

Wellington Museum Act 1947

CHAPTER 46

WELLINGTON MUSEUM ACT 1947

- 1 Transfer of Apsley House and certain Wellington heirlooms and other chattels.
- 2 Use of part of Apsley House as a museum, etc.
- 3 Right of Dukes of Wellington to occupy part of Apsley House.
- 4 Rates and taxes.
- 5 Duty of Minister and Duke as to maintenance.
- 6 Destruction of or damage to Apsley House.
- 7 Power to vary the Second Schedule to this Act.
- 8 Expenses.
- 9
- 10 Short title.

SCHEDULES

FIRST SCHEDULE —

SECOND — SCHEDULE
Part I

Portions of Apsley House to be used as museum

The portions of the ground and first floors of Apsley...
Part II

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wellington Museum Act 1947. (See end of Document for details)

Rights of access to be enjoyed by the Dukes of Wellington to the portions of Apsley House which they are entitled to occupy

- 1 A right of access through the side door marked A...
- 2 A right of access through the door in the basement...

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wellington Museum Act 1947.