Special Provisions as to Collecting Societies

6 Name of collecting societies.

In the case of any collecting society registered after the thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or of a society which becomes a collecting society after the passing of this Act, the last words in the name of the society shall be “collecting society,” and the society shall use its registered name on all documents issued by it and no other name.

7 Deposits by collecting societies.

- (1) ^{F10}Every collecting society shall be under obligation to deposit with the Accountant General of the Supreme Court the sum of £20,000 and to keep that sum so deposited while it carries on industrial assurance business, and the following provisions shall have effect with respect to deposits under this section, namely,—

[the provision substituted by the Administration of Justice Act 1965 for ^{F11}(a) section 19(1) of the Insurance Companies Act 1958 and the provision so substituted for section 20(1) of that Act, as amended by section 46(2)(c) of the Administration of Justice Act 1982, shall apply for the purposes of this section subject to the modifications that, in the provision so substituted for section 19(1), for the references to a company there shall be substituted references to a collecting society and for the references to section 2 of the ^{M8}Assurance Companies Act 1909 and paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the ^{M9}Insurance Companies Act 1958 there shall be substituted a reference to this section and that regulations under the provisions so substituted for section 20(1) shall be made by the Industrial Assurance Commissioner:

- (b) a deposit under this section shall not be accepted except on a warrant of that Commissioner];
 - (c) In the case of a society registered and carrying on industrial assurance business at the passing of this Act, the deposit shall be made before the commencement of this Act; but in any particular case the Commissioner shall, if satisfied as to the financial position of the society at the time of the passing of this Act, postpone the time for making the deposit to some time within five years after the commencement of this Act, and shall, on the application of the society from time to time, further postpone the time for making the deposit if he is still satisfied as to the financial position of the society, but not for more than five years at any one time:
 - (d) . . . ^{F12}, the deposit shall be made before the society commences to carry on such business:
 - (e) In the case of a society applying
^{F12} for registry under the ^{M10}Friendly Societies Act 1896 or for the registry of amendments of its rules, if the proposed rules of the society or the proposed amendments are such as will enable the society to carry on industrial assurance business, the Commissioner shall not issue to the society an acknowledgment of registry of the society or of amendment of rules, as the case may be, until the deposit has been made:
 - (f) ^{F13}
- (2) If a society feel aggrieved at a refusal of the Commissioner to allow further time for making a deposit under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, the society may, with the leave of the court, appeal to the High Court or, in the case of a society registered in Scotland, to the Court of Session.
- (3) If the Commissioner is satisfied that a collecting society has made default in complying with the provisions of this section, the Commissioner may award that the society be dissolved and its affairs wound up.
- (4) ^{F14}
- (5) Where the rules of a collecting society (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as a subsidiary society), whether registered before or after the passing of this Act, provide that the management of that society shall be vested in the committee of management of some other friendly society (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the principal society) which was registered before the fourth day of August, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, then—
- (a) the principal society may make on behalf of the subsidiary society the deposit required to be made by this section and may apply any of its funds for that purpose, and in that case the interest on the deposit, or the securities in which the deposit is for the time being invested, shall be paid to the principal society and not to the subsidiary society; or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Assurance Act 1923 (repealed). (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the principal society may guarantee the liabilities of the industrial assurance fund of the subsidiary society to the extent of twenty thousand pounds in such manner and subject to such amendment of rules as the Commissioner may require, and the principal society may amend its rules accordingly; and if the Commissioner is satisfied with such guarantee he may accept the guarantee in lieu of the deposit required by this section.

Where the principal society is a society with branches, the rules of the society may provide for the central body of the society borrowing from the branches and the branches lending to the central body funds required for making such a deposit as aforesaid.

- ^{F26}(b) ^{F27}
- (c) The report containing the abstract of the result of the valuation required by section twenty-eight of the ^{M16}Friendly Societies Act 1896 to be sent shall be sent by a collecting society to the Commissioner within twelve months after the close of the period to which the valuation relates, and shall contain a statement as to how the values of stock exchange securities (if any) included in the balance sheet are arrived at, and a certificate, signed by the same persons as sign the balance sheet, to the effect that in their belief the assets set forth in the balance sheet are in the aggregate fully of the value stated therein less any investment reserve fund taken into account;
- (d) Where the balance sheet of a society or company includes amongst the assets thereof any sums representing expenses of organisation or extension, or the purchase of business or good will, and the amount of the assets, exclusive of such sums (after deducting debts due by the society or company other than debentures and loans), is less than the amount of the industrial assurance fund, or, as the case may be, of the several assurance and insurance funds as shown in that balance sheet, the amount of the industrial assurance fund shown in the valuation balance sheet shall be reduced by the amount of the deficiency, or, as the case may be, by a sum bearing such proportion to that deficiency as the amount of the industrial assurance fund shown in the first-mentioned balance sheet bears to the aggregate amount of all the assurance and insurance funds so shown:
- (e) Where debentures have been issued or loans raised which are charged on any of the assets of the company in which the industrial assurance fund is invested, there shall be inserted in the valuation balance sheet a note giving the particulars of the charge and stating that the result shown by the valuation is subject to the liability under the charge;
- (f) The Commissioner, if satisfied on any valuation that any of the foregoing provisions of this section have not been complied with, or that the industrial assurance fund as stated in the valuation balance sheet is greater than the value of the assets available for the liabilities of that fund, due regard being had to the other liabilities of the society or company and to the foregoing provisions of this section, may reject the valuation, and may direct the society or company to make such alteration therein as may be necessary to secure compliance with those provisions:

