aged 16 or over.
- (4) The purposes are—
- (a) to prevent P from committing a protest-related offence or a protest-related breach of an injunction;
 - (b) to prevent P from carrying out activities related to a protest that result in, or are likely to result in, serious disruption to two or more individuals, or to an organisation, in England and Wales;
 - (c) to prevent P from causing or contributing to—
 - (i) the commission by any other person of a protest-related offence or a protest-related breach of an injunction, or
 - (ii) the carrying out by any other person of activities related to a protest that result in, or are likely to result in, serious disruption to two or more individuals, or to an organisation, in England and Wales;
 - (d) to protect two or more individuals, or an organisation, in England and Wales from the risk of serious disruption arising from—
 - (i) a protest-related offence,
 - (ii) a protest related-breach of an injunction, or
 - (iii) activities related to a protest.
- (5) A serious disruption prevention order under this section is an order which, for a purpose mentioned in subsection (4)—
- (a) requires P to do anything described in the order;
 - (b) prohibits P from doing anything described in the order.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) On making a serious disruption prevention order the court must in ordinary language explain to P the effects of the order.
- (7) The following persons are within this subsection—
- (a) a relevant chief officer of police;
 - (b) the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force;
 - (c) the chief constable of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary;
 - (d) the chief constable of the Ministry of Defence Police.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (7)(a) a chief officer of police is a relevant chief officer of police in relation to an application for a serious disruption prevention order in respect of P if—
- (a) P lives in the chief officer’s police area, or
 - (b) the chief officer believes that P is in, or is intending to come to, the chief officer’s police area.
- (9) An application for a serious disruption prevention order made by a chief officer of police for a police area may be made only to a court acting for a local justice area that includes any part of that police area.
- (10) Where an offence is found to have been committed over a period of 2 or more days, or at some time during a period of 2 or more days, it must be taken for the purposes of this section to have been committed on the last of those days.
- (11) Section 127 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 (time limits) does not apply to a complaint under this section.

Provisions of serious disruption prevention orders

22 Provisions of serious disruption prevention order

- (1) The only requirements and prohibitions that may be imposed on a person by a serious disruption prevention order are those which the court making the order thinks are necessary for a purpose mentioned in section 20(5) or 21(4) (as the case may be).
- (2) The requirements imposed on a person (“P”) by a serious disruption prevention order may, in particular, have the effect of requiring P—
- (a) to present themselves to a particular person at a particular place at, or between, particular times on particular days;
 - (b) to remain at a particular place for particular periods.
- (3) Sections 23 and 24 make further provision about the inclusion of requirements (including notification requirements) in a serious disruption prevention order.
- (4) The prohibitions imposed on a person (“P”) by a serious disruption prevention order may, in particular, have the effect of prohibiting P from—
- (a) being in or entering a particular place or area;

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) being in or entering a particular place or area between particular times on particular days;
 - (c) being in or entering a particular place or area between particular times on any day;
 - (d) being with particular persons;
 - (e) participating in particular activities;
 - (f) having particular articles with them;
 - (g) using the internet to facilitate or encourage persons to—
 - (i) commit a protest-related offence or a protest-related breach of an injunction, or
 - (ii) carry out activities related to a protest that result in, or are likely to result in, serious disruption to two or more individuals, or to an organisation, in England and Wales.
- (5) References in this section to a particular place or area or particular persons, activities or articles include a place, area, persons, activities or articles of a particular description.
- (6) A serious disruption prevention order which imposes prohibitions on a person may include exceptions from those prohibitions.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects the generality of sections 20(6) and 21(5).
- (8) The requirements or prohibitions which are imposed on a person by a serious disruption prevention order must, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid—
- (a) any conflict with the person’s religious beliefs, and
 - (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the person normally works or attends any educational establishment.

23 Requirements in serious disruption prevention order

- (1) A serious disruption prevention order which imposes on a person (“P”) a requirement, other than a notification requirement under section 24, must specify a person who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with the requirement.
- (2) That person may be an individual or an organisation.
- (3) Before including such a requirement, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from—
 - (a) the individual to be specified under subsection (1), if an individual is to be specified;
 - (b) an individual representing the organisation to be specified under subsection (1), if an organisation is to be specified.
- (4) Before including two or more such requirements, the court must consider their compatibility with each other.
- (5) It is the duty of a person specified under subsection (1)—

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) to make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the person has responsibility (the “relevant requirements”);
 - (b) to promote P’s compliance with the relevant requirements;
 - (c) if the person considers that P—
 - (i) has complied with all of the relevant requirements, or
 - (ii) has failed to comply with a relevant requirement,
 to inform the appropriate chief officer of police.
- (6) In subsection (5)(c) “the appropriate chief officer of police” means—
- (a) the chief officer of police for the police area in which it appears to the person specified under subsection (1) that P lives, or
 - (b) if it appears to that person that P lives in more than one police area, whichever of the chief officers of police of those areas the person thinks it is most appropriate to inform.
- (7) Where P is subject to a requirement in a serious disruption prevention order, other than a notification requirement under section 24, P must—
- (a) keep in touch with the person specified under subsection (1) in relation to that requirement, in accordance with any instructions given by that person from time to time, and
 - (b) notify that person of any change of P’s home address.
- (8) The obligations mentioned in subsection (7) have effect as if they were requirements imposed on P by the order.

