

Administration of Estates Act 1925

1925 CHAPTER 23 15 and 16 Geo 5

PART IV

DISTRIBUTION OF RESIDUARY ESTATE

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Pt. IV amended by Family Law Reform Act 1969 \(c. 46\), s. 14(3)
C2 Pt. IV (ss. 45–52) amended by Family Law Reform Act 1987 \(c. 42, SIF 49:7\), s. 18(1)(2)(4)

45 Abolition of descent to heir, curtesy, dower and escheat.

- (1) With regard to the real estate and personal inheritance of every person dying after the commencement of this Act, there shall be abolished—
- (a) All existing modes rules and canons of descent, and of devolution by special occupancy or otherwise, of real estate, or of a personal inheritance, whether operating by the general law or by the custom of gavelkind or borough english or by any other custom of any county, locality, or manor, or otherwise howsoever; and
 - (b) Tenancy by the curtesy and every other estate and interest of a husband in real estate as to which his wife dies intestate, whether arising under the general law or by custom or otherwise; and
 - (c) Dower and freebench and every other estate and interest of a wife in real estate as to which her husband dies intestate, whether arising under the general law or by custom or otherwise: Provided that where a right (if any) to freebench or other like right has attached before the commencement of this Act which cannot be barred by a testamentary or other disposition made by the husband, such right shall, unless released, remain in force as an equitable interest; and
 - (d) Escheat to the Crown or the Duchy of Lancaster or the Duke of Cornwall or to a mesne lord for want of heirs.
- (2) Nothing in this section affects the descent or devolution of an entailed interest.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Estates Act 1925, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

46 Succession to real and personal estate on intestacy.

(1) The residuary estate of an intestate shall be distributed in the manner or be held on the trusts mentioned in this section, namely:—

[^{F1}(i) If the intestate leaves a [^{F2}spouse or civil partner], then in accordance with the following table:

[^{F3}TABLE

(1) If the intestate leaves no issue:	the residuary estate shall be held in trust for the surviving spouse or civil partner absolutely.
(2) If the intestate leaves issue:	(A) the surviving spouse or civil partner shall take the personal chattels absolutely; (B) the residuary estate of the intestate (other than the personal chattels) shall stand charged with the payment of a fixed net sum, free of death duties and costs, to the surviving spouse or civil partner, together with simple interest on it from the date of the death at the rate provided for by subsection (1A) until paid or appropriated; and (C) subject to providing for the sum and interest referred to in paragraph (B), the residuary estate (other than the personal chattels) shall be held—(a) as to one half, in trust for the surviving spouse or civil partner absolutely, and (b) as to the other half, on the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate.

The amount of the fixed net sum referred to in paragraph (B) of case (2) of this Table is to be determined in accordance with Schedule 1A.]

(ii) If the intestate leaves issue but no [^{F2}spouse or civil partner], the residuary estate of the intestate shall be held on the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate;

(iii) If the intestate leaves [^{F4}no [^{F2}spouse or civil partner] and] no issue but both parents, then, [^{F5}...], the residuary estate of the intestate shall be held in trust for the father and mother in equal shares absolutely;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Estates Act 1925, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (iv) If the intestate leaves ^{F4}no [^{F2}spouse or civil partner] and] no issue but one parent, then, ^{F5}..., the residuary estate of the intestate shall be held in trust for the surviving father or mother absolutely;
- (v) If the intestate leaves no [^{F6}^{F2}spouse or civil partner] and no issue and no] parent, then ^{F7} ..., the residuary estate of the intestate shall be held in trust for the following persons living at the death of the intestate, and in the following order and manner, namely:—
 - First, on the statutory trusts for the brothers and sisters of the whole blood of the intestate; but if no person takes an absolutely vested interest under such trusts, then
 - Secondly, on the statutory trusts for the brothers and sisters of the half blood of the intestate; but if no person takes an absolutely vested interest under such trusts; then
 - Thirdly, for the grandparents of the intestate and, if more than one survive the intestate, in equal shares; but if there is no member of this class; then
 - Fourthly, on the statutory trusts for the uncles and aunts of the intestate (being brothers or sisters of the whole blood of a parent of the intestate); but if no person takes an absolutely vested interest under such trusts; then
 - Fifthly, on the statutory trusts for the uncles and aunts of the intestate (being brothers or sisters of the half blood of a parent of the intestate); ^{F7} ...;
- (vi) In default of any person taking an absolute interest under the foregoing provisions, the residuary estate of the intestate shall belong to the Crown or to the Duchy of Lancaster or to the Duke of Cornwall for the time being, as the case may be, as bona vacantia, and in lieu of any right to escheat.

The Crown or the said Duchy or the said Duke may (without prejudice to the powers reserved by section nine of the ^{M1}Civil List Act, 1910, or any other powers), out of the whole or any part of the property devolving on them respectively, provide, in accordance with the existing practice, for dependants, whether kindred or not, of the intestate, and other persons for whom the intestate might reasonably have been expected to make provision.

^{F8}(1A) The interest rate referred to in paragraph (B) of case (2) of the Table in subsection (1) (i) is the Bank of England rate that had effect at the end of the day on which the intestate died.]

(2) A husband and wife shall for all purposes of distribution or division under the foregoing provisions of this section be treated as two persons.

