

Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023

2023 CHAPTER 56

PART 1

COMPANIES ETC

The registrar of companies

1 The registrar's objectives

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1059A (scheme of Part 35), in subsection (2), at the appropriate place insert—
“section 1081A (registrar's objectives to promote integrity of registers etc),”.
- (3) After section 1081 insert—

“1081A Registrar's objectives to promote integrity of registers etc

- (1) The registrar must, in performing the registrar's functions, seek to promote the following objectives.

Objective 1

Objective 1 is to ensure that any person who is required to deliver a document to the registrar does so (and that the requirements for proper delivery are complied with).

Objective 2

Objective 2 is to ensure that information contained in the register is accurate and that the register contains everything it ought to contain.

Objective 3

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

Objective 3 is to ensure that records kept by the registrar do not create a false or misleading impression to members of the public.

Objective 4

Objective 4 is to prevent companies and others from—

- (a) carrying out unlawful activities, or
- (b) facilitating the carrying out by others of unlawful activities.

(2) In Objective 2 the reference to “the register” includes any records kept by the registrar under any enactment.”

I2 S. 2 in force at Royal Assent for specified purposes, see s. 219\(1\)\(2\)\(b\)

3 Information about subscribers

(1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 9 (registration documents)—

(a) after subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) The application must contain—

- (a) a statement of the required information about each of the subscribers to the memorandum of association (see section 9A),
- (b) a statement that none of the subscribers to the memorandum of association is disqualified under the directors disqualification legislation (see section 159A(2)),
- (c) if any of them would be so disqualified but for the permission of a court to act, a statement to that effect, in respect of each of them, specifying—
 - (i) the subscriber’s name,
 - (ii) the court by which permission was given, and
 - (iii) the date on which permission was given, and

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) if any of them would be disqualified under the directors disqualification legislation by virtue of section 11A of the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 or Article 15A of the Company Directors Disqualification (Northern Ireland) Order 2002 (designated persons under sanctions legislation) but for the authority of a licence of the kind mentioned in that section or Article, a statement to that effect, in respect of each of them, specifying—
- (i) the subscriber’s name, and
 - (ii) the date on which it was issued and by whom it was issued.”;
- (b) after subsection (6) insert—
- “(7) In subsection (3A)(c) “permission of a court to act” means permission of a court under a provision mentioned in column 2 of the table in section 159A(2).”
- (3) After section 9 insert—

“9A Required information about the subscribers

- (1) The required information about a subscriber who is an individual is—
 - (a) name;
 - (b) a service address.
 - (2) The required information about a subscriber that is a body corporate, or a firm that is a legal person under the law by which it is governed, is—
 - (a) corporate or firm name;
 - (b) a service address.
 - (3) In subsection (1) “name” means the individual’s forename and surname.
 - (4) Where a subscriber is a peer or an individual usually known by a title, that title may be stated in the application for the registration of the company instead of the subscriber’s forename and surname.
 - (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) amend this section so as to change the required information about a subscriber;
 - (b) repeal subsection (4).
 - (6) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.”
- (4) In section 10 (statement of capital and initial shareholdings), omit subsection (3).
- (5) In section 11 (statement of guarantee), omit subsection (2).

4 Proposed officers: identity verification

- (1) Section 12 of the Companies Act 2006 (statement of proposed officers) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (2) insert—
 - “(2A) The statement must, in the case of each individual named as a director, confirm that the individual’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).”
- (3) The provision that may be made under section 220(1) in connection with the coming into force of this section includes—
 - (a) provision requiring a company incorporated in pursuance of an application delivered before the coming into force of this section to deliver to the registrar, at the same time as a confirmation statement, a statement, in respect of any individual who became a director of the company on its incorporation, confirming that the individual’s identity is verified (within the meaning of section 1110A of the Companies Act 2006), and
 - (b) provision for section 853A(1)(b)(i) of the Companies Act 2006 (as substituted by section 59 of this Act) to have effect as if it included a reference to any duty imposed by virtue of paragraph (a).
- (4) In subsection (3)—
 - “confirmation statement” has the meaning given by section 853A of the Companies Act 2006;
 - “the registrar” has the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see section 1060 of the Companies Act 2006).

Commencement Information

5 Proposed officers: disqualification

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows
- (2) In section 12 (statement of proposed officers), at the end insert—
 - “(4) The statement must also include a statement by the subscribers to the memorandum of association that no one named as a director is—
 - (a) disqualified under the directors disqualification legislation (see section 159A(2)), or
 - (b) otherwise ineligible by virtue of any enactment for appointment as a director.
 - (5) Where any of the persons named as directors would be disqualified under the directors disqualification legislation but for the permission of a court to act, the statement must also include a statement to that effect, in respect of each of them, specifying—
 - (a) the person’s name,
 - (b) the court by which permission was given, and
 - (c) the date on which permission was given.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) In subsection (5) “permission of a court to act” means permission of a court under a provision mentioned in column 2 of the table in section 159A(2).
- (7) Where any of the persons named as directors would be disqualified under the directors disqualification legislation by virtue of section 11A of the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 or Article 15A of the Company Directors Disqualification (Northern Ireland) Order 2002 (designated persons under sanctions legislation) but for the authority of a licence of the kind mentioned in that section or Article, the statement must also include a statement to that effect, in respect of each of them, specifying—
- (a) the person’s name, and
 - (b) the date on which the licence was issued and by whom it was issued.”
- (3) In section 16 (effect of registration), in subsection (6), at the end insert “unless ineligible for appointment to that office by virtue of any enactment”.

6 Persons with initial significant control: disqualification

- (1) Section 12A of the Companies Act 2006 (statement of initial significant control) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (1) insert—
- “(1A) If there is anyone who will be a registrable person, or a registrable relevant legal entity, in relation to the company on incorporation, the statement must also include—
- (a) a statement that none of them is disqualified under the directors disqualification legislation (see section 159A(2)),
 - (b) if any of them would be so disqualified but for the permission of a court to act, a statement to that effect, in respect of each of them, specifying—
 - (i) the person’s name,
 - (ii) the court by which permission was given,
 - (iii) the date on which permission was given, and
 - (c) if any of them would be so disqualified by virtue of section 11A of the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 or Article 15A of the Company Directors Disqualification (Northern Ireland) Order 2002 (designated persons under sanctions legislation) but for the authority of a licence of the kind mentioned in that section or Article, a statement to that effect, in respect of each of them, specifying—
 - (i) the person’s name, and
 - (ii) the date on which the licence was issued and by whom it was issued.”
- (3) For subsection (4) substitute—
- “(4) In this section—

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

“permission of a court to act” means permission of a court under a provision mentioned in column 2 of the table in section 159A(2);

“registrable person” has the meaning given by section 790C (see also section 790J);

“registrable relevant legal entity” has the meaning given by section 790C (see also section 790J);

“required particulars” has the meaning given by section 790K.”

7 Persons with initial significant control: identity verification

After section 12A of the Companies Act 2006 insert—

“12B Option to provide ID verification information about PSCs

- (1) This section applies if an application for the registration of a company contains a statement of initial significant control that identifies a person who will be a registrable person, or a registrable relevant legal entity, in relation to the company on its incorporation.
- (2) In relation to any person who will be a registrable person, the statement may include a statement that the person’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).
- (3) In relation to any person who will be a registrable relevant legal entity, the statement may include a statement that—
 - (a) specifies the name of one of its relevant officers (within the meaning given by section 790LO\(6\)) who is an individual and whose identity is verified, and
 - (b) confirms that the individual’s identity is verified.
- (4) If a statement under subsection (3) is included in relation to a person who will be a registrable relevant legal entity, the application for registration of the company must be accompanied by a statement by the individual confirming that the individual is a relevant officer of that entity.
- (5) To find out what happens if the option in subsection (2) or (3) is not exercised, see sections 790LM and 790LO.
- (6) In this section—

“registrable person” has the meaning given by section 790C, except that it does not include a person mentioned in section 790C(12)(a) to (d) (see also section 790J);

“registrable relevant legal entity” has the meaning given by section 790C (see also section 790J).”

11 Prohibition on re-registering name following direction

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 57A (inserted by section 10 of this Act) insert—

“Prohibitions where a company has been required to change a name

57B Prohibition on re-registering name following direction

- (1) Where a company’s name has at any time been changed following a direction under section 67, 75, 76, 76A or 76B, or an order under section 73, the company must not subsequently be registered under this Act by the original name or a name that is similar to it.
- (2) But subsection (1) does not prevent the registration of the company by any name approved by the Secretary of State.
- (3) In subsection (1)—
 - (a) the reference to the name of a company being changed following a direction under a particular section includes a case where a new name is determined for the company under section 76D because of its failure to comply with the direction;
 - (b) the reference to the name of a company being changed following an order under section 73 includes a case where a new name is determined for the company under section 73(4) because of its failure to comply with an order.”
- (3) In section 1047 (registered name of overseas company), in subsection (4), after paragraph (bb) (inserted by section 10 of this Act) insert—
 - “(bc) section 57B (restriction on re-registering name following direction).”

12 Prohibition on using name that another company has been directed to change

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 57B (inserted by section 11 of this Act) insert—

“57C Name that another company has been directed to change

- (1) Where a company has at any time been directed under section 67, 75, 76, 76A or 76B, or ordered under section 73, to change its name, no other company may be registered under this Act by that name or a name that is similar if—
 - (a) that company is an existing company and there is a person who has, or has had, a relevant relationship with both companies, or
 - (b) an application has been made for the registration of that company and, if it is registered, there will on its incorporation be a person who has, or has had, a relevant relationship with both companies.
- (2) But subsection (1) does not prevent the registration of the company by any name approved by the Secretary of State.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) it is irrelevant whether the person has, or has had, a relevant relationship with both companies at the same time.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a person has a “relevant relationship” with a company if the person is—
 - (a) an officer, or
 - (b) a member or former member.
- (5) In subsection (1)—
 - (a) the reference to the name of a company being changed following a direction under a particular section includes a case where a new name is determined for the company under section 76D because of its failure to comply with the direction;
 - (b) the reference to the name of a company being changed following an order under section 73 includes a case where a new name is determined for the company under section 73\(4\) because of its failure to comply with an order.”
- (3) In section 1047 (registered name of overseas company), in subsection (4), after paragraph (bc) (inserted by section 11 of this Act) insert—
 - “(bd) section 57C (names that another company has been directed to change);”.

 - (b) the Secretary of State did not, at the time at which the name was registered, form the opinion mentioned in section 53, 56A or 57A, but had proper grounds for doing so.
- (2) The direction must be in writing and must specify the period within which the company is to change its name.
- (3) The period must be a period of at least 28 days beginning with the date of the direction.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by further direction in writing extend the period.
Any such direction must be given before the end of the period for the time being specified.
- (5) A company may apply to the court to set aside a direction under subsection (1).
- (6) Any application under subsection (5) must be made within the period of three weeks beginning with the date of the direction.
- (7) On an application under subsection (5) the court may set the direction aside or confirm it.
- (8) If on an application under subsection (5) the direction is confirmed, the court must specify the period within which the direction is to be complied with.
- (9) Where a direction is given under subsection (1), the registrar may omit from the material on the register that is available for public inspection any mention of the name to which the direction relates.
- (10) If a company applies to the court under subsection (5) to set aside a direction, the company is not required to comply with the direction while the proceedings are ongoing.
- (11) If a company fails to comply with a direction under subsection (1), an offence is committed by—
- (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- For this purpose a shadow director is treated as an officer of the company.
- (12) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.”
- (3) In section 1047 (registered name of overseas company), in subsection (4), after paragraph (g) (inserted by section 17 of this Act) insert—
- “(h) section 76B (direction to change name wrongly registered);”.

“CHAPTER 4A

EXCEPTIONS

76E Exceptions based on national security etc

- (1) Nothing in this Part prevents the registration of a company under this Act by a name if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the registration of the company by that name is necessary—
 - (a) in the interests of national security, or
 - (b) for the purposes of preventing or detecting serious crime.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b)—
 - (a) “crime” means conduct which—
 - (i) constitutes a criminal offence, or
 - (ii) is, or corresponds to, any conduct which, if it all took place in any one part of the United Kingdom, would constitute a criminal offence, and
 - (b) crime is “serious” if—
 - (i) the offence which is or would be constituted by the conduct is an offence for which the maximum sentence (in any part of the United Kingdom) is imprisonment for 3 years or more, or
 - (ii) the conduct involves the use of violence, results in substantial financial gain or is conduct by a large number of persons in pursuit of a common purpose.”

25 Use of name that a company has been required to change

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1192 (application of this Chapter), at the beginning of subsection (1) insert “Subject to any express provision to the contrary,”.
- (3) After section 1198 insert—

“Restrictions where a company has been required to change a name

1198A Name that a company has been required to change

- (1) Where a relevant direction has been given to a company to change its name, or it has been ordered under section 73 to change its name, the company must not carry on business in the United Kingdom under the name that it was directed or ordered to change, except as mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the use by a company of a name if—
 - (a) the period for complying with the direction or order has not yet expired,
 - (b) the company complied with the direction or order and has since become registered with the name again following approval given under section 57B, or
 - (c) the direction was given, or the order was made, before section 25 of the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023 came fully into force.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If a company uses a name in contravention of this section an offence is committed by—
- (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.
- (5) In this section—
- “company” includes an overseas company;
- “relevant direction” means a direction under section 67, 75, 76, 76A or 76B, other than a direction under section 76B(1)(b) given on the basis that, at the time at which a company’s name was registered, the Secretary of State had proper grounds for forming the opinion mentioned in section 57A.”

26 Use of name that another company has been required to change

After section 1198A of the Companies Act 2006 (inserted by section 25 of this Act) insert—

“1198B Name that another company has been required to change

- (1) Where a relevant direction has been given to a company to change its name, or it has been ordered under section 73 to change its name, another company must not carry on business in the United Kingdom under the name that the first company was directed or ordered to change if there is a person who has, or has had, a relevant relationship with both companies.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the use by a company of a name if—
 - (a) it is registered under this Act by that name,
 - (b) the period for complying with the direction or order has not yet expired, or
 - (c) the direction was given, or the order was made, before section 26 of the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023 came fully into force.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) it is irrelevant whether the person has, or has had, a relevant relationship with both companies at the same time.
- (4) For the purposes of this section a person has a “relevant relationship” with a company if the person is—
 - (a) an officer, or
 - (b) a member or former member.

167M Prohibition on director acting unless ID verified

- (1) An individual must not act as a director of a company unless the individual’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).
- (2) A company must ensure that an individual does not act as a director unless the individual’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).
- (3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.
- (4) If a company contravenes subsection (2) an offence is committed by—
 - (a) the company, and
 - (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

For this purpose a shadow director is treated as an officer of the company.

- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) The only consequences of contravening subsections (1) and (2) are the offences provided for by this section (so that, for example, a contravention does not in any way affect the validity of an individual’s acts as a director).”

44 Prohibition on acting unless directorship notified

After section 167M of the Companies Act 2006 (inserted by section 43 of this Act) insert—

“167N Prohibition on acting unless directorship notified

- (1) This section applies where—
 - (a) a person has become a director of a company otherwise than on its incorporation, and
 - (b) notice under section 167G of the person having done so has not been given within the period mentioned in subsection (6) of that section.
- (2) The person may not act as a director of the company until notice is given under section 167G.
- (3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Where the offence is committed by a firm, every officer of the firm who is in default also commits the offence.
- (5) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to prove that they reasonably believed that notice had been given under section 167G.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (7) The only consequence of a contravention of subsection (2) is the offence provided for by this section (so that, for example, a contravention does not in any way affect the validity of a person’s acts as a director).”

45 Registrar’s power to change a director’s service address

For section 246 of the Companies Act 2006 substitute—

“246 Putting the address on the public record

- (1) If the registrar decides in accordance with section 245 that a director’s usual residential address is to be put on the public record, the registrar must proceed as if each relevant company had given notice under section 167H—
 - (a) stating a change in the director’s service address, and
 - (b) stating the director’s usual residential address as their new service address.
- (2) The registrar must give notice of having done so—
 - (a) to the director, and
 - (b) to every relevant company.
- (3) The notice must state the date of the registrar’s decision to put the director’s usual residential address on the public record.
- (4) Where a director’s usual residential address has been put on the public record by the registrar under this section, for the period of five years beginning with the date of the registrar’s decision no service address may be registered for the director other than their usual residential address (but see subsection (5)).
- (5) Subsection (4)—
 - (a) does not limit the service address that may be registered for the director under regulations under section 1097B (rectification of register), and
 - (b) ceases to apply in relation to the director if a new service address is registered for the director under those regulations.