24 Notification requirements in serious disruption prevention order

- (1) A serious disruption prevention order made in respect of a person (“P”) must impose on P the notification requirements in subsections (2) and (4).
- (2) P must be required to notify the information in subsection (3) to the police within the period of 3 days beginning with the day on which the order takes effect.
- (3) That information is—
 - (a) P’s name on the day that the notification is given and, where P uses one or more other names on that day, each of those names,
 - (b) P’s home address on that day, and
 - (c) the address of any other premises at which, on that day, P regularly resides or stays.
- (4) P must be required to notify the information in subsection (5) to the police within the period of 3 days beginning with the day on which P—
 - (a) uses a name which has not been previously notified to the police in accordance with the order,
 - (b) changes their home address, or

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) decides to live for a period of one month or more at any premises the address of which has not been previously notified to the police in accordance with the order.
- (5) That information is—
- (a) in a case within subsection (4)(a), the name which has not previously been notified,
 - (b) in a case within subsection (4)(b), the new home address, and
 - (c) in a case within subsection (4)(c), the address of the premises at which P has decided to live.
- (6) A serious disruption prevention order must provide that P gives a notification of the kind mentioned in subsection (2) or (4) by—
- (a) attending at a police station in a police area in which P lives, and
 - (b) giving an oral notification to a police officer, or to any person authorised for the purpose by the officer in charge of the station.

25 Duration of serious disruption prevention order

- (1) A serious disruption prevention order takes effect on the day it is made, subject to subsections (3) and (4).
- (2) A serious disruption prevention order must specify the period for which it has effect, which must be a fixed period of not less than 1 week and not more than 2 years.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies in relation to a serious disruption prevention order made in respect of a person (“P”) if—
 - (a) P has been remanded in or committed to custody by an order of a court,
 - (b) a custodial sentence has been imposed on P or P is serving or otherwise subject to such a sentence, or
 - (c) P is on licence for part of the term of a custodial sentence.
- (4) The order may provide that it does not take effect until—
 - (a) P is released from custody,
 - (b) P ceases to be subject to a custodial sentence, or
 - (c) P ceases to be on licence.
- (5) A serious disruption prevention order may specify periods for which particular requirements or prohibitions have effect.
- (6) Where a court makes a serious disruption prevention order in respect of a person and the person is already subject to such an order, the earlier order ceases to have effect.
- (7) In this section “custodial sentence”—
 - (a) has the same meaning as in the Sentencing Code, and
 - (b) includes a “pre-Code custodial sentence” within the meaning of the Sentencing Code (see section 222 of the Code).

Offences

27 Offences relating to a serious disruption prevention order

- (1) Where a serious disruption prevention order has effect in respect of a person (“P”), P commits an offence if P—
 - (a) fails without reasonable excuse to do anything P is required to do by the order,
 - (b) without reasonable excuse does anything P is prohibited from doing by the order, or
 - (c) notifies to the police, in purported compliance with the order, any information which P knows to be false.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum term for summary offences, to a fine or to both.
- (3) In subsection (2) “the maximum term for summary offences” means—
 - (a) if the offence is committed before the time when section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (alteration of penalties for certain summary offences: England and Wales) comes into force, six months;
 - (b) if the offence is committed after that time, 51 weeks.

