Sections 7, 8, 9.

DETERMINATION OF THE APPROPRIATE AMOUNT IN RESPECT OF CASUALTIES PAYABLE UNDER A LEASE OR A SUB-LEASE

Textual Amendments

F2 Schs. repealed (28.11.2004) by Abolition of Feudal Tenure etc. \(Scotland\) Act 2000 \(asp 5\), ss. 71, 77(2), Sch. 13 Pt. 1 (with ss. 58, 62, 75); S.S.I. 2003/456, art. 2

1 The appropriate amount in respect of the casualties payable under any lease or sub-lease shall be—

- (a) such sum as may be determined by agreement between the landlord or intermediate landlord, as the case may be, and the occupying lessee; or
- (b) in default of such agreement,—
 - (i) where casualties are exigible only on the death of the person holding the interest of lessee under the lease or sub-lease, a sum equal to the highest casualty or, if a feu right is to be granted of a part only of the property let under the lease or sub-lease, the proportion of such casualty attributable to the subjects to be comprised in the feu right:

Provided that if at the date of the notice given under section one of this Act by the occupying lessee and after payment of any casualty which may then be exigible the state of the title is such that the next casualty may be that payable on the entry or succession of an heir, and the amount of the casualty payable by an heir is less than the amount which would be payable on the entry of a singular successor, the said sum shall be subject to an abatement of one half;

- (ii) where casualties are exigible on the occasion of each transfer of the lease or sub-lease as well as on the death of the person holding the interest of lessee under the lease or sub-lease, a sum equal to one and two-thirds times the highest casualty or one and two-thirds times the proportion of such casualty attributable to the subjects to be comprised in the feu right, as the case may be:

Provided that if at the date of the said notice and after payment of any casualty which may then be exigible the state of the title is such that the next casualty may be that payable on the entry or succession of an heir, and the amount of the casualty payable by an heir is less than the amount which would be payable on the entry of a singular successor, the said sum shall be subject to an abatement of two-fifths;

- (iii) where casualties are payable at fixed and regularly recurring intervals, such sum as will, with the addition of simple interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, produce on the next recurrence of the fixed interval a sum representing twenty-five times the highest casualty or twenty-five times the proportion of such casualty attributable to the subjects to be comprised in the feu right, as the case may be, divided by the number of years constituting such interval.

2 The appropriate amount determined under the foregoing paragraph shall be in respect only of casualties payable under the lease or sub-lease subsequent to the

[^{F6}+4 Subscription of the feu contract by the parties to it will be sufficient for the contract to be formally valid, but witnessing of it may be necessary or desirable for other purposes (see the Requirements of Writing (Scotland) Act 1995).]

Textual Amendments

F6 Notes added to Sch. 4 (1.8.1995) by 1995 c. 7, ss. 14(1), 15(2), Sch. 4 para. 37(b) (with ss. 9(3)(5)(7), 13, 14(3))

1 Where the person to whom the subjects are to be feued is a sub-lessee, the form should be suitably adapted to include inter alia the following additional provisions:

- (a) a narrative of the sub-lease;
- (b) a renunciation, to take effect as from the date of entry, by the intermediate landlord of the lease or sub-lease under which he holds the interest of lessee, to the extent that it relates to the subjects to be feued; and
- (c) a narrative of any sums to be paid under section nine of this Act to the intermediate landlord by the sub-lessee and an acknowledgment of receipt of such sums.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Long Leases (Scotland) Act 1954. (See end of Document for details)

- 2 If the person renouncing the lease or sub-lease is not the person in whose favour the lease or sub-lease was originally granted, add immediately after the renunciation—
- (a) where his title is recorded— “which lease (or sub-lease and add, if necessary, ”to the extent that it relates to the subjects hereinafter feued’) is now vested in the said C.D., his title thereto being recorded in the said Division of the General Register of Sasines (or as the case may be, and give date of recording)”; or
 - (b) where his title is not recorded but the title of a predecessor vested in the lease or sub-lease was recorded,— “which lease (or sub-lease and add, if necessary, ”to the extent that it relates to the subjects hereinafter feued’) was last vested in the said G.H. as aforesaid (or, if G.H. is not a person having such title, say, ”in J.K. [design person having said title], whose title thereto is recorded in the said Division of the General Register of Sasines [or as the case may be, and give date of recording]’), and from whom the said C.D. acquired right by (here specify shortly the writ or series of writs by which right was acquired)”; or
 - (c) where there is no recorded title,— “And Whereas the said C.D. acquired right to the said lease (or sub-lease and add, if necessary, “to the extent that it relates to the subjects hereinafter feued”) by (here specify shortly the writ or series of writs by which right was acquired)”.
- 3 Where the subjects disposed in the feu contract are comprised in a lease or a sub-lease which has been assigned by ex facie absolute assignation and the provisions of section fourteen of this Act apply, the form should be suitably adapted to fit the circumstances.