Provided that the society or company may appeal to the High Court, or in the case of a society or company registered in Scotland to the Court of Session, against any decision of the Commissioner under this paragraph;

- (g) The Commissioner may direct any collecting society or industrial assurance company to furnish to him, in addition to such information as the society is required to furnish under section twenty-eight of the ^{M17}Friendly Societies Act 1896 or the company is required to furnish under the ^{M18}Assurance Companies Act 1909. . . ^{F29} such explanations as he may consider necessary in order to satisfy himself whether the valuation complies with the provisions of this section.

Rights of Owners of Policies

20 Provisions as to proposals for policies.

- (1) Every proposal for an industrial assurance policy shall, except—
- (a) where the policy is taken out on the life and on behalf of a child under the age of sixteen; or
 - ^{F33}(b) where the policy assures a payment of money on the death of a parent or grandparent and is effected in exercise of the power conferred ^{F34}on collecting societies by paragraph 2(d) of Schedule 1 to the ^{M19}Friendly Societies Act 1974 and on industrial assurance companies] by subsection (1) of section two of the ^{M20}Industrial Assurance and Friendly Societies Act 1948 ^{F35}as amended by the ^{M21}Industrial Assurance and Friendly Societies Act 1948 (Amendment) Act 1958]; or]
 - (c) where the person whose life is to be assured under the policy is a person in whom the proposer has an insurable interest; contain a declaration by the person whose life is to be assured that the policy is to be taken out by him, and that the premiums thereon are to be paid by him.

Where the person whose life is to be assured under the policy is a person in whom the proposer has an insurable interest, the proposal shall contain a statement of the nature of that interest.

- (2) A collecting society or industrial insurance company shall not, nor shall any collector or agent of such a society or company, issue a proposal form or accept a proposal which does not comply with the foregoing provisions of this section.
- (3) If the proposal contains a statement that the person whose life is proposed to be assured is not at the time of making the proposal a person on whose life another policy has been issued by the society or company, and a policy is issued in pursuance of the proposal, the society or company shall be liable under the policy, notwithstanding that the statement is not true, and the truth of the statement is made a condition of the policy.
- (4) If a proposal form for an industrial assurance policy is filled in wholly or partly by a person employed by the society or company, the society or company shall not, except where a fraudulent statement in some material particular has been made by the proposer, be entitled to question the validity of the policy founded on the proposal on the ground of any misstatement contained in the proposal form:
Provided that—
- (a) if the proposal form contains a misstatement as to the age of the person whose life is proposed to be assured, the society or company may so adjust the terms of the policy, or of any policy which may be issued in substitution or in lieu thereof, as to make them correspond with the terms which would have been applicable if the correct age of the person had been originally inserted in the proposal;
 - (b) where but for this subsection the validity of a policy could have been questioned on the ground of any misstatement in the proposal form relating to 24 Provisions as to forfeited policies.

- (1) Where notice of the forfeiture of a policy of industrial assurance by reason of default in the payment of any premium thereunder has been served on the owner of the policy, then if the policy—
- (a) is a policy for the whole term of life or for a term of fifty years or upwards, the person whose life is assured under which is a person who is at the time of such default over fifteen years of age, and upon which not less than five years' premiums have been paid; or
 - (b) is a policy for a term of twenty-five years or upwards, but less than fifty years, upon which not less than five years' premiums have been paid; or
 - (c) is a policy for a term of less than twenty-five years upon which not less than three years' premiums have been paid;
- the owner of the policy shall, on making application for the purpose to the collecting society or industrial assurance company within one year from the date of the service of the notice, be entitled—
- (i) to a free paid-up policy for such amount as is hereinafter mentioned payable upon the happening of the contingency upon the happening of which the amount assured under the original policy would have been payable or of any other contingency not less favourable to the owner of the policy; or
 - (ii) if the owner of the policy is permanently resident or submits satisfactory proof of his intention to make his permanent residence outside Great Britain, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands, or if the person whose life is assured has disappeared and his existence is in doubt, to the surrender value of the forfeited policy ascertained in manner hereinafter provided.
- (2) The amount of a free paid-up policy so issued as aforesaid shall not be less than such as may be determined in accordance with the rules contained in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, and shall be ascertained at the date when the premium following the last premium paid became due:
- Provided that the amount of the free paid-up policy shall not exceed the difference between the amount of the forfeited policy (inclusive of any bonus added thereto) and the amount which would be assured by a corresponding policy at the same premium