Variation, renewal or discharge of serious disruption prevention orders

28 Variation, renewal or discharge of serious disruption prevention order

- (1) Where a serious disruption prevention order has been made in respect of a person (“P”), a person within subsection (2) may apply to the appropriate court for an order varying, renewing or discharging the order.
- (2) Those persons are—
 - (a) P;
 - (b) the chief officer of police for the police area in which P lives;
 - (c) a chief officer of police who believes that P is in, or is intending to come to, the chief officer’s police area;
 - (d) if the application for the order was made by a chief officer of police other than one within paragraph (b) or (c), the chief officer by whom the application was made;
 - (e) the chief officer of police for a police area in which P committed an offence on the basis of which the order was made;
 - (f) where the order was made following an application by a constable within subsection (3), that constable.
- (3) Those constables are—
 - (a) the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force;
 - (b) the chief constable of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary;
 - (c) the chief constable of the Ministry of Defence Police.
- (4) An application under this section must be made—
 - (a) where the appropriate court is a magistrates’ court, by complaint;
 - (b) in any other case, in accordance with rules of court.
- (5) Before making a decision on an application under this section, the court must hear—
 - (a) the person making the application, and
 - (b) any other person within subsection (2) who wishes to be heard.
- (6) Subject to subsections (7) to (9), on an application under this section the court may make such order varying, renewing or discharging the serious disruption prevention order as it thinks appropriate.
- (7) The court may—
 - (a) vary a serious disruption prevention order so as to—
 - (i) extend the period for which the order has effect,
 - (ii) extend the period for which a requirement or prohibition imposed by the order has effect, or
 - (iii) impose an additional prohibition or requirement on P, or
 - (b) renew a serious disruption prevention order,only if it considers that to do so is necessary for a purpose mentioned in subsection (8).
- (8) The purposes are—
 - (a) to prevent P from committing a protest-related offence or a protest-related breach of an injunction,

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (b) to prevent P from carrying out activities related to a protest that result in, or are likely to result in, serious disruption to two or more individuals, or to an organisation, in England and Wales,
 - (c) to prevent P from causing or contributing to—
 - (i) the commission by any other person of a protest-related offence or a protest-related breach of an injunction, or
 - (ii) the carrying out by any other person of activities related to a protest that result in, or are likely to result in, serious disruption to two or more individuals, or to an organisation, in England and Wales, or
 - (d) to protect two or more individuals, or an organisation, in England and Wales from the risk of serious disruption arising from—
 - (i) a protest-related offence,
 - (ii) a protest-related breach of an injunction, or
 - (iii) activities related to a protest.
- (9) The court may not renew a serious disruption prevention order more than once.
- (10) Sections 22 to 26 (other than section 24(2) and (3)) have effect in relation to—
- (a) the variation of a serious disruption prevention order so as to—
 - (i) extend the period for which the order has effect,
 - (ii) extend the period for which a requirement or prohibition imposed by the order has effect, or
 - (iii) impose an additional prohibition or requirement on P, or
 - (b) the renewal of a serious disruption prevention order,
- as they have effect in relation to the making of such an order.
- (11) On making an order under this section varying or renewing a serious disruption prevention order, the court must in ordinary language explain to P the effects of the serious disruption prevention order (as varied or renewed).
- (12) Section 127 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980 does not apply to a complaint under this section.
- (13) In this section “the appropriate court” means—
- (a) where the Crown Court or the Court of Appeal made the order, the Crown Court;
 - (b) where a magistrates’ court made the order and the application is made by P or a constable within subsection (3)—
 - (i) that magistrates’ court, or
 - (ii) a magistrates’ court for the area in which P lives;
 - (c) where a magistrates’ court made the order and the application is made by a chief officer of police—
 - (i) that magistrates’ court,
 - (ii) a magistrates’ court for the area in which P lives, or
 - (iii) a magistrates’ court acting for a local justice area that includes any part of the chief officer’s police area.

- (2) Where a serious disruption prevention order is made under section 21 (order on application) in respect of a person (“P”), P may appeal to the appropriate court against the making of the order.
- (3) A person who applied under section 21 (order on application) for a serious disruption prevention order to be imposed in respect of a person may appeal to the appropriate court against a refusal to make the order.
- (4) Where an application is made under section 28 for an order varying, renewing or discharging a serious disruption prevention order made in respect of a person (“P”)—
 - (a) the person who made the application may appeal to the appropriate court against a refusal to make an order under that section;
 - (b) P may appeal to the appropriate court against the making of an order under that section which was made on the application of a person other than P;
 - (c) a person within subsection (2) of that section (other than P) may appeal to the appropriate court against the making of an order under that section which was made on the application of P.
- (5) In this section “the appropriate court” means—
 - (a) in relation to an appeal under subsection (2), the Crown Court;
 - (b) in relation to an appeal under subsection (3) or (4)—
 - (i) where the application in question was made to a magistrates’ court, the Crown Court;
 - (ii) where the application in question was made to the Crown Court, the Court of Appeal.
- (6) On an appeal under this section to the Crown Court, the court may make—
 - (a) such orders as may be necessary to give effect to its determination of the appeal, and
 - (b) such incidental and consequential orders as appear to it to be appropriate.

General

30 Guidance

- (1) The Secretary of State may issue guidance to—
 - (a) chief officers of police,
 - (b) the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force,
 - (c) the chief constable of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary, and
 - (d) the chief constable of the Ministry of Defence Police,
 in relation to serious disruption prevention orders.
- (2) The guidance may in particular include—
 - (a) guidance about the exercise by chief officers of police and the chief constables mentioned in subsection (1) of their functions under this Part,
 - (b) guidance about identifying persons in respect of whom it may be appropriate for applications for serious disruption prevention orders to be made, and
 - (c) guidance about providing assistance to prosecutors in connection with applications for serious disruption prevention orders.
- (3) The Secretary of State may revise any guidance issued under this section.
- (4) The Secretary of State must arrange for any guidance issued under this section to be published.
- (5) A chief officer of police or a chief constable mentioned in subsection (1) must have regard to any guidance issued under this section.

