

National Assistance Act 1948

1948 CHAPTER 29

PART I

INTRODUCTORY.

1 Supersession of existing poor law.

The existing poor law shall cease to have effect, and shall be replaced by the provisions of Part II of this Act as to the rendering, out of moneys provided by Parliament, of assistance to persons in need, the provisions of Part III of this Act as to accommodation and other services to be provided by local authorities, and the related provisions of Part IV of this Act.