Register of members

46 Register of members: information to be included and powers to obtain it

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 112 (the members of a company), at the end insert—
 - “(4) Where an individual’s name is entered in a company’s register of members but is not in the form required by section 113A, that does not affect the person becoming a member of the company by virtue of subsection (2).”
- (3) For the italic heading “General” at the beginning of Chapter 2 of Part 8 substitute “Duty to keep register”.
- (4) In section 113 (register of members)—
 - (a) for subsection (2) substitute—
 - “(2) There must be entered in the register, in respect of each person who is a member—
 - (a) the required information (see sections 113A and 113B), and
 - (b) the date on which the person was registered as a member.
 - (2A) Where a person ceases to be a member there must be entered in the register the date at which the person’s membership ceased.”;
 - (b) in subsection (3), omit “, with the names and addresses of the members.”;
 - (c) in subsection (5), after “show a single” insert “service”;
 - (d) in subsection (6), omit “, with the names and addresses of the members.”;
 - (e) after subsection (6) insert—
 - “(6A) Where any of the information required to be entered in a company’s register of members changes and, at the time of the change, it is a non-traded company—
 - (a) the fact that the information has changed does not relieve the company from the obligation to include the old information in the register if it has not already done so,
 - (b) the old information must be retained in the register until its removal is authorised by section 121 or by court order under section 125, and
 - (c) a note must be included in the register recording the date on which the information changed and the date on which the change was entered in the register.
 - (6B) Where any of the information required to be entered in a company’s register of members changes and, at the time of the change, it is a traded company, the company is not required to include or retain the old information in the register.

(6C) The Secretary of State may by regulations—

- (a) amend subsection (6A) so as to provide for it to apply in relation to traded companies, and
- (b) repeal subsection (6B) in consequence.

(6D) Regulations under subsection (6C) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.”;

- (f) in subsection (7), after “If” insert “, without reasonable excuse,”;
- (g) after subsection (8) insert—

“(9) In this section—

“non-traded company” means a company that is not a traded company;

“relevant market” has the meaning given by section 853E(6);

“traded company” means a company any of whose shares are admitted to trading on a relevant market or on any other market which is outside the United Kingdom.”

(5) After section 113 insert—

“113A Required information about members: individuals

(1) The required information about a member who is an individual is—

- (a) name;
- (b) a service address.

(2) In this section “name” means forename and surname.

(3) Where a member is a peer or an individual usually known by a title—

- (a) any requirement imposed by section 113D or 113E, or by a notice under section 113F, to provide their name may be satisfied by providing their title instead;
- (b) the title may be entered in the register of members instead of their forename and surname (and references in any enactment to the name of a person entered in a company’s register of members are to be construed accordingly).

113B Required information about members: corporate members and firms

The required information about a member that is a body corporate, or a firm that is a legal person under the law by which it is governed, is—

- (a) corporate or firm name;
- (b) a service address.

113C Power to amend the required information

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) make provision changing the required information about a member for the purposes of this Chapter;
 - (b) repeal section 113A(3).
- (2) The provision that may be made in regulations under subsection (1)(a) includes provision amending this Chapter.
- (3) The consequential provision that may be made in regulations under subsection (1)(a) by virtue of section 1292(1) also includes provision amending section 50 of the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

113D Duty on new members to notify required information

- (1) A person who becomes a member of a company must provide the company with the required information about the member (see sections 113A and 113B).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if or to the extent that—
 - (a) the person has already provided the information to the company, or
 - (b) the person becomes a member of the company on its incorporation and the information is contained in the application for the registration of the company.
- (3) A person must comply with this section within the period of two months beginning with the date on which the person became a member.

113E Duty on member to notify changes to required information

- (1) A person who is a member of a company must give notice to the company of any change in the required information about the member (see sections 113A and 113B).
- (2) The notice must specify the date on which the change occurred.
- (3) A person must comply with this section within the period of two months beginning with the date on which the change occurred.

113F Power for company to require information from members

- (1) A company may, for the purposes of ensuring that its register of members includes the information that it is required to include, require a member or former member of the company to provide any of the required information about the member or former member (see sections 113A and 113B).
- (2) The notice must require the recipient to comply with it within the period of one month beginning with the date on which the notice is given.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

113G Failure to comply with section 113D, 113E or 113F

- (1) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with section 113D or 113E commits an offence.
- (2) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with a notice under section 113F commits an offence.
- (3) Where an offence under subsection (1) or (2) is committed by a firm, the offence is also committed by every officer of the firm who is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates' court or a fine (or both);
 - (ii) in Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both) and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-fifth of the statutory maximum;
 - (iii) in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both) and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-fifth of the statutory maximum.

113H Basic false statement offences in connection with sections 113D to 113F

- (1) A person commits an offence if, in purported compliance with section 113D or 113E and without reasonable excuse, the person makes a statement that is misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular.
- (2) A person commits an offence if, in purported compliance with a notice under section 113F and without reasonable excuse, the person makes a statement that is misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular.
- (3) Where an offence under subsection (1) or (2) is committed by a firm, the offence is also committed by every officer of the firm who is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale;

(5) In section 120 (information as to state of register and index), after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to an alteration that relates to information that the company is required to refrain from disclosing by virtue of regulations under section 120A (protected material).”

(6) After section 120 of the Companies Act 2006 insert—

“120A Power to make regulations protecting material

(1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—

- (a) require a company to refrain from using, or refrain from disclosing, individual membership information except in circumstances specified in the regulations;
- (b) confer power on the registrar, on application, to make an order requiring a company to refrain from using, or refrain from disclosing, individual membership information except in circumstances specified in the regulations.

(2) “Individual membership information” means information that—

- (a) relates to an individual who is a member or former member of the company, and
- (b) is required to be entered in the company’s register of members or index of members’ names.

(3) Regulations under subsection (1)(b) may make provision as to—

- (a) who may make an application;
- (b) the grounds on which an application may be made;
- (c) the information to be included in and documents to accompany an application;
- (d) how an application is to be determined;
- (e) the notice to be given of an application and its outcome;
- (f) the duration of and procedures for revoking the restrictions on use and disclosure.

(4) Provision under subsection (3) may in particular—

- (a) confer a discretion on the registrar;
- (b) provide for a question to be referred to a person other than the registrar for the purposes of determining the application or revoking the restrictions.

(5) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

(6) Nothing in this section or in regulations made under it affects the use or disclosure of information about a person in any other capacity (for example, the use or disclosure of information about a person in that person’s capacity as an officer of the company).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

50 Membership information: one-off statement

- (1) This section applies in relation to a traded company, or a non-traded company, registered under the Companies Act 2006 before the appointed day.
- (2) On the first occasion on which the company delivers a confirmation statement with a confirmation date that is after the appointed day it must, at the same time, deliver to the registrar the relevant membership information.
- (3) For this purpose “the relevant membership information” means—
- (a) in relation to a traded company—
 - (i) the name and address (as they appear in the company’s register of members) of each person who, at the end of the confirmation date, held at least 5% of the issued shares of any class of the company, and
 - (ii) the number of shares of each class held by each such person at that time;
 - (b) in relation to a non-traded company—
 - (i) the name (as it appears in the company’s register of members) of every person who was a member of the company at the end of the confirmation date, and
 - (ii) the number of shares of each class held at the end of the confirmation date by each person who was a member of the company at that time.
- (4) Section 853A(1)(b)(ii) of the Companies Act 2006 (as substituted by section 59 of this Act) has effect as if it included a reference to the duty imposed by subsection (2) (and section 853L of that Act applies accordingly).
- (5) In this section—
- “confirmation statement” has the meaning given by section 853A(1)(b) of the Companies Act 2006;
 - “non-traded company” has the meaning given by section 853F(2) of that Act;
 - “the appointed day” means such day as the Secretary of State may by regulations appoint for the purposes of this section;
 - “traded company” has the meaning given by section 853G(2) and (3) of that Act.
- (6) Other expressions used in this section have the same meaning as in Part 24 of the Companies Act 2006.

52 Protection of date of birth information

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1087 (material not available for public inspection), for paragraph (da) substitute—

“(da) relevant date of birth information that section 1087A provides is not to be made available for public inspection;”.
- (3) For sections 1087A and 1087B substitute—

“1087A Protection of date of birth information

- (1) The registrar must not make available for public inspection—
 - (a) so much of any document delivered to the registrar as is required to contain relevant date of birth information;
 - (b) any record of the information contained in part of a document that is unavailable because of paragraph (a).
- (2) This section has limited application in relation to documents delivered before it comes fully into force: see section 1087B.
- (3) “Relevant date of birth information” means—
 - (a) information as to the day of the month (but not the month or year) on which a director (or proposed director) was born;
 - (b) information as to the day of the month (but not the month or year) on which a registrable person in relation to the company was born.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Information about a director (or proposed director) or registrable person does not cease to be relevant date of birth information when they cease to be a director (or proposed director) or registrable person.
- (5) Subsection (1)(b) does not affect the availability for public inspection of the same information contained in material derived from a part of a document that was not required to contain the information.
- (6) In this section “registrable person”, in relation to a company, has the meaning given by section 790C(4).

1087B Protection of date of birth information in old documents

- (1) This section limits the extent to which section 1087A applies in relation to documents delivered to the registrar before that section comes fully into force (“old documents”).
- (2) Section 1087A does not apply in relation to any old documents registered before 10 October 2015.
- (3) Section 1087A does not apply in relation to any old document that is—
 - (a) a statement of a company’s proposed officers delivered under section 9 in circumstances where the subscribers gave notice of election under section 167A (election to keep information on central register) in respect of the company’s register of directors when the statement was delivered;
 - (b) a document delivered by the company under section 167D (duty to notify registrar of changes while election in force);
 - (c) a statement of initial significant control delivered under section 9 in circumstances where the subscribers gave notice of election under section 790X in respect of the company when the statement was delivered;
 - (d) a document containing a statement or updated statement delivered by the company under section 790X(6)(b) or (7) (statement accompanying notice of election made after incorporation);
 - (e) a document delivered by the company under section 790ZA (duty to notify registrar of changes while election in force).
- (4) Section 1087A does not apply in relation to any old document if—
 - (a) the document is—
 - (i) a statement of proposed officers delivered under section 9, or
 - (ii) notice given under section 167 of a person having become a director of the company,
 - (b) after the delivery of the document an election was made under section 167A in respect of the company’s register of directors, and
 - (c) the relevant date of birth information relates to a person who was a director of the company when that election took effect.
- (5) References in subsections (3)(a) to (e) and (4)(a) to (c) to a provision of this Act are to the provision as it had effect at the time at which the document was delivered (the provisions in question were repealed by the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

1087C Disclosure of date of birth information

- (1) The registrar must not disclose relevant date of birth information except—
 - (a) in accordance with subsection (2) or (3), or
 - (b) as permitted by section 1110F (general powers of disclosure by the registrar).
- (2) The registrar may disclose relevant date of birth information if the information is made available for public inspection.
- (3) The registrar may disclose relevant date of birth information to a credit reference agency (as defined by section 243(7)).
- (4) Subsections (3) to (8) of section 243 (permitted disclosure of address information by the registrar) apply for the purposes of subsection (3) as for the purposes of that section (reading references there to protected information as references to relevant date of birth information).
- (5) In this section “relevant date of birth information” has the meaning given by section 1087A(3).”

Accounts and reports

53 Filing obligations of micro-entities

Before section 444 of the Companies Act 2006 (but after the italic heading before that section) insert—

“443A Filing obligations of micro-entities

- (1) The directors of a company that qualifies as a micro-entity in relation to a financial year, or that would do so but for being or having been a member of an ineligible group—
 - (a) must deliver to the registrar a copy of the company’s annual accounts, and
 - (b) may also deliver to the registrar a copy of the directors’ report.

- (2) The directors must also deliver to the registrar a copy of the auditor’s report on those accounts (and any directors’ report).

This does not apply if the company is exempt from audit and the directors have taken advantage of that exemption.

- (3) The copies of the balance sheet and any directors’ report delivered to the registrar under this section must state the name of the person who signed it on behalf of the board.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The copy of the auditor’s report delivered to the registrar under this section must—
 - (a) state the name of the auditor and (where the auditor is a firm) the name of the person who signed it as senior statutory auditor, or
 - (b) if the conditions in section 506 (circumstances in which names may be omitted) are met, state that a resolution has been passed and notified to the Secretary of State in accordance with that section.
- (5) If more than one person is appointed as auditor, the reference in subsection (4) (a) to the name of the auditor is to be read as a reference to the names of all the auditors.”

54 Filing obligations of small companies other than micro-entities

For section 444 of the Companies Act 2006 substitute—

“444 Filing obligations of small companies other than micro-entities

- (1) The directors of a company that is subject to the small companies regime in relation to a financial year, or that would be so subject but for being or having been a member of an ineligible group, must deliver to the registrar a copy of—
 - (a) the company’s annual accounts, and
 - (b) the directors’ report.
- (2) The directors must also deliver to the registrar a copy of the auditor’s report on those accounts (and on the directors’ report).

This does not apply if the company is exempt from audit and the directors have taken advantage of that exemption.
- (3) The copies of the balance sheet and directors’ report delivered to the registrar under this section must state the name of the person who signed it on behalf of the board.
- (4) The copy of the auditor’s report delivered to the registrar under this section must—
 - (a) state the name of the auditor and (where the auditor is a firm) the name of the person who signed it as senior statutory auditor, or
 - (b) if the conditions in section 506 (circumstances in which names may be omitted) are met, state that a resolution has been passed and notified to the Secretary of State in accordance with that section.
- (5) If more than one person is appointed as auditor, the reference in subsection (4) (a) to the name of the auditor is to be read as a reference to the names of all the auditors.
- (6) This section does not apply to companies within section 443A (filing obligations of companies that qualify as micro-entities).”

Identity verification

64 Identity verification of persons with significant control

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 790J (power to make exemptions), in subsection (2)(e), after “790LH” (inserted by Schedule 2 to this Act) insert “and 790LM to 790LS”.
- (3) After section 790LL (inserted by Schedule 2 to this Act) insert—

“Identity verification obligations for persons with significant control

790LM Initial identity verification: registrable persons

- (1) This section applies in the following cases.
 - Case 1 is where—
 - (a) a company is incorporated in pursuance of an application for registration containing a statement under section 12A(1) (a) naming a person as someone who will, on the company’s incorporation, become a registrable person (“the registrable person”),
 - (b) the application does not include a statement under section 12B(2) in respect of the registrable person or it appears to the registrar that the statement is false, and
 - (c) the company has not given a notice under section 790LG(1) in respect of the person.
 - Case 2 is where—
 - (a) the registrar is notified under section 790LF that a person has become a registrable person in relation to a company (“the registrable person”), and
 - (b) the notice does not include a statement under section 790LB(1) or it appears to the registrar that the statement is false.
- (2) The registrar must direct the registrable person to deliver to the registrar, within the period of 14 days beginning with the date of the direction, a statement confirming that the person’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).
- (3) The registrar may by further direction extend that period by up to 14 days at a time.
- (4) A direction under this section must be in writing.
- (5) A direction given to a person under this section lapses if notice is later given under section 790LG(1) in respect of that person.
- (6) In this section “registrable person” does not include a person mentioned in section 790C(12)(a) to (d).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

790LN Initial identity verification for registrable persons: transitional cases

- (1) A person must deliver to the registrar the statement required by this section if the person—
 - (a) is a registrable person in relation to a company at any time during the appointed day, and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) became a registrable person on the incorporation of the company in pursuance of an application for registration delivered before section 12B(2) came fully into force, or
 - (ii) became a registrable person, otherwise than on the incorporation of the company, before the day on which section 790LB(1) came fully into force.
- (2) The statement required by this section is a statement confirming that person’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).
- (3) A statement required by this section must be delivered within the period of 14 days beginning with the appointed day.
- (4) But the registrar may by direction in writing extend that period by up to 14 days at a time.
- (5) In this section—

“the appointed day” means such day as the Secretary of State may by regulations appoint for the purposes of this section;

“registrable person” does not include a person mentioned in section 790C(12)(a) to (d).
- (6) The appointed day must not be before sections 12B(2) and 790LB(1) have been brought fully into force.