31 Guidance: Parliamentary procedure

- (1) Before issuing guidance under section 30, the Secretary of State must lay a draft of the guidance before Parliament.
- (2) If, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the draft guidance, the guidance may not be issued.
- (3) If no such resolution is made within that period, the Secretary of State may issue the guidance.
- (4) In this section “the 40-day period”, in relation to draft guidance, means the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament (or, if it is not laid before each House on the same day, the later of the days on which it is laid).
- (5) In calculating the 40-day period, no account is to be taken of any period during which—
 - (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
 - (b) both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.

GENERAL

34 Meaning of serious disruption

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the cases in which individuals or an organisation may suffer serious disruption include, in particular, where the individuals or the organisation—
- (a) are by way of physical obstruction prevented, or hindered to more than a minor degree, from carrying out—
 - (i) their day-to-day activities (including in particular the making of a journey),
 - (ii) construction or maintenance works, or

PROSPECTIVE

SCHEDULE

Section 19

INJUNCTIONS IN SECRETARY OF STATE PROCEEDINGS: POWERS TO REMAND

Introductory

- 1 (1) This Schedule applies where the court has power to remand a person under subsection (6) of section 19 (injunctions in Secretary of State proceedings: power of arrest and remand).
- (2) In this Schedule “the court” has the same meaning as in that section.

Commencement Information

I61 Sch. para. 1 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 35(5)

Remand in custody or on bail

- 2 (1) The court may—
- (a) remand the person in custody, that is, commit the person to custody to be brought before the court at the end of the period of remand or at such earlier time as the court may require, or
 - (b) remand the person on bail, in accordance with the following provisions.
- (2) The court may remand the person on bail—
- (a) by taking from the person a recognizance, with or without sureties, conditioned as provided in paragraph 3, or
 - (b) by fixing the amount of the recognizances with a view to their being taken subsequently, and in the meantime committing the person to custody as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a).
- (3) Where a person is brought before the court after remand, the court may further remand the person.

Commencement Information

I62 Sch. para. 2 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 35(5)

- 3 (1) Where a person is remanded on bail, the court may direct that the person’s recognizance be conditioned for the person’s appearance—
- (a) before that court at the end of the period of remand, or
 - (b) at every time and place to which during the course of the proceedings the hearing may from time to time be adjourned.
- (2) Where a recognizance is conditioned for a person's appearance as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(b), the fixing of any time for the person next to appear is deemed to be a remand.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Nothing in this paragraph affects the power of the court at any subsequent hearing to remand the person afresh.

Commencement Information

I63 Sch. para. 3 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 35\(5\)

- 4 (1) The court must not remand a person for a period exceeding eight clear days except that—
- (a) if the court remands the person on bail, it may remand the person for a longer period if the person and the other party consent, and
 - (b) if the court adjourns a case under section 19\(9\) (remand for medical examination and report) the court may remand the person for the period of adjournment.
- (2) Where the court has the power to remand a person in custody it may, if the remand is for a period not exceeding three clear days, commit the person to the custody of a constable.

Further remand

- 5 (1) If the court is satisfied that a person who has been remanded is unable by reason of illness or accident to appear or be brought before the court at the expiration of the period for which the person was remanded, the court may, in the person's absence, remand the person for a further time.
- (2) The power mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) may, in the case of a person who was remanded on bail, be exercised by enlarging the person's recognizance and those of any sureties for the person to a later time.
- (3) Where a person remanded on bail is bound to appear before the court at any time and the court has no power to remand the person under sub-paragraph (1), the court may in the person's absence enlarge the person's recognizance and those of any sureties for the person to a later time.
- (4) The enlargement of the person's recognizance is to be deemed to be a further remand.
- (5) Paragraph 4\(1\) (limit of remand) does not apply to the exercise of the powers conferred by this paragraph.

Status: Point in time view as at 05/04/2024. This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Public Order Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

Commencement Information

I65 Sch. para. 5 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 35\(5\)

Postponement and taking recognizance

- 6 Where under paragraph 2\(2\)\(b\) the court fixes the amount in which the principal and their sureties, if any, are to be bound, the recognizance may afterwards be taken by such person as may be prescribed by rules of court, with the same consequences as if it had been entered into before the court.

Commencement Information

I66 Sch. para. 6 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 35\(5\)

Requirements imposed on remand on bail

- 7 The court may when remanding a person on bail under this Schedule require the person to comply, before release on bail or later, with such requirements as appear to the court to be necessary to secure that the person does not interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice.
