Commencement Information

I1 Act wholly in force at Royal Assent.

1 Power of competent authorities to obtain information.

- (1) For the purpose of obtaining the information necessary for the appreciation of economic trends and the provision of a statistical service for industry and for the discharge by government departments of their functions, it shall be lawful for a competent authority by notice in writing served on any person carrying on an undertaking to require that person to furnish, in such form and manner and within such time as may be specified in the notice, such periodical or other estimates or returns, about such of the matters set out in the Schedule to this Act as may be so specified.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Statistics of Trade Act 1947. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The notice shall state that it is served under this section of this Act and generally the purpose for which the estimates or returns are required.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C5 S. 1(1) extended (S.) (1.4.1991) by Enterprise and New Towns \(Scotland\) Act 1990 \(c. 35, SIF 64\), s. 12(1)

2 Census of production, distribution and services.

- (1) The Board of Trade shall, for the purpose of providing at intervals general surveys of the state of trade and business, take a census of production in the year nineteen hundred and forty-nine and in every subsequent year, and a census of distribution and other services in any year that may be prescribed by order of the Board, being a calendar year beginning not less than twelve months after the date of the order.
- (2) Any person carrying on an undertaking may be required to furnish returns for the purposes of a census under this Act; and the census may either be taken so as to cover all undertakings in the field of production, distribution or other services, as the case may be, or may be confined to such classes or descriptions of those undertakings respectively as may be prescribed; and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the Board of Trade may by order provide for exempting from the obligation to furnish returns for the purposes of a census under this Act, either wholly or to the prescribed extent, and either unconditionally or subject to the prescribed conditions, any persons or any prescribed class or description of persons.
- (3) The matters about which a person may be required to furnish returns for the purposes of a census under this Act shall be such of the matters set out in the Schedule to this Act as may be prescribed.
- (4) A census under this Act shall require returns to be furnished with respect to the calendar year next preceding the date of the census:

Provided that the Board of Trade may make arrangements for allowing a person, for whom it would be inconvenient to furnish returns with respect to that calendar year, to furnish returns with respect to some other period of twelve months.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C6 Certain functions of the Secretary of State transferred by S.I. 1989/992, art. 2(1)(2)

3 Returns for the purposes of census.

- (1) The Board of Trade shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, prepare and issue such forms and instructions as they deem necessary for the taking of a census under this Act.
- (2) A person shall not be required to furnish returns for the purposes of a census under this Act except in pursuance of a notice in writing from the Board of Trade requiring him to do so; and the Board shall issue, with the notice, the forms required to be filled up by that person.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Statistics of Trade Act 1947. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The Board of Trade may delegate any of their functions under the two last foregoing subsections to any other competent authority; and references therein to the Board shall include references to any other authority to whom those functions have been so delegated.

A notice issued by a competent authority in pursuance of powers delegated to that authority shall state that it is so issued.

- (4) A person required to furnish returns for the purposes of a census under this Act shall, on or before such day being not less than two months after the service of the said notice as may be specified therein, comply with that requirement in such manner as may be so specified:

Provided that in its application to a person who has been allowed to furnish returns with respect to a period ending not later than the thirty-first day of October in the calendar year preceding the date on which the said notice is served on him, the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall have effect as if for the reference therein to two months there were substituted a reference to one month.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C7 Certain functions of the Secretary of State transferred by S.I. 1989/992, art. 2\(1\)\(2\)

4 Offences relating to returns.

- (1) If any person required to furnish estimates or returns under this Act fails to furnish those estimates or returns as required under this Act, he shall, unless he proves that he had reasonable excuse for the failure, be liable on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F1</sup>fifty pounds][<sup>F1</sup>level 4 on the standard scale], or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F1</sup>two hundred pounds][<sup>F1</sup>level 4 on the standard scale].
- (2) If the failure in respect of which a person is convicted under the last foregoing subsection is continued after the conviction he shall be guilty of a further offence and may on summary conviction thereof be punished accordingly.
- (3) If any person in purported compliance with a requirement to furnish such estimates or returns as aforesaid, knowingly or recklessly makes any statement in those estimates or returns which is false in a material particular, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, or on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, or, in either case, to both such imprisonment and such fine.