790LO Initial identity verification: registrable relevant legal entities

- (1) This section applies in the following cases.

Case 1 is where—

 - (a) a company is incorporated in pursuance of an application for registration containing a statement under section 12A(1)(a) naming a person as a person who will, on the company’s incorporation become a registrable relevant legal entity (“the entity”),
 - (b) the application does not include a statement under section 12B(3) in respect of the entity, or is not accompanied by a statement under section 12B(4) by the person whose name is specified in the statement under section 12B(3), or it appears to the registrar that either statement is false, and
 - (c) the company has not given a notice under section 790LG(1) in respect of the entity.

Case 2 is where—

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the registrar is notified under section 790LA that a person has become a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to a company (“the entity”), and
 - (b) the notice does not include a statement under section 790LB(2), or it is not accompanied by a statement under section 790LB(3), or it appears to the registrar that either statement is false.
- (2) The registrar must direct the entity to deliver to the registrar, within the period of 28 days beginning with the date of the direction—
 - (a) a statement by the entity that—
 - (i) specifies the name of one of its relevant officers who is an individual and whose identity is verified, and
 - (ii) confirms that the individual’s identity is verified, and
 - (b) a statement by the individual confirming that the individual is a relevant officer of the entity.
- (3) The registrar may by further direction extend that period by up to 28 days at a time.
- (4) A direction under this section must be in writing.
- (5) A direction given to an entity under this section lapses if notice is later given under section 790LG(1) in respect of that entity.
- (6) In subsection (2) “relevant officer”—
 - (a) in relation to a company, means a director;
 - (b) in relation to a legal entity the affairs of which are managed by its members, means one of those members;
 - (c) in relation to any other legal entity, means an officer of the entity whose functions correspond to that of a director of a company.

790LP Initial identity verification in respect of registrable relevant legal entities: transitional cases

- (1) A person must deliver to the registrar the statements required by this section if the person—
 - (a) is a registrable relevant legal entity in relation to a company at any time during the appointed day, and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) became a registrable relevant legal entity on the incorporation of the company in pursuance of an application for registration delivered before section 12B(3) and (4) came fully into force, or
 - (ii) became a registrable relevant legal entity, otherwise than on the incorporation of the company, before section 790LB(2) and (3) came fully into force.
- (2) The statements are—
 - (a) a statement by the entity that—
 - (i) specifies the name of one of its relevant officers who is an individual and whose identity is verified, and
 - (ii) confirms that the individual’s identity is verified, and

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) a statement by the individual confirming that the individual is a relevant officer of the entity.
- (3) The statements required by this section must be delivered within the period of 28 days beginning with the appointed day.
- (4) But the registrar may by direction in writing extend that period by up to 28 days at a time.
- (5) In this section—
 - “the appointed day” means such day as the Secretary of State may by regulations appoint for the purposes of this section;
 - “relevant officer” has the meaning given by section 790LO(6).
- (6) The appointed day must not be before sections 12B(3) and (4) and 790LB(2) and (3) have been brought fully into force.

790LQ Registrable persons: duty to maintain verified identity status

- (1) A registrable person in relation to a company must ensure that, throughout the relevant period, they maintain the status of a person whose identity is verified (see section 1110A).
- (2) In this section “the relevant period” means the period—
 - (a) beginning with—
 - (i) the incorporation of the company, in a case where the person became a registrable person on its incorporation and the application for registration of the company included a statement under section 12B(2) in respect of the person,
 - (ii) the delivery to the registrar of a statement in respect of the person under section 790LB(1), in a case where the person became a registrable person after the incorporation of the company and such a statement was delivered to the registrar,
 - (iii) the expiry of the period for complying with the direction under section 790LM, in a case where a direction under that section is given to the person, and
 - (iv) the expiry of the period for complying with section 790LN, in a case where that section applies to the person, and
 - (b) ending on the giving of a notice to the registrar under section 790LF that the person has ceased to be a registrable person in relation to the company.
- (3) In this section “registrable person” does not include a person mentioned in section 790C(12)(a) to (d).

790LR Registrable relevant legal entities: duty to maintain registered officer whose identity is verified

- (1) A registrable relevant legal entity in relation to a company must ensure that, throughout the relevant period, its registered officer—
 - (a) is a relevant officer of the entity, and
 - (b) is an individual whose identity is verified (see section 1110A).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In this section “registered officer”, in relation to a registrable relevant legal entity, means—
- (a) the person whose name is specified in—
 - (i) a statement delivered to the registrar in respect of the entity under section 12B(3) or 790LB(2),
 - (ii) a statement delivered to the registrar by the entity in pursuance of a direction under section 790LO(2), or
 - (iii) a statement delivered to the registrar under section 790LP(2), unless the entity has changed its registered officer under section 790LS, or
 - (b) if the entity has changed its registered officer under section 790LS, the person specified in the latest notice under that section.
- (3) In this section “the relevant period” means the period—
- (a) beginning with—
 - (i) the incorporation of the company, in a case where the entity became a relevant registrable legal entity on the incorporation of the company and the application for registration of the company included a statement under section 12B(3) in respect of the entity,
 - (ii) the delivery to the registrar of a statement in respect of the registrable relevant legal entity under section 790LB(2), in a case where the entity became a relevant registrable legal entity after the incorporation of the company and such a statement was delivered to the registrar,
 - (iii) the expiry of the period for complying with the direction 790LO, in a case where the entity is given a direction under that section, and
 - (iv) the expiry of the period for complying with section 790LP, where that section applies to the entity, and
 - (b) ending with the giving of a notice to the registrar under section 790LF that the entity has ceased to be a relevant registrable legal entity in relation to the company,
- but see subsection (4).
- (4) If the registered officer of a registrable relevant legal entity ceases to be a relevant officer of that entity, “the relevant period” does not include the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the person so ceases.
- (5) In this section “relevant officer” has the meaning given by section 790LO(6).

790LS Registrable relevant legal entities: change of registered relevant officer

- (1) A registrable relevant legal entity may change its registered officer for the purposes of section 790LR by giving notice to the registrar.
- (2) The notice must include a statement by the entity that the new registered officer—
- (a) is a relevant officer of the entity, and
 - (b) is an individual whose identity is verified (see section 1110A).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The notice must be accompanied by a statement by the individual who is the new registered officer confirming that the individual is a relevant officer of the registrable relevant legal entity.

“Identity verification

1110A Meaning of “identity is verified”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act an individual’s “identity is verified” if—
 - (a) the individual’s identity has been verified by the registrar in accordance with regulations under section 1110B, or
 - (b) a verification statement in respect of the individual has been delivered to the registrar, and the individual has not, since then, ceased to be an individual whose identity is verified by virtue of regulations under subsection (6).
- (2) A verification statement is a statement by an authorised corporate service provider confirming that it has verified an individual’s identity in accordance with regulations under section 1110B.
- (3) A verification statement must also specify the authorised corporate service provider’s supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the contents of verification statements (including provision amending this section).
- (5) Where a person is required or authorised by any other provision to deliver a statement to the registrar that an individual’s identity is verified, that statement may be delivered at the same time as the verification statement by virtue of which the individual becomes someone whose identity is verified under subsection (1)(b).
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for circumstances in which someone ceases to be an individual whose identity is verified.
- (7) The provision that can be made under subsection (6) includes—
 - (a) provision to confer a discretion on the registrar;
 - (b) provision that someone ceases to be an individual whose identity is verified unless, within a specified period of time—
 - (i) their identity is reverified by the registrar in accordance with regulations under section 1110B, or
 - (ii) an authorised corporate service provider delivers to the registrar a statement: (A) confirming that it has reverified the individual’s identity in accordance with regulations under section 1110B, (B) specifying the authorised corporate service provider’s supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations, and (C) containing anything else required by the regulations.
- (8) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

“Money Laundering Regulations” means the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/692);

“supervisory authority” means an authority that is a supervisory authority under the Money Laundering Regulations (see regulation 7 of those Regulations).

1110B Verification requirements

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for and in connection with verification or reverification of an individual’s identity for the purposes of this Act by the registrar or by an authorised corporate service provider.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular, make provision about—
 - (a) the procedure for verifying or reverifying an individual’s identity, including the evidence required;
 - (b) the records that a person who is or has been an authorised corporate service provider is required to keep in connection with the verification or reverification of an individual’s identity.
- (3) The regulations may create offences in relation to failures to comply with requirements imposed by virtue of subsection (2)(b).
- (4) The regulations must provide for any such offence to be punishable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding the general limit in a magistrates’ court or a fine (or both);
 - (ii) in Scotland, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both) and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-fifth of the statutory maximum;
 - (iii) in Northern Ireland, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both) and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-fifth of the statutory maximum.
- (5) The provision that can be made in regulations under this section includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar, including provision conferring power to impose requirements by registrar’s rules.
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.”

66 Authorisation of corporate service providers

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 1059A (scheme of Part 35), in subsection (3), at the appropriate place insert—
“sections 1098A to 1098H (authorised corporate service providers),”.
- (3) In section 1087 (material not available for public inspection), in subsection (1), after paragraph (ga) insert—
“(gb) any application or other document delivered to the registrar under section 1098B, 1098D or 1098E or regulations under section 1098G (authorised corporate service providers),”.
- (4) After section 1098 insert—

“Authorised corporate service providers

1098A Meaning of “authorised corporate service provider”

In this Act “authorised corporate service provider” means a person—

- (a) whose application to the registrar to become an authorised corporate service provider for the purposes of this Act has been granted (see section 1098B),
- (b) who has not since ceased to be an authorised corporate service provider by virtue of section 1098F, and
- (c) whose status as an authorised corporate service provider is not for the time being suspended by virtue of section 1098F.

1098B Application to become authorised corporate service provider

- (1) A person may apply to the registrar to become an authorised corporate service provider for the purposes of this Act if—
 - (a) the person is a relevant person as defined by regulation 8(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations,
 - (b) in the case of an individual, their identity is verified (see section 1110A), and
 - (c) the person meets any other requirements imposed by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (2) An application under this section must contain—
 - (a) the name of the applicant’s supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations,
 - (b) the required information about the applicant (see section 1098C), and
 - (c) in the case of an application by an individual, a statement that the individual’s identity is verified (see section 1110A).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

(See also section 1098D, which imposes restrictions on who may deliver an application under this section on behalf of a firm.)

- (3) Where an application is made under this section, the registrar must check with the supervisory authority, or at least one of the supervisory authorities, specified in the application, to find out whether the applicant is known to and supervised by that authority.
- (4) Having carried out that check, the registrar must grant the application if—
 - (a) the supervisory authority, or at least one of the supervisory authorities, specified in the application has confirmed that the applicant is known to and supervised by that authority,
 - (b) where the applicant is an individual, the registrar is satisfied that their identity is verified (see section 1110A),
 - (c) any other conditions that may be specified by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph are met, and
 - (d) the registrar is not required by subsection (5) to refuse the application.
- (5) The registrar must refuse the application if it appears to the registrar that the applicant is not a fit and proper person to carry out the functions of an authorised corporate service provider.
- (6) The provision that can be made in regulations under subsection (4)(c) includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (1)(c) or (4)(c) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (8) For the purposes of this section—

“Money Laundering Regulations” means the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/692);

“supervised”: a person is supervised by a supervisory authority if regulation 7(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations provides that it is a supervisory authority for that person;

“supervisory authority” means an authority that is a supervisory authority under the Money Laundering Regulations (see regulation 7 of those Regulations).

1098C The required information about an applicant

- (1) The “required information” about the applicant, in the case of a firm that is applying to become an authorised corporate service provider, means—
 - (a) firm name,
 - (b) principal office,
 - (c) a service address,
 - (d) an email address,
 - (e) the legal form of the firm and the law by which it is governed, and
 - (f) if applicable, the register in which it is entered (including details of the state) and its registration number in that register.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The “required information” about the applicant, in the case of an individual who is applying to become an authorised corporate service provider, means—
- (a) name, nationality and date of birth,
 - (b) a service address,
 - (c) an email address, and
 - (d) the part of the United Kingdom in which the person is usually resident or, if the person is usually resident in a country or state outside the United Kingdom, that country or state.
- (3) In subsection (2)(a) “name” means forename and surname.
- (4) Where the applicant is a peer or an individual usually known by a title, the requirement for the application to contain their name may be satisfied by providing that title instead of the individual’s forename and surname.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) amend this section so as to change the required information about the applicant in the case of a firm or individual applying to become an authorised corporate service provider;
 - (b) repeal subsection (4).
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

1098D Delivery of applications under section 1098B on behalf of a firm

An application under section 1098B by a firm mentioned in the first column of the table—

- (a) must be delivered to the registrar on its behalf by a relevant officer mentioned in the second column who is an individual (see also section 1067A(2)), and
- (b) must be accompanied by a statement by the individual confirming their status as a relevant officer of the firm.

Firm	Relevant officer

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

1098E Updating duties of authorised corporate service providers

- (1) A person who is an authorised corporate service provider must notify the registrar of any change in its supervisory authority or authorities for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations within the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the change occurs.
- (2) Where the change is the result of an agreement under regulation 7(2) of the Money Laundering Regulations, for the purposes of this section the change is not to be treated as having occurred until the authority that has agreed to act notifies the person or publishes the agreement under regulation 7(3).
- (3) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with this section commits an offence.
- (4) Where the offence is committed by a firm, every officer of the firm who is in default also commits the offence.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) In this section “Money Laundering Regulations” and “supervisory authority” have the meanings given by section 1098B\(8\).

1098F Ceasing to be an authorised corporate service provider

- (1) A person ceases to be an authorised corporate service provider if the person ceases to be a relevant person as defined by regulation 8(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) provide for other circumstances in which a person ceases to be an authorised corporate service provider, whether automatically or as a result of a decision taken by the registrar;
 - (b) provide for circumstances in which the registrar may suspend a person’s status as an authorised corporate service provider pending a decision by the registrar under regulations made by virtue of paragraph (a).
- (3) The provision that can be made under subsection (2) includes provision as to—
 - (a) procedure;
 - (b) the period of a suspension;
 - (c) the revocation of a suspension.
- (4) The provision that can be made in regulations under subsection (2) includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Regulations under subsection (2) are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (6) In this section “Money Laundering Regulations” has the meaning given by section 1098B(8).

1098G Power to impose duties to provide information

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations require a person who is or has been an authorised corporate service provider to provide information to the registrar in accordance with the regulations (including information for the purpose of monitoring compliance with the requirements of this Act).
- (2) The provision that may be made by regulations under subsection (1) includes provision requiring information to be provided on request, on the occurrence of an event or at regular intervals.
- (3) The circumstances that may be specified under section 1098F(2) include failure to comply with a requirement under subsection (1).
- (4) Regulations under this section may create offences in relation to failures to comply with requirements imposed by the regulations.
- (5) The regulations must provide for any such offence to be punishable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales with a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, with a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) The provision that can be made in regulations under this section includes provision conferring a discretion on the registrar.
- (7) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.

1098H Power to enable authorisation of foreign corporate service providers

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the purposes of enabling a person who is subject to a relevant regulatory regime under the law of a territory outside the United Kingdom to become an authorised corporate service provider, even if the person is not a relevant person as defined by regulation 8(1) of the Money Laundering Regulations.
- (2) In subsection (1) “relevant regulatory regime” means a regulatory regime that, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, has similar objectives to the regulatory regime under the Money Laundering Regulations for relevant persons and is likely to be no less effective in achieving those objectives.
- (3) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) may amend any of sections 1098B to 1098G or insert new sections into this Act;
 - (b) may make consequential amendments or repeals in other provisions of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

71 Requirements for administrative restoration

In section 1025 of the Companies Act 2006 (requirements for administrative restoration), for subsection (5) substitute—

“(5) The third condition is that the applicant has delivered to the registrar such documents relating to the company as are necessary to ensure that if the company is restored to the register the records kept by the registrar relating to the company will be up to date.

(5A) The fourth condition is—

- (a) that any outstanding penalties under section 453 or corresponding earlier provisions (civil penalty for failure to deliver accounts) in relation to the company have been paid, and
- (b) that each relevant person has paid any outstanding fines or financial penalties imposed on them in respect of an offence under the Companies Acts relating to the company.

