

Small Holdings and Allotments Act 1908

1908 CHAPTER 36

PART III

GENERAL

Provisions affecting Land acquired

45 Interchange of land for small holdings and allotments

A county council may sell or let to a borough, urban district, or parish council for the purpose of allotments any land acquired by them for small holdings, and a borough, urban district, or parish council may sell or let to the county council for the purpose of small holdings any land acquired by them for allotments, and the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the sale of superfluous land shall not apply on any such sale.