[Where the intestate's [^{F2}spouse or civil partner] survived the intestate but died before ^{F9}(2A) the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the intestate died, this section shall have effect as respects the intestate as if the [^{F2}spouse or civil partner] had not survived the intestate.]

^{F10}(3)

[The interest payable on [^{F12}the fixed net sum] payable to a surviving [^{F2}spouse or civil ^{F11}(4) partner] shall be primarily payable out of income.]

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Estates Act 1925, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- [In subsection (1A) “Bank of England rate” means—
- ^{F13}(5) (a) the rate announced by the Monetary Policy Committee of the Bank of England as the official bank rate, or
- (b) where an order under section 19 of the Bank of England Act 1998 (reserve powers) is in force, any equivalent rate determined by the Treasury under that section.
- (6) The Lord Chancellor may by order made by statutory instrument amend the definition of “Bank of England rate” in subsection (5) (but this subsection does not affect the generality of subsection (7)(b)).
- (7) The Lord Chancellor may by order made by statutory instrument—
- (a) amend subsection (1A) so as to substitute a different interest rate (however specified or identified) for the interest rate for the time being provided for by that subsection;
- (b) make any amendments of, or repeals in, this section that may be consequential on or incidental to any amendment made by virtue of paragraph (a).
- (8) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (6) is subject to annulment pursuant to a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (9) A statutory instrument containing an order under subsection (7) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.]]

[^{F14}46A Disclaimer or forfeiture on intestacy

- (1) This section applies where a person—
 - (a) is entitled in accordance with section 46 to an interest in the residuary estate of an intestate but disclaims it, or
 - (b) would have been so entitled had the person not been precluded by the forfeiture rule from acquiring it.
- (2) The person is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as having died immediately before the intestate.
- (3) But in a case within subsection (1)(b), subsection (2) does not affect the power conferred by section 2 of the Forfeiture Act 1982 (power of court to modify the forfeiture rule).
- (4) In this section “forfeiture rule” has the same meaning as in the Forfeiture Act 1982.]

47 Statutory trusts in favour of issue and other classes of relatives of intestate.

- (1) Where under this Part of this Act the residuary estate of an intestate, or any part thereof, is directed to be held on the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate, the same shall be held upon the following trusts, namely:—
 - (i) In trust, in equal shares if more than one, for all or any the children or child of the intestate, living at the death of the intestate, who attain the age of [^{F15}eighteen years] or marry under that age [^{F16}or form a civil partnership under that age], and for all or any of the issue living at the death of the intestate who attain the age of [^{F15}eighteen years] or marry [^{F17}, or form a civil partnership,] under that age of any child of the intestate who predeceases the intestate, such issue to take through all degrees, according to their stocks, in equal shares if more than one, the share which their parent would have taken if living at the death of the intestate, and so that [^{F18}(subject to section 46A)] no issue shall take whose parent is living at the death of the intestate and so capable of taking;
 - (ii) The statutory power of advancement, and the statutory provisions which relate to maintenance and accumulation of surplus income, shall apply, but when an infant marries [^{F19}, or forms a civil partnership,] such infant shall be entitled to give valid receipts for the income of the infant’s share or interest;
 - ^{F20}(iii)
 - (iv) The personal representatives may permit any infant contingently interested to have the use and enjoyment of any personal chattels in such manner and subject to such conditions (if any) as the personal representatives may consider reasonable, and without being liable to account for any consequential loss.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Administration of Estates Act 1925, Part IV. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) If the trusts in favour of the issue of the intestate fail by reason of no child or other issue attaining an absolutely vested interest—
- (a) the residuary estate of the intestate and the income thereof and all statutory accumulations, if any, of the income thereof, or so much thereof as may not have been paid or applied under any power affecting the same, shall go, devolve and be held under the provisions of this Part of this Act as if the intestate had died without leaving issue living at the death of the intestate;
 - (b) references in this Part of this Act to the intestate “leaving no issue” shall be construed as “leaving no issue who attain an absolutely vested interest”;
 - (c) references in this Part of this Act to the intestate “leaving issue” or “leaving a child or other issue” shall be construed as “leaving issue who attain an absolutely vested interest.”
- (3) Where under this Part of this Act the residuary estate of an intestate or any part thereof is directed to be held on the statutory trusts for any class of relatives of the intestate, other than issue of the intestate, the same shall be held on trusts corresponding to the statutory trusts for the issue of the intestate (other than the provision for bringing any money or property into account) as if such trusts (other than as aforesaid) were repeated with the substitution of references to the members or member of that class for references to the children or child of the intestate.
- [^{F21}(4) References in paragraph (i) of subsection (1) of the last foregoing section to the intestate leaving, or not leaving, a member of the class consisting of brothers or sisters of the whole blood of the intestate and issue of brothers or sisters of the whole blood of the intestate shall be construed as references to the intestate leaving, or not leaving, a member of that class who attains an absolutely vested interest.]
- [^{F22}(4A) Subsections (2) and (4) are subject to section 46A.]
- [^{F23}(4B) Subsections (4C) and (4D) apply if a beneficiary under the statutory trusts—
- (a) fails to attain an absolutely vested interest because the beneficiary dies without having reached 18 and without having married or formed a civil partnership, and
 - (b) dies leaving issue.
- (4C) The beneficiary is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as having died immediately before the intestate.
- (4D) The residuary estate (together with the income from it and any statutory accumulations of income from it) or so much of it as has not been paid or applied under a power affecting it is to devolve accordingly.]