(5B) In subsection (5A)(b) “relevant person” means—

- (a) the applicant,
- (b) any person who—
 - (i) was a director of the company immediately before it was dissolved or struck off, and
 - (ii) if the company is restored to the register, will be a director immediately after its restoration, or
- (c) any person who is a relevant officer of a firm where the firm is—

85 Administrative removal of material from the register

- (1) The Companies Act 2006 is amended as follows.
- (2) For section 1094 substitute—

“1094 Removal of material from the register

- (1) The registrar may remove from the register anything that appears to the registrar to be—
 - (a) a document, or material derived from a document, accepted under section 1073 (power to accept documents not meeting requirements for proper delivery), or
 - (b) unnecessary material as defined by section 1074.
- (2) The power to remove material from the register under this section may be exercised—
 - (a) on the registrar’s own motion, or
 - (b) on an application made in accordance with regulations under section 1094A\(2\).
- (3) The registrar may exercise the power to remove from the register anything the registration of which had legal consequences only if satisfied that the interest of the company, or (if different) the applicant, in removing the material outweighs any interest of other persons in the material continuing to appear on the register.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that the registrar’s power to remove material from the register under this section following an application is limited to material of a description specified in the regulations.
- (5) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution procedure.

1094A Further provision about removal of material from the register

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision for notice to be given in accordance with the regulations where material is removed from the register under section 1094 otherwise than on an application.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision in connection with the making and determination of applications for the removal of material from the register under section 1094.
- (3) The provision that may be made under subsection (2) includes provision as to—
 - (a) who may make an application,
 - (b) the information to be included in and documents to accompany an application,
 - (c) the notice to be given of an application and of its outcome,
 - (d) a period in which objections to an application may be made, and
 - (e) how an application is to be determined, including provision as to evidence that may be relied upon by the registrar for the purposes of satisfying the test in section 1094(1).
- (4) The provision that may be made by virtue of subsection (3)(e) includes provision as to circumstances in which—
 - (a) evidence is to be treated by the registrar as conclusive proof that the test in section 1094(1) is met, and
 - (b) the power of removal must be exercised.
- (5) Regulations under this section may in particular confer a discretion on the registrar.
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution procedure.

1094B Power of court to make consequential orders following removal

- (1) Where the registrar removes anything from the register otherwise than in pursuance of a court order, the court may, on an application by a person with sufficient interest, make such consequential orders as the court thinks fit as to the legal effects of the inclusion of the material on the register or its removal.
- (2) In this section the reference to the registrar removing material from the register includes the registrar determining that anything purported to be delivered to the registrar under any enactment was not in fact delivered under an enactment and therefore does not form part of the register.”
- (3) In section 1073 (power to accept documents not meeting requirements for proper delivery), in subsection (6)(a), for “section 1094(4)” substitute “regulations under section 1094A(1)”.
- (4) In section 1087 (material not available for public inspection), in subsection (1), for paragraph (f) substitute—
 - “(f) any application or other document delivered to the registrar under section 1094 (removal of material from the register);”.
- (5) Omit section 1095 (rectification of register on application to registrar).
- (6) Omit section 1095A (rectification of register to resolve a discrepancy).

- (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (2) Sections 1110E and 1110F do not authorise a disclosure of information if the disclosure would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, take into account the powers conferred by those sections).
- (3) HMRC information may not be disclosed by the registrar under section 1110F without authorisation from HMRC.
- (4) If the registrar discloses HMRC information under section 1110F, the information must not be disclosed by the recipient, or by any person obtaining the information directly or indirectly from them, without authorisation from HMRC.
- (5) It is an offence for a person to disclose, in contravention of subsection (3) or (4), any revenue and customs information relating to a person whose identity—
 - (a) is specified in the disclosure, or
 - (b) can be deduced from it.
- (6) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (5) to prove that the person reasonably believed—
 - (a) that the disclosure was lawful, or
 - (b) that the information had already lawfully been made available to the public.
- (7) Subsections (4) to (7) of section 19 of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 apply to an offence under subsection (5) as they apply to an offence under that section.
- (8) In this section—

“the data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3 of that Act);

“HMRC” means the Commissioners for His Majesty’s Revenue and Customs;

“HMRC information” means information disclosed to the registrar under section 1110E by HMRC or a person acting on behalf of HMRC;

“revenue and customs information relating to a person” has the meaning given by section 19(2) of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005.”
- (5) In section 1114 (application of provisions about documents and delivery), in subsection (1)(b), at the end insert “(but do not include the provision of any information by virtue of section 1110E or any other enactment authorising the disclosure of information to the registrar)”.
- (6) Schedule 3 contains consequential amendments.

111 Required information about partners: transitional provision

- (1) This section applies in relation to a limited partnership that was registered under the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 in pursuance of an application for registration delivered to the registrar before section 110(4) came fully into force.
- (2) The general partners in the limited partnership must, within the transitional period, deliver a statement to the registrar specifying the required information (within the meaning of the Schedule to that Act (inserted by Schedule 4 to this Act)) about each person who—
- (a) is a partner in the limited partnership, and
- (b) became a partner on the registration of the limited partnership.
- (3) If a change in the required information about such a partner occurs before whichever is earlier of—
- (a) the end of the transitional period, and

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the delivery of the statement mentioned in subsection (2),
the general partners in the limited partnership are not required by the provisions mentioned in subsection (4) to give notice to the registrar of the change, unless it is a change to the partner's name.
- (4) The provisions are—
- (a) section 8S(1) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 122 of this Act), and
 - (b) so far as it relates to section 8S(1) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907, section 10D(2)(a) of that Act (inserted by section 126 of this Act).
- (5) In this section—
- “the registrar” has the same meaning as in the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (see section 15 of that Act);
- “transitional period” means the period of 6 months beginning when section 110(4) came fully into force.
- (6) Failure by the general partners in a limited partnership to comply with subsection (2) is, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, to be treated by the registrar as reasonable cause to believe that the limited partnership has been dissolved for the purposes of section 19 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (registrar's power to confirm dissolution of limited partnership) (inserted by section 141 of this Act).
- (7) Where the registrar proposes to rely on a failure by the general partners in the limited partnership to comply with subsection (2) as grounds for exercising the power in section 19 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907, subsections (2) to (4) of that section (publication of warning notice) do not apply.

Registered offices

113 A limited partnership’s registered office

- (1) The Limited Partnerships Act 1907 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 3 (interpretation of terms)—
 - (a) in subsection (1) (created by section 110 of this Act), at the appropriate place insert—

““authorised corporate service provider” has the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 (see section 1098A of that Act);”;
 - (b) after subsection (3) (inserted by section 110 of this Act) insert—

“(4) Section 1125 of the Companies Act 2006 (meaning of “daily default fine”) applies for the purpose of any provision made by this Act as it applies for the purposes of provisions of the Companies Acts.”
- (3) In section 8A (application for registration)—
 - (a) in subsection (1), after paragraph (a) insert—
 - “(aa) specify the intended address of the limited partnership’s registered office, which must be an appropriate address within the meaning given by section 8E(2),
 - (ab) specify which of the addresses mentioned in section 8E(2)(c) the intended address is,”;
 - (b) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) An application for registration of a limited partnership which specifies that the intended address of its registered office is an address mentioned in section 8E(2)(c)(iv) must be accompanied by a statement by the authorised corporate service provider confirming that the address is the authorised corporate service provider’s address.”
- (4) After section 8D insert—

“A limited partnership’s registered office

8E Duty to ensure registered office at appropriate address

- (1) The general partners in a limited partnership must ensure that its registered office is at all times at an appropriate address.
- (2) An address is an “appropriate address” if—
 - (a) in the ordinary course of events—
 - (i) a document addressed to the limited partnership, and delivered there by hand or by post, would be expected to come to the attention of a person acting on behalf of the limited partnership, and
 - (ii) the delivery of documents there is capable of being recorded by the obtaining of an acknowledgement of delivery,
 - (b) it is in the part of the United Kingdom in which the limited partnership is registered, and

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) it is at least one of the following—
 - (i) the address of the principal place of business of the limited partnership;
 - (ii) the usual residential address of a general partner who is an individual;
 - (iii) the address of the registered or principal office of a general partner that is a legal entity;
 - (iv) an address of an authorised corporate service provider that is acting for the limited partnership.
- (3) If the general partners fail to comply with this section an offence is committed by each general partner who is in default.
- (4) But where the general partner is a legal entity, it does not commit an offence as a general partner in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (5) Where any such offence is committed by a general partner that is a legal entity, or any such offence is by virtue of this subsection committed by a managing officer that is a legal entity, any managing officer of the legal entity also commits the offence if—
 - (a) the managing officer is an individual who is in default, or
 - (b) the managing officer is a legal entity that is in default and one of its managing officers is in default.
- (6) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (7) A general partner or managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.
- (8) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a limited partnership during any period for which the address of its registered office is an address nominated by the registrar by virtue of regulations made under section 8G.

8F Change of address of registered office by general partners

- (1) The address of a limited partnership’s registered office can be changed by the general partners giving notice to the registrar.
- (2) The notice must include a statement—
 - (a) that the new address is an appropriate address within the meaning given by section 8E(2), and
 - (b) specifying which of the addresses in section 8E(2)(c) the address is.
- (3) If the statement under subsection (2)(b) specifies that the address is an address mentioned in section 8E(2)(c)(iv), the notice must be accompanied by a statement by the authorised corporate service provider confirming that the address is the authorised corporate service provider’s address.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The change takes effect upon the notice being registered by the registrar, but until the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which it is registered a person may validly serve any document on the limited partnership at the address previously registered.

8G Regulations about change of address of registered office by registrar

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision authorising or requiring the registrar to change the address of a limited partnership's registered office if satisfied that it is not an appropriate address within the meaning given by section 8E(2).
- (2) The regulations may authorise or require the address to be changed on the registrar's own motion or on an application by another person.
- (3) The regulations—
- (a) may include provision corresponding or similar to any provision that may be included in regulations under section 1097A of the Companies Act 2006;
 - (b) must include—
 - (i) provision about appeals corresponding to the provision that must be included in regulations under section 1097A by virtue of subsections (6) and (6A) of that section;
 - (ii) provision corresponding to subsection (7) of that section.
- (4) The provision that may be made by virtue of subsection (3)(a) that is corresponding or similar to provision that may be made by virtue of section 1097A(4A)(b) and (4B) of the Companies Act 2006 (strike off and restoration) includes provision applying or writing out, with or without modifications, any provision made by section 19 (power to confirm dissolution) or section 20 (administrative revival).
- (5) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.”

114 A limited partnership's registered office: transitional provision

- (1) This section applies in relation to a limited partnership registered under the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 in pursuance of an application for registration delivered to the registrar before section 113(3) came fully into force.
- (2) The general partners must, within the transitional period, deliver to the registrar a statement specifying—
- (a) the address of its registered office (which must be an appropriate address within the meaning given by section 8E(2) of that Act (inserted by section 113(4) of this Act)), and
 - (b) which of the addresses in section 8E(2)(c) of that Act the address is.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) If the statement under subsection (2)(b) specifies that the address is an address mentioned in section 8E(2)(c)(iv) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907, the notice must be accompanied by a statement by the authorised corporate service provider confirming that the address is the authorised corporate service provider’s address.
- (4) The provisions mentioned in subsection (5) do not apply in respect of the limited partnership until—
- (a) the end of the transitional period, or
 - (b) if earlier, the delivery of the statement mentioned in subsection (2).
- (5) Those provisions are—
- (a) section 8E of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 113(4) of this Act);
 - (b) section 10D(2)(b) of that Act (inserted by section 126 of this Act).
- (6) In this section—
- “the registrar” has the same meaning as in the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (see section 15 of that Act);
- “transitional period” means the period of 6 months beginning when section 113(3) came fully into force.
- (7) Failure by the general partners in the limited partnership to comply with subsection (2) is, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, to be treated by the registrar as reasonable cause to believe that the limited partnership has been dissolved for the purposes of section 19 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (registrar’s power to confirm dissolution of limited partnership) (inserted by section 141 of this Act).
- (8) Where the registrar proposes to rely on a failure by the general partners in the limited partnership to comply with subsection (2) as grounds for exercising the power in section 19 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907, subsections (2) to (4) of that section (publication of warning notice) do not apply.

 - (b) be accompanied by a statement by the proposed named contact confirming that the proposed named contact is a managing officer of the corporate managing officer.
- (6) A notice under subsection (1) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the legal entity becomes a corporate managing officer of the general partner.
- (7) A notice under subsection (2) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the limited partnership was registered.

8O Duty to notify changes in named contacts

- (1) This section applies where a general partner that is a legal entity has one or more corporate managing officers.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The general partner must give notice to the registrar of any change in the required information about the named contact for any corporate managing officer (see Part 4 of the Schedule).
- (3) The general partner must give notice to the registrar of any change in the required information about the proposed named contact for any corporate managing officer that occurred—
 - (a) after the application for registration of the limited partnership in which the entity is a general partner was delivered to the registrar under section 8A, but
 - (b) before the limited partnership was registered.
- (4) A notice under this section must specify the date on which the change to which it relates occurred.
- (5) A notice under subsection (2) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the change occurs.
- (6) A notice under subsection (3) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the limited partnership was registered.
- (7) In this section “named contact” has the meaning given by section 8K(5).

8P Failure to comply with obligations relating to officers

- (1) If a general partner fails to comply with section 8K, 8M, 8N or 8O an offence is committed by—
 - (a) the general partner, and
 - (b) if the general partner is a legal entity, any of its managing officers who is in default.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (3) A managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.
- (4) But a corporate managing officer does not commit an offence as a managing officer in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (5) Where any such offence is committed by a corporate managing officer the managing officer in question also commits the offence (subject to subsection (4)).

“Notification of information about partners

8R Duty to notify registrar of change in partners

- (1) The general partners in a limited partnership must give notice to the registrar if a person—
 - (a) becomes a general partner or limited partner in the limited partnership, or
 - (b) ceases to be a general partner or limited partner in the limited partnership.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1)(a) must contain the required information about the general partner or limited partner (see Part 2 of the Schedule).
- (3) A notice under subsection (1)(a) of a person becoming a general partner must contain a statement that the new general partner is not disqualified under the directors disqualification legislation (see section 8J(3)).
- (4) A notice under subsection (1)(a) of a legal entity becoming a general partner must be accompanied by a statement by the general partner specifying the name of its proposed registered officer, who must be an individual who meets the requirements in section 8K(1)(a) to (c).
- (5) A notice under subsection (1)(a) of a legal entity becoming a general partner must be accompanied by one of the following statements by the general partner—
 - (a) a statement that the general partner does not have any corporate managing officers, or
 - (b) if the general partner has one or more corporate managing officers, a statement specifying, for each corporate managing officer, the name of the proposed named contact for the corporate managing officer.
- (6) The proposed named contact for a corporate managing officer must be an individual who is a managing officer of the corporate managing officer.
- (7) A statement under subsection (4) must—
 - (a) contain the required information about the proposed registered officer (see Part 3 of the Schedule), and
 - (b) be accompanied by a statement by the individual who is the proposed registered officer confirming that the individual meets the requirements in section 8K(1)(a) to (1)(c).
- (8) A statement under subsection (5)(b) must—
 - (a) contain the required information about each proposed named contact specified in the statement (see Part 4 of the Schedule), and
 - (b) be accompanied by a statement by each proposed named contact confirming that the proposed named contact is a managing officer of the corporate managing officer concerned.
- (9) Subsection (1)(a) does not require the general partners, on registration of the limited partnership, to give notice in relation to a person named as a proposed general partner or a proposed limited partner in the application for registration under section 8A.

- (10) A notice under subsection (1) must specify the date on which the person became or ceased to be a general partner or limited partner in the limited partnership.
- (11) A notice under subsection (1) must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the person becomes or ceases to be a general partner or a limited partner.

8S Duty to notify registrar of changes of information about partners

- (1) The general partners in a limited partnership must give notice to the registrar of any change in the required information about a partner (see Part 2 of the Schedule).
- (2) The general partners in a limited partnership that is not a private fund limited partnership must give notice to the registrar of any change to the sum contributed by any limited partner.
- (3) The general partners in a private fund limited partnership that was registered as a limited partnership before 6th April 2017 must give notice to the registrar of any withdrawal by a limited partner of the partner's contribution which has the effect that the amount of the partner's contribution is less than it was on the date on which the limited partnership was designated as a private fund limited partnership.
- (4) A notice under this section must specify the date on which the change to which it relates occurred.
- (5) A notice under this section must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the change occurs.

