Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C2 Part I extended by Agriculture and Horticulture Act 1964 \(c. 28\), s. 8
- C3 Certain functions of Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food under Part I now exercisable by that Minister and Secretary of State jointly (W.): S.I. 1969/388 art. 3, Sch. 2 Pt. II para. 5(u)

1 Grants for horticultural improvements.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, the appropriate Minister may, in accordance with a scheme made by him with the approval of the Treasury [^{F1}and subject to such exceptions or restrictions as may be provided for by the scheme], make—

- (a) to the person carrying on a horticultural production business,
- (b) to the landlord of land in England or Wales occupied for the purposes of such a business and being or comprised in an agricultural holding within the meaning of the [^{F2}Agricultural Holdings Act 1986], or land in Scotland so occupied and being or comprised in an agricultural holding within the meaning of the ^{M1}Agricultural Holdings (Scotland) Act 1949, a holding to which any of the provisions of the Small Landholders (Scotland) Acts 1886 to 1931, apply or a croft within the meaning of the ^{M2}Crofters (Scotland) Act 1955, a grant of an amount equal to one-third of the amount of expenditure reasonably incurred by him in the carrying out of approved proposals for the provision of specified facilities for the purposes of the business.

(2) ^{F3}

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Horticulture Act 1960. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) References in this Part of this Act to the provision of specified facilities are references to the provision or improvement of buildings, plant or equipment of a kind specified in the scheme, or the carrying out of work of a kind so specified, and include, in so far as the scheme so provides, the provision of shelter belts and the provision as well as the removal of hedges.
- (4) In this section “approved proposals” means proposals approved by the appropriate Minister, . . . ^{F4}
- (5) ^{F5}
- (6) The appropriate Minister may reduce or withhold any grant under this section in any case where assistance in respect of the provision of the facilities is given under any other Act of Parliament.
- (7) A scheme under this section (in this Part of this Act referred to as “a scheme”) may be made for England and Wales, for Scotland, for Northern Ireland, or for any two or all of those parts of the United Kingdom jointly.

- (3) In relation to the making of any other scheme or regulations, references in this Part of this Act to the appropriate Minister are references to the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.
- (4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, in this Part of this Act “the appropriate Minister” means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food in relation to England or Wales or Northern Ireland and the Secretary of State in relation to Scotland.

7 Schemes, regulations and orders under Part I.

- (1) Any power conferred by this Part of this Act to make schemes, regulations or orders shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.
- (2) No scheme shall be made unless a draft thereof has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (3) No order under this Part of this Act shall be made unless a draft thereof has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.
- (4) Any statutory instrument containing regulations under this Part of this Act shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

8 Interpretation of Part I.

- (1) In this Part of this Act “horticultural produce” means—
 - (a) fruit,
 - (b) vegetables of a kind grown for human consumption, including fungi, but not including maincrop potatoes or peas grown for seed, for harvesting dry or for vining,
 - (c) flowers, pot plants and decorative foliage,
 - (d) herbs,
 - (e) seeds other than pea seeds, and bulbs and other material, being seeds, bulbs or material for sowing or planting for the production of fruit, of such vegetables, flowers, plants or foliage as aforesaid, or of herbs, or for reproduction of the seeds, bulbs or other material planted, or
 - (f) trees and shrubs, other than trees grown for the purpose of afforestation;
 but does not include hops.
- (2) In this Part of this Act “horticultural production business” means a business which consists, or so much of a larger business as consists, of the growing in the United Kingdom of horticultural produce for sale or the growing of produce as aforesaid and its storage, preparation for market or transport.
- (3) F13
- (5) In this Part of this Act “preparation for market” does not include canning, bottling, pulping or cooking, or preserving by sterilisation by freezing, by de-hydrating, by heat or by chemical process.

15 Special arrangements for home-grown produce.

(1) If it appears to the Ministers, after consultation with any bodies appearing to them to represent to any substantial extent the interests of producers generally or of any description of producers, that it is expedient for promoting sales of home-grown produce and in the national interest that they should exercise their powers under this subsection, the Ministers may by order establish an organisation which shall have the functions of—

- (a) promoting, assisting or undertaking arrangements for stimulating the consumption, generally or by particular sections of the community, of the produce for which the organisation is established;
- (b) undertaking the certification of that produce, the registration of certification trade-marks and the functions of proprietors of such marks; and
- (c) promoting, assisting or undertaking research into the demand (whether actual or potential) for that produce; and the order shall provide for the incorporation of the organisation by such name as may be specified in the order, with perpetual succession and a common seal ^{F21} and power to hold land without licence in mortmain.]

(2) An order under the foregoing subsection shall provide for the appointment by the Ministers of the members of the organisation, and—

- (a) the number of the members shall not be less than seven nor more than twenty;
- (b) ^{F22} the members, ^{F22} shall be persons appointed after consultation with any bodies appearing to the Ministers to represent to any substantial extent the interests of producers of the produce for which the organisation is established; and the Ministers shall from time to time designate a chairman and a deputy chairman.

(3) If, after such consultation as is mentioned in subsection (1) of this section, it appears to the Ministers that it is expedient that they should exercise their powers under that subsection as respects a particular description of home-grown produce only, the Ministers may make an order under that subsection confined to that description of produce.