Textual Amendments

F1 Words “level 4 on the standard scale” substituted (S.) for “fifty pounds” and “two hundred pounds” in each case by virtue of Criminal Procedure \(Scotland\) Act 1975 \(c. 21, SIF 39:1\), ss. 289E–289G

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C8 Criminal Justice Act 1982 (c. 48, SIF 39:1), ss. 35 (in relation to liability on first and subsequent convictions), 38 (increase of fines) and 46 (substitution of references to levels on the standard scale) apply (E.W.)

5 Power to prescribe additional subjects of inquiry by Order in Council.

- (1) His Majesty may by Order in Council amend the Schedule to this Act by adding to the matters specified therein any other matter.
- (2) An Order under this section may amend the said Schedule as aforesaid generally, or so far as it applies, under section one of this Act, to inquiries by competent authorities or, under section two of this Act, to censuses; or so far as it applies to any particular inquiry or census or to any class or description of inquiries or censuses.
- (3) A draft of any Order in Council proposed to be made under this section shall be laid before each House of Parliament; and the draft shall not be submitted to His Majesty in Council unless each House of Parliament presents an address to His Majesty praying that the Order may be made.

6 Duty to notify undertakings to Board of Trade or other competent authority.

- (1) If the Board of Trade publish, by advertisement in the Gazette, and in such newspapers as may appear to the Board to be sufficient for notifying the persons concerned, a list of any classes or descriptions of undertakings in relation to which returns will be required for the purposes of a particular census under this Act, it shall be the duty of every person carrying on an undertaking of any such class or description as aforesaid, who has not received a notice under subsection (2) of section three of this Act, to inform such person as may be specified in the advertisement, within such period, being not less than twenty-one days after the date of publication of the advertisement, as may be specified therein, that he is carrying on such an undertaking as aforesaid, and to give to that person such prescribed particulars of the undertaking as may be so specified.
- (2) The Board of Trade may delegate any of their functions under the last foregoing subsection to any other competent authority and references therein to the Board shall include references to any other competent authority to whom those functions have been so delegated.
- (3) If any person fails to give any information or particulars as required by this section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F2</sup>level 1 on the standard scale]; but it shall be a defence for any person charged with an offence under this subsection to prove that he did not know and had reasonable cause for not knowing that he was required so to give that information or those particulars.
- (4) If any person knowingly or recklessly makes a statement in any particulars given as aforesaid which is false in a material particular, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, or on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, or, in either case, to both such imprisonment and such a fine.
- (5) In this section the expression “the Gazette” means,—

Status: Point in time view as at 15/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Statistics of Trade Act 1947. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in relation to an advertisement concerning undertakings in England and Wales only, the London Gazette;
- (b) in relation to an advertisement concerning undertakings in Scotland only, the Edinburgh Gazette;
- (c) in relation to any other advertisement, the London Gazette and the Edinburgh Gazette.

7 Report to Parliament.

As soon as practicable after any census under this Act is complete the Board of Trade shall present to Parliament a report of their proceedings in connection with the taking of the census, and a summary of the statistics obtained including, if the Board think fit, any statistics obtained by the Board or other competent authority otherwise than by means of a census under this Act, or statistics obtained by a department of the Government of Northern Ireland and communicated by that department to the Board for the purposes of this section; and the summary shall contain separate statements relating to Scotland and Wales.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C10 Certain functions of the Secretary of State transferred by S.I. 1989/992, art. 2\(1\)\(2\)

8 Advisory committees.

- (1) The Board of Trade shall arrange for the appointment of one or more committees, including persons engaged in, or otherwise conversant with the conditions of, various trades and businesses, for the purpose of advising the Board or any other competent authority to whom functions have been delegated under section three of this Act with regard to the preparation of the forms and instructions necessary for the taking of a census and the making of orders by the Board under this Act and of advising the Board or any other competent authority with regard to such other matters under this Act as may be referred to those committees.
- (2) There may be paid to the members of any such committee as aforesaid such travelling and other allowances as the Board of Trade may with the consent of [<sup>F3</sup>the Treasury] determine.
- (3) Committees may be appointed under this section to advise specially about any special forms, instructions or orders or generally about any class or description of forms, instructions or orders that may be assigned to them.