8T Notification of changes occurring before registration

- (1) The general partners in a limited partnership must give notice to the registrar if a person named as a proposed general partner or a proposed limited partner in the application for registration under section 8A did not become a general partner or limited partner on registration of the limited partnership.
- (2) The general partners in a limited partnership must give notice to the registrar of any change in the required information about a proposed general partner or a proposed limited partner (see Part 2 of the Schedule) that occurred—
 - (a) after the application for the limited partnership's registration under section 8A was delivered to the registrar, but
 - (b) before the limited partnership was registered.
- (3) A notice under subsection (2) must specify the date on which the change occurred.
- (4) But the general partners are not required to give notice under subsection (2) in respect of a person if they give notice under subsection (1) in respect of the person.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A notice under this section must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the limited partnership was registered.

8U Failure to notify information about partners

- (1) If the general partners fail to comply with section 8R, 8S or 8T an offence is committed by each general partner who is in default.
- (2) But where the general partner is a legal entity, it does not commit an offence as a general partner in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (3) Where any such offence is committed by a general partner that is a legal entity, or any such offence is by virtue of this subsection committed by a managing officer that is a legal entity, any managing officer of the legal entity also commits the offence if—
- (a) the managing officer is an individual who is in default, or
 - (b) the managing officer is a legal entity that is in default and one of its managing officers is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
- (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (5) A general partner or managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.

8V Prohibition on acting unless general partner notified

- (1) This section applies where—
- (a) a person has become a general partner in a limited partnership otherwise than on its registration, and
 - (b) notice under section 8R of the person having done so has not been given within the period mentioned in subsection (11) of that section.
- (2) The general partner may not take part in the management of the partnership business until notice is given under section 8R.
- (3) If a general partner contravenes subsection (2) an offence is committed by—
- (a) the general partner, and
 - (b) if the general partner is a legal entity, any of its managing officers who is in default.
- (4) But it is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to prove that they reasonably believed that notice had been given under section 8R.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
- (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) A managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.
- (7) But a corporate managing officer does not commit an offence as a managing officer in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (8) Where any such offence is committed by a corporate managing officer the managing officer in question also commits the offence (subject to subsection (7)).
- (9) The only consequence of contravening subsection (2) is the offence provided for by this section (so that, for example, a contravention does not in any way affect the validity of the general partner’s actions).
- (10) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the general partner for all debts and obligations of the firm.

8W Regulations about change of general partner’s address by registrar

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision authorising or requiring the registrar to—
 - (a) change a registered service address of a general partner in a limited partnership if satisfied that the address does not meet the requirements of section 1141(1) and (2) of the Companies Act 2006;
 - (b) change the address registered as the principal office of a general partner in a limited partnership if satisfied that the address is not in fact their principal office.
- (2) In this section—
 - “address registered as the principal office”, in relation to a general partner, means the address for the time being shown in the register as the address of the general partner’s current principal office;
 - “registered service address”, in relation to a general partner, means the address for the time being shown in the register as the general partner’s current service address.
- (3) The regulations may authorise or require the address to be changed on the registrar’s own motion or on an application by another person.
- (4) The regulations—
 - (a) may include provision corresponding or similar to any provision that may be included in regulations under section 1097B of the Companies Act 2006;
 - (b) must include—
 - (i) provision about appeals corresponding to the provision that must be included in regulations under section 1097B by virtue of subsections (7) and (8) of that section;
 - (ii) provision corresponding to subsection (9) of that section.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.”

123 New partners: transitional provision about required information

- (1) This section applies in relation to a person who—
- (a) is a partner in a limited partnership, and
 - (b) became a partner in the limited partnership before section 122 came fully into force,
- other than a person who became a partner in the limited partnership on its registration.
- (2) The general partners in the limited partnership must, within the transitional period, deliver a statement to the registrar specifying the required information about the partner (within the meaning of the Schedule to the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by Schedule 4 to this Act)).
- (3) If a change in the required information about the partner occurs before whichever is earlier of—
- (a) the end of the transitional period, and
 - (b) the delivery of the statement mentioned in subsection (2),
- the general partners in the limited partnership are not required by the provisions mentioned in subsection (4) to give notice to the registrar of the change, unless it is a change to the partner’s name.
- (4) The provisions are—
- (a) section 8S(1) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 122 of this Act), and
 - (b) so far as it relates to section 8S(1) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907, section 10D(2)(a) of that Act (inserted by section 126 of this Act).
- (5) In this section—
- “the registrar” has the same meaning as in the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (see section 15 of that Act);
- “transitional period” means the period of 6 months beginning when section 122 came fully into force.
- (6) Failure by the general partners in a limited partnership to comply with subsection (2) is, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, to be treated by the registrar as reasonable cause to believe that the limited partnership has been dissolved for the purposes of section 19 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (registrar’s power to confirm dissolution of limited partnership) (inserted by section 141 of this Act).
- (7) Where the registrar proposes to rely on a failure by the general partners in the limited partnership to comply with subsection (2) as grounds for exercising the power in section 19 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907, subsections (2) to (4) of that section (publication of warning notice) do not apply.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

124 New general partners: transitional provision about officers

- (1) This section applies in relation to a general partner that—
 - (a) is a legal entity, and
 - (b) became a general partner before section 122 came fully into force, other than a legal entity that became a general partner in a limited partnership on its registration.
- (2) The general partner must, within the transitional period, deliver to the registrar—
 - (a) a statement of the kind mentioned in section 8R(4) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 containing the information, and accompanied by the statement, mentioned in section 8R(7) of that Act (both inserted by section 122 of this Act), and
 - (b) either a statement—
 - (i) that the general partner does not have any corporate managing officers, or
 - (ii) if the general partner has one or more corporate managing officers, a statement of the kind mentioned in section 8R(5)(b) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 containing the information, and accompanied by the statement, mentioned in section 8R(8) of that Act (both inserted by section 122 of this Act).
- (3) The general partner is not required by the provisions mentioned in subsection (4) to give notice to the registrar if a legal entity becomes a corporate managing officer of the general partner before whichever is earlier of—
 - (a) the end of the transitional period, and
 - (b) the delivery of the statement mentioned in subsection (2)(b).
- (4) The provisions are—
 - (a) section 8N(1) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 119 of this Act), and
 - (b) so far as it relates to section 8N(1) of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907, section 10D(2)(a) of that Act (inserted by section 126 of this Act).
- (5) In this section—

“the registrar” has the same meaning as in the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (see section 15 of that Act);

“transitional period” means the period of 6 months beginning when section 122 came fully into force.

125 Notification of other changes

- (1) The Limited Partnerships Act 1907 is amended as follows.
- (2) In section 8A (application for registration), in subsection (2), for paragraph (a) substitute—
 - “(a) the intended general nature of the limited partnership’s business,”.
- (3) Omit section 9 (registration of changes in partnerships).
- (4) After section 10 insert—

“Notification of other changes in partnerships

10A Duty to notify registrar of other changes in partnerships

- (1) The general partners in a limited partnership must give notice to the registrar of any change mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The changes are—
 - (a) in the case of any limited partnership, changes to—
 - (i) the firm name, or
 - (ii) the address of the principal place of business of the limited partnership;
 - (b) in the case of a limited partnership that is not a private fund limited partnership, changes to—
 - (i) the general nature of the limited partnership’s business, or
 - (ii) the term or character of the limited partnership.
- (3) The notice must specify the date on which the change occurred.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2)(b)(i) may specify the change to the general nature of the partnership business by reference to one or more categories of any system of classifying business activities prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State under section 8A(2A).
- (5) A notice under this section must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the change occurs.

10B Notification of other changes occurring before registration

- (1) The general partners in a limited partnership must give notice to the registrar if, on registration of the limited partnership, the address of the principal place of business of the limited partnership is different to that contained in the application for registration under section 8A.
- (2) The general partners in a limited partnership that is not a private fund limited partnership must give notice to the registrar if, on registration of the limited partnership, any of the following details are different to those contained in the application for registration under section 8A—
 - (a) the general nature of the limited partnership’s business,
 - (b) the term of the limited partnership,
 - (c) the amount of the capital contribution of a limited partner, or

- (d) the form of the capital contribution of a limited partner.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) must specify the address of the principal place of business of the limited partnership.
- (4) A notice under subsection (2)(a)—
 - (a) must specify the general nature of the limited partnership’s business, and
 - (b) may do so by reference to one or more categories of any system of classifying business activities prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State under section 8A(2A).
- (5) A notice under subsection (2)(b), (c) or (d) must specify the details mentioned in the paragraph under which the notice is given.
- (6) A notice under this section must be given within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the limited partnership was registered.

10C Failure to notify other changes in partnerships

- (1) If the general partners fail to comply with section 10A or 10B an offence is committed by each general partner who is in default.
- (2) But where the general partner is a legal entity, it does not commit an offence as a general partner in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (3) Where any such offence is committed by a general partner that is a legal entity, or any such offence is by virtue of this subsection committed by a managing officer that is a legal entity, any managing officer of the legal entity who is in default also commits the offence if—
 - (a) the managing officer is an individual, or
 - (b) the managing officer is a legal entity and one of its managing officers is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (5) A general partner or managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.”

“Confirmation statements

10D Duty to deliver confirmation statements

- (1) The general partners in a limited partnership must, within the period of 14 days after each review period, deliver to the registrar a statement (a “confirmation statement”) confirming that any information required by subsection (2) is being delivered at the same time as the confirmation statement.
- (2) The information that must be delivered at the same time as the confirmation statement is—
 - (a) a notice of any notifiable change in respect of which a notice under section 8N, 8R, 8S or 10A has not been delivered,
 - (b) a notice under section 8F if—
 - (i) the limited partnership’s registered office is not at an appropriate address within the meaning given by section 8E(2) when the confirmation statement is made, and
 - (ii) the limited partnership has not given a notice under section 8F that is awaiting registration by the registrar,
 - (c) a notice under section 8I if—
 - (i) the limited partnership’s registered email address is not at an appropriate email address within the meaning given by section 8H(2) when the confirmation statement is made, and
 - (ii) the limited partnership has not given a notice under section 8I that is awaiting registration by the registrar,
 - (d) a notice under section 8L(1) by each general partner that—
 - (i) is a legal entity,
 - (ii) has a registered officer who does not meet the requirements in section 8K(1)(a) to (c), and
 - (iii) has not given a notice under section 8L(1) that is awaiting registration by the registrar, and
 - (e) if any general partner that is a legal entity has one or more corporate managing officers—
 - (i) for which the named contact is not an individual who is a managing officer of the corporate managing officer, and
 - (ii) in respect of which the general partner has not given a notice under section 8L(2) that is awaiting registration by the registrar, a notice under section 8L(2) by each such general partner in respect of each such corporate managing officer.

- (3) For the purposes of this section, each of the following is a review period—
 - (a) where the limited partnership was registered before this section comes fully into force, the period—
 - (i) beginning with the date of the limited partnership’s registration, and
 - (ii) ending with the period of 6 months beginning when this section comes fully into force;

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) where the limited partnership was registered after this section comes fully into force, the period of 12 months beginning with the date of the limited partnership's registration;
 - (c) each period of 12 months beginning with the day after the end of the previous review period.
- (4) But a review period may be shortened by the general partners—
- (a) notifying the registrar of the shortened review period, and
 - (b) delivering the confirmation statement within the period of 14 days after that shortened review period.
- (5) For the purpose of making a confirmation statement, the general partners in a limited partnership are entitled to assume that information that has been delivered to the registrar has been properly delivered unless the registrar has notified the limited partnership otherwise.
- (6) In this section a “notifiable change” means a change mentioned in section 8N(1), 8R(1), 8S(1) to (3) or 10A(2) that occurred during the review period.

10E Power to amend matters to be confirmed in confirmation statement

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about the matters that must be confirmed in a confirmation statement delivered under section 10D(1).
- (2) The regulations may—
- (a) amend or repeal the provisions of section 10D, and
 - (b) provide for exceptions from the requirements of that section as it has effect from time to time.
- (3) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.

10F Failure to deliver confirmation statement

- (1) If the general partners fail to comply with section 10D(1) an offence is committed by each general partner who is in default.
- (2) But where the general partner is a legal entity, it does not commit an offence as a general partner in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (3) Where any such offence is committed by a general partner that is a legal entity, or any such offence is by virtue of this subsection committed by a managing officer that is a legal entity, any managing officer of the legal entity also commits the offence if—
- (a) the managing officer is an individual who is in default, or
 - (b) the managing officer is a legal entity that is in default and one of its managing officers is in default.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
- (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (5) The contravention continues until such time as the general partners have delivered the statement required by section 10D(1).
- (6) A general partner or managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.”

 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (7) A managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.
- (8) But a corporate managing officer does not commit an offence as a managing officer in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (9) Where any such offence is committed by a corporate managing officer the managing officer in question also commits the offence (subject to subsection (8)).
- (10) In this section—
- “protected date of birth information” has the meaning given by section 16A(3);
 - “protected residential address information” has the meaning given by section 16A(3).

Disclosure of protected residential address information under court order

16E Disclosure of protected residential address information under court order

- (1) The court may make an order for the disclosure of protected residential address information by the appropriate limited partnership or by the registrar if—
- (a) there is evidence that service of documents at a service address other than the individual’s usual residential address is not effective to bring them to the notice of the individual, or
 - (b) it is necessary or expedient for the information to be provided in connection with the enforcement of an order or decree of the court, and the court is otherwise satisfied that it is appropriate to make the order.
- (2) An order for disclosure by the registrar may be made only if—
- (a) the appropriate limited partnership does not have the protected residential address information, or
 - (b) the appropriate limited partnership was dissolved.
- (3) The order may be made on the application of a liquidator, creditor or partner of the appropriate limited partnership, or any other person appearing to the court to have a sufficient interest.
- (4) The order must specify the persons to whom, and purposes for which, disclosure is authorised.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

(5) In this section—

“appropriate limited partnership” —

- (a) in relation to protected residential address information about a partner in a limited partnership means that limited partnership;
- (b) in relation to protected residential address information about a registered officer of a general partner in a limited partnership means that limited partnership;
- (c) in relation to protected residential address information about a named contact for the managing officer of a general partner in a limited partnership means that limited partnership;

“named contact” has the meaning given by section 8K(5);

“protected residential address information” has the meaning given by section 16A(3);

“registered officer” has the meaning given by section 8K(4).”

(3) In section 3 (interpretation of terms), in subsection (1) (created by section 110 of this Act), at the appropriate place insert—

““the court” has the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see section 1156 of the Companies Act 2006);”.

The registrar's role relating to dissolution, revival and deregistration

140 Duty to notify registrar of dissolution

After section 17 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (power of board of trade to make rules) insert—

“Dissolution, revival and deregistration

18 Duty to notify registrar of dissolution

- (1) A person who is a general partner in a limited partnership at a time when it is dissolved must notify the registrar of the dissolution within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the person becomes aware of its dissolution.
- (2) A person who is a limited partner in a limited partnership at a time when it is dissolved must, if there are no general partners at that time, notify the registrar of the dissolution within the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the person becomes aware of its dissolution.
- (3) But no notice is required under subsection (1) or (2) if—
 - (a) the limited partnership is dissolved under section 19(6) (dissolution on publication of notice in Gazette),

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) another person has notified the registrar of the dissolution under subsection (1) or (2), or
 - (c) a dissolution notice under section 19 is published before the end of the period of 14 days mentioned in subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) If a person fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2) an offence is committed by—
- (a) the person, and
 - (b) if the person is a legal entity, any of its managing officers who is in default.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction—
- (a) in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (b) in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 5 on the standard scale.
- (6) A managing officer is “in default” for the purposes of this section if they authorise or permit, participate in, or fail to take all reasonable steps to prevent, the contravention.
- (7) But a corporate managing officer does not commit an offence as a managing officer in default unless one of its managing officers is in default.
- (8) Where any such offence is committed by a corporate managing officer the managing officer in question also commits the offence (subject to subsection (7)).”