45 Interpretation.

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

The expression “collector” shall include every person, howsoever remunerated, who, by himself or by any deputy or substitute, makes house to house visits for the purpose of receiving premiums payable on policies of insurance on human life, or holds any interest in a collecting book and includes such a deputy or substitute as aforesaid:

The expression “premium” includes contribution:

The expression “collecting book” includes any book or document held by a collector in which payments of premiums are recorded:

The expression “premium receipt book” includes any book or document held by the owner of a policy in which acknowledgments of receipts of premiums payable in respect of the policy are entered:

The expression “owner” in relation to any policy means the person who is for the time being the person entitled to receive the sums payable under the policy on maturity, and in the case of an illegal policy or a policy not within the legal powers of the society or company which issued it means the person who would be so entitled were the policy a legal policy or a policy within such powers:

The expression “rules” in relation to a company means the memorandum and articles of association of the company:

The expression “the Companies Acts” means the ^{M35}Companies Acts 1908 to 1917, and any Acts repealed by the Companies (Consolidation) Act 1908.

Other expressions have the same meaning as in the ^{M36}Friendly Societies Act 1896.

- (2) Where under this Act the Commissioner awards that a collecting society be dissolved and its affairs wound up, the award shall be made in the like manner and have the like consequences as if it were an award made under [^{F65}section 95 of the ^{M37}Friendly Societies Act 1974] and may direct in what manner the assets are to be divided or appropriated:

Provided that the society may appeal against the award to the High Court or in the case of a society registered in Scotland to the Court of Session.

- (3) The application of this Act to Scotland, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands shall be subject to the same modifications as are expressed in the ^{M38}Friendly Societies Act 1896 with respect to the application of that Act, and for the purposes of this Act the Isle of Man and the several Channel Islands shall be deemed to be counties.

RULES FOR VALUING POLICIES

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C22 Sch. 4 modified by S.I. 1977/1144, Sch. 3 para. 2 and by 1980/1948, Sch. para. 2

- 1 The value of the policy is to be the difference between the present value of the reversion in the sum assured according to the contingency upon which it is payable, including any bonus added thereto, and the present value of the future net premiums.
- 2 The net premium is to be such premium as according to the assumed rate of interest and rate of mortality and the age of the person whose life is assured at his birthday next following the date of the policy is sufficient to provide for the risk incurred by the company or society in issuing the policy, exclusive of any addition thereto for office expenses and other charges:
Provided that—
 - (a) In the case of a policy other than a policy for the whole term of life issued before the person whose life is assured attained the age of ten years, the date of the policy may be assumed to be one year after the actual date, and, if it is so assumed, the term of the policy may be assumed to be one year less than the actual term:

- (b) In the case of a policy for the whole term of life issued before the person whose life is assured attained the age of ten years, no account shall be taken of any period for which the policy was in force before the anniversary of the date of the issue of the policy next preceding the date on which the age of eleven years was attained:
- (c) In the case of a substituted policy, the net premium shall be calculated with reference to such sum as, according to the practice of the society or company for the time being, would have been assured by the premiums payable if the person upon whose life the substituted policy is issued had not been assured with the society or company before the issue of that policy

Rule for Ascertaining the Amount of a Free Paid-up Policy

The amount of a free paid-up policy is to be a sum bearing the same proportion to seventy-five per cent. of the value of the policy as the sum of one pound bears to the value of the reversion in the sum of one pound according to the contingency upon which the sum assured under the original policy was payable.

General Rules applicable both for valuing Policies and for ascertaining the amount of a Free Paid-up Policy

- 1 Interest is to be assumed at the rate of four per centum per annum.
- 2 The rate of mortality is to be assumed according to the table contained in the Sixth column of Table G. in the Supplement to the Sixty-fifth Annual Report of the Registrar-General.
- 3 The age of the person whose life is assured shall be obtained by adding to the age attained by him at his birthday next after the date of the issue of the policy, the duration of the policy in completed years at the date as at which the value of the policy is required to be ascertained.
- 4 In the case of a policy issued for a term other than the whole term of life, the remaining term at the date at which the value of the policy is required to be ascertained shall be obtained by deducting from the original term of the policy the duration of the policy in completed years at that date.
