[1.] Right to confirmation to transmit to representatives.

In all cases of intestate succession, where any person or persons who, at the period of the death of the intestate, being next of kin, shall die before confirmation be expedite, the right of such next of kin shall transmit to his or her representatives, so that confirmation may and shall be granted to such representatives, in the same manner as confirmations might have been granted to such next of kin immediately upon the death of such intestate.

2 Court to regulate caution to be found.

Caution shall not be required to be found by

[^{F1}(a) an executor–nominate; or

(b) an intestate’s spouse who shall be executor–dative and has right, by virtue of sections 8 and 9(2) of the Succession (Scotland) Act 1964, to the whole estate.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Confirmation of Executors (Scotland) Act 1823. (See end of Document for details)

In]all other cases the court granting confirmation shall fix the amount of the sum for which caution shall be found by the person or persons to whom confirmation shall be granted, not exceeding the amount confirmed.