141 Registrar’s power to confirm dissolution of limited partnership

- (1) The Limited Partnerships Act 1907 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 18 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 140 of this Act) insert—

“19 Registrar’s power to confirm dissolution of limited partnership

- (1) If the registrar has reasonable cause to believe that a limited partnership has been dissolved, the registrar may publish a notice in the Gazette (a “dissolution notice”) stating that fact.
- (2) Where the registrar proposes to publish a dissolution notice, the registrar must first publish in the Gazette a notice (a “warning notice”)—
 - (a) explaining the registrar’s proposal and its effect (see subsection (6)), and
 - (b) inviting any person to make representations about the registrar’s proposal.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The registrar must send a copy of the warning notice to—
 - (a) the registered office of the limited partnership, and
 - (b) at least one person who appears in the register of limited partnerships as a general partner in the limited partnership (if there are any).
- (4) The registrar may not publish a dissolution notice until after the end of the period of two months beginning with the first day on which the registrar has complied with subsection (2) and subsection (3).
- (5) The dissolution notice must—
 - (a) state the firm name of the limited partnership,
 - (b) state the limited partnership’s registration number, and
 - (c) explain the effect of the publication of the notice (see subsection (6)).
- (6) On the publication of a dissolution notice, the limited partnership to which it relates is dissolved if it was not already dissolved.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (3), a person “appears in the register of limited partnerships as a general partner in the limited partnership” if—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) the person was named as a proposed general partner in the application for registration of the limited partnership under section 8A, or
 - (ii) the general partners have given the registrar notice under section 8R that the person has become a general partner in the limited partnership, and
 - (b) the general partners have not since—
 - (i) given the registrar notice under section 8R that the person has ceased to be a general partner in the limited partnership, or
 - (ii) given the registrar notice under section 8T that the person did not become a general partner on registration of the limited partnership.

20 Administrative revival

- (1) On an application under this section the registrar must revive a limited partnership if the registrar is satisfied that the following conditions are met.
- (2) Condition 1 is that the limited partnership was dissolved under section 19(6) (dissolution on publication of notice in Gazette).
- (3) Condition 2 is that the applicant has delivered to the registrar such documents as are necessary to ensure that, if the limited partnership is revived, the records kept by the registrar relating to the limited partnership will be up to date.
- (4) Condition 3 is that each relevant person has paid any outstanding fines or financial penalties imposed on them in respect of an offence—
 - (a) under this Act, or
 - (b) by virtue of regulations made under section 7A of this Act, relating to the limited partnership.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) An application under this section may only be made by a person who was a general partner in the limited partnership immediately before it was dissolved.
- (6) The application must include a statement that—
 - (a) the conditions in subsections (2), (3) and (4) are met, and
 - (b) the applicant is a person mentioned in subsection (5).
- (7) An application under this section may not be made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date on which the limited partnership was dissolved.
- (8) For the purpose of subsection (7) an application is made when it is received by the registrar.
- (9) In subsection (4) “relevant person” means—
 - (a) the applicant,
 - (b) any person who—
 - (i) was a general partner in the limited partnership immediately before it was dissolved, and
 - (ii) if the limited partnership is revived, will be a general partner in the limited partnership immediately after its revival, or
 - (c) any person who is a managing officer of a legal entity where the legal entity is—
 - (i) a person mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b), or
 - (ii) a person falling within this paragraph.

21 Registrar’s decision on application for administrative revival

- (1) The registrar must give notice to the applicant of the decision on an application under section 20.
- (2) If the limited partnership is revived, the revival takes effect on the date that the notice is sent.
- (3) If the limited partnership is revived the registrar must—
 - (a) enter on the register of limited partnerships a note of the date on which the revival of the limited partnership takes effect, and
 - (b) cause notice of the revival to be published in the Gazette.
- (4) Notes entered on the register of limited partnerships in accordance with subsection (3)(a) are part of the register of limited partnerships.
- (5) The notice under subsection (3)(b) must state—
 - (a) the limited partnership’s name (which must be the name that it had before it was dissolved under section 19(6)),
 - (b) the limited partnership’s registration number, and
 - (c) the date on which the revival of the limited partnership takes effect.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

22 Effect of administrative revival

- (1) The general effect of administrative revival is that the limited partnership is to be treated as having continued in existence as if it had not been dissolved under section 19(6).
- (2) The court may give such directions and make such provision as seems just for placing the limited partnership and all other persons in the same position (as nearly as may be) as if the limited partnership had not been dissolved under section 19(6).
- (3) An application to the court for such directions or provision may be made at any time within the period of three years beginning with the date on which the revival of the limited partnership took effect.

23 Application to court for revival

- (1) An application may be made to the court to revive a limited partnership that has been dissolved under section 19(6) (dissolution on publication of notice in Gazette).
- (2) An application under this section may be made by—
 - (a) the Secretary of State,
 - (b) a person who was a partner in the limited partnership immediately before it was dissolved, or
 - (c) any other person appearing to the court to have an interest in the matter.
- (3) An application to the court for the revival of a limited partnership may only be made—
 - (a) within the period of six years beginning with the date on which the limited partnership was dissolved, or
 - (b) where the applicant made an application under section 20 that was refused, within the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which notice of the registrar's decision was sent by the registrar to the applicant.

24 Decision on application for revival by the court

- (1) If, on an application under section 23, the court orders revival of the limited partnership, the revival takes effect on a copy of the court's order being delivered to the registrar.
- (2) The registrar must publish a notice in the Gazette of the revival of the limited partnership.
- (3) The notice must state—
 - (a) the limited partnership's name (which must be the name that it had before it was dissolved under section 19(6)),
 - (b) the limited partnership's registration number, and
 - (c) the date on which the revival of the limited partnership takes effect.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

25 Effect of court order for revival

- (1) The general effect of an order by the court for revival is that the limited partnership is to be treated as having continued in existence as a limited partnership as if it had not been dissolved under section 19(6).
- (2) The court may give such directions and make such provision as seems just for placing the limited partnership and all other persons in the same position (as nearly as may be) as if the limited partnership had not been dissolved under section 19(6).
- (3) The court may also give directions as to—
 - (a) the delivery to the registrar of such documents relating to the limited partnership as are necessary to bring up to date the records kept by the registrar, or
 - (b) the payment of the costs (in Scotland, expenses) of the registrar in connection with the proceedings for the revival of the limited partnership.”
- (3) In section 3 (interpretation of terms), in subsection (1) (created by section 110 of this Act), at the appropriate place insert—

““the Gazette” means—

 - (a) as respects limited partnerships registered in England and Wales, the London Gazette,
 - (b) as respects limited partnerships registered in Scotland, the Edinburgh Gazette, and
 - (c) as respects limited partnerships registered in Northern Ireland, the Belfast Gazette;”.
- (4) In section 10 (advertisement in Gazette), omit subsection (2).

143 Voluntary deregistration of limited partnership

After section 25 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 141 of this Act) insert—

“26 Voluntary deregistration of limited partnership

- (1) The registrar must deregister a limited partnership if a statement is delivered to the registrar which is authenticated by or on behalf of each partner confirming that they want the limited partnership to be deregistered.
- (2) The registrar deregisters the limited partnership by publishing a notice in the Gazette of the limited partnership’s deregistration (a “deregistration notice”).
- (3) The deregistration notice must state—
 - (a) the firm name of the limited partnership, and
 - (b) the limited partnership’s registration number.
- (4) On the publication of the deregistration notice, the limited partnership ceases to be registered as a limited partnership under this Act (but this does not prevent any ongoing relationship from being a partnership).”

144 Removal of limited partnership from index of names

After section 26 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 143 of this Act) insert—

“27 Removal of limited partnership from index of names

- (1) The registrar must remove a limited partnership from the index of names as soon as reasonably practicable if the registrar—
 - (a) becomes aware that the limited partnership is dissolved (whether on the receipt of a notice under section 18, the publication of a dissolution notice under section 19(6) or otherwise), or
 - (b) publishes a deregistration notice under section 26 in respect of the limited partnership.
- (2) If the registrar removes a limited partnership from the index of names, the registrar must include a note in the register of limited partnerships stating either—
 - (a) that the limited partnership has been removed from the index of names because of its dissolution, or
 - (b) that the limited partnership has been removed from the index of names because of its deregistration under section 26.
- (3) The registrar must also publish a notice of the removal in the Gazette if the limited partnership is removed from the index of names other than following the publication of a dissolution notice under section 19 or a deregistration notice under section 26.

- (4) Notes included in the register of limited partnerships in accordance with subsection (2) are part of the register of limited partnerships.
- (5) A note may be removed if it no longer serves any useful purpose.
- (6) In this section “the index of names” means the index kept by the registrar under section 1099 of the Companies Act 2006.”

Delivery of documents

145 Delivery of documents relating to limited partnerships

After section 32 of the Limited Partnerships Act 1907 (inserted by section 134 of this Act) insert—

“Delivery of documents to the registrar

33 Documents to be delivered by authorised corporate service providers

- (1) An individual may not deliver a document under a provision listed in subsection (3) to the registrar on their own behalf (and, accordingly, any delivery of a document under such a provision must be made on the individual’s behalf in accordance with subsection (2)).
- (2) An individual may not deliver a document under a provision listed in subsection (3) to the registrar on behalf of another person unless—
 - (a) the individual is an authorised corporate service provider, or
 - (b) the individual is an officer or employee of an authorised corporate service provider.

 - (i) any application or other document delivered to the registrar under regulations under section 25 (regulations protecting material), other than information provided by virtue of section 25(4);
 - (ii) any information which regulations under section 25 require not to be made available for public inspection;
 - (e) any application or other document delivered to the registrar under section 28 (administrative removal of material from the register);
 - (f) any court order under section 30 (rectification of the register under court order) that the court has directed under section 31 is not to be made available for public inspection;
 - (g) any statement or other document delivered to the registrar by virtue of section 1067A of the Companies Act 2006 (delivery of documents: identity verification requirements etc);
 - (h) any statement made in accordance with regulations made by virtue of section 1082(2)(c) of the Companies Act 2006 (statement of unique identifier);

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) any document provided to the registrar under section 1092A of the Companies Act 2006 (power to require further information);
- (j) any email address, identification code or password deriving from a document delivered for the purpose of authorising or facilitating electronic filing procedures or providing information by telephone;
- (k) any record of the information contained in a document (or part of a document) mentioned in any of the previous paragraphs of this subsection;
- (l) any other material excluded from public inspection by or under any other enactment.

(2) In this section—

“protected date of birth information” means information as to the day of the month (but not the month or year) on which an individual who is a registrable beneficial owner or managing officer of an overseas entity was born;

“protected residential address information” means information as to the usual residential address of an individual who is a registrable beneficial owner or managing officer of an overseas entity;

“protected trusts information” means—

- (a) the required information about a trust (see sections 4(3)(a), 7(3)(a) and (4)(a) and 9(3)(a) and (4)(a) and paragraphs 3(2)(a), 4(2)(a) and 5(2)(a) of Schedule 6), or
- (b) any information required by virtue of section 7(3)(c) or (4)(c) or 9(3)(c) or (4)(c) or paragraph 4(2)(c) of Schedule 6 (information about beneficiaries).

- (3) Information about a registrable beneficial owner or managing officer does not cease to be protected date of birth information or protected residential address information when they cease to be a registrable beneficial owner or managing officer.
- (4) Where subsection (1), or a provision referred to in subsection (1), imposes a restriction by reference to material deriving from a particular description of document (or part of a document), that does not affect the availability for public inspection of the same information contained in material derived from another description of document (or part of a document) in relation to which no such restriction applies.
- (5) The registrar need not retain material to which subsection (1) applies for longer than appears to the registrar reasonably necessary for the purposes for which the material was delivered to the registrar.

23 Disclosure of protected information

- (1) The registrar must not disclose protected date of birth information, protected residential address information or protected trusts information unless—
 - (a) the disclosure is permitted by section 1110F of the Companies Act 2006 (general powers of disclosure by the registrar),
 - (b) the information is required to be made available for public inspection (as a result of being contained in a document, part of a document, or record to which section 22(1) does not apply), or

- (c) the disclosure is permitted by regulations under subsection (2).
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision requiring the registrar, on application, to disclose relevant protected trusts information to a person (unless required to refrain from doing so by regulations under section 25).
- (3) In subsection (2) “relevant protected trusts information” means protected trusts information other than information as to—
- (a) the day of the month (but not the month or year) on which an individual was born, or
 - (b) the usual residential address of an individual.
- (4) The regulations may make provision as to—
- (a) who may make an application;
 - (b) the grounds on which an application may be made;
 - (c) the information to be included in and documents to accompany an application;
 - (d) the notice to be given of an application and of its outcome;
 - (e) how an application is to be determined.
- (5) Provision under subsection (4)(e) may in particular provide for a question to be referred to a person other than the registrar for the purposes of determining the application.
- (6) The regulations may include provision authorising or requiring the registrar to impose conditions subject to which the information is disclosed (including conditions restricting its use or further disclosure).
- (7) The regulations may create offences in relation to failures to comply with conditions imposed by virtue of subsection (6).
- (8) The regulations must provide for any such offence to be punishable—
- (a) on summary conviction in England and Wales, by a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in Scotland, by a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale;
 - (c) on summary conviction in Northern Ireland, by a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.
- (9) Regulations under this section may in particular confer a discretion on the registrar.
- (10) Regulations under this section are subject to affirmative resolution procedure.
- (11) In this section the following have the meaning given by section 22(2)—
- “protected date of birth information”;
 - “protected residential address information”;
 - “protected trusts information”.

170 Administrative removal of material from register

- (1) In the Economic Crime (Transparency and Enforcement) Act 2022—
(a) for section 28 substitute—

“28 Administrative removal of material from the register

- (1) The registrar may remove from the register anything that appears to the registrar to be—
(a) a document, or material derived from a document, accepted under section 1073 of the Companies Act 2006 (power to accept documents not meeting requirements for proper delivery), or
(b) unnecessary material as defined by section 1074 of the Companies Act 2006.
- (2) The power to remove material from the register under this section may be exercised—
(a) on the registrar’s own motion, or
(b) on an application made in accordance with regulations under section 28A\(2\).
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that the registrar’s power to remove material from the register under this section following an application is limited to material of a description specified in the regulations.
- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution procedure.