(4) An order under subsection (1) of this section may be varied—

- (a) if made by virtue of the foregoing subsection, so as to extend the description of produce as respects which the organisation is constituted;
- (b) in any case, so as to exclude from the operation of the order any description of produce:

Provided that no variation shall be made in pursuance of paragraph (a) of this subsection except after consultation with any bodies appearing to the Ministers to represent to any substantial extent the interests of producers generally or of any description of producers, and no variation shall be made in pursuance of paragraph (b) thereof except after consultation with any bodies appearing to the Ministers to represent to any substantial extent the interests of producers of the produce as respects which the organisation is constituted.

(5) The power to vary conferred by the foregoing subsection shall be exercisable by order made by the Ministers, and any such order may contain such consequential provisions as may be requisite for the purposes of the order, including provision for changing the name or composition of the organisation to which the order relates.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Horticulture Act 1960. (See end of Document for details)

- [^{F23}(6) An order under subsection (1) of this section shall provide for Part II of Schedule I to [^{F24}the ^{M4}House of Commons Disqualifications Act 1975] (which specifies bodies of which the members are disqualified under that Act) to have effect in its application to the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom with the insertion at the appropriate place in alphabetical order of the name of the organisation established by the order.]
- (7) The provisions in that behalf of the First Schedule to this Act shall have effect in relation to any organisation established under this section and its members.
- (8) Any power conferred by this section to make an order shall be exercisable by statutory instrument, and no such order shall be made unless a draft thereof has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

- 2 The Corporation may act notwithstanding a vacancy among its members, and no act of the Corporation shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of a defect in the appointment of any of the members.
- 3 The Corporation may appoint such advisory committees as it thinks fit to consider such matters with which the Corporation may be concerned as it may specify and report thereon to the Corporation, and any such committee may comprise persons who are not members of the Corporation.
- 4 (1) In the case of an equality of votes at any meeting of the Corporation the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- (2) Any application of the seal of the Corporation shall be authenticated by the signature of its chairman or of some member of the Corporation authorised by it to act on his behalf, and of the secretary or some person authorised by the Corporation to act on the secretary’s behalf.
- (3) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, the Corporation may determine its own quorum and procedure and the quorum and procedure of its committees.
- 5 (1) Each member of the Corporation shall hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment; but notwithstanding anything in those terms he may at any time resign his office by notice in writing.
- (2) A person who has held office as a member of the Corporation shall be eligible for reappointment.
- 6 (1) The Corporation—
- (a) shall pay to each of its members, in respect of his office as such, such remuneration (whether by way of salary or fees) and such allowances as the Ministers may, with the approval of the Treasury, determine in the case of that member;
 - (b) may pay to members of any advisory committee, not being members of the Corporation, such allowances as the Ministers may, with the approval of the Treasury, determine; and
 - (c) in the case of any such member of the Corporation as the Ministers may, with the approval of the Treasury, determine, shall pay such pensions or make such payments towards the provision of pensions to or in respect of him as the Ministers may, with the approval of the Treasury, determine.

- (2) The Ministers shall, as soon as possible after the coming into operation of Part II of this Act, lay before each House of Parliament a statement of the remuneration and allowances that are or will be payable to the members of the Corporation under this paragraph; and if any subsequent determination by the Ministers under this paragraph involves any departure from the terms of the said statement or if a determination of the Ministers under this paragraph relates to the payment of, or to payments towards the provision of, a pension to or in respect of any member of the Corporation, the Ministers shall, as soon as possible after the determination, lay a statement thereof before each House of Parliament.
- 7 A member of the Corporation shall, if he is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract made or proposed to be made by the Corporation, disclose the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Corporation as soon as possible after the relevant circumstances have come to his knowledge; and—
- (a) any disclosure made by a member under this paragraph shall be recorded in the minutes of the Corporation;
 - (b) the member shall not take part after the disclosure in any deliberation or decision of the Corporation with respect to the contract;
 - (c) the member shall be disregarded for the purpose of constituting a quorum of the Corporation for any such deliberation or decision.
- 8 (1) The Corporation may appoint a secretary and such other officers and such servants as the Corporation may determine.
- (2) The Corporation shall—
- (a) pay to its officers and servants such remuneration as the Corporation may determine; and
 - (b) as regards any officers or servants in whose case it may be determined by the Corporation with the approval of the Ministers so to do, pay to or in respect of those officers and servants such pensions, or provide and maintain for them such pension schemes (whether contributory or not), as may be so determined.
- (3) Where any officer or servant employed by the Corporation, being a participant in any pension scheme applicable to his office or employment, becomes a member of the Corporation, he may be treated for the purposes of the pension scheme as if his service as a member of the Corporation were service as an officer or servant employed by the Corporation, and his rights under the scheme shall not be affected by any provision of this Schedule which requires that pensions or payments towards the provision of pensions to be paid or made in the case of members of the Corporation shall be determined by the Ministers with the approval of the Treasury.
- 9 In this Schedule “pension”, in relation to a person, means a pension, whether contributory or not, of any kind whatsoever payable to or in respect of him, and includes a gratuity so payable and a return of contributions, with or without interest thereon or any other addition thereto.
