

Public Records Act 1958

1958 CHAPTER 51 6 and 7 Eliz 2

1 General responsibility of the ^[F1]Secretary of State for public records.

- (1) ^[F2]The^[F3]Secretary of State shall be generally responsible for the execution of this Act and shall supervise the care and preservation of public records.
- (2) There shall be an Advisory Council on Public Records to advise the ^[F4]Secretary of State on matters concerning public records in general and, in particular, on those aspects of the work of the Public Record Office which affect members of the public who make use of the facilities provided by the Public Record Office.

The Master of the Rolls shall be chairman of the said Council and the remaining members of the Council shall be appointed by the ^[F4]Secretary of State on such terms as he may specify.

^F5 The matters on which the Advisory Council on Public Records may advise the ^[F6]Secretary of State include matters relating to the application of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to information contained in public records which are historical records within the meaning of Part VI of that Act.]

- (3) The ^[F7]Secretary of State shall in every year lay before both Houses of Parliament a report on the work of the Public Record Office, which shall include any report made to him by the Advisory Council on Public Records.

2 The Public Record Office.

- (1) The [^{F8}Secretary of State] may appoint a Keeper of Public Records to take charge under his direction of the Public Record Office and of the records therein and may, with the concurrence of the Treasury as to numbers and conditions of service, appoint such other persons to serve in the Public Record Office as he may think fit.
- (2) The Keeper of Public Records and other persons appointed under this Act shall receive such salaries and remuneration as the Treasury may from time to time direct.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Keeper of Public Records to take all practicable steps for the preservation of records under his charge.
- (4) The Keeper of Public Records shall have power to do all such things as appear to him necessary or expedient for maintaining the utility of the Public Record Office and may in particular—
 - (a) compile and make available indexes and guides to, and calendars and texts of, the records in the Public Record Office;
 - (b) prepare publications concerning the activities of and facilities provided by the Public Record Office;
 - (c) regulate the conditions under which members of the public may inspect public and other records or use the other facilities of the Public Record Office;
 - (d) provide for the making and authentication of copies of and extracts from records required as evidence in legal proceedings or for other purposes;
 - (e) accept responsibility for the safe keeping of records other than public records;
 - (f) make arrangements for the separate housing of films and other records which have to be kept under special conditions;
 - (g) lend records, in a case where the [^{F9}Secretary of State] gives his approval, for display at commemorative exhibitions or for other special purposes;
 - (h) acquire records and accept gifts and loans.
- (5) The [^{F10}Secretary of State] may by regulations made with the concurrence of the Treasury and contained in a statutory instrument prescribe the fees which may be charged for the inspection of records under the charge of the Keeper of Public Records, for authenticated copies or extracts from such records and for other services afforded by officers of the Public Record Office and authorise the remission of the fees in prescribed cases.
- (6) Fees received under the last foregoing subsection shall be paid into the Exchequer.

3 Selection and preservation of public records.

- (1) It shall be the duty of every person responsible for public records of any description which are not in the Public Record Office or a place of deposit appointed by the [^{F11}Secretary of State] under this Act to make arrangements for the selection of those records which ought to be permanently preserved and for their safe-keeping.
- (2) Every person shall perform his duties under this section under the guidance of the Keeper of Public Records and the said Keeper shall be responsible for co-ordinating and supervising all action taken under this section.
- (3) All public records created before the year sixteen hundred and sixty shall be included among those selected for permanent preservation.
- (4) Public records selected for permanent preservation under this section shall be transferred not later than [^{F12}20 years] after their creation either to the Public Record Office or to such other place of deposit appointed by the [^{F13}Secretary of State] under this Act as the [^{F13}Secretary of State] may direct:

Provided that any records may be retained after the said period if, in the opinion of the person who is responsible for them, they are required for administrative purposes or ought to be retained for any other special reason and, where that person is not the [^{F13}Secretary of State], the [^{F13}Secretary of State] has been informed of the facts and given his approval.

- [^{F14}(4A) Until the end of the period of 10 years beginning with the commencement of section 45 of the Constitutional Reform and Governance Act 2010, subsection (4) has effect subject to any order made under subsection (2) of that section.]
- (5) The [^{F15}Secretary of State] may, if it appears to him in the interests of the proper administration of the Public Record Office, direct that the transfer of any class of records under this section shall be suspended until arrangements for their reception have been completed.
 - (6) Public records which, following the arrangements made in pursuance of this section, have been rejected as not required for permanent preservation shall be destroyed or, subject in the case of records for which some person other than the [^{F16}Secretary of State] is responsible, to the approval of the [^{F16}Secretary of State], disposed of in any other way.