28A Further provision about removal of material from the register

- (1) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision for notice to be given in accordance with the regulations where material is removed from the register under section 28 otherwise than on an application.
- (2) The Secretary of State must by regulations make provision in connection with the making and determination of applications for the removal of material from the register under section 28.
- (3) The provision that may be made under subsection \(2\) includes provision as to—
(a) who may make an application,
(b) the information to be included in and documents to accompany an application,

- (4) In subsection (3) for “A further” substitute “An”.
- (5) In subsection (4) for “a further” substitute “an”.
- (6) In subsection (5) for “a further” substitute “an”.
- (7) After subsection (6) insert—
 - “(6A) Condition 3 for the making of an information order is met if—
 - (a) the information would assist an authorised NCA officer to conduct—
 - (i) operational analysis of information that is relevant to money laundering or suspected money laundering, or
 - (ii) strategic analysis identifying trends or patterns in the conduct of money laundering, or systemic deficiencies or vulnerabilities which have been, are being or are likely to be, exploited for the purposes of money laundering, for the purposes of the criminal intelligence function of the National Crime Agency, so far as it relates to money laundering,
 - (b) the respondent is a person carrying on a business in the regulated sector,
 - (c) where the application for the order is made to a magistrates’ court, the person making the application has had regard to the code of practice under section 339ZL,
 - (d) where the application for the order is made to the sheriff—
 - (i) the application is made by a procurator fiscal at the request of the Director General of the National Crime Agency or an authorised NCA officer, and
 - (ii) the person making that request has had regard to the code of practice under section 339ZL, and
 - (e) it is reasonable in all the circumstances for the information to be provided.
 - “(6B) Condition 4 for the making of an information order is met if—
 - (a) a request has been made by a foreign FIU to the National Crime Agency for the provision of the information required to be given under the order,

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) an authorised NCA officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the request was made only for the purpose of assisting the foreign FIU to conduct one or both of the following—
 - (i) operational analysis of information that is relevant to money laundering or suspected money laundering, or
 - (ii) strategic analysis identifying trends or patterns in the conduct of money laundering, or systematic deficiencies or vulnerabilities which have been, are being or are likely to be, exploited for the purposes of money laundering, and that the information is likely to be of substantial value to the foreign FIU in carrying out such analysis,
 - (c) the provision of the information by the National Crime Agency to the foreign FIU would be for the purposes of the criminal intelligence function of the National Crime Agency, so far as it relates to money laundering,
 - (d) the respondent is a person carrying on a business in the regulated sector,
 - (e) where the application for the order is made to a magistrates’ court, the person making the application has had regard to the code of practice under section 339ZL,

“339ZL Code of practice about certain information orders

- (1) The Secretary of State must make a code of practice in connection with the exercise of the following functions by the Director General of the National Crime Agency or an authorised NCA officer—
 - (a) the making of an application to the magistrates’ court for an information order in reliance on Condition 3 or 4 in section 339ZH being met;
 - (b) the making of a request to a procurator fiscal for the procurator fiscal to apply for an information order in reliance on Condition 3 or 4 in section 339ZH being met.
- (2) Where the Secretary of State proposes to issue a code of practice the Secretary of State must—
 - (a) publish a draft,
 - (b) consider any representations made about the draft, and
 - (c) if the Secretary of State thinks appropriate, modify the draft in the light of any such representations.
- (3) A requirement in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (2) may be satisfied by the carrying out of the action required by the paragraph in question before this section comes into force.
- (4) The Secretary of State must lay a draft of the code before Parliament.
- (5) When the Secretary of State has laid a draft of the code before Parliament the Secretary of State may bring it into operation by regulations.
- (6) The Secretary of State may revise the whole or any part of the code and issue the code as revised; and subsections (2) to (5) apply to a revised code as they apply to the original code.
- (7) A failure by a person to comply with a provision of the code does not of itself make the person liable to criminal or civil proceedings.
- (8) The code is admissible in evidence in criminal or civil proceedings and is to be taken into account by a court or tribunal in any case in which it appears to the court or tribunal to be relevant.
- (9) A code of practice made under this section may be combined with a code of practice under section 22F of the Terrorism Act 2000 (code of practice relating to information orders under section 22B(1A) of that Act).
- (10) In this section “authorised NCA officer” has the meaning given in section 339ZH(12).”
- (13) In section 459 of that Act (orders and regulations)—
 - (a) in subsection (4), after paragraph (azaa) (inserted by section 182(7)(a) of this Act) insert—

“(azab) regulations under section 339ZL(5);”;
 - (b) after subsection (6ZBA) (inserted by section 182(7)(b) of this Act) insert—

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Disclosures to prevent, detect or investigate economic crime etc

188 Direct disclosures of information: restrictions on civil liability

- (1) The protections set out in subsection (2) apply in relation to a disclosure made by a person (“A”) to another person (“B”) if—
- (a) A is carrying on business in circumstances where subsection (3) applies,
- (b) B is also carrying on business in circumstances where that subsection applies,
- (c) the information relates to a person who is a customer or former customer of A (“the customer”),
- (d) either the request condition or the warning condition is met,
- (e) A is satisfied that the disclosure of the information will or may assist B in carrying out relevant actions of B, and
- (f) the disclosure is not a privileged disclosure.
- (2) The protections are that, subject to subsection (11), the disclosure does not—
- (a) give rise to a breach of any obligation of confidence owed by A, or

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) give rise to any civil liability, on the part of A, to the person to whom the disclosed information relates.
- (3) This subsection applies—
- (a) where the business carried on is business in the regulated sector, and
 - (b) in circumstances prescribed, in relation to the business or the person carrying it on, by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (4) The request condition is that—
- (a) the disclosure is made in response to a request made by B, and
 - (b) at the time the request is made, B has reason to believe that A holds information relating to the customer the disclosure of which will or may assist B in carrying out relevant actions of B.
- (5) The warning condition is that A, due to concerns about risks of economic crime, has decided to take safeguarding action (or would have decided to take such action but for the customer having ceased to be a customer of A).
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), “safeguarding action” means—
- (a) terminating a business relationship with the customer,
 - (b) refusing the customer a product or service, or
 - (c) restricting the customer’s access to elements of a product or service available to other customers of A.
- (7) Where a disclosure is made to which subsection (1) applies, B’s use of the disclosed information, for the purposes of any of B’s relevant actions, does not breach any obligation of confidence owed by B.
- (8) The protections set out in subsection (9) apply in relation to a disclosure made by a person (“R”) who is carrying on business in circumstances where subsection (3) applies to another person for the purpose of making a disclosure request if R has reason to believe that other person—
- (a) is carrying on business in circumstances where subsection (3) applies, and
 - (b) has in their possession information about a customer or former customer of theirs that will or may assist R to carry out any of R’s relevant actions.
- (9) The protections are that, subject to subsection (11), the disclosure does not—
- (a) give rise to a breach of any obligation of confidence owed by R, or
 - (b) give rise to any civil liability, on the part of R, to the person to whom the disclosed information relates.
- (10) Where a disclosure is made to which subsection (8) applies, the use by that other person of the disclosed information, for the purposes of enabling a disclosure to be made by them to which subsection (1) applies, does not—
- (a) give rise to a breach of any obligation of confidence owed by them, or
 - (b) give rise to any civil liability, on the part of R, to the person to whom the disclosed information relates.
- This is subject to subsection (11).
- (11) Nothing in this section requires or authorises a disclosure of information that would contravene, or prevents any civil liability arising under, the data protection legislation.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

189 Indirect disclosure of information: restrictions on civil liability

- (1) The protections set out in subsection (2) apply in relation to a disclosure made by a person (“A”) to another person (“B”) if—
- (a) A is carrying on business in circumstances where subsection (3) applies,
 - (b) the information relates to a person who is a customer or former customer of A (“the customer”),
 - (c) due to concerns about the risk of economic crime, A has decided to—
 - (i) terminate a business relationship with the customer,
 - (ii) refuse the customer a product or service, or
 - (iii) restrict the customer’s access to elements of a product or service which are available to other customers,
 - (d) A is satisfied that the information disclosed to B, if it is disclosed by B to one or more persons carrying on business in circumstances where subsection (3) applies, will or may assist those persons in carrying out their relevant actions,
 - (e) to the extent that the information is personal data, the UK GDPR applies to the disclosure of the information by A,
 - (f) A and B are parties to an agreement the terms of which provide that, to the extent that the information is personal data, B will only disclose or otherwise process it in circumstances where the UK GDPR applies to the disclosure or other processing, and
 - (g) the disclosure is not a privileged disclosure.
- (2) The protections are that, subject to subsection (10), the disclosure does not—
- (a) give rise to a breach of any obligation of confidence owed by A, or
 - (b) give rise to any civil liability, on the part of A, to the person to whom the disclosed information relates.
- (3) This subsection applies—
- (a) where the business carried on is business in the regulated sector as—
 - (i) a deposit-taking body,
 - (ii) an electronic money institution,
 - (iii) a payment institution,
 - (iv) a cryptoasset exchange provider, or
 - (v) a custodian wallet provider,
 - (b) where—
 - (i) the business carried on is business in the regulated sector within paragraph 1(1)(j) to (n) of Schedule 9 to the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (audit, insolvency, accountancy, tax or legal services), and
 - (ii) the UK revenue of the person carrying on the business is large or very large for the relevant financial year (see subsection (11)), and
 - (c) in circumstances prescribed, in relation to the business or the person carrying it on, by regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this paragraph.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Where subsection (1) applies to a disclosure of information made by A to B, the protections set out in subsection (5) apply in relation to a further disclosure of that information made by B to another person (“C”) if—
- (a) C is carrying on business in circumstances where subsection (3) applies, and
 - (b) to the extent that the information is personal data, the UK GDPR applies to all processing of the information by B, up to and including the disclosure of the information to C.
- (5) The protections are that, subject to subsection (10), the disclosure does not—
- (a) give rise to a breach of any obligation of confidence owed by B, or
 - (b) give rise to any civil liability, on the part of B, to the person to whom the disclosed information relates.
- (6) Where a disclosure is made to which subsection (4) applies, C’s use of the disclosed information, for the purposes of any of C’s relevant actions, does not breach any obligation of confidence owed by C.
- (7) The protections set out in subsection (8) apply in relation to a disclosure made by a person (“R”), who is carrying on business in circumstances where subsection (3) applies, to another person, for the purposes of making a request for a disclosure of information to be made to R by that other person if, at the time the request is made, R has reason to believe that the disclosure of information to which the request relates would be one to which subsection (4) applies.
- (8) The protections are that, subject to subsection (10), the disclosure does not—
- (a) give rise to a breach of any obligation of confidence owed by R, or
 - (b) give rise to any civil liability, on the part of R, to the person to whom the disclosed information relates.
- (9) Where a disclosure is made to which subsection (7) applies, the use by that other person, of the disclosed information, for the purposes of enabling a disclosure to be made by them to which subsection (4) applies, does not—
- (a) give rise to a breach of any obligation of confidence owed by them, or
 - (b) give rise to any civil liability, on their part, to the person to whom the disclosed information relates.
- This is subject to subsection (10).
- (10) Nothing in this section authorises a disclosure of information that would contravene, or prevents any civil liability arising under, the data protection legislation.
- (11) In subsection (3)(b) “relevant financial year”—
- (a) for the purposes of subsection (1)(a), means the financial year immediately preceding that in which the disclosure by A is made;
 - (b) for the purposes of subsection (4)(a), means the financial year immediately preceding that in which the disclosure to C is made.

And, for the purposes of subsection (3)(b), the question of whether a person’s UK revenue is large or very large for a particular financial year is to be determined in accordance with sections 55 to 57 of the Finance Act 2022 (calculation of UK revenue for the economic crime (anti-money laundering) levy).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

190 Meaning of “privileged disclosure”

- (1) For the purposes of sections 188 and 189, “privileged disclosure” means a disclosure of information made by a professional legal adviser or relevant professional adviser in circumstances where the information disclosed came to the adviser in privileged circumstances.
- (2) Information comes to a professional legal adviser or relevant professional adviser in privileged circumstances if it is communicated or given to the adviser—
 - (a) by (or by a representative of) a client of the adviser in connection with the giving by that person of legal advice to the client,
 - (b) by (or by a representative of) a person seeking legal advice from the adviser, or
 - (c) by a person in connection with legal proceedings or contemplated legal proceedings.
- (3) For the purposes of this section a “relevant professional adviser” means an accountant, auditor or tax adviser who is a member of a professional body which is established for accountants, auditors or tax advisers (as the case may be) and which makes provision for—
 - (a) testing the competence of those seeking admission to membership of such a body as a condition for such admission, and
 - (b) imposing and maintaining professional and ethical standards for its members, as well as imposing sanctions for non-compliance with those standards.

191 Meaning of “relevant actions”

In sections 188 and 189, “relevant actions”, of a person, means the actions of—

- (a) determining, for the purposes of preventing, detecting or investigating economic crime—
 - (i) whether it is appropriate to apply any customer due diligence measures, or any similar measures, in respect of a customer or proposed customer of the person;
 - (ii) the nature or extent of the measures;
- (b) carrying out, for such purposes—
 - (i) effective measures for identifying or verifying the identity of, or
 - (ii) any other customer due diligence measures in respect of, a customer or proposed customer of the person;
- (c) determining, for such purposes, whether it is appropriate to—
 - (i) terminate an existing business relationship with a customer or proposed customer of the person;
 - (ii) decline to establish a new business relationship with such a customer;

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (iii) decline to provide a product or service to such a customer;
- (iv) restrict the access of such a customer to an existing product or service which is normally available to other customers;
- (v) decline to carry out a transaction for such a customer.

Commencement Information

Power to strike out certain claims

194 Strategic litigation against public participation: requirement to make rules of court

- (1) The power to make Civil Procedure Rules must be exercised so as to secure that Civil Procedure Rules include provision for ensuring that a claim may be struck out before trial where the court determines—
 - (a) that the claim is a SLAPP claim (see section 195), and
 - (b) that the claimant has failed to show that it is more likely than not that the claim would succeed at trial.
- (2) Rules made in compliance with subsection (1) may include rules about how a determination under that subsection is to be made, including (in particular)—
 - (a) rules for determining the nature and extent of the evidence that may or must be considered;
 - (b) rules about the extent to which evidence may or must be tested;
 - (c) rules permitting or requiring the court to determine matters of fact by way of presumptions.
- (3) Rules made in compliance with subsection (1) must include rules under which the court may make a determination under that subsection of its own motion.
- (4) The power to make Civil Procedure Rules must be exercised so as to secure that Civil Procedure Rules include provision for securing that, in respect of a SLAPP claim, a court may not order a defendant to pay the claimant’s costs except where, in the court’s view, misconduct of the defendant in relation to the claim justifies such an order.
- (5) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations provide for subsections (1) to (4) to apply in relation to any rules of court that may be specified in the regulations as those subsections apply in relation to Civil Procedure Rules.
- (6) In this section—
 - “court” includes a tribunal;
 - “rules of court” means rules relating to the practice and procedure of a court or tribunal.

Commencement Information

I196 S. 194 in force at Royal Assent for specified purposes, see s. 219(1)(2)(b)

195 Meaning of “SLAPP” claim

- (1) For the purposes of section 194 a claim is a “SLAPP claim” if—
 - (a) the claimant’s behaviour in relation to the matters complained of in the claim has, or is intended to have, the effect of restraining the defendant’s exercise of the right to freedom of speech,
 - (b) any of the information that is or would be disclosed by the exercise of that right has to do with economic crime,
 - (c) any part of that disclosure is or would be made for a purpose related to the public interest in combating economic crime, and

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) any of the behaviour of the claimant in relation to the matters complained of in the claim is intended to cause the defendant—
- (i) harassment, alarm or distress,
 - (ii) expense, or
 - (iii) any other harm or inconvenience,
- beyond that ordinarily encountered in the course of properly conducted litigation.
- (2) For the purposes of determining whether a claim meets the condition in subsection (1) (a) or (c), any limitation prescribed by law on the exercise of the right to freedom of speech (for example in relation to the making of defamatory statements) is to be ignored.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, information mentioned in subsection (1)(b) “has to do with economic crime” if—
- (a) it relates to behaviour or circumstances which the defendant reasonably believes (or, as the case requires, believed) to be evidence of the commission of an economic crime, or
 - (b) the defendant has (or, as the case requires, had) reason to suspect that an economic crime may have occurred and believes (or, as the case requires, believed) that the disclosure of the information would facilitate an investigation into whether such a crime has (or had) occurred.
- (4) In determining whether any behaviour of the claimant falls within subsection (1)(d), the court may, in particular, take into account—
- (a) whether the behaviour is a disproportionate reaction to the matters complained of in the claim, including whether the costs incurred by the claimant are out of proportion to the remedy sought;
 - (b) whether the defendant has access to fewer resources with which to defend the claim than another person against whom the claimant could have brought (but did not bring) proceedings in relation to the matters complained of in the claim;
 - (c) any relevant failure, or anticipated failure, by the claimant to comply with a pre-action protocol, rule of court or practice direction, or to comply with or follow a rule or recommendation of a professional regulatory body.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4)(c) a failure, or anticipated failure, is “relevant” so far as it relates to—
- (a) the choice of jurisdiction,
 - (b) the use of dilatory strategies,
 - (c) the nature or amount of material sought on disclosure,
 - (d) the way to respond to requests for comment or clarification,
 - (e) the use of correspondence,
 - (f) making or responding to offers to settle, or
 - (g) the use of alternative dispute resolution procedures.
- (6) In this section—
- “court” has the same meaning as in section 194;
- “economic crime” has the meaning given by section 193(1);
- “the right to freedom of speech” means the right set out in Article 10 of the European Convention on Human Rights (freedom of expression) so far as it consists of a right to impart ideas, opinions or information by means of speech, writing or images (including in electronic form).

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) In the definition of “the right to freedom of speech” in subsection (6) “the European Convention on Human Rights” means the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms agreed by the Council of Europe at Rome on 4 November 1950 as it has effect for the time being in relation to the United Kingdom.

VALID FROM 26/12/2023

Attributing criminal liability for economic crimes to certain bodies

196 Attributing criminal liability for economic crimes to certain bodies

- (1) If a senior manager of a body corporate or partnership (“the organisation”) acting within the actual or apparent scope of their authority commits a relevant offence after this section comes into force, the organisation is also guilty of the offence.

This is subject to subsection (3).