Status: Point in time view as at 15/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Statistics of Trade Act 1947. (See end of Document for details)

9 Disclosure of information.

- (1) No individual estimates or returns, and no information relating to an individual undertaking, obtained under the foregoing provisions of this Act, shall, without the previous consent in writing of the person carrying on the undertaking which is the subject of the estimates, returns or information, be disclosed except—
  - [<sup>F4</sup>(a) where the estimates, returns or information are in the possession of a government department and the Minister in charge of the department so directs, to a government department or the Scottish Ministers for the purposes of the exercise by the department or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers of any of their functions,
  - (aa) where the estimates, returns or information are in the possession of the Scottish Administration and the Scottish Ministers so direct, to a government department for the purposes of the exercise by the department of any of their functions,]
  - (b) for the purposes of any proceedings for an offence under this Act or any report of those proceedings.
- (2) If any information to be obtained for the purposes of a census under this Act is also obtainable under any other enactment which restricts the disclosure of information obtained thereunder, and the Board of Trade are of opinion that similar restrictions should be applied to any information to be obtained for the purposes of the census, the Board shall by order provide for the application, without modifications or with such adaptations or modifications as the Board think fit, of those restrictions to the information to be so obtained, or any part thereof, in addition to the restrictions imposed by this section.
- (3) Without prejudice to the provisions of the last foregoing subsection, if it appears to the Board of Trade that—
  - (a) the nature of the information to be obtained for the purposes of a census under this Act, or
  - (b) the nature of the undertakings to be covered by the census, would make it desirable to impose restrictions on the disclosure of information obtained by means of the census additional to the restrictions imposed by this section, the Board of Trade may by order prohibit the disclosure of information relating to particular undertakings obtained by means of the census, or any part of that information, except to such persons or for such purposes as may be specified in the order.
- (4) No order shall be made under this section unless a draft thereof has been laid before Parliament and has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) The following provisions shall have effect with respect to any report, summary or other communication to the public of information obtained under the foregoing provisions of this Act—

Status: Point in time view as at 15/04/2005.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Statistics of Trade Act 1947. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) no such report, summary or communication shall disclose the number of returns received with respect to the production of any article if that number is less than five;
- (b) in compiling any such report, summary or communication the competent authority shall so arrange it as to prevent any particulars published therein from being identified as being particulars relating to any individual person or undertaking except with the previous consent in writing of that person or the person carrying on that undertaking, as the case may be; but this provision shall not prevent the disclosure of the total quantity or value of any articles produced, sold or delivered; so, however, that before disclosing any such total the competent authority shall have regard to any representations made to them by any person who alleges that the disclosure thereof would enable particulars relating to him or to an undertaking carried on by him to be deduced from the total disclosed.

[<sup>F5</sup>(5A) In subsection (5)(b) of this section the references to the total quantity or value of any articles produced, sold or delivered shall, in relation to coal of any particular description, include a reference to each of the following, that is to say—

- (a) the total quantity or value of the coal of that description which is consumed in Great Britain by persons who carry on coal-mining operations;
- (b) the total quantity or value of the coal of that description which, in Great Britain, is held as stocks by such persons; and
- (c) the total quantity or value of the coal of that description which is delivered in Great Britain to persons who appear to the competent authority to be all of the same description;

and in this subsection “coal” means coal within the meaning of the Coal Industry Act 1994 or any product of coal and “coal-mining operations” has the same meaning as in that Act.]

- (6) If any person discloses any individual estimates or returns or any information contrary to the provisions of this section, or of any order made under this section, he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, or on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine not exceeding five hundred pounds, or, in either case, to both such imprisonment and such a fine.
