Section 2.

PERMANENT ENACTMENT OF PROVISIONS OF CERTAIN DEFENCE REGULATIONS

Provisions reproducing part of Regulation 40AA of Defence (General) Regulations 1939

Extension of power to appoint special constables nominated by the Admiralty, Army Council or Air Council.

- 1 (1) The power conferred by section three of the ^{M1}Special Constables Act 1923, to appoint persons [^{F7}nominated by the [^{F8}Defence Council]], to be special constables within the places and limits therein mentioned shall extend to the appointment of persons [^{F7}so nominated] to be special constables in, and within fifteen miles of, any [^{F7}other] premises in Great Britain which are for the time being in the possession or under the control of [^{F7}[^{F8}the Defence Council, the Secretary of State for Defence] or] the Minister of Supply, [^{F7}or are for the time being used for or in connection with naval, military or air force purposes], and the said section three shall have effect accordingly.
- (2) A resident magistrate within the meaning of the ^{M2}Summary Jurisdiction and Criminal Justice Act (Northern Ireland) 1935, may appoint such persons as may be nominated for the purpose by the [^{F9}the [^{F8}Defence Council]][^{F9}an authority who by virtue of any enactment are authorised to make nominations under section 3 of the Special Constables Act 1923] to be special constables at any premises in Northern Ireland which are, for the time being, in the possession or under the control of [^{F10}[^{F8}the Defence Council, the Secretary of State for Defence] or] the Minister of Supply [^{F10}or are specified by the [^{F8}Defence Council] to be, for the time being, used for or in connection with naval, military or air force purposes]; and every person so appointed shall make a declaration before the resident magistrate duly to execute the office of constable at the premises aforesaid, and, when he has made that declaration, shall at those premises have the same powers and privileges and be liable to the same duties and responsibilities as a constable in Northern Ireland.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Emergency Laws (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1947. (See end of Document for details)

Special constables appointed under this paragraph shall be under the exclusive control of the authority on whose nomination they are appointed and that authority shall have power to suspend or terminate the appointment of any such special constable.

. . . F11

- (3) Any appointment made by virtue of Regulation forty AA of the Defence (General) Regulations 1939, and in force immediately before the date on which this Act comes into force, shall be deemed to have been made by virtue of the preceding provisions, and any special constable who, immediately before that date, is authorised by paragraph (3) of the said Regulation to act within the premises and limits mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) hereof, shall continue to be authorised so to act.