- (2) “Relevant offence” means an act which constitutes—
- (a) an offence listed in Schedule 12 (“a listed offence”),
 - (b) an attempt or conspiracy to commit a listed offence,
 - (c) an offence—
 - (i) under Part 2 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 (England and Wales and Northern Ireland: encouraging or assisting crime) in relation to a listed offence, or
 - (ii) under the law of Scotland of inciting the commission of a listed offence, or
 - (d) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of a listed offence.

- (3) Where no act or omission forming part of the relevant offence took place in the United Kingdom, the organisation is not guilty of an offence under subsection (1) unless it would be guilty of the relevant offence had it carried out the acts that constituted that offence (in the location where the acts took place).

- (4) In this section—
- “body corporate” includes a body incorporated outside the United Kingdom, but does not include—
- (a) a corporation sole, or
 - (b) a partnership that, whether or not a legal person, is not regarded as a body corporate under the law by which it is governed;
- “partnership” means—
- (a) a partnership within the meaning of the Partnership Act 1890;
 - (b) a limited partnership registered under the Limited Partnerships Act 1907;

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) a firm or other entity of a similar character to one within paragraph (a) or (b) formed under the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom;

“senior manager”, in relation to a body corporate or partnership, means an individual who plays a significant role in—

- (a) the making of decisions about how the whole or a substantial part of the activities of the body corporate or (as the case may be) partnership are to be managed or organised, or
- (b) the actual managing or organising of the whole or a substantial part of those activities.

197 Power to amend list of economic crimes

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend Schedule 12 by—
- (a) removing an offence from the list in the Schedule, or
- (b) adding an offence to that list.
- (2) The power in subsection (1) is exercisable by the Scottish Ministers (and not by the Secretary of State) so far as it may be used to make provision that would be within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament if contained in an Act of that Parliament.
- (3) The power in subsection (1) is exercisable by the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland (and not by the Secretary of State) so far as it may be used to make provision that—
- (a) would be within the legislative competence of the Northern Ireland Assembly if contained in an Act of that Assembly, and
- (b) would not, if contained in a Bill for an Act of the Northern Ireland Assembly, result in the Bill requiring the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State may from time to time by regulations restate Schedule 12 as amended by virtue of subsections (1) to (3) (without changing the effect of the Schedule).

Failure to prevent fraud

199 Failure to prevent fraud

- (1) A relevant body which is a large organisation (see sections 201 and 202) is guilty of an offence if, in a financial year of the body (“the year of the fraud offence”), a person who is associated with the body (“the associate”) commits a fraud offence intending to benefit (whether directly or indirectly)—
 - (a) the relevant body, or
 - (b) any person to whom, or to whose subsidiary undertaking, the associate provides services on behalf of the relevant body.
- (2) A relevant body is also guilty of an offence under subsection (1) if—
 - (a) an employee of the relevant body commits a fraud offence intending to benefit (whether directly or indirectly) the relevant body,
 - (b) the fraud offence is committed in a financial year of a parent undertaking of which the relevant body is a subsidiary undertaking (“the year of the fraud offence”), and
 - (c) the parent undertaking is a relevant body which is a large organisation.
- (3) But the relevant body is not guilty of an offence under subsection (1)(b) if the body itself was, or was intended to be, a victim of the fraud offence.
- (4) It is a defence for the relevant body to prove that, at the time the fraud offence was committed—
 - (a) the body had in place such prevention procedures as it was reasonable in all the circumstances to expect the body to have in place, or
 - (b) it was not reasonable in all the circumstances to expect the body to have any prevention procedures in place.
- (5) In subsection (4) “prevention procedures” means procedures designed to prevent persons associated with the body from committing fraud offences.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) A “fraud offence” is an act which constitutes—
- (a) an offence listed in Schedule 13 (a “listed offence”), or
 - (b) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of a listed offence.
- (7) For the purposes of this section a person is associated with a relevant body if—
- (a) the person is an employee, agent or subsidiary undertaking of the relevant body, or
 - (b) the person otherwise performs services for or on behalf of the body.
- (8) For the purposes of this section a person is also associated with a relevant body if the person is an employee of a subsidiary undertaking of the relevant body; but for the purpose of determining whether an offence is committed by virtue of this subsection, subsection (1) has effect with the omission of paragraph (b) (and the “or” preceding it).
- (9) Whether or not a particular person performs services for or on behalf of a relevant body is to be determined by reference to all the relevant circumstances and not merely by reference to the nature of the relationship between that person and the body.
- (10) Where a relevant body is liable to be proceeded against for an offence under subsection (1) in a particular part of the United Kingdom, proceedings against the body for the offence may be taken in any place in the United Kingdom.
- (11) Where by virtue of subsection (10) proceedings against a relevant body for an offence are to be taken in Scotland—
- (a) the body may be prosecuted, tried and punished in a sheriff court district determined by the Lord Advocate, as if the offence had been committed in that district, and
 - (b) the offence is, for all purposes incidental to or consequential on the trial or punishment, deemed to have been committed in that district.
- (12) A relevant body guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to a fine;
 - (b) on summary conviction in England and Wales, to a fine;
 - (c) on summary conviction in Scotland or Northern Ireland, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.
- (13) In this section—
- “relevant body” means a body corporate or a partnership (wherever incorporated or formed);
- “sheriff court district” is to be read in accordance with the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 (see section 307(1) of that Act).
- (14) In this section “financial year”—
- (a) in relation to a UK company, has the meaning given by the Companies Act 2006 (see section 390 of that Act);
 - (b) in relation to a relevant body that is not a UK company means—
 - (i) any period in respect of which a profit and loss account of the relevant body is required to be made up (by its constitution or by the law under which it is established), whether that period is a year or not, or
 - (ii) if the body is not required by its constitution or the law under which it is established to draw up a profit and loss account, a calendar year.

200 Fraud offences: supplementary

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend Schedule 13 by—
 - (a) removing an offence from the list in the Schedule, or
 - (b) adding an offence to that list.
- (2) The power in subsection (1) is exercisable by the Scottish Ministers (and not by the Secretary of State) so far as it may be used to make provision that would be within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament if contained in an Act of that Parliament.
- (3) The power in subsection (1) is exercisable by the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland (and not by the Secretary of State) so far as it may be used to make provision that—
 - (a) would be within the legislative competence of the Northern Ireland Assembly if contained in an Act of that Assembly, and
 - (b) would not, if contained in a Bill for an Act of the Northern Ireland Assembly, result in the Bill requiring the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (4) An offence added under subsection (1)(b) must be—
 - (a) an offence of dishonesty,
 - (b) an offence that is otherwise of a similar character to those listed (on the passing of this Act) in paragraphs 1 to 6 of Schedule 13, or
 - (c) a relevant money laundering offence.
- (5) The Secretary of State may from time to time by regulations restate Schedule 13 as amended by virtue of subsections (1) to (3) (without changing the effect of the Schedule).
- (6) For the purposes of section 199(1), where a fraud offence is found to have been committed over a period of 2 or more days, or at some time during a period of 2 or more days, and that period of days straddles the beginning of a financial year of the relevant body in question, the fraud offence must be taken to have been committed on the last of those days.
- (7) In this section “relevant money laundering offence” means an offence under any of the following sections of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002—
 - (a) section 327 (concealing etc);
 - (b) section 328 (arrangements);
 - (c) section 329 (acquisition, use and possession).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

201 Section 199: large organisations

- (1) For the purposes of section 199(1) and (2) a relevant body is a “large organisation” only if the body satisfied two or more of the following conditions in the financial year of the body (“year P”) that precedes the year of the fraud offence—

Turnover	More than £36 million
Balance sheet total	More than £18 million
Number of employees	More than 250.

- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to a relevant body does not include a relevant body which is a parent undertaking (as to which see section 202).
- (3) For a period that is a relevant body’s financial year but not in fact a year, the figure for turnover must be proportionately adjusted.
- (4) In subsection (1) the “number of employees” means the average number of persons employed by the relevant body in year P, determined as follows—
- find for each month in year P the number of persons employed under contracts of service by the relevant body in that month (whether throughout the month or not),
 - add together the monthly totals, and
 - divide by the number of months in year P.
- (5) In this section—
- “balance sheet total”, in relation to a relevant body and a financial year—
- means the aggregate of the amounts shown as assets in its balance sheet at the end of the financial year, or
 - where the body has no balance sheet for the financial year, has a corresponding meaning;
- “turnover”—
- in relation to a UK company, has the same meaning as in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 (see section 474 of that Act);
 - in relation to any other relevant body, has a corresponding meaning;
- “year of the fraud offence” is to be interpreted in accordance with section 199(1).
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations modify this section (other than this subsection and subsections (7) and (9)) and section 202 for the purpose of altering the meaning of “large organisation” in section 199(1) and (2).
- (7) The Secretary of State may (whether or not the power in subsection (6) has been exercised) by regulations—
- omit the words “which is a large organisation” in section 199(1) and (2)(c), and
 - make any modifications of this section (other than this subsection) that the Secretary of State thinks appropriate in consequence of provision made under paragraph (a).
- (8) Before making regulations under subsection (6) or (7) the Secretary of State must consult—
- the Scottish Ministers, and

202 Large organisations: parent undertakings

(1) For the purposes of section 199(1) and (2) a relevant body which is a parent undertaking is a “large organisation” only if the group headed by it satisfied two or more of the following conditions in the financial year of the body that precedes the year of the fraud offence—

Aggregate turnover	More than £36 million net (or £43.2 million gross)
Aggregate balance sheet total	More than £18 million net (or £21.6 million gross)
Aggregate number of employees	More than 250.

(2) The aggregate figures are ascertained by aggregating the relevant figures determined in accordance with section 201 for each member of the group.

(3) In relation to the aggregate figures for turnover and balance sheet total, “net” and “gross”—

- (a) except where paragraph (b) applies, have the meaning given by subsection (6) of section 466 of the Companies Act 2006;
- (b) in the case of accounts that are not of a kind specified in the definition of “net” in that subsection, have a corresponding meaning.

(4) In this section—

“balance sheet total” (in relation to a relevant body and a financial year) has the same meaning as in section 201;

“group” means a parent undertaking and its subsidiary undertakings;

“turnover” (in relation to a UK company or other relevant body) has the same meaning as in section 201;

“year of the fraud offence” is to be interpreted in accordance with section 199(1) or (2) (as the case requires).

(5) In this section “balance sheet total” and “turnover”, in relation to a subsidiary undertaking which is not a relevant body, have a meaning corresponding to the meaning given by subsection (4).

203 Offences under section 199 committed by partnerships

- (1) Proceedings for an offence under section 199 alleged to have been committed by a partnership must be brought in the name of the partnership (and not in that of any of the partners).
- (2) For the purposes of such proceedings—
 - (a) rules of court relating to the service of documents have effect as if the partnership were a body corporate, and
 - (b) the following provisions apply as they apply in relation to a body corporate—
 - (i) section 33 of the Criminal Justice Act 1925 and Schedule 3 to the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980;
 - (ii) section 18 of the Criminal Justice Act \(Northern Ireland\) 1945 \(c. 15 \(N.I.\)\) and Schedule 4 to the Magistrates’ Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (S.I. 1981/1675 \(N.I. 26\));
 - (iii) sections 34(2), 66(6AA) and 72D(2) of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995.
- (3) A fine imposed on the partnership on its conviction for an offence under section 199 is to be paid out of the partnership assets.

204 Guidance about preventing fraud offences

- (1) The Secretary of State must issue guidance about procedures that relevant bodies can put in place to prevent persons associated with them from committing fraud offences as mentioned in section 199(1).
- (2) The Secretary of State may from time to time revise the whole or any part of the guidance issued under this section.
- (3) The Secretary of State must publish—
 - (a) any guidance issued under this section;
 - (b) any revision of that guidance.
- (4) Before issuing or revising guidance under this section the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers, and
 - (b) the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland.
- (5) The requirement to consult those persons may be satisfied by consultation carried out before this section comes into force.

111C Provision of information relating to economic crime by other persons

- (1) The Law Society may apply to the High Court for an order requiring a person who does not fall within section 111A(3) to—
 - (a) provide information, or information of a description, specified in the order, or
 - (b) produce documents, or documents of a description, specified in the order.
- (2) The High Court may make an order under this section only if it is satisfied—
 - (a) that it is likely that the information or document is in the possession or custody of, or under the control of, the person, and
 - (b) that it is necessary or expedient for the Law Society to have the information or document for the purposes of, or in connection with, the performance of its regulatory functions for purposes relating to the prevention or detection of economic crime.
- (3) Section 111A(4) applies in relation to an order under this section as it applies in relation to a notice under section 111A(1).
- (4) An order under this section may direct the Law Society to pay such reasonable costs as may be incurred by a person in connection with the provision of any information, or production of any document, by that person pursuant to the order.
- (5) A person may take copies of or extracts from a document produced to them pursuant to an order under this section.
- (6) In this section “economic crime” has the meaning given by section 193(1) of the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023.

Other approved regulators: information powers relating to economic crime

111D Order to confer information powers on other approved regulators

- (1) The Lord Chancellor may by order amend this Part so as to—
 - (a) provide for sections 111A to 111C to apply in relation to an approved regulator other than the Law Society as they apply in relation to the Law Society, and
 - (b) specify the persons to whom notices under section 111A(1) may be given by that approved regulator.
- (2) The Lord Chancellor may make an order under this section in relation to an approved regulator only if—
 - (a) the Board has made a recommendation in accordance with section 111E in relation to that approved regulator, and
 - (b) the persons specified in the order to whom notices under section 111A(1) may be given by that approved regulator are the same as those persons specified in the recommendation.

Status: Point in time view as at 26/10/2023. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Economic Crime and Corporate Transparency Act 2023. (See end of Document for details)

111E The Board’s power to recommend orders under section 111D

- (1) The Board may recommend to the Lord Chancellor that the Lord Chancellor make an order under section 111D in relation to an approved regulator.
 - (2) A recommendation must specify the persons to whom the approved regulator should be able to give notices under section 111A(1).
 - (3) A recommendation may only be made with the consent of the approved regulator.
 - (4) Before making a recommendation under this section, the Board must publish a draft of the proposed recommendation.
 - (5) The draft must be accompanied by a notice which states that representations about the proposed recommendation may be made to the Board within a specified period.
 - (6) Before making the recommendation, the Board must have regard to any representations duly made.”
- (3) In section 206 (parliamentary control of orders and regulations), in subsection (4), after paragraph (n) insert—
- “(na) section 111D (order to confer information powers on other approved regulators);”.

214 Sanctions enforcement: monetary penalties

- (1) In section 143 of the Policing and Crime Act 2017 (interpretation), in subsection (4) (meaning of “financial sanctions legislation”), in paragraph (f)—
- (a) the words from “contains” to the end become sub-paragraph (i);
 - (b) at the end of that sub-paragraph insert—

(ii) makes supplemental provision (within the meaning of section 1(6) of that Act) in connection with any prohibition or requirement mentioned in sub-paragraph (i).”

- (2) The Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 is amended as follows.
- (3) In section 17 (enforcement), in subsection (9), in paragraph (a), after “(2)” insert “or makes supplemental provision in connection with any such prohibition or requirement”.
- (4) After section 17 insert—

“17A Enforcement: monetary penalties

- (1) The provision that may be made by virtue of section 17(2) (enforcement of prohibitions or requirements) includes provision authorising a prescribed person to impose a monetary penalty on another person if satisfied, to the prescribed standard of proof, that the other person has breached a prohibition, or failed to comply with a requirement, that is imposed by or under regulations.
- (2) Regulations authorising the Treasury to impose a monetary penalty in respect of a breach or failure for which the Treasury could impose a monetary penalty under Part 8 of the Policing and Crime Act 2017 may not be made unless the regulations also make provision of the kind mentioned in section 17(9) to disapply Part 8 of that Act in respect of that breach or failure.
- (3) Regulations authorising the imposition of a monetary penalty may make provision that, in determining for the purposes of the regulations whether a person has breached a prohibition, or failed to comply with a requirement, any requirement relating to the person’s knowledge or intention is to be ignored.
- (4) Regulations authorising the imposition of a monetary penalty must provide that—
 - (a) a person is not liable to such a penalty in respect of conduct amounting to an offence if—
 - (i) proceedings have been brought against the person for that offence in respect of that conduct and the proceedings are ongoing, or
 - (ii) the person has been convicted of that offence in respect of that conduct, and
