8 Provisions as to training for agricultural occupations.

- (1) The appropriate Minister may, with the approval of the Treasury, provide, or make arrangements for the provision by other persons of, facilities for the training in agricultural occupations of persons, whether employed or not, who are above the upper limit of the compulsory school age, for the purpose of assisting those persons to fit themselves for, obtain and retain employment therein suitable to their age and capacity.
- (2) Where the appropriate Minister makes arrangements for the provision of such facilities by other persons, he may, in such cases and subject to such conditions as he may with the approval of the Treasury determine, defray or contribute towards the cost of the facilities provided.
- (3) References in this section to the provision of facilities for such training as aforesaid shall be construed as including references—
 - (a) to the making of payments to persons who avail themselves of the facilities, in respect of their maintenance or in respect of their travelling expenses;
 - (b) to the provision of residential accommodation, board and facilities for recreation and welfare for such persons; and
 - (c) to the provision of any other facilities or services incidental to the purposes of the training.
- (4) Expenses incurred by the appropriate Minister under this section shall, subject to the next following subsection, be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.
