83 General adaptation of enactments and other documents.

- (1) Save as in this Part of this Act otherwise expressly provided, any provisions of any document directing that expenditure falling to be defrayed by two or more local authorities shall be apportioned between those authorities by reference to some value (other than rateable value) as appearing in or ascertained from the valuation list for the time being in force or as shown in, or ascertained in accordance with the Acts relating to, the basis or standard of county rates shall, . . . <sup>F46</sup>, have effect as if for any reference to that value there were therein substituted—
  - (a) in the case of a document, not being an enactment, as respects which a value is agreed upon by the local authorities concerned, a reference to that value; and
  - (b) in the case of any such document as respects which a value is not so agreed upon, and in the case of an enactment, a reference to rateable value as shown by the valuation list for the time being in force.
- (2) Save as in this Part of this Act otherwise expressly provided, any provision of any document directing that the amount of any payment, not being a payment to which the last foregoing subsection applies, shall be determined by reference to some value as appearing in or ascertained from the valuation list for the time being in force or as shown in, or ascertained in accordance with the Acts relating to, the basis or standard of county rates shall, . . . <sup>F46</sup>, have effect as if for any reference to that value there were therein substituted—
  - (a) in the case of a document, not being an enactment, as respects which a value is—
    - (i) agreed upon by all persons having rights or obligations under the document; or
    - (ii) determined, in default of such agreement, by an arbitrator appointed by the Minister on an application made to him by or on behalf of any such person, a reference to the value so agreed upon or determined; and
  - (b) in the case of an enactment, a reference to such value as may be determined by order of the Minister on application made to him by any such person as aforesaid.
- (3) Before making any order under this section, the Minister shall require the applicants to serve a copy of the draft order upon any local authority affected and to give, in terms approved by him and in such manner as he may consider best adapted for informing any other persons affected, public notice of the application for the order and as to the manner in which and the time within which objections to the order may be made, and shall consider any objection which may be duly made within four weeks from the date of the notice, and in the event of any objection being so made and not withdrawn the Minister shall make the order as a provisional order which shall not have effect unless and until confirmed by Parliament.

115 Parish property.

(1) ..... F59

(2) ..... F60

(3) The council of any county borough or urban district and the parish meeting of any rural parish not having a parish council may exercise the powers of executing works in relation to parish property which are by paragraph (i) of subsection (1) of section eight of the <sup>M2</sup>Local Government Act, 1894, conferred on parish councils.

(4) Any expenses incurred by the council of a county borough or urban district in relation to parish property shall be defrayed as the council may determine—
(a) from the general rate of the county borough or urban district; or
(b) by means of a levy of an additional item of the general rate on the parish or parishes to which the property belongs.

(5) ..... F61

(6) For the purposes of this section . . . <sup>F62</sup> “parish property” means any property the rents and profits of which are applicable or, if the property were let, would be applicable to the general benefit of one or more parishes, or the ratepayers, parishioners or inhabitants thereof, but does not include—

- (a) property given or bequeathed by way of charitable, donation or allotted in right of some charitable donation or otherwise for the poor persons of any parish or parishes if the income of the property is not applicable to the general benefit of the ratepayers or other persons as aforesaid;
- (b) property acquired by a board of guardians for the purposes of their functions in the relief of the poor.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Local Government Act 1929. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) In the application of this section to [<sup>F63</sup>Greater London] references to an urban district shall be construed as references to the City of London and to a [<sup>F63</sup>London borough], references to the council of an urban district shall be construed as references to the common council of the City of London and to the council of a [<sup>F63</sup>London borough], and references to the general rate of an urban district shall be construed as references to the general rate of the parish to which the property belongs.
