SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS AS TO PURCHASE OF OWNER-OCCUPIER'S INTEREST

Effect on powers of compulsory acquisition of counter-notice disclaiming intention to acquire

- 11 (1) The provisions of this paragraph shall have effect where the grounds of objection specified in a counter-notice served under section forty of this Act consist of or include the grounds mentioned in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of that section, and either—
- (a) the objection on the grounds mentioned in that paragraph is referred to and upheld by the Lands Tribunal, or
 - (b) the time for referring that objection to the Lands Tribunal expires without its having been so referred.
- (2) If a compulsory purchase order has been made under the appropriate enactment in respect of land which consists of or includes the whole or part of the hereditament or agricultural unit to which the counter-notice relates, or if the land in question falls within paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section thirty-nine of this Act, any power conferred by that order, or by the special enactment, as the case may be, for the compulsory acquisition of the interest of the claimant in the hereditament or agricultural unit or any part thereof shall cease to have effect.
- (3) If the land in question falls within paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section thirty-nine of this Act, then (without prejudice to the effect of any subsequent designation) the development plan shall have effect as if no part of the hereditament, or (in the case of an agricultural unit) no part of the affected area, were designated therein as land subject to compulsory acquisition.
- 12 (1) The provisions of this paragraph shall have effect where the grounds of objection specified in a counter-notice under section forty of this Act consist of or include the grounds mentioned in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of that section, and either—
- (a) the objection on the grounds mentioned in that paragraph is referred to and upheld by the Lands Tribunal, or
 - (b) the time for referring that objection to the Lands Tribunal expires without its having been so referred.

In the following provisions of this paragraph any reference to " the part of the affected area not required " is a reference to the whole of that area except the part specified in the counter-notice as being the part which the appropriate authority propose to acquire as therein mentioned.

- (2) If a compulsory purchase order has been made under the appropriate enactment in respect of land which consists of or includes any of the part of the affected area not required, or if the land in question falls within paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section thirty-nine of this Act, any power conferred by that order, or by the special enactment, as the case may be, for the compulsory acquisition of the interest of the
