

Agricultural Marketing Act 1958

1958 CHAPTER 47 6 and 7 Eliz 2

PART I

AGRICULTURAL MARKETING SCHEMES

Supplementary

30 Report to be laid before Parliament.

The Ministers shall in every year lay before Parliament a report—

- (a) upon the operation of all the schemes for the time being in force under this Act; and
- (b) upon the schemes which have been submitted to them since the last report was laid before Parliament under this section but which have not come into force at the date of the report.

31 Consultation between boards and other persons.

- (1) A board shall have power to negotiate with any other person in respect of any matter concerning the marketing of the regulated product, or of any agricultural product from which the regulated product is wholly or partly manufactured or derived, or of any commodity wholly or partly manufactured or derived from the regulated product, and to agree with the other parties to the negotiations to bring into consultation in connection therewith such person as may be agreed between the parties or, in default of agreement, nominated by the Minister.
- (2) A board may pay the whole or any part of the remuneration and expenses of any person whose function it is to advise the board in connection with the exercise of their powers under the scheme, or who is brought in to consultation in connection with negotiations entered into by the board in pursuance of this section.
- (3) Any expenses incurred by a board by virtue of this section shall be deemed to be expenses incurred under the scheme.
