2 Exchequer advances to building societies.

- (1) Any advance made to a building society under this Act shall be repayable to the Minister at such times and by such methods, and interest thereon shall be payable at such rates and at such times, as the Minister may with the approval of the Treasury direct.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section—
- (a) such advances made to any building society in respect of any financial year shall not exceed the amounts advanced in that year by the society to its members for the purchase or improvement of houses in the United Kingdom satisfying the following conditions, that is to say, that each house was completed before the year nineteen hundred and nineteen and that its estimated value does not exceed two thousand five hundred pounds, or in the Metropolitan Police District or the City of London, three thousand pounds;
  - (b) such an advance shall not be made to a building society if the amount thereof, together with the amount outstanding in respect of any such advances previously made to the society, would exceed one-fifth of the amount outstanding in respect of any funds raised by the society by other means.
- (3) The Minister may by order vary the conditions specified in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section or the fraction specified in paragraph (b) of that subsection.
- (4) Advances made to building societies under this Act shall not together exceed the sum of one hundred million pounds.
- (5) The Treasury may issue to the Minister, out of the [<sup>F4</sup>National Loans Fund], such sums as are necessary to enable him to make such advances . . . <sup>F5</sup>.
- (6) Any sums received by the Minister under subsection (1) of this section shall be paid into the [<sup>F4</sup>National Loans Fund] . . . <sup>F5</sup>.